

April Newsletter

Our pictures this month come from several different artists. The picture of Yoda came from Nevenko, another wonderful contributor in California. Karen Singer sent the Full Moon picture, the beautiful orange butterfly on the orange flower and the wonderful jasmine pictures.

We watched the movie “The Queen of Versailles” the other night. It is about a man who got very rich in the time share business and then everything collapsed. The family was building the largest house in the US—90,000 sq. ft. When the business fell through the changes that were required were ignored. The family continued to live as though there was money.

I have seen many documentaries on numerous families that were living in motels or their cars after foreclosure. This family continued to live in a 28,000 sq. ft. home that was so large no one really knew what was going on. There were eight children who had been raised with servants to do everything for them. At one point toward the end of the movie the father, who was not raised in wealthy conditions, was complaining that all of the lights in the house were on. You almost got the feeling that no one knew how to turn them off. The staff shut the lights out when they left for the night. No one cleaned up after themselves. They live impoverished in tremendous wealth. It is really a very sad movie because it shows just how out of touch so many people are. They have lots of stuff and lots of distractions but very little if any love.

This is my personal opinion for what it is worth: I don't believe it hurts any child to learn how to clean house, wash dishes, make a bed or pick-up after themselves even if they don't have to. Somewhere in life they might have to use the skills learned in childhood and the education can pay off.

The necessity for being present with ourselves becomes more imperative all of the time. We are required to know the difference between how EGO advice feels and the supportive, loving energy of Spirit.

I have been having heart episodes for a while. I have been to the doctor only to find that what I was given for my heart was detrimental to other organs. I came to realize that I must get really clear about what is physical and what is energetic. This has nothing to do with avoidance or not wanting to acknowledge the changes that are occurring. Saying nothing is going on can be a Fool's game. We all have a lot of energy shifts taking place. Many of the strange melt-downs that are occurring are coming from the fear of these unexplained changes that are happening on all levels.

The other morning I awoke to my heart beating very fast. I do not take the heart meds daily, but I do have some on hand “just in case”. I got up and took one of the capsules. They are time release and usually begin to work in under an hour. I waited and things seemed to settle down. Suddenly, my heart was beating in a very strange way. I was wondering if I would be well served to go to the ER, when St. Germain said, quietly but firmly, “We are bringing your heart on line for the fifth dimension.” I knew that I had not been feeling fear or concern, but I truly desire to take good care of myself. When he spoke to me a huge sense of calm filled me up. I experienced an “inner light show” of beautiful white light and rainbow colors in the heart area. “The Heart Seed” that St. Germain has been talking about was brilliant in white, blue-white and rainbow lights. Physically my chest is sore and I feel somewhat uncomfortable, but energetically I feel changes that are unexplainable any other way than what St. Germain has said.

St. Germain has said that many people are rushing to the ER or doctor and taking meds that potentially can do more harm than good simply because that is what they have always done. We are being challenged to be so much more aligned with ourselves than we can ever remember being before. There is so much going on that people—medical or otherwise—cannot keep up with everything. The drive to make money at all costs is making the necessity to be clear for ourselves more profound than ever. Drugs are not tested. Many are simply Ok’ed by the FDA because enough money is paid to get them through. Then the legal profession gets their piece of the pie when the drugs fail and there are law suits.

As we are raising our frequencies we are becoming more aware of gut level instinct, our intuition is getting sharper, clearer. This is a gift that we have always carried but have moved away from in the illusion. Now we are feeling the nudge to trust this inner knowing, but we have moved out of trust with ourselves. We must be there to support ourselves and not give our lives away to anyone, but especially to the drug companies and medical industry.

We are being moved into higher frequencies because the planet is up spiraling, but we are required to understand that as we keep our intellectual, emotional focus on positive things we begin to experience more wonderful outcomes in every area of our lives. We have been educated to believe that others are responsible for us and we are responsible for others, but no one can be responsible for anyone else if they are not clear and present with themselves. We cannot change anyone else’s life by force any longer. The more pressure that is applied to our daily affairs the more we are being shown that the old ways ARE NOT WORKING.

When we were going to Billings for my check-up Dorian asked St. Germain about manifestation. The question was: “Why can’t I just wave a wand and put new ball joints in Molly’s car?”

St. Germain answered that there are implications in manifestation that the mind does not consider. First the mind only focuses on the immediate concern, rather than the many things that have contributed to the present outcome. Since everything is connected to everything else there are components that are important considerations. For example: The mechanic that has checked the vehicle sees what is happening to the ball joints and makes an assessment. The car is either brought in for something else or brought back to him for repair of ball joints and they are mended. The mechanic knows what he saw and now it isn’t there. The ripple effect goes out and he has to deal with all of the questions of what happened.

It doesn’t mean that the ball joints cannot be fixed energetically, but in present energy it might be kinder to just manifest the currency to fix the vehicle without excessive magik for now. Mastery is paying attention to outcomes. Mastery is not a show of power that can possibly create more fear, but the power to be gentle and compassionate in consideration of all the people involved.

Dorian had found an artificial iris, which is one of St. Germain’s symbols, on the road at the cemetery when she was taking her walk. She asked St. Germain if that was an accident or a manifestation. He answered that it was a Love note. She said, “What is the difference between a Love note and ball joints?”

St. Germain said that the Love note was private between he and Dorian and ball joints are a different perspective. As we manifest in the world it is like a pebble dropped into the cosmic waters and the ripples go out and influence everyone. The Love note also has influence, but the energy of Love is a pure energy. Manifestation can, potentially, bring energies that are not so pure or loving. We are Masters and you are all Masters, but you are in the process of accepting that concept for yourself within. That is the piece that has been hidden throughout the game of illusions.

Next Dorian asked about ascension. She something like when we ascend St. Germain said THIS IS IT. YOUR LIFE IS IN ASCENSION. YOU ARE ASCENDING NOW. THERE IS NO OUT THERE, ONE OF THESE DAYS, SOMEWHERE ELSE. It is now!!! Stop struggling. The more you struggle the harder you make something that does not have to be hard. The tiniest struggle magnifies into a major war within over all of the old judgments that no longer apply.

I am constantly thankful for the consistent presence of St. Germain and the other Masters in my life. I also understand that I am required to be involved in the forward motion of my life. The Masters are loving. They give assistance and support, teaching in clear and powerful ways, but they are not doing anything for me without my participation. I do not give them a list of my wants and needs and expect that they must fill the list. When the Bible says, “Ask and you shall receive” it is not a promise that everything we want will happen just the way we want it.

St. Germain is spending more and more time with us, speaking of the changes and encouraging us to find the inner Truth that guides us to ascension. The energy supports us as we allow the messages to assist us to merge with the inner realms. It is amazing just how wonderful we all are even if we do not believe it. St. Germain’s gentle humor and infinite patience are so uplifting. Gone are the days of abuse as a way of growth. The gentlest things have the greatest strength. To feel within self the gentleness and the power of self at the same time as they blend to bring deeper awareness. I am hearing from many people about the help that they are receiving from the Masters as we open to the shifts and changes.

I also have angry people calling me, wanting to know why their life is not working and “WHEN IS IT GOING TO GET BETTER”? They proceed to tell me how hard they are working, how they said they did not what these things in their lives anymore and what good people they are. What they do not understand is that we create by the energy in our thoughts and actions. The anger that they are projecting is damming the flow of the good that they want and the good they are calling. It is as though an invisible wall is preventing the positive outcomes from reaching them. They want to keep being angry, keep being victims, keep reciting their litany of lack and get every wonderful thing on their list. Sometimes, someone will tell me some of the things that have happened that are positive and then complain that they didn’t get everything that they asked for. When we focus on lack we get it. When we live in dissatisfaction we get it. When we dwell within us “In the House of the Lord” that’s when we truly GET IT!! The goodness of life is not and never has been for a chosen few. It does appear to be that way because those who are trying the hardest to get the good often seem to be the ones who cannot seem to obtain it, but it is always a mind set that is in the way and when there is a relaxation of rigid beliefs the energy of God’s blessings rushes in to any and all. We are so Loved!!!

When we remember that God is within us—always has been and always will be—then we can live Spirit every moment of every day. It is an uplifting and sustaining essence that belongs to us, but we have to recognize that it is there and then hold the energy in those higher frequencies by our own loving discipline of self. Control has no place in Spirit.

I am so blessed that I can hear St. Germain. I am very clear that everyone can when they are willing. As you keep your consciousness on beauty and remain open to direction from Spirit you begin to hear clearly. The more you listen, the better the reception.

Here are some contrasts of spring’s arrival: The jasmine in bloom in California and the icicle hanging from our roof a few days ago.

The differences in how the weather affects us in our areas of the country are amazing.

Rainbow Center News

Our Easter Sunday talk “Welcoming Spring and Acceleration” with St. Germain and Sananda brings compassionate perspective on how to let Spirit guide us out of the limits. Consider the 23rd Psalm. We are Masters. As we remember that that is the most important “secret” we have kept from ourselves.

CD’s can be purchased on the website at www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/2012groups.html

Our “Teachings with the Master” continue on April 10th as St. Germain talks about “What Do You Believe Rich Is?” We all have visions of wealth. Those ideas must now change to adapt to higher understanding. We are being nudged to learn how to live well by allowing the Currency Flow of the Universe to enrich our lives.

The Question and Answer session is on April 27th. St. Germain will address questions about the teachings and other pertinent questions that you might have.

To order CD’s or DVD’s www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/evenings.html

Our intensive “Reaching Integration” will be May 18-19 with an evening with St. Germain “Living Agape”, 8 p.m.-10 p.m. on May 17. This will be a time of instruction for integration with personal involvement, meditations and feeling times to assist in the recognition of what integration really embraces. We invite you to come and take part in an opportunity for unity with self, with others and with the World. Bring yourself ready to change in Love!

ASTROLOGY

NEW MOON

The New Moon in March had a stellium of six planets in Pisces. April has a stellium of five planets in Aries. A stellium is a group of planets in one or more signs that are close enough to be conjunct to each other. These groups are power-house generators of energy. Pisces is all about our faith and beliefs. It is the last sign of the zodiac where we get in touch with our inner self and the world beyond the physical. Aries is all about stepping into the unknown in every area of life and exploring what we find and where we will go with it. This New Moon will potentially move us forward at a greater pace than ever before. Aries, like the Fool in the Tarot deck, takes us into “thin air” and yet we can feel the ground under our feet. The Faith of Pisces enables us to step out into the unknown with assurance. The Sun, Moon, Venus, Mars and Uranus as well as Eris, a plutoid, are all gathered in the sign of the Trailblazer for April. We have entered the spring energy and like the earth, the plants and animals are stirring with renewed vigor and life force. We are feeling the “freedom” of warm weather and open roads to get a new perspective on what we will create for ourselves next. We are filled with the recognition of unlimited potential—the sky is the only limit and it has no bounds. Realize that you do not need to know the answer to the questions. Take one step at a time. Be open to the VASTNESS of your own Universe within. God does not acknowledge failure, only the process of learning.

Mars, the ruler of Aries, is closely cojoined with Venus which calls us to focus on the balance of our divine couple within—the inner male and female. The inner male is seeking the wisdom to recognize that war is a destruction of the life that God created and to be the protector and engage in the discoveries that will lead the world to a more united existence. Mars also is closely conjunct Eris, which is named after the Greek Goddess of Chaos and Discord. Eris was discovered in 2003, the year that Mars made its closest approach to the earth in more than 60,000 years. It caused a huge upset because its discovery expanded the size of our solar system to double what it was before. Eris is a daughter of Nyx, the Night, and she is a trickster or shadow archetype. She symbolizes the difficulties that have occurred from the suppression of the feminine, which impacts men as well as women. The unity of head and heart is a vitally important consideration in the current energy.

Pluto stations to go retrograde on April 12 and it will remain in retrograde until September 20. During this period it will remain between 11 degrees 35 minutes and 8 degrees 59 minutes of Capricorn. This retrograde intensifies the call to spiritual action and underscores the power of the Pluto-Uranus square.

The Plutonian energy is sending out a clarion call to everyone that we are being required to release the old ways that no longer serve us and reconsider internally just what we truly desire the outcomes of our actions to be. We must live real. Looks no longer suffice as the badge of merit in the World. As St. Germain says, “Ain’t nothin’ what it seems” and this becomes more obvious with each passing day. Governments are feeling the upset of planetary energy shaking the foundations that are unstable. Rigidity breaks and falls much harder than the flexibility of love, respect and consideration. Pluto and Saturn remain in mutual reception—Pluto the ruler of Scorpio in Capricorn and Saturn the ruler of Capricorn in Scorpio. We are required to redefine power from a higher perspective and utilize our creativity for bring unity and harmony to a divided World. The changes must come from the most basic, fundamental, internal Soul oriented places. We change the World with the essence of who and what we are, from the inside out. As Pluto stations to go retrograde on April 12, Saturn in Scorpio makes a quincunx to Uranus in Aries. Quincunxes require that we make shifts in perspective and consider the outcome of our actions before we take them.

When we say, “They should do something about that” we are compelled to accept that “WE ARE THEY”.

FULL MOON

Quite frequently the Taurus Sun—Scorpio Moon Full Moon falls on or near Buddha’s birthday on May 8th. This year it is almost two weeks before that most auspicious time. Because the Sun in an Earth sign can influence earth activity the Sun in Taurus, first earth sign of the Zodiac in opposition to Moon in Scorpio which deeply affects the magma of the earth’s core, can stir up a lot of seismic activity both in the earth’s crust and within her people walking around on her surface. This Full Moon is also a Lunar Eclipse which increases the shifts involved. Eclipses dissolve energy matrices and bring new encoding to the electrical field of the Mother Earth and her children. Our consciousness is being uploaded and rebooted into higher levels of understanding. Those who are still attempting to create purely from the mental realms are discovering that those frequencies are being replaced by the higher consciousness of extreme Spiritual input. The down loads of cosmic information are powerful and operate at such accelerated frequencies that the mind simply cannot fathom what the messages are without the interpretation of spiritual input. This is not religious value as much as divine science—quantum energy.

Eclipses occur in relationship to the Moon’s Nodes, the points where the Moon’s orbit intersects the Earth’s cycle around the Sun. The North Node, where the Moon ascends as it crosses the elliptical path of Earth, points to what we are here to accomplish now in the future. The South Node marks the descent of the Moon’s orbit, and emphasizes the influence of the past—old patterns and beliefs that must now be released. When the Sun is close to the South Node, as is the case with the three eclipses this spring, we are impressed to forgive long-standing patterns that no longer move us forward.

The Full Moon notoriously shines its light into places where things have been secreted. Of all the Full Moons this one brings some of the greatest transformation by its very nature. Scorpio has as its ruler Pluto, highly transformational. The Sun in Taurus and Moon in Scorpio constitute an axis of security and evolution. We have gotten further and further away from our connection with the earth, nature and the basics of our beingness that result in intuitional awareness. We have lost the clarity to be in alignment with our own internal guidance. We listen outwardly to opinions and judgments that are made in disconnect from our own spiritual value.

This Full Moon finds Uranus still transiting Aries as the Winged Messenger Mercury joins it. This brings a whole new meaning to living outside of the box as the energy of Uranus takes us to expanded places where the mind functions in the new frequencies. The Sun, Mars, Venus, Pallas and the South Node are all in Taurus calling us to be grounded and pay attention to the beauty around us that feeds our hearts and Souls. As with the Aries New Moon, Mars is still conjunct the Sun. Venus is less than one degree from Pallas bringing the Goddesses of love and Beauty and Wisdom and Justice together. The attention to the continuing focus on the balance of masculine and feminine energies also continues.

Taurus defines our requirements and Scorpio shows us what must now be left behind. We are all being confronted with the necessity to change and the fear of loss that change brings. The transformational aspect of this Full Moon lifts us into places of higher definition so that we can see beyond the limits of what is familiar. Mars is the traditional ruler of both Aries and Scorpio—it gives us the courage to keep moving forward in Faith and deep conviction. The Moon’s close conjunction with Saturn and the North Node in Scorpio compels us to let go of all that we have outgrown—relationships, jobs, beliefs, places or things—anywhere that we have gotten out of integrity with ourselves. Saturn defines our boundaries in the World and reminds us that responsibility is important as long as it does not become an imposition in our lives or the lives of others. Saturn is opposed by the sun on April 28th and by Mars on April 30th. It is vital that intuition be your guide rather than emotional reactivation. A Grand trine between the Moon, Neptune and Ceres gives us the assistance that we require to listen within.

Our World is being set asunder. Enjoy the ride. We have not examined all the possibilities so we cannot determine that what we have is better than the next new potentials. Let Love be your guide. Let life live through you. Rather than the “Straight and Narrow Way” walk as Buddha walked on the broad and bountiful road, The Middle Path to Happiness.

THE CRYSTAL CORNER

STUCK IN BLACK AND WHITE?

Hello everyone and a happy spring to you all. Finally, we're having some nice weather just in time for Easter. I have pussy willows!! The tulips are up, the lilacs are showing signs of leafing out and the baby iris is turning green. This might not seem very impressive to you living in warmer climes, but it's a miracle in Wyoming! It seems that everything is showing appreciation for the warmth.

I have a question for you. What is it that you have that you think you can't live without? Ponder that a moment. Is it stuff? Is it a habit or addiction? Maybe it's a person or where you live. Whatever it is, imagine how it holds you back from where you're going. These things are excuses for not moving forward in your life. Some people really get it and when a relationship is finished, they walk away. They begin to let go of the material things that surround them and they feel lighter. The addictions are dealt with and the habits changed. And, guess what! Just the willingness to let go of everything allows you to have it all! Ascension! The willingness to give up everything you think you can't live without.

I've come up with a few stones that might aid us all in our understanding and transmutation. Let's add some color to our black and white existence.

Astrophyllite is one of those stones that would be helpful. As there is an allowance of higher frequencies, of the sweeter life, of living the dream, the old black and white existence is being shifted. This wondrous stone would bring the stirring of the higher forces and higher energies into that black and white existence. This would be a great stone for those who think too much, to bring the intellect into the center through the soul. In very stringent ways, this would clear out vestiges of the old ways, the cobwebs that would be at the door of the cave of remembering. It would be very good for clearing out stuck energy.

Cacoxinite is the cauldron of alchemy. This would have a plutonian nature of the deepest, most internal places of the self, of the earth. It would be associated with the magma, the transmutation and therefore, the sacred serpent rising. It would assist in bringing those who are very close to getting the vision of creation into a place of understanding how it is. Just feel into the places we might go if we weren't dragging all that stuff behind us!!

Creedite works very powerfully with creation, any kind of creation. It is how the explosions of energy from the neurons in the brain would function to bring about ideas. It enhances the connection to the God-force flowing into the creations of humanity. I AM THAT I AM! You could say that the stuff creation is made of, if it were in a physical form, might resemble this somewhat.

We have been given some awesome instruments from the earth to help us create what we desire and anything we might imagine.

Finally, Anhydrite, a crystal of exquisitely high energy, reaches into the universe you have created for yourself. It works with centering-as above, so below-drawing from the universe without and the universe within and bringing us to center, a point of clarity where the entities can grasp how it all works together for them.

Mark your calendar for the next Crystal Healing I class that I will be doing on May 18th and 19th. If you would like a flyer, please contact me. I would be happy to give you any information or just visit with you. I also have many wonderful stones and crystals for sale if you're interested.

Thoughts from the 5 Element Acupuncture Corner

Spring Energy— Wood Element

Green grass shoots are poking up and soon daffodils and other spring flowers will burst forth if they haven't already. Spring is here! The energy of the Wood Element is rushing upward. The sun is staying up longer and warming the earth and the sap in the trees is starting to run.

So within the Element of Wood is the color green. This usually shows up on someone's face as a flash of greenish color around the outside of the eyes and the corners of the mouth. The sound of Wood is a shout as I've mentioned before in the previous article. The wood element governs the muscles and sinews, as these are our ways of moving through the world. Are you flexible, bending and moving when the winds of emotions come?

The Liver and the Gallbladder are the organs and meridians associated with the Wood. As I have said the liver is like the general of an army looking out and planning for the next campaign. The gallbladder is the decision maker deciding when to make the right move at the right moment. This has to do with the blood. If the liver blood is strong and moving we go through life. If not, one might have difficulty making decisions or planning matters in life. They could be stuck with muscle pain.

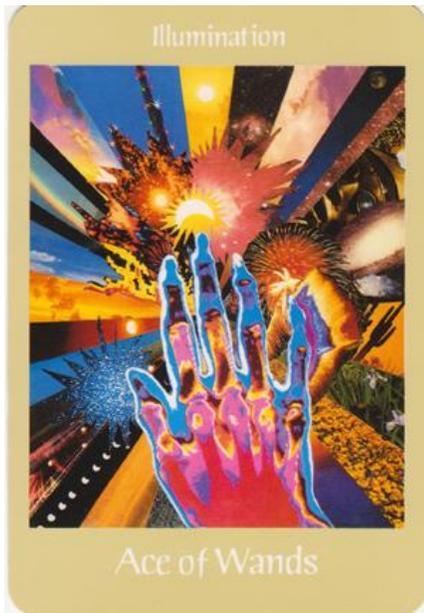

Anger is the emotion. If one is stuck with resentments and unexpressed anger this could stick in the joints such as arthritis. The wood opens to the eyes. Do you see clearly or do your emotions "cloud" your sight?

The smell of the Element of Wood is "rancid". A person in the wood element can smell anywhere from a pine tree to old rancid oil.

Ultimately we all have the wood element and in balance it is going forward in life planning and carrying out those plans, being able to bend and be flexible when the unexpected comes along. Also being able to express anger to others in a healthy manner and not bottle it up or express it in a rage such as road rage. The time is now to look within yourself and examine how your Wood is doing. Do some Spring Cleaning within yourself and approach this new year with clear eyes. Look at the spring and enjoy the beauty of the season inside and outside of yourself!

TAROT TALK

Our Tarot card for April is the Ace of Wands—Illumination. All of the Aces represent new beginnings, however the Ace of Wands brings the illumination of our Spirit. The fires of Scorpio transmute the old, outmoded ways and the bounty of Taurus, the Goddess essence, brings fulfillment in ways never imagined before. Illumination lights our inner places where fear has generated darkness, so that we can see clearly just how much room we have to work in for our betterment and increase. The shafts of light in this Ace symbolize a vision, a revelation, a flash of insight. You can now touch the Truth with your mind and Soul. Illumination brings revolution and purification. As such the old can be transformed into something new and beautiful. You contain within your essence the power of discovery of your own vital life force—your spirituality and sexuality in newly defined form.

When Illumination turns up in your reading you are clearly being informed that you require to see yourself and your life in a new light. The blindness of the old ways is being cleared so that you can see where you are going. Perhaps it is time to do some cleansing rituals, clean out your closets (basement, attic), let go of anything that you have not used in a year, reassess what is truly important. How long has it been since you really looked at yourself and your life from the standpoint of renewal? Limited beliefs, old grudges and judgments just hamper forward movement. What if the anger and frustration that you are feeling is tied to the past, therefore so are you? Release the bondage and be amazed at how life responds. Accept that the need to be right can be a burden rather than a badge of merit.

Our Rune is Inguz-Fertility. This Rune relates to the Moon, our intuitive nature with the urge toward harmonizing and adjusting in the sphere of personal relationships. It also brings a reminder of the opulence of fertility that fills our life with richness. Inguz is the completion of beginnings. Spring has come, seeds are planted and now we wait for the bounty to begin to show its potential. We have been joyously delivered from the throes of winter, new life is evidencing itself everywhere, we can now discover a new path. Make completions a priority. Finish what you have been putting off. Feel the freedom of responsibilities that have been hanging over you laid to rest. All things change. We cannot live permanently amid obstructions. The Rune of Fertility signals your emergence from a closed chrysalis state. As you resolve and clear away the old, you may experience a release from tension and uncertainty.

Another of the Cycle Runes, Fertility counsels preparation. Be centered and grounded, freeing yourself from all unwanted influences, and seeing the humor, you are indeed prepared to open yourself to the Will of Heaven and can await your rebirth with calm certainty.

When you draw Inguz you are being prepared for a rebirth. Things that you have been struggling to change will now shift if you can let them go. Remember that growth is a change of form, not a loss of what was. A seed becomes a plant, the caterpillar emerges as a butterfly—the material of one becomes the structure of the new. The promise of new life is with you in this Rune. It encourages becoming all that you can be. The period just before birth is often filled with tension.

Movement requires stepping into the unknown. You are now entering the delivery room.

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

And so it is Beloved Masters! Here we are with another spring evolving and another year a quarter of the way past. You are noticing with each passing day the strange differences of “no time”.

We desire to speak about the changes in the World and how you can assist in the immense changes that are occurring.

Step One: (laughter) Now you are beginning to realize that step 1,2,3 or A,B,C seem to only go so far and then dead end because the mind only knows how to go so far and then it doesn't see the PATH anymore.

Let's go to “logical, practical concepts”. I have said this before and I will continue to say it because it becomes more important each day, “Masters are not dependent (which really disenfranchises the dole, handouts and “pork barrel affairs”, Masters are not independent (which means that taking a stand and refusing to consider different perspectives is a part of an order that is dying), Masters are Interdependent (which requires compassion and self-recognition in all choices). All over the World “We the People have slowly become “We the Sheeple” which denies the government of self. Electing people, who see going to Washington or any other capital in the World as a major job opportunity rather than carrying a spiritual mantle for the good of all concerned, is no longer an expression of personal choice, but a power give away that does not serve anyone well.

The politics of the World has been a Chess Game of creative minds attempting to outsmart one another. You send tax money to your government and the politicians often feel that once you send the money it no longer belongs to you but is in their hands for them to spend it as they see fit, even if that is for personal gain. IT TAKES TREMENDOUS COURAGE TO MAINTAIN COMPLETE HONESTY WHEN CONFRONTED WITH SO MUCH POWER.

What I am saying does not pertain to one party or one group alone, but every being that is involved in the political system, including the people who elect the officials. Drawing off into sides simply prolongs the pain of separation in a time when the blending of Souls in Love on the planet is vastly important. Remember that in higher frequencies Love has no right or wrong. These are judgments of the illusion.

When the need to be right rises up like bile in your throat pay attention to how that reacts in the systems of your body. Need stifles flow—energy flow, blood flow, flow of consciousness. The congestion of righteousness can actually build plaque in the arteries based on resistance or impedance of movement or flow. True power is not the small burst of energy gained by a temporary moment of gloating, but an expanded, vast connection to God that stimulates the whole system—mentally, physically, emotionally, spiritually. Scientists ask for proof. The proof of divine connection is in the living. The discovery of greater power is in the willingness to find the value of yourself within that empowers valuing others.

The political games have been based on proving the worthlessness of the opponent and gloating over the “victory”. The energy of Revelation and ascension reveals that these abuses of divine essence are now showing up in greater amounts of disease on the planet—especially mental illness, as the mind can no longer stand against the indwelling of Christed energy that is pouring into each and every being on Earth. To be Christed is not to discount any Deity of any religion. It is to unite each and every Soul and the Soul does not operate in the limits of illusion. Force is becoming less and less valid and wars are forced situations. Spirit simply does not acknowledge force. Trying to make everyone comply to one thought, ideology or belief will become more obviously unworkable. Love is a blending agent that operates purely in beauty.

There is an undercurrent of conflict within and without religions. The “beliefs” of lifetimes of separation are creating one last battle that the Spiritual texts of the World call Armageddon. The Mind has interpreted this “war” as a necessary destruction of any opposition so that the winning Deity can take over the World and any one remaining must comply to the ruling Deity. WHAT IS NEW ABOUT THAT? That is just another religious/governmental control!!

MY SIDE WON AND NOW YOU HAVE TO DO WHAT I SAY IS LIKE the child’s game, “SIMON SAYS”. This is not powerful, it is sad and lonely. It keeps everyone off balance. Bullying is painful and domination is a form of bullying that has been used on the planet for as long as any might remember.

DEARLY BELOVED MASTERS, THESE CONCEPTS ARE COMPLETELY BASED ON SEPARATION. MASTERS ARE NOT IN CONFLICT WITH EACH OTHER FOR CONTROL OF THE PLANET. WE ARE UNITED IN THE LOVING DESIRE THAT ALL CAN AND WILL LIVE IN HARMONY AND RESPECT BECAUSE EACH OF YOU COME TO RECOGNIZE THE BEAUTY OF INDIVIDUALITY. CONTROL HAS NO PLACE IN SPIRIT. CONTROL IS AN ASPECT OF SEPARATION. WAR IS A GAME OF SEPARATION THAT WILL BEGIN TO PASS AWAY AS MORE AND MORE MASTERS REMEMBER THAT THEY ARE JUST THAT DIVINE, BELOVED MASTERS WHO CAN CHANGE THE WORLD NOW!!!

THE ONLY ONE WHO CAN STOP THE WAR IS YOU AND THE PLACE WHERE YOU WILL STOP IT IS WITHIN.

Forgiveness is imperative. Love is absolutely required. Let go of the fear that causes the need to fight for what you believe you do not have. Get still and realize that everything that you require, desire and delight in exists right where you are just beyond the veil of your own personal disbeliefs. You have lived for as long as you can remember with the belief that the good is not here in physicality and therefore you have to die to get what you want only when you are dead those things are no longer important. The point of the whole game has been to live, believing that you are not a creative Master in order to discover that you always have been. Now the gift, the blessing is to live your spirit in your life right where you are. Forgive needing the approval of others and live the Love. As you approve of you the energy in your field of existence shifts and others can appreciate you. You are required to let them love you, not demand that they do. Christed-ness is total At-One-Ment! Feel within you just how much God Loves you and everyone else. The wounded child has wanted God to love them best. God never Loved you less, but God Loves all more all of the time as the creation expands in Love. The Love is beyond the comprehension of the finite mind to grasp. Feel it, feel it, feel it.

We keep saying that the changes that bring you home are an inside job. The only way to peace is to forgive the constant focus on danger, threat and defense. Who would you be in peace? Who would you be in safety and Love? These are important questions to answer within yourself by touring your own inner spaces. Your own quantum connection holds the answers to the mysteries of the Universe right inside of you. The mystery of money and power, the mystery of health and wellbeing and greatest of all the mystery of Love and inclusion all are waiting to be revealed within. The Mind has gone around and around for life times attempting to find the Secret out there somewhere like a hidden treasure. The hiding place is within.

There are many Masters who can show you how to control the physical World with your mind but they cannot tell you how to maintain that level of focus every day, in every way. Only when you surrender need, greed and fear can you discover that everything that you desire is waiting for you right at the tips of your fingers just beyond the veil of your disbelief. The Veil is the limited consciousness of thinking, thinking, thinking, figuring, figuring, figuring, trying, trying, TRYING—ROUND AND ROUND AND ROUND.

Consider, you are confronted with a problem. What do you do? You begin to reference everything that you can remember that might apply to the current situation—referring to the past to change the future. You have done this for life times, only now the past holds less and less answers because it was lived in third and fourth dimensional energy. There truly is no past to go to. Logic is not bringing the desired outcomes. The hyper-sales people are still pushing, perhaps harder than ever, to sell you on the same old, same old ideas, thoughts and beliefs that were uncertain in the past and now are crumbling. Some people get rich and some don’t, some die from disease and some survive, some people find love and many, many more are lonely even in a relationship. Why? WHY? WHY? Because whether they know it consciously or not, some Souls remember the FAITH that reaffirms the good. It is not a mind game, but a connection to the Love that created everything to begin with.

This shift of consciousness is not for the faint hearted. Being good kids isn't going to buy your way into Heaven if you are holding on to judgments against yourself or others about unworthiness. Guilt, shame and worthlessness are tools of the EGO for the game of separation. SIN is

Self imposed
Ignorance and Nonsense.

Masterful minds discovered that if people feel really bad about themselves they become controllable quicker. If you can convince the populace that God has left them then they are going to look for a substitute. I can assure you, dearly Beloved Masters, that God never went anywhere. God has waited in your inner space forever. God is not a man sitting in your stomach. God is the essence of life, the breath of hope and joy, God is in every cell of your being and every strand of your DNA. God is life force, energy, electrical flow and the Source of Good Things. Will you allow yourselves to remember that you are powerfully connected right now in this moment to all of that? Will you surrender everything that is not about love? Put it into my Violet Flame. Deliver it into the White Fire of God's Love. You will lose nothing. Anything that is for your highest good remains in your life. Anything that is not about love is transmuted, transformed or transcended to assist you to connect to the fifth, sixth, seventh dimensions and up. Beauty is a key to the recognition of the integration of At-One-Ment.

There is so much fear that the idea of changing terrifies many people. They are rigid in fear and their anger feels to them like strength. Anger is just a thin veneer for fear and the two are a duo that raises blood pressure, creates disease, spins the mind into greater confusion and saves no one or no thing.

How can a destroyer preserve you? Consider that the very concept of a punishing Savior is a split concept. Drawing into sides to prepare for war one more time has nothing to do with Revelation. What is being Revealed is that war is an ongoing split in the psyche that cannot be healed by outer actions. If war was going to heal anything, you would not be where you are today. The divided consciousness of the collective falls into a trap of wanting to be on the "right side in the end".

It reminds I of a bit of a song in "Jesus Christ Super Star": "Help me, help me Jesus, didn't you see I waved! I believe in you and God so tell me that I'm saved."

YOU DO NOT REQUIRE TO BE SAVED
BECAUSE YOU WERE NEVER DAMNED!!!!!!
THERE IS NOTHING WRONG WITH YOU.

Allow yourself to forgive the separation. Forgive attempting to decide what to keep and what to get rid of. Give everything to God and God will give you dominion over your own life, rather than the unbearable responsibility of being responsible for everyone else but yourself. (How lonely and disturbing being the only right person is.) You are beautiful just as you are. You are wonderful just as you are. We are in awe of all that you have lived through and survived. We are impressed with your strength and courage. We are in love with you as brothers and sisters in spirit. There is none greater or lesser, just amazing. The Master Jesus and the Master Buddha and all of the wondrous Souls that have come throughout time to assist humanity as your processes have progressed and changed deserve honor, but so do you Beloved Ones for the willingness to stay the course.

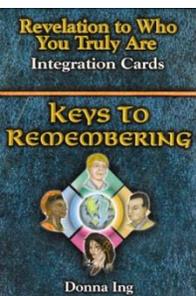

We simply cannot impress upon you as deeply as we would desire because you have free will, but we hold a grand intension for you expanding awareness of your own divinity. This is the Awakening—it is within. This is Revelation—the awareness that you are divine. This is the new millennium—everything that you hoped it would be and more.

In the greatest of love We are with you. Until we meet again, in whatever manner that might be, I remain your humble servant and greatest supporter. I AM the Lord St. Germain
