

August Newsletter

June brought us so many beautiful and mystical experiences. We were looking forward to July. We drove up the switchbacks under the energy of Sirius Rising on July 23rd. This is considered to be the most powerful day of the year and begins the “Dog Days of Summer”. Here is a new picture of the “Visionary Rock” and there is now another face that is looking west and appears to be talking. Here are current pictures.

Here is the Talking Visionary.

We just watched J. K. Rowling’s biography “Magic Beyond Words”. In only three years J. K. went from welfare mother to the richest woman in England, all because she followed her dream even though the World kept saying “get a real job”. She wanted to write, it was her passion and she wanted it more than she wanted to be accepted by the limited World. She had a gift to share, “Soul agreement”, and she followed her dream. May we all follow our dream, our passion! It might not make us a millionaire, but we will be the richest person in our life. Live the Magik!!

St. Germain is continuing to offering the “Personal Growth” package. Each month you can get the Teachings, Q & A and a one hour private session with St. Germain to develop your personal evolution in spirit. The cost is $120 per month with a six month commitment which is a great deal as a one hour private session is $200 normally. Just imagine spending an hour of valuable time each month discussing anything about your growth that you wish with the Master.

We have the good fortune of spending time with him regularly and it is a life changing experience.

Rainbow Center News

Our August group will be at our home at 2 p.m. on August 17. St. Germain will speak about “The Healing Begins with Loving You”. We are all seeking healing in these exceptionally trying times. The truth of Divine Law is that everything that we desire or require is right where we are. The key that opens the portal of receiving is Love. The challenge is that we have been conditioned for life times to believe that love only comes when we are good enough or when we earn it. Allowing Love to be with us because it belongs to us is a totally new concept. The EGO is working overtime in these changing energies to convince us that we are not worthy of Love. It takes the courage of your deepest convictions to realize that Love will open the pathway to all that you are seeking.

CD's can be purchased on the website at www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/2014groups.html

Our Teaching with the Master for August is "The Money is Always There, Where are You?" The World is always projecting outward looking for the money that is perceived not to be here. A Master sees the necessary requirements for life as present and available. If you cannot find the money/ the good/the joy or Love it could be that you are not living where the money is vibrationally.

If you haven't had the experience of the Teachings that St. Germain is offering this year they really help us to understand what is going on. It just might be worth your while to check them out. The deep healing power of the Master is there to experience again and again as you listen to the awesome wisdom that he brings. CDs are $15 for each set—Teachings or Q&A. It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month. Postage and handling are separate.

ASTROLOGY

FULL MOON-August 10

This Full Moon in Aquarius-Leo is one of five SuperMoons this year. SuperMoons occur when the Moon is both perigee (the point in its orbit where it is closest to the Earth) and at syzygy (coinciding with a New or Full Moon). The SuperMoon generates greater gravitational and electromagnetic pulls on the Earth's tides and tectonic plates, as well as on our physical and emotional bodies, further accelerating shifts in consciousness.

Full Moons are oppositions that call for attention to where we require balance in our lives and affairs. Leo shows us our own divine spark of creativity, the gift that we have come to share with others and our expression of our own personal light. Aquarius is our expression of community and cooperation. It includes synergy and the synchronistic involvement which allows us to be interdependent with others. Full Moons always show us where we can be agents of change in the overall scheme of things. This Full Moon emphasizes the aspects of love in the mundane and Love in the divine and how they are now being drawn together by the shifts in consciousness that we are experiencing. We are beginning to touch into Love that is a blend of science and spirituality which shows us that there really is no separation. Whatever the intension that we would hold for another is also what we shall receive. We are not separate from anyone or anything on the Earth or in the Cosmos.

This Full Moon forms a close T-square with Saturn in Scorpio. The fixed-sign squares bring the necessity to let go of longstanding patterns (the Old Order is truly passing away). Saturn squares challenge us to become our own authority, to discipline ourselves rather than wanting to change others to make our life better. We are brought face to face with what is important in our lives, how to interact with others and maintain our boundaries and to recognize that wherever our attention is directed is what we will manifest. Saturn in Scorpio compels us to look at our fears and motivations. How do we still attempt to please others at the cost of our own value? Where do we hold back for fear of not being good enough or looking bad in the eyes of others? When you find what you have come to accomplish in this life your whole perspective changes. When you live it, it is a whole new world.

Saturn stations direct at 16 degrees 38 minutes Scorpio on July 20 and Uranus stations retrograde at 16 degrees 30 minutes Aries on July 21 which will keep these two planets in close quincunx for almost two months (within 1 degree from June 24 to August 16) demanding that we restructure or release what is holding us back. At this Full Moon Uranus is in trine to the Sun and Mercury in Leo and makes a tight semi-sextile to Chiron in Pisces which strongly supports breaking free from convention and discovering innovative departure from chronic problems. The changes that are being implemented now ask us to express our most creative ingenuity and to persevere in moving forward. Do not listen to what "they" say. Some famous examples of how wrong judgments can be: In 1939, the New York Times predicted that television would fail because people wouldn't have time to stop and stare at a screen. Decca Records rejected the Beatles in 1962, declaring that they “have no future in show business”. J.K. Rowling, author of the Harry Potter series, was once advised by an editor to get a day job, because he thought she had little chance of making money writing children’s books.

We are seeing the outcome of the planetary changes every day. St. Germain says that Masters are Interdependent and we are being nudged in that direction by the ever shifting energies, that refuse to be stopped by old, limiting ideas and concepts. We are gently being moved away from “how it has been” and directed internally to find our own personal New Direction. It takes more courage than we have believed we have and yet as we accept that we are far more than we have been allowed to even consider, we can make changes that will make this Earth a better place. Focus on fear and the “World is coming to an end” and even though you will not cause that ending by yourself you will live in the confines of destruction. Focus on a better day, a brighter time for every one and even though it may not show itself immediately you will begin to notice that what you are looking for will come to pass.

NEW MOON-August 25

This Virgo New Moon is being energized toward greater evolution by planets, stars and galaxies. The Crown Chakra or Pineal Gland is being stimulated and we will begin to “see beyond the beyond”. We have depended on our five senses. These aspects are definitely opening us to the senses that are connected with those things that exist beyond the third/fourth dimensional world. On a physical level, the pineal gland directs more than 20,000 different psychoactive chemicals, regulating hormonal levels that modulate our mood, sleep, and other biorhythmic cycles. On the metaphysical plane, the pineal gland functions as a spiritual antenna, a cosmic GPS locating our consciousness in time, space and dimension. This New Moon asks us to get in touch with the intimate interplay between spirit and matter, intellect and Soul. We cannot ignore how important focus and intension are any longer.

Virgo is concerned with integration and wholeness. Though we are physical beings we have emotions and minds and the spiritual element that encompasses the totality. This New Moon opposes Neptune in Pisces. Mercury, traditional ruler of Virgo is closely opposing Chiron in Pisces as well. Where these planetary opposites fall in the chart speaks of where there is a requirement to take a more Wholistic perspective. Neptune is the planet that connects us with the many frequencies that are beyond our five senses. Mercury represents our mental energy—our capacity to process, communicate and evaluate what we take in on an intellectual level. Chiron, the Wounded Healer, symbolizes our core wound as well as its remedy. It shows us that our deepest wounds can also be our greatest teachers, gifts and bridges to wholeness. The words “heal” and “whole” come from the same root. To heal is to remember, re-connect and re-unite what has been separated.

The power of Love and the importance of healing the heart by blending energy with the Soul are amplified by the close conjunction of Saturn with Mars in Scorpio square to Venus in Leo. We are being challenged to recognize that the Love that we have been seeking throughout the time spent in Illusion has always been waiting within us. As we can remember who we truly are we can break free from the limitations that have bound us. We can discover and accept the value that is ours, the gift that we are and our own personal beauty.

This New Moon is in opposition to Formalhaut (3 degrees 51 minutes Pisces), one of the brightest stars in the sky and the first seen to possess an extrasolar planet observable in visible light (via Hubble telescope images). Formalhaut is one of the four royal stars of ancient Persia and Egypt, which were considered to be heavenly sentinels of the four directions. Formalhaut, a fixed star, is thought to facilitate moving from material to spiritual forms of expression; its alignment with the New Moon emphasizes humanity’s need to transcend materialistic views.

The Sabian symbol for this New Moon at 3 degrees Virgo—“Two guardian angels; invisible help and protection in times of crisis”. We are reminded that spiritual assistance is always available, and that we are most powerful and effective when we bring together all aspects of our being. When you discover what your Soul desired for this journey and allow yourself to fulfill that passion your cup indeed runs over. Remember: “He who works with his hands is a laborer. He who works with his hands and his head is a craftsman. He who works with his hands, his head and his heart is an artist.” (St Francis of Assisi)

THE CRYSTAL CORNER

A Personal Journey

I hope that everyone is having a wonderful summer. It went from cool to HOT here but then it usually does in this area. Gives us a contrast and something to complain about!

For the last ten months I have been challenged once again with changes in my body. About Thanksgiving time I developed a serious rash on my hands and arms. After about a month of attempting to discover the cause, I saw a dermatologist who did a biopsy on it to rule out a fungus and then suggested that perhaps I was allergic to a medication I was taking or even one or more of the supplements I take on a daily basis. And so began the elimination process. When nothing changed, I finally sat down with my nutritionist and asked him if it might be the food I was eating. After muscle testing for various food groups, it turns out I am very sensitive to all grains, fruit, dairy and sugar! I was not all that surprised because I am in touch with my body (most of the time!) and have been doing what I can to bring my body to a greater place of wellness. I had allowed myself to slip back into some not-so-healthy habits over the holidays and was seeing the result of that. I would bet that there are very few of us that aren't addicted, a little or a lot, to sugar as most of us grew up with candy and sodas, cake and cookies. Remember the line, 'clean up you plate and you can have dessert'? And so it goes. I stopped eating all of the above foods and the change is dramatic. I'm still detoxing and once in a while there is a flare-up but I am healing.

As I was mulling over all this information and wondering why I was having such a reaction to the foods, the major feeling I got was that the energies are changing more and more and we don't require the old heavy foods for our nourishment. Duh! Also, we all know the foods we purchase in the store are corrupted in a variety of ways, from processing to pesticides. I am so grateful for our garden and access to organic food.

As I've gone through this process, I've utilized the energy of the stones. A number of stones help with addictions and compulsions.

Apatite and Aragonite are two that are helpful.

Also, if we allowed ourselves to have the love of self in our lives, would we be so susceptible to the abuse of our bodies? Here we would use the

Rose Quartz and Aventurine,

the pink and green Tourmaline and Kunzite.

Carborundum is excellent for removing toxins from the body as it clears and draws out negative energy.

One last thought: we must give our body permission to keep up with the great upward spiraling of our energy and feed it appropriately.

Have a joyful journey!

EVERYONE IS A CHANNEL

After I decided to talk about my journey as a channel I spent the first two months talking about how I became a channel and where life took me along the way.

This month I will begin to touch into the feeling nature of this process. Over the years many people have watched the process of my going into channel and intellectually decided that “there is nothing to it” or “anyone can sit down, close their eyes and then tell people what to do”. One young man recently told his mother that if he was going to pretend to be an Ascended Master at least he would tell people that it is an act and would not deceive people by saying it is real.

As I begin my twenty-eighth year of channeling St. Germain in this way I can say with total honesty and clarity that THIS IS REAL.

When I first began to allow St. Germain to speak through me I had my doubts about the process. I would sit down, get comfortable and close my eyes. I would feel a presence that I have come to know as well as my own being and I would feel the energy begin to enter through the atlas area at the base of my skull. I would be aware of a sense of moving outside of my body and then nothing. I would return to my body anywhere from an hour to several hours later with no sense of time having passed at all. I could have just “rested my eyes” for a moment. It took some adjustment to go into channel in sunlight and come back into my body, sometimes in pitch darkness, if people forgot to turn a light on. When I began the process, St. Germain assured me that I did not go to sleep, but moved into the higher realms and spent time with the Masters in education or personal evolution while St. Germain was speaking through my vehicle. He said that I am a Trans-channel (I bridge across dimensions rather than go to sleep), not a Trance channel.

Often, I would have a vision of some kind before I would stop remembering when I moved into channel. When different Masters first began to channel through me I would have an idea of how they looked and felt so that I could recognize the difference between them. These are Souls that have had embodiment in many lives so they have an image and energy that is unique. The Archangels have not been in physical form, but can create a physical appearance when necessary. Melchezidek ruled as King of Salem (the places of peace) during the time of Abraham and acted as an advisor and counsel for Abraham. Lord Michael has been depicted as everything from a young boy to a Great Blue Lion.

Each one is exceptional in energy and presence, whether there is a visual or not. One time as I went into channel, St. Germain gave me a vision of a field of violets and said that he loved me. What a lovely gift.

The first time that the Buddah appeared to me he came flying in on a carpet. I thought it was interesting, but I could not imagine that a Master would ride a carpet. (Oh how I have had to change my limited perspectives)The sun was setting behind him and he had a very odd head dress, which I could not see very well because of the lighting. It was several years before someone was telling me about a conclave of the Masters in India and that the Buddah arrived on a flying carpet. When Nanette Christ unveiled her beautiful painting of Maitreya in Virginia Beach, VA I happened to be there. When I saw his head dress I recognized it immediately as what I had seen many years before when I first channeled him.

Many confirmations have come to me throughout the years and still do, to assure me that I am really in touch with the Masters. I was not a scholar of the Mysteries nor was I educated in ancient religions. I have learned so much in this process and when I have researched to check points of reference, most often I could find references to validate what St. Germain or other Masters were saying. St. Germain has talked about many things that I know little if anything about. He has, from time to time, praised me for getting my consciousness out of the way so that he can bring through information without my limits being placed on what is allowed. He has said that they cannot bring through information that the channel refuses to allow no matter how important it might be to the evolutionary process.

I have truly enjoyed the expansion of my realm of knowledge as well as the vast connection with new energy that I have received. I have not been afraid that new information would mean that I must change even though the changes have been dramatic and sometimes difficult. I have experienced changes physically, emotionally (big time) and energetically that have required constant adjustment. Because Spirit encompasses all that we are, as we make spiritual shifts everything that we are must change to adapt. Sometimes the shifts are subtle and other times they are like cold water in my face, but I am always better for the new growth. I am so delighted to be a part of all of this and glad that my Soul agreement included this journey.

I went through the many adjustments to the changes of energy that channeling brought about. In the beginning I felt spacey, ungrounded or disoriented when I returned to my body after a channeling. Sometimes it would last a while after I got back. In the beginning I would be starving as though I had not eaten in days, so I wanted to eat as soon as I could after channeling. I tried smoking (I had never smoked), chocolate, essential oils and other things to help ground me. I went through phases that were like any growth process except that I was 44 years old when I started channeling St. Germain.

I was a professional astrologer before the Harmonic Convergence in 1987 when I channeled for the first time. In 1988, I channeled St. Germain for the first time. He had a very strong German accent and he often included both German and French words and phrases. He said that the accent was from Alsace Lorraine. I would not have known except that several months after I began to channel him a woman came to a group and she was from Alsace Lorraine and her accent was just like his. Before I ever started channeling him St. Germain told me that he would not speak other languages through me, but that all people would understand him. I even had one woman who brought an interpreter with her and she only asked one time for an interpretation of a word that she did not understand.

Because I do not remember what happens when I am in channel I learn what St. Germain has said in groups by listening to the CDs or in private sessions by what people choose to tell me about their session. St. Germain has been very clear that this allows people to be comfortable to discuss anything with the Masters and not feel that I was listening in. I am quite well with that. Respect of people's private lives is important. I have, over the years, had people tell me that the "new way to channel is to be conscious". I always say that I am just fine with not knowing what is being discussed. If I require to know I will be told.

As I have adjusted to the process of channeling I do occasionally remember where I go when I am not in my body. I can be with a Master, a group of Masters or a group being instructed by a Master. I do not remember what I learned, though St. Germain says that I have access to the information if I require it. Mostly, I remember visuals—sitting on "the edge of the Universe" watching Suns, stars and planets rolling by, beautiful scenery and pleasant surroundings and feeling filled up with the experience.

I truly love being a part of the Master plan and having that plan be what my life is about. I really do believe that when we find what we are here to create life becomes far more accommodating.

I have certainly encountered sceptics over the years. There have been people that have come to groups with an intent to argue with St. Germain. Generally, he will speak with them for a reasonable length of time and then they fall asleep. This has happened several times over the years when someone became obnoxious. It has been a long time since that has happened, but I know that St. Germain can take whatever comes patiently and calmly. Especially, in the current energy changes on the planet, he says that “war of any kind has no place”.

Next month I will talk more about my personal relationship with St. Germain, the Rainbow Center and how St. Germain brought Dorian and I together.

I invite questions. Email me at:

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Dearly Beloved Masters, it would appear that the conflicts on the planet are getting worse all of the time. These times have been predicted in the Bible and foretold for eons of time. The Illusion has created such feelings of rejection and separation that the need to belong is reaching epic proportions. The EGO is on its last great power trip and it has always encouraged dominance, force and control as ways of getting what is wanted. The insanity of “Mob Mind” is that there is no clarity about what is wanted. Millions of people want change and want it right now, but no one has a clear idea of what is really wanted or what the repercussions of getting what you want would be. You see everywhere that the indications of change are abundant. The Illusion was always coming up with ways that “they” could, should, must change, but there was always the underlying belief that it was only others who needed to change. Individuality has come to mean that what “I” want, how “I” want it and the way that “I” get it, are the only way—the way that counts. Opinions and beliefs are subject to change in the monumental shifts that are raising the planet into new dimensions. Yet a great number of people on the ball are clinging to what they were taught by those who were taught by those who were taught and on and on in separation. The paradigms of the system, by which the Earth and her people function, are being revamped and the changes are not being brought about by the logical, practical, intellectual thinkers. The changes are coming from a much higher Source than the limited concepts of humanity would allow.

The very planets themselves are transmitting vast amounts of new data to all of the population of Earth. The information is not being given directly to the mind, but is being infused into the higher consciousness and then routed beyond the EGO to the Soul Center in the solar plexus where the information that will serve each Master is being formatted so that that particular individual can understand what they are about, why they are here and, even, to some extent how it can be accomplished. Not all details are provided right now because it is not time. FAITH is a factor that allows the clear interpretation of personal evolution. Each person on the ball is a Master and each one has a magnificent purpose. This purpose is not to take over, control or manipulate another Master. THE GAME OF SEPARATION IS FINISHED. The final fight to recognize that the old ways will no longer work is in progress. The same old strategies and the same old spy games and the same old suspicions are escalating to epic proportions. The last of the gamers believe that if they can just create enough smoke and shadows they can “Take over the World”. The World is moving so rapidly into higher realms that the plots and plans that worked in the past are being REVEALED as quickly as the minds can come up with them. There truly is NO HIDING PLACE DOWN HERE. Finger pointing, mud-slinging and the childish games of the Illusion are being required to be set aside for the gifts of higher Truth and Love that belong—not to just a few chosen people—but to every Soul on this Earth. God did not create Masters who would be forced to be enslaved by other Masters, but Masters who would joyfully and gladly serve because it is a gift, a blessing and an honor. Each one is a part of the totality and as such has a direct effect on the whole. To believe that anyone or any group could possibly rule over others in the evolution of Spirit that is occurring in these times is erroneous. Taking sides over politics, religion, beauty, intelligence or any other factor where conflict can be inspired by who is best or who is right will begin to pass away as it is revealed that these choices were related to separation rather than AT-ONE-MENT.

We, the Ascended Masters, are very involved in the positive outcomes on the planet, but we are not warriors come to take sides and destroy. We are here to heal, rebuild and enlighten all who are willing and who hold a powerful intension that all will discover the way of Love within themselves. The New Order will not be brought about from outside. You have had eons of time to prove that separation simply goes around in circles rather than rising in spirals. There has been progress in separation, but so often when progress in separation is made fear wants to own what has been accomplished and there is regression. Spiritual evolution moves upward and forward without the set-backs that the Illusion has suffered.

Right now, in the World there are those who have fought, suffered and labored long and hard in order to accomplish material goods—"the good life". Rather than to be pleased that they have overcome and be willing to share what has been garnered in Love, they would want everyone to suffer as they have suffered and struggled and for others to hurt because they have been hurt. They would deny others a place of peace and comfort when they know how challenging it is to gain such a place. The materialistic world is collapsing. The need and greed for "Money above all Things" will bring down its own creation like a "House of Cards". This, Beloved Masters, is not a threat but an observation from the understanding of Divine Law. Each Master on the planet has a divine right to Allness. Since no one can understand All there is no possible way that anyone could get All and keep it to themselves. When there is a genuine willingness to be personally fulfilled, fulfillment begins to come. When there are strong intentions to deprive others, deprivation begins to manifest in the life of those who would deny anyone the good. The deprivation may come in ways that the mind would not connect to the outcome. If someone denies another money or food, the balance may not come in loss of money but may appear as poor health or loneliness. If there is a desire to deprive others in order to have a better life, the weakest point of emotional limit will most likely be the place where the balance will manifest. There has developed in the Illusion a belief that if enough cunning and gile are used in a power play anything is possible. Often the belief is that there will be no karma (balance) required because the person/people were not caught. In the ways of the World this may have appeared to be true, but by divine law there must always be a balance.

The evolutionary changes are moving the planet from physical accomplishment alone being a measure of worth or intellectual knowledge exceeding wisdom, to the inclusion of feelings and a wealth of spiritual value as well. Wealth of the spirit is not some vaporous fairy tale, but a real sustainable life that has quality. A life that is lived for the highest and best good of all, brings that good (magnified) to the one who chooses to live life Well and hold that same intension for all others.

MONEY IS A SYMBOL OF THE CURRENCY FLOW OF GOD/GOOD!!! Money is not God. Money is energy. When there is a need to prevent someone else from having sustainable life, that need becomes a focus that will return to the one who is creating it. In fact, there are many times when the one who was supposed to be deprived seems to prosper instead. When there is Faith in the highest good of all concerned it can act like a shield of positive energy that deflects negative intensions.

Divine Law is not judgmental or prejudicial. The Divine holds the same intension for each and every one. What shows up in the Illusion is often a distortion of the Law. As the planet is being lifted into reality once more the clarity of God's Law will be restored and the Truth of that balance will shine for ALL.

This is a time of choice for each and every one on the planet. It is a time of personal growth and evolution, but if there is a refusal to evolve spiritually then stagnation begins and the life descends into fear and limitation. This is not some curse from an outside source, but an energy that is activated by the decisions of each being on the planet. These are not mental choices directed by right and wrong nearly so much as a deep-seated refusal to accept that thought alone cannot control the destiny of a life. The flow of spirit felt as Love in the life is powerful, more so than thoughts alone. If the emotions can be blended into the Soul's compassion, raising the emotion to feeling, and the mind blended into the whole then what comes out of this union is an emerging Master, one who is remembering the wonder of all that he or she has always been. Revelation shines a light on inappropriate activity, but is not prejudiced about who the person may appear to be in the physical World. Many have believed that they can conduct their affairs as they please and then buy God off with money. Certainly the ways of the World might give the impression that this ploy would work. God is pure Love and Pure Energy and the currency that the money represents belongs to God after all. The intension of a bribe is quite different than the intension of a tithe and God knows the heart of each one. God does not seek to punish, but to bring about harmony in the whole again and again. Divine Law is felt in a heartfelt and soulful way and then humanity will decide if it is worthy of consideration. How many times must the Law work in each life before the acceptance that it is real begins to rise to the surface of that life. Even those who are very adept at self-deception are beginning to feel changes within that may bring fear from time to time. This fear does not come from God's anger as much as from the remembrance that in Divine At-One-Ment the lies of Illusion cannot continue to be perpetuated.

Human emotion, in all of its aspects of anger, fear and doubt, is bringing about severe weather changes. The extreme reaction that people are having to what is happening on the planet are being broadcast from the solar plexus area into the flow of the collective consciousness. Yes, the solar plexus area is the Soul center, but EGO is attempting to falsify itself as a messenger from God to do terrible things in order to cleanse the World of wrong. We keep repeating that as you move into the higher frequencies the judgments of right and wrong will simply begin to meld into the Love. Love has its own ways of directing the energy of choice to the "Highest good of all concerned". In Love you find the safety and security that brings a consistent sense of peace and the confirmation of appropriate choices. The joy that other people are living a good life assists you to have a better life because joy and delight are outcomes of higher choice. Conflict begins to disappear as the focus on the deprivation of the old ways passes away. The higher consciousness cannot be obtained by trickery or deception therefore as the focus moves to the highest good for all, YOU INCLUDED, the ways of the Illusion will have less and less effect on what it might take to make a "good life".

War has brought so much grief to the planet over thousands of years. Yet people keep going around and around in the belief that they must fight for everything—wealth, love, well-being and peace. Fight to get what is wanted and the outcome is never having the time to enjoy the "prize" because someone else is now wanting to fight you in the belief that they will be deprived by your achievement of good. Countries involved in power games are destroying the planet. People who want peace have been willing to give up freedom in the hope that there will be peace. Peace and freedom are Divine gifts that begin within self. If there is conflict involved in the achievement then that element will continue to taint the Illusion of peace and freedom and no one wins. True peace is a life lived peacefully and freedom is the acceptance that you are free within your own being.

There are those who are addicted to "power" and like any addict they are willing to go to destructive lengths to keep the Illusion of "power" going in their lives. They do not care who is hurt because they have lost their perspective of compassion and consideration to the addiction. Pay attention to how things feel in your solar plexus. Truth has a feeling of strong support and upliftment. Deception has its own energy that is mixed with fear and often depression. Lies undermine themselves because they do not have a firm foundation. There have been beliefs in many areas of human life that "you have to lie" to get by. The question is, "Do you just want to get by or would you rather LIVE A GREAT LIFE?"

A great life is built one act of kindness, one courageous decision to tell the truth rather than shade it, one refusal to give in to weakness because it appears to be the easy way out, one event at a time—moment by moment, day by day. Stay strong with yourself for your highest good and the highest good of all, no matter what. That is the Love that God gives you all of the time. That is the Love that we bring you as we hold intensions of evolution and up spiral for the planet.

Each one has a war going on within. Begin to end your war. Call your energies home to you and forgive holding grudges. Let go of the past, release the judgments of your lineage and find the Master that you are, is waiting right where you are. YOU ARE BELOVED. Until we meet again in whatever manner that might be I remain your most humble servant. I AM the Lord St. Germain
