

August Newsletter

My website web-site has been down since the middle of July. My Domain name expired and I did not know. Hopefully it will be back online soon.

St. Germain has suggested that those who are feeling drawn to the MAGIK find their own wands and create a Book of Shadows for their own personal magik records, ideas, dreams and rituals (dates, intensions and results to fortify the energy).

Here are the names of three websites that have exceptional wands and good information about them:

Magik is fun, extremely powerful and it helps us to remember who we are. We have been taught that Magik is evil, mythological, silly and now we all get to remember that we are, indeed, divine magikians, so in joy let us begin to reclaim ourselves and our Magik. Join the fun!!

In our July Teaching “The Art of Prayer” St. Germain gave us a prayer for these times:

“My God that abides within me—I am grateful for your presence. I know that you walk with me every moment of my life and I honor myself as you honor me, that I may feel my way within. Give me abundance in all manner and I will accept it. Assist me in being forgiving of the judgments that I hold against myself and my brothers and sisters. I delight in All that you bring me. I celebrate in thanks and gratitude for I know Thy Love within me. So mote it be—now and forever.

Feel welcome to copy and share. The energy is very powerful.

Linda Thomas is building a new healing center on her property in Powell, WY. Here is the walkway which is the stem of a lotus. The gazebo sits in the heart of the lotus. The healing center will be the next construction project.

Entrance to sacred garden.

Pathway to the lotus.

There has been lots of fun and excitement around this project.

Here is a picture of the alter set up for our Sirius Rising Ritual. The 23rd of July is considered the most powerful day of the year. It is the day that the Dog Star Sirius rising and it marks the beginning of the Dog Days of summer. September 23rd is the second most powerful day of the year and is the day that Sirius sets. Sirius is the Portal of the Goddess and the Sirians have had a huge impact on the evolution of the Earth.

The large quartz crystal at the back of the alter is a Shinning One crystal that we got at the Lazaris event that we attended in San Francisco in October. It has direct connections with Sirius.

Beginning in January 2016 St. Germain will be teaching about the understanding and application of Spiritual Alchemy. Each Teaching will move us further into a deeper recognition of who we truly are and how to apply spiritual values to our “every day” lives. LIVE THE MAGIK!!

New people are beginning to sign up for the 2016 Personal Growth. Don't miss giving this special gift to yourself. As the energy on the planet is accelerating things are becoming more challenging. The logical approach to life is failing. Nothing is as it appears to be. Yet just beyond the tips of your fingers there is a whole new world just waiting for you to open the inner eyes and move aside the veil of Illusion. St. Germain is waiting to be of assistance, to clarify the confusion and help you to connect with your own inner truth; a truth that is not opinion or based on conflict, but a deep, solid sense of who you are within. This recognition of self is what changes the world. It is the magik and wonder of what you have been looking for.

St. Germain is continuing the “Personal Growth” package in 2016. This has proven to be one of the most popular offerings that St. Germain has given. People are excited about the changes in their lives and express joyful anticipation for the future. Changes on all levels are bringing a whole new lease on life as we evolve into New Humans.

Fall Intensive

Don't forget our intensive “Embracing the Love and Magik of the New Earth”. It will be November 12-13 here at our home. We keep calling humanity to move through the chaos and calamity of Revelation and find the Sacred Space within. The Earth is changing and so are you. Will you find the Love and magik within and bring those elements to the New Earth? Respond to the call, in Love.

We invite you to join us in person. Call or email Molly for more information.

CDs and mp3s will be available.

Monthly Group

Our August group is “Nothing is What It Seems: Chaos is Making a Space for Evolution”. Chaos is a word that the finite mind holds in only one connotation. However, chaos was what God drew forth in the very beginning of creation and when it was blessed, named and given form it became the cosmos and all that is in it. As you change your perspective of what chaos is you begin to remember the power of creation within you. The energy is neutral. How will you use it?

The group will be on August 14 at 2 PM at our home.

CD's can be purchased on the website at Click Here for 2016 Groups

Monthly Teachings

Our Teaching with the Master for August is “Chaos and the Healing of Our World with Sacred Magik.”. When acts of violence are perpetrated in Sacred places over and over the doors that have held The Other away begin to weaken. The Middle East holds one of the largest areas of Sacred Space on the planet. The continued violence is creating openings for energies, that have been feared because of the Illusion taught that they were evil, to return to the physical realms. As the Magik is free to return each being is faced with new choices about the use of power.

Our call-in for the Teachings is the second Wednesday evening at 7 pm MST.

If you haven't had the experience of the Teachings that St. Germain is offering this year they really help us to understand what is going on. It just might be worth your while to check them out. The deep healing power of the Master is there to experience again and again as you listen to the awesome wisdom that he brings. CDs are $15 for each set—Teachings or Q&A. It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month. Postage and handling are separate.

ASTROLOGY

NEW MOON-August 2

This New Moon takes us into the deepest most internal connection with our essence, our true Self as the sign of Leo is associated with the Sun and our life force. This New Moon reminds us that we are co-creators with the divine and as such we have access to the vast energy resources of the universe. When the Sun and Moon cojoin it generates a portal through which celestial instructions are broadcast via the current geometry of our solar system.

Our Sun sign designates the essence of our personality which defines how we integrate and share information. Light encodes information; it contains the consciousness and experiences gleaned in its journey from Source. Each one of us is unique. We have a singular past, perspective and purpose and thus we radiate a spark of the divine that is all our own.

We are like the stars that shine even when no one is looking. We are emergent beings of light, remembering how to be ourselves no matter what the situation or how we are received or perceived. As we clear the shadow self, integrate and forgive childhood and cultural programming, we allow our light to shine brighter in the world. We are beginning to realize that enlightenment equals a deeper understanding of love. We can now release the limits of romantic love and allow ourselves to live in agape, unconditional love which embraces all things with an open heart as it encompasses the infinite diversity of the divine.

Venus is also in Leo, accentuating the connection between light, love and creation. Love expands us; our world, our perceptions, our creations blossom in Love light. In order to create we must step out into the unknown and draw upon the deepest levels of courage that we possess. We must look at a blank page, an empty canvas or a new phase of life and open up to the unlimited possibilities that exist for us. Fear contracts. We can only imagine confinement and worst possible outcomes or worse nothing at all. Mars stands for bravery and courageous action. It reenters Sagittarius just before this New Moon urging us to act on what we have learned since it first entered Sagittarius on March 5. Neptune at 11 degrees Pisces form a quincunx to this New Moon, advising that we trust our intuition, even if it does not feel logical in the moment.

A planetary shift from retrograde to direct or the reverse, intensifies the archetypal energies of the sign it is in. Since Saturn went retrograde in Sagittarius on March 25 at 16 degrees we have been required to examine our beliefs and the direction that our goals are aimed. On August 13 Saturn turns direct at 10 degrees Sagittarius. As we potentially redefine our boundaries and reset our priorities it becomes easier to see where our next big step will lead us. Saturn is trine the New Moon in Leo, suggesting that devotion and discipline are the keys to achieving our hearts desire. Saturn closely squares Neptune, and whenever another planet aspects that alignment, the winds of change are more noticeable. This will happen twice in the next two weeks. First Mercury squares Saturn and opposes Neptune on August 6-7 and then Venus does the same on August 13-14 generating a t-square at 10-11 degrees Virgo, Sagittarius and Pisces. Mercury shows us the difference between service and servitude while Venus softens our inner critic and reminds us that a fulfilling life follows the path of joy.

Our ability to create is one of the greatest gifts that God granted us. It knows no bounds, so dream big because the impossible is possible.

FULL MOON-August 18

Each Full Moon in Aquarius moves us further into the New Age of humanitarianism and global citizenship. We must dismantle the beliefs and systems maintaining the old paradigm. We are compelled to make radical shifts in consciousness from the limited perception of duality to a collective awareness of our inherent unity and divinity. In the old paradigm, this was an arduous inner journey undertaken by relatively few, generally in solitude and seclusion. We are now making this evolutionary shift en masse while engaging in our daily lives. The good news is that it has never been easier to wake up! The other side of the story, that has engendered dread for eons, is that the awakening necessitates facing and healing whatever remains of the shadow self.

The Full Moon illuminates the shadow of the signs involved with the current polarity. The shadow side of Leo is domineering and oblivious to the requirements of others; the shadow of Aquarius is unable to relate to the fact that change begins at home. An open heart can allow the dissolution of the shadows and opens the way to recognizing that you are becoming new humans.

The heart is so much more than a physical organ. According to Neurocardiology research, the heart continually communicates with the brain, or intrinsic cardiac nervous system—a complex network of ganglia and neurotransmitters similar to those of the brain—which is capable of feeling, learning, and making decisions. Studies also show that we have yet another “brain”. St. Germain calls this the “body brain” and it resides in the lining of the gastrointestinal system and is affected by the same neurotransmitters as our cranial brain. This “brain” in our gut is able to sense, record and respond independently, as well as in concert with our cranial brain. This is what can also be referred to as the “sacred center” of our true self.

Esoteric teachings tell us that we also have a heart chakra, a multidimensional energy center that integrates mind and body, spirit and matter. When the heart chakra is open it allows us to feel the alignment that the Bible speaks of as “When the Eye is Single” then the whole chakra system operates in harmony. In this state we feel compassion for ourselves and others, rather than engaging in pity or sympathy which are both energies that can drain our own essence.

Uranus, the modern ruler of Aquarius, trines the Sun and sextiles the Moon, prompting us to widen our circle of friends and allies. Mercury is the lower octave of Uranus and is associated with the rational mind, It makes the first of three conjunctions with Jupiter on August 22 at 26 degrees Virgo, expanding our capacity to integrate logical analysis with intuitive knowing. Venus cojoins Jupiter on August 27 (27 degrees Virgo) and then Mercury on August 28 (29 degrees Virgo), assisting in softening the blending of mind and heart. Our intensions to integrate with what is most meaningful and true are augmented by Mars forming a sesquiquadrate to Uranus on August 23, conjoining Saturn at 10 degrees Sagittarius on August 24, squaring Neptune at 11 degrees Pisces on August 25, and squaring the lunar nodes at 13 degrees Virgo-Pisces on August 29.

Our world is in a crisis of consciousness. There is so much pressure that people are attempting to find ways of escape. The logical mind sees everything in black and white and the picture is unattractive to say the least. We are being called to open up our compassion and intuition and allow more beauty and color into our lives. The planets are moving to assist us to see beyond the veils of illusion that have kept us from seeing clearly. Everything is changing and it is as much what we desire that is important as what seems to be happening. Leo is also a sign of strength as well as affairs of the heart. May we find our true strength and open to our humanity in love.

QUOTES FOR THE MONTH from St. Germain

Being the best you can be is only momentary, and then you become more. –St. Germain Magik is as Ancient as the beginning of humanity. It has been a great part of creation until fear began to close the portals and block the realms of magik. Those portals are opening again and new magik is opening up within each human. Feel the Love and live the magik. --St. Germain

All fear is a symptom of faulty belief. All fears come from loneliness—loneliness meaning: “I don’t love good enough.” You are in charge of your reality, therefore in charge of how you live with people, in love or loneliness. Understanding this mechanism, you begin to conquer fear.

---Lazaris

Magik flows like a river and you are like a swimmer in the flow. Your intension is like a stroke forward. In the physical that would move you forward a foot or two. In the flow of magik that stroke is magnified and each stroke moves you ten times further. Allow the magik to show you how to move forward without resistance. –St. Germain

ST. GERMAIN’S MESSAGE

These times are some of the most important and powerful times that the Earth has known. The planetary aspects keep moving the shifts of revelation to greater changes than humanity has ever dealt with.

When there are violent acts constantly perpetrated in Sacred Places the structure of protection is progressively weakened so that what has been held in place in other dimensions is liberated to enter the earth’s physical space. In the area of Syria and Palestine there is a huge vortex that has been a passage for beings from other realms to have access to that area of the world. There are well known sacred places all over the planet and they are connected by ley lines that make a grid of power. There are also many small, often unnoticed power points or vortexes that intertwine with the larger ones and they all help to keep a balance of energy on the planet, not only in the physical world, but also in the mental, emotional and spiritual levels. The earth is bound by a grid work of power which, when it is used with respect and honor brings amazing things into being.

Long ago before the separation moved into place there were beings of all kinds that lived in cooperation on earth. Magik was everywhere and its creative power was trusted and respected. The nature of earth was about knowing and recognizing the importance of power and keeping the balance by the essence of understanding that interdependence created safety and protection for all to go about their lives in the beauty of security and Love. Differences in all beings were revered and treated with both honor and enjoyment.

As separation became denser the doorways to the sacred places of magik closed and the relationships with faeries, elementals and the witches and wizards of old passed into the realm of fables and myths.

Because the doorways were more often than not placed in very hard to find, out of the way places the seals and wards of protection remained strong. Now the chaos of Revelation is weakening those bindings and magik is beginning to filter into the energy of the planet again. The Illusion has taught fear of anything that the finite mind cannot grasp so things of a magikal nature have been condemned. Many of the souls that are being born in this time carry memories of the magik and how it is an integral part of creation. Ceremonial magik is giving way to Chaos Magik, which is much more liberal and flexible in its form. This is not permission to conduct sloppy magik, but a greater space to allow for new creation. Divine Law still holds the parameters of creation and when those laws are defied there are still the balancing actions of karma that will come into play if there is abuse. In creation there is always the law of magnification which states that whatever is sent out returns to the sender multiplied. Those who might believe that they could perform dark magik with no retaliation will find that it takes far more energy to miss create than to bring forth new manifestations in joy. Magik is a form of creativity so those who plot to destroy their enemies through force, brutality or any form of control are subject to the same laws as those who would perform dark rituals.

Whether the misuse of energy is militaristic—soldiers, police, governmental agents or religions—teachings of terror, threats against the life of the person who does not follow the beliefs of leaders of church or country; these abuses fall under the category of dark magik or the misuse of creative essence.

Revelation is calling everyone on earth to come into a collective oneness. This is not some ruler deciding what everyone needs to do for him, but a deep internal shift of consciousness that opens the recognition of what interdependence is, how it feels and all of the gifts that it brings to each and every one on the planet.

Let us speak about the three-fold energy that is unfolding for all on earth. First, there is the sacred space that exists in the area of the heart, solar plexus and splenic chakra. The sacred space is ancient and holds the access to the Divine within. It is where the Master Book (Bible) speaks of hearing the “still, small voice of God”, which is that sense of inner knowing, feeling at one with and belonging to God by whatever name you may call the divine being. The Sacred Space is the inner connection to your true self. It is where you ask and where you receive ideas and new understanding for the ongoing spiritually on earth. The hearing may be audible or unconscious in its way of informing you. God has no requirement to go through a third party to “tell you what to do with Your life”. However, synchronicity does come from others and often times they don’t even know why they are telling you what they are. It isn’t necessary for the “messenger” to know why they are sharing. They just feel lead to say something. Sharing divine wisdom is not driven by the EGO mind that needs to dominate or control by games or secrecy. Spiritual wisdom does not come with a price. The only requirement is that the information be used in an unconditional and honorable way, for self or others.

The second part of this holy oneness is your Prayer Field. Prayer is a sacred art that when it used in love and joy opens new places within self and allows a depth of new creation that has not been known on earth until these times. Prayer is not a “grocery list” to God or calling on God to give your demands for what must be done for you and how. When you pray feel the energy of the words that you use, are they loving, trusting, forgiving, compassionate or filled with anger, hatred or retribution? Are you asking for others to receive the same things that you would ask for yourself or do you view God like a “daddy” who is easily influenced by guile and subterfuge to give you something better than the other children will get? The art of prayer changes the color, tone, value and sense of peace, joy and belonging within. Become involved with your prayers. Prayer is not a mental drill. Even the Lord’s Prayer is softer, more open in its meaning than before. The Prayer Field helps each person to understand within self that you are co-creators with the divine and allowing the recognition of how that co-creatorhood feels activates anew sense of awareness that encompasses the vastness of your life and all that it is about. The Prayer Field helps you to find the strength, stillness and power within to move through these chaotic times with a new sense of selfhood and atonement. Serenity and confidence are a deep reassurance that allows you know yourself truly.

The third aspect is your “Realm of Influence”. This is the energy with which you move in the world. We are sure that you have experienced people who move through the world carrying a feeling of intimidation that makes everyone around them want to cower or slink away. There are people who carry such an energy of victimization that they are difficult to be around because it feels as though they are sucking the energy out of the air with their neediness. It feels as though you owe them something even if you just met them. There are people who, when they enter the room it is as though they have lifted the energy and lightened the heaviness that might have been there. They may look like anyone else, but they broadcast an essence of strength and exude goodwill. People begin to respond to this person, but also to each other with an ease that hadn’t been there before. This is the “Realm of Influence”. Everyone broadcasts energy and the average personal realm is anywhere from 50 to 150 MILE radius, yes, miles. Humanity has no idea just how much influence it has. You have been told for so long and in so many ways, that you are not much and you have import in the world, that the majority of people have accepted that this is true, which is most unfortunate because your “Realm of Influence” is one of the greatest gifts that you have and sharing it lovingly brings about amazing changes for people you love, those that you encounter daily and many people that will never know just how your positive influence changed their lives even though they never met you personally.

We watch what is happening and we hold the intentions that more and more people will be touched to respond peacefully, positively and faithfully to a new vision for the world. The energy of killing paints the Prayer Field with darkness and puts fear into the Realms of Influence of all that are affected whether they are in the midst of the tragedy or touched by the power of abuse that is in the minds and hearts of those who feel led to violence rather than living their very best in an ongoing way.

This has been a planet of warriors in the Illusion. The times are changing and the direction of life on the planet is beginning to move toward expansion and positive creation. There is so much more to be revealed as each person allows an opening in the Sacred Space within. Thoughts, ideas, creative ventures, new prosperity and greater fulfillment are and always have been available to everyone. When the mind keeps reciting the same laws of lack over and over there is a blindness that develops that denies abundance. The beliefs that “the good is for others, but not for me”, spawns actions that distort the potential of the Prayer Field and Realm of Influence and cause the individual to function as though they are in a fog of limitation.

The EGO mind decides to pick on a certain group in a revolving psychological aggression. Every race, religion, level of society, gender has been at the brunt of these “mind games of EGO”. It is time to lay down all of the old burdens of guilt, judgment, shame, fear and self-abnegation. Leave them behind and move on. It may take a bit of time and adjustment, but you will begin to notice that your own life feels lighter and the response of others is warmer and more friendly than you might remember.

YOU MAKE THE CHANGES. YOU ARE A MASTER CREATOR IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE DIVINE. What would you desire the world to be? It doesn’t happen because you force others to change. It happens because you become willing to live differently where you are. The changes begin with you, within you. That makes you extremely powerful in your own life and that is where the New Earth emerges, from the changes that you are willing to make for yourself. You are not alone, but you must take each step for yourself. You may not sit and watch any longer, waiting for them to change so that your world will be better. We can help you, but it is not for us to do what you refuse to participate in for yourself. As you partake in your life you change it. Forgive being a watcher and hoping life will improve without you. In the greatest of Love and Joy we await you to join us. I remain your most humble servant. I AM the Lord St. Germain.
