

December Newsletter

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY HOLIDAY SEASON!! MAY THIS TIME BLESS YOU AND YOURS AND MAY 2014 BE THE BEST YEAR YET. Love, Molly and Dorian

Our first picture this month is sunset at Boyson Reservoir, which is a huge lake and dam about 35 miles from Lander to the east.

The second picture is a gray vireo taken in Sinks Canyon this fall. This small, unobtrusive bird is acting as a watcher of all that is happening in its world.

By the time that you receive this newsletter we will be in Hawaii. Dorian's sister, Karen, had open heart surgery on Halloween Day and we are going to spend time with her both going to and coming back from Kauai. What a great Christmas present this is for us. We will be back around the 16th of December. If you require to contact us, my cell phone will be on for the trip, 307 438-3181 or you can email me at mollyrowland22@gmail.com. We will be picking up phone messages and if it is urgent our house sitter can get the message to us.

The weather finally settled down about mid-November and we got some lovely Indian Summer. We did miss the colors this year, but there is always next fall.

After St. Germain talked about Stephen King's book "Under the Dome" this summer I decided to get it and read the ending that Stephen gave because the ending of the TV series was inconclusive. I have never read a Stephen King I do not generally read violent books or go to violent movies if at all possible. It seems to be getting more difficult all of the time. I heard the other day that movies that were given an R rating ten years ago now get a PG 12, I think it was, rating. Anyway, I read a bit at the beginning and found that the TV series changed almost everything. St. Germain was very clear that he was not attempting to quote the book or series as much as he was using the concept of being put in an energetic place of having to face ourselves totally with no escapes. Dorian and I have laughed often about feeling as though we are under the dome in certain situations.

I am finishing up "Fountainhead" by Ayn Rand. It has been quite interesting that once St. Germain drew my attention to the Ayn Rand books we have found that there is a branch of the John Gault society here in "little old" Lander. They were having a meeting at the restaurant where we were eating the other night. They were not apparently packing guns, but looked as though they might enforce their beliefs if questioned.

My daughter has so highly recommended "The Hunger Games" that I have ordered that series now that the second movie is out.

Our New Year's Eve event will be held on December 31, 2013 at 8 pm here at our home. We invite you to join us! St. Germain will discuss the potentials for 2014, the Year of Perspective. At approximately 1 am on January 1, 2014 there will be a meditation with St.

Germain, Lord Michael and Sananda Jesus. Love and blessings are shared with all throughout this celebration of a New Year's beginning. You may join by phone or in person. The event will be $40 and CDs will be $25 for the set of four. Postage and handling are extra.

Christmas gift certificates are available for private sessions with St. Germain, CDs of groups, evenings, Teachings and all of the uplifting, encouraging and exciting info that St. Germain is bringing us now. Give me a call or go to our website.

Beginning in January St. Germain is going to begin offering a "Personal Growth" package. Each month you can get the Teachings, Q & A (either call-in or mp3) and a one hour private session with St. Germain to develop your personal spiritual evolution. The cost will be $120 per month with a six month commitment which is a great deal as a one hour private session is $200 normally. If you wish to do both call-in and CDs it will be $30 more per month. St. Germain will continue this package throughout 2014 if you choose to continue all year. Just imagine spending an hour of valuable time each month discussing anything about your growth that you wish with the Master. We have the good fortune of spending time with him regularly and it is such an up lifting experience. I will begin to take sign-ups for the Personal Growth Package after December 18th as we will be back from Hawaii.

We will continue to offer the call-ins and/or CDs if you do not chose ti do the Personal Growth package.

If you are looking for the ideal calendar for 2014 check out the Hummingbird Calendar that Karen Singer has created. It could just be the highlight that you are looking for to brighten the New Year. They make great gifts!!!

Rainbow Center News

Our group for December is "Emerging from the Darkest Night". Not only is it Solstice, but it is that time when the Sacred Stag emerges from the underworld to begin its race for the light of Spring once more. Humanity is emerging from a sleep of thousands of years to discover the Royal self that has been disguised as small, humiliated and disgraced. Now you get to stand up, shake off the sleep and emerge into the brilliant light that you truly are. The group will be on December 22, at 2 p.m, at the Rainbow Center for the Humanities, 177 N. 4th in Lander.

CD's can be purchased on the website at www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/2013groups.html

Our December Teaching with the Master is "The Grace of Living: Your Life is Sacred". St. Germain says that this is the Christmas gift to each and every Master on the planet from all of the Masters who Love you—YOUR LIFE IS A SACRED GIFT FROM GOD. What humanity has chosen to make of each life that they have lived is personal choice. There is such a variety of things that can be chosen and woven into the fabric of each life. God granted the Grace of life and gave the Divine gift of Free Will to all. It is time to remember that your life is a sacred and holy sharing. What are you making of the gift? What you see happening is the design of the EGO. Your Soul's purpose shines brightly if you choose to connect with your inner self and discover all that you are beyond is illusion. The call has gone forth! Listen within to be led to your sacred space. REMEMBER!!

If you haven't had the experience of the Teachings that St. Germain is offering this year they really help us to understand what is going on. It just might be worth your while to check them out. The deep healing power of the Master is there to experience again and again as you listen to the awesome wisdom that he brings. CDs are $15 for each set—Teachings or Q&A. It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month. Postage and handling are separate.

To order CD's or DVD's www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/Teachings.html

A friend sent me this cartoon from an L. A. newspaper. Since Ayn Rand seems to be turning up everywhere I thought it was timely.

ASTROLOGY

NEW MOON in Sagittarius-December 2-3

It has been more than a hundred years since the discoveries of Einstein and Quantum physics, yet most beings on the Earth still hold onto the mechanistic worldview that was presented by Newton in the 17th century. The vast majority of the Universe is invisible even to the most sophisticated equipment and the most powerfully important part of the human being is invisible to the five senses. The capabilities of human strength in the midst of crisis seem inexplicable to the scientific mind, yet when considered from a higher perspective, a sixth sense allows us to be so much more than we have been trusted with by the finite mind.

Sagittarius is the sign that is most concerned with reality, truth and the meaning everything in a bigger scope. What we see is filtered by beliefs and awareness. There is a whole world right in front of us that we cannot see or comprehend until we are ready. St. Germain tells us all of the time that everything that we desire or require is right at the tips of our fingers just beyond the veil of our disbelief. We are all carefully conditioned from the moment of our birth to see things in a certain way—how boys /men are, how girls/women are, the role playing of life. We tend to live by unconscious programs—“That’s just how it is”! This New Moon asks us to deeply examine our assumptions and motivations. Are you being real? Are you living up to yourself?

Chiron squares this New Moon and guides us to see beyond old outmoded concepts that hold us in suffering, addiction and martyrdom—to know that we are not sinners fallen from Heaven, but divine creative Masters having a human experience. In mythology, Chiron is a centaur, both mortal and divine, human and beast, symbolizing the inseparability of matter and spirit, reason and instinct, humankind and all of creation. Healing is returning us to the estate of wholeness that was ours in the beginning. All suffering comes from the wound of separation from the Source of all Good. In Pisces, Chiron facilitates remembering our spiritual inheritance and broadens our scope for empathy, forgiveness and unconditional love for self and others. We have come to believe that the way of learning is through pain. Now we must remember that healing comes through Love. Chiron’s last journey through Pisces was in the sixties when Uranus and Pluto were conjunct. This brought forth back-to-nature movements, psychedelic explorations and the advent of “Flower Power”. Uranus is now square Pluto and Chiron is once again in Pisces. We are being reminded to “Live our Spirit in every aspect of our lives. We are not separate from anything or anyone.”

Jupiter, traditional ruler of Sagittarius, is retrograde in Cancer from November 6, 2013 to March 6, 2014 causing us to keep a focus on what is truly important in our daily lives. Are you living in the NOW or are you somewhere else where what you desire cannot reach you? From mid-July 2013 to mid-July 2014 Jupiter is in a wide grand trine with Chiron in Pisces and Saturn in Scorpio further supporting the release of concepts that have held us in scarcity, fear and separation.

Truth is not what we see or even what we believe, but an intrinsic value that exists at the core of our being like the voice of God calling us home to the wisdom of Spirit that lives within us.

FULL MOON in Gemini/Sun in Sagittarius-December 17

Every month for the past several years, I have done the astrological report and then said to myself, “Wow”. This Full Moon is going to spur us into action and we will be challenged to make absolutely positive that it is not reactive.

Uranus ends its yearly five month retrograde just after the peak of this Full Moon. When a planet goes retrograde or turns direct it signals a time for major changes for humanity. In Aries, the courageous and rebellious sides are both revealed. The desire for independence leads and the adventurous aspects take the initiative. We can express our resourcefulness and creativeness “outside of the box”. “It is time to change or be changed” is the motto of Uranus.

When a planet joins a preexisting configuration it brings new winds to the sails of forward movement. Since August, Jupiter has amplified the ongoing square with Uranus and Pluto. Now Mars, the indicator of personal will, courage and passion moves through Libra and forms a Grand Cross. A Grand Cross involves four signs and at least four planets. This compels us to resolve issues in four different areas of our life. Aries brings us to recognize our self-identity, Libra highlights relationships, Cancer focuses on home and family and Capricorn emphasizes our work ethic. Squares indicate turning points in our lives and oppositions call for balance. Cardinal signs form the framework of the horoscope and designate new phases of development, both personal and worldly. We are being pressed to make internal and external changes and we can feel scattered or ungrounded until we begin to discipline ourselves to stay centered and focused. The impact of this Grand Cross lasts from mid-December, 2013 to mid-January, 2014. Vesta at 13 degrees Libra and Ceres at 17 degrees Libra during this time further emphasize the requirement for balance, equality and cooperation.

This Full Moon is aligned with the Galactic Center at 27 degrees, Sagittarius, which works like a magnet to attract new Super Downloads from the GC. This brings extra help in releasing old beliefs, remembering our cosmic origins and realizing new dimensions of our life's purpose.

On December 21 the Capricorn Solstice brings a seasonal shift marked by greater electromagnetic attraction to planetary changes. Venus turns retrograde less than five hours after the Solstice. Retrogrades bring opportunities to deal with unfinished business, to reconnect with our inner self and to prepare for the next alignment that the Universe is sending. In Capricorn, Venus calls us to re-evaluate our desires, values and objectives in our partnerships, work and life. Venus turns direct on January 31, 2014. As a result of this retrograde Venus will remain in Capricorn for four months instead of four weeks. It can redefine our relationships, how we understand love and what is truly worth our time, energy and resources.

Our true security is really based on our ability to be flexible and embrace change. This is a time where the planets support those changes more than ever.

THE CRYSTAL CORNER

The Measure of a Journey

Here we are once again wondering where another month has gone. Strap on your seatbelts! We haven't seen anything yet! I hope you had a wonderful Thanksgiving full of many blessings.

I've been recalling a song recently that says something to the effect that some days are diamonds and some days are coal. That's an interesting observation and now I have a question for you. Have you ever considered that you could relate to being a piece of coal?

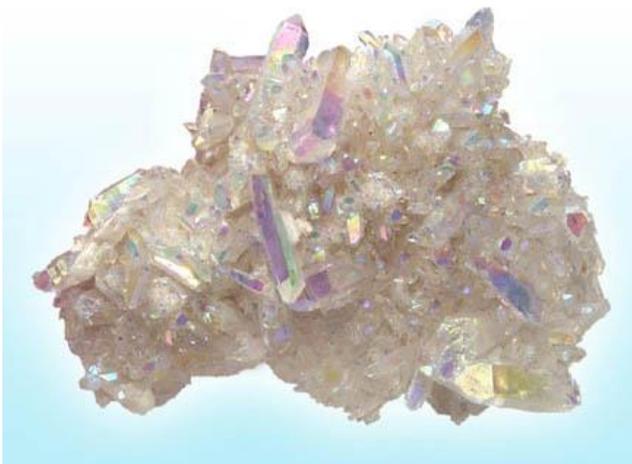

Would you judge yourself as wanting, as not good enough? Then consider this. If there was no coal, there would be no diamonds. Diamonds in the rough are very close to coal.

So, we could say that a diamond is coal that remembers who it is. It is allegorical of humanity. Coal doesn't judge itself for being coal but as it remembers who it really is, the heat, the pressure, and even the fear that it applies upon itself brings out the refined qualities. Humanity has always had a great belief that if there is no pain, suffering or difficulty, there can't be a higher level consciousness. So, what humanity does to itself in the process of remembering is very much what coal does to itself to become a diamond.

In this transformational time, everyone gets to be a diamond but so many are now more terrified of remembering who they truly are than they are of staying in separation. The diamond, of the gemstones, is probably one of the higher, more refined energies like gold is of the metals and roses are of the flowers. It is very representative of higher frequency, higher levels consciousness—not better than, but certainly something to aspire to. So, if and when you are feeling down and out and less than worthy, please remember the coal and strive for the diamond!

If you require a reminder of the truth of yourself beyond the physical, the wonder of who you truly are, gaze upon a piece of Titanium Quartz.

As the robes of flesh begin to fall away, what would be revealed would be something very much like this crystal. The shimmer of starlight, moonlight and fairy dust would be very much the beginning of the luminescence as the vibrational frequency elevates. This is a dense form but it gives you a visual of your true self. It brings in assistance from ancient civilizations to aid in the elevation to the point that you remember being this. Diamonds, anyone???

My gift to all of you this month would be the remembrance of who you truly are and the joy that goes with that discovery. Have a wonderful holiday season!

TAROT TALK

I decided to draw three cards from the Medicine Cards for this month of seasonal changes and advent into the New Year, the Year of Perspective, 2014.

The cards I drew are the Bear, the Swan and the Whale.

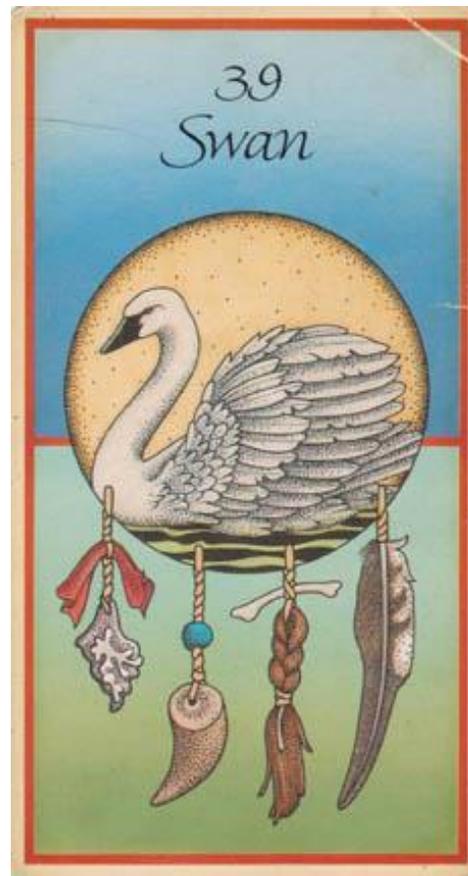

The bear represents the going within that this season brings. This is a time of introspection. The bear enters the womb-like cave and in the same way we must attune ourselves to the energies of the mother Earth.

Many tribes call this space of inner knowing the Dream Lodge, where the death of the illusion of physical reality overlays the expansion of eternity. In the Dream Lodge the Ancestors council and advise us of alternative pathways that can bring us to our goals. This is the power of Bear.

The female receptive energy that for centuries has allowed visionaries, mystics and shamans to prophesy is contained in this very special Bear energy.

Bear medicine lies in the West or right brain aspect. It is the intuitive nature. As Bear the winter causes us to enter into ourselves more and to discover the wonders of the inner self to be brought forth in the spring as a renewal, a promise of our greater self emerging.

The second card is Swan. Once again the Dreamtime comes into play. The little swan was flying through the Dreamtime looking for the future. She realized that she had entered the Dreamtime by accident. This was her first flight alone and the landscape of the Dreamtime was disturbing to her.

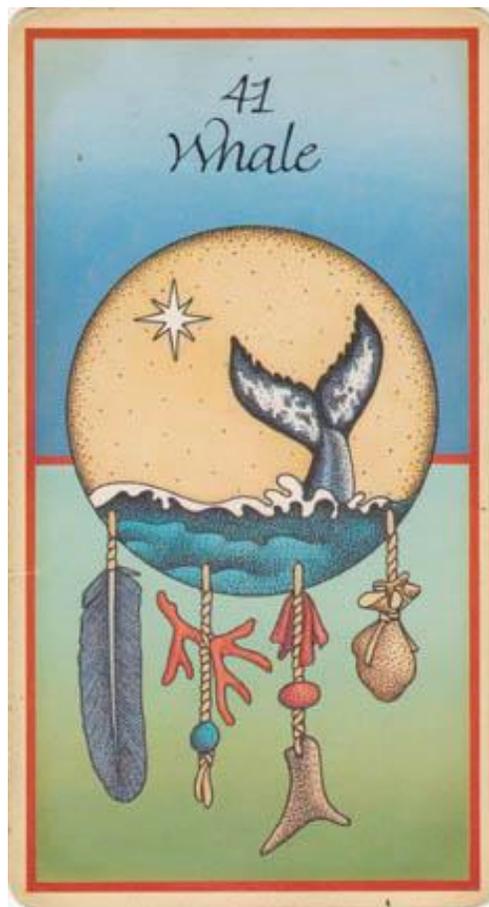

As she looked high above Sacred Mountain she saw the biggest swirling black hole she had ever seen. At that moment Dragonfly flew by and said, "Swan, that is the gateway to other dimensions of imagination. I have been the guardian of the illusion for many, many moons. If you would enter there you would have to ask permission and earn the right."

Swan was not so sure that she wanted to enter that black hole so she asked Dragonfly what was necessary for her to earn entry. Dragonfly said, "You must be willing to accept whatever the future holds as it is presented, without trying to change Great Spirit's plan." Swan looked at her ugly little duckling body and then answered, "I will be happy to abide by Great Spirit's plan. I will surrender to the flow of the spiral and trust what I am shown."

Swan returned many days later, but now she was graceful and white with a long neck. Dragonfly was stunned. “Swan, what happened to you!?” Swan smiled and said, “Dragonfly, I learned to surrender my body to the power of Great Spirit and I was taken to where the future lives. I saw many wonders high on Sacred Mountain and because of my Faith and acceptance I have been changed. I have learned to accept the state of grace.”

We are all being called in the changing energy to surrender to the higher calling of these times. As we accept who we are the complete beauty of who we are is revealed. We have been taught to believe that we are “ugly ducklings” but we truly are graceful swans. Pay attention to your hunches, trust your gut instinct and honor your feminine intuition.

The third card is the Whale, keeper of the ancient records of our Earth and our Spirit. Whale carries the records of Mother Earth and is said to have been placed here by the Teachers from the Dog Star Sirius.

In tribal legend Whale is said to have moved to the ocean when the Earth shifted and Lemuria, the Motherland went below the waves. Whale saw the events that led to the settling of Turtle Island (North America) and has kept records and knowledge of the Motherland alive. It is said that Mu will rise again when the fire comes from the sky and lands in another ocean on Mother Earth.

Whale medicine brings an understanding of sound frequencies and how they can bring up memories of ancient knowledge. There is a deep connection to the Universal Mind of Great Spirit even though Whale medicine people are not always aware of this connection until it is time for them to recognize who they are. We are all being asked to forgive the limitations of the past and tap into the records that lie in our DNA and let the song of spirit awaken in us the truth of our ancient origins.

I feel that these cards that have been given to me for these days clearly speak to everyone on the planet now. We are being called to connect with our inner self, our sacred space within, recognize our beauty by the way of Faith and Grace and learn to surrender our personal will to that of God/good in all things. As we open to the records that we carry in our DNA the history that we have known will be revealed to each one of us. These are powerful times of transformation and each soul is being called to make the shift. Love truly will lift us up if we will just allow.

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Dearly Beloved Masters, let us speak of Control. It is not a natural estate of the Spirit, but a very human condition that is a façade of war. You are now experiencing times of remembrance of who you truly are, so bright, so vast, so completely you. Your mind wants to sort everything out, divide it up and place it in categories. Who you are is whole and wonderful. Control wants to stop you from having the total experience of you. The mind has no comprehension of all that you are, for anything that vast is beyond the mind's capability to fathom. You control small things that seem large, but the ability to Control things that are really grand is outside of the bounds of what mind might call "reality".

The energy of these times makes Control less controllable, all of the time. Control is basically an attempt to slow down, stop or totally recreate the events occurring around life's situations. Letting go of Control is not the allowing of life to slip into insanity, but a clearing of mental, emotional and spiritual vision. As you make the shifts, learning to feel the answers within yourself becomes more important. In order to receive clear answers, trust of yourself is required. The illusion has spent ages programing humanity to look outside of themselves for answers, trusting the word of others above the truth that lies within. Do understand that after you have asked all of the authorities or polled all of your friends the final decision always lies with you! No matter how many choices or decisions you make every day the last authority on all of the steps of your life is you. Even if you give someone else permission to make your choices it still was with you that that choice was made. YOU ARE 100% RESPONSIBLE FOR YOUR CHOICES!!

CONTROL wants to say how everyone must act, what they will do, how fast they will work, when and if they can quit, how much compensation they receive, if any and on and on. It is a complexity of rulership, yet Free Will is not factored into Control. And the controller does not understand that by taking total control he or she is giving up their own freedom. THE PARENT WHO CANNOT LET GO OF THEIR ADULT CHILDREN, THE BOSS WHO CANNOT ACCEPT ANYTHING AS QUITE GOOD ENOUGH, THE PARTNER WHO WANTS TO DECIDE HOW THE WHOLE RELATIONSHIP WORKS, BUT NEVER IS SATISFIED WITH THE OUTCOME—these are aspects of Control that have been taken as a matter of fact. You have been taught not to question them. Men are allowed to say how women live their lives, conduct their affairs, spend their money, look, dress, and these men also feel that they have a right to set the standards for how partnerships of all kinds function, but also have the right to do as they please. They become incensed if someone does not perform according to their rules, even when the rules are not clear because they are not clear. And no one dares to suggest that they are not clear. The EGO which is the driver of Control makes its own insanity.

Everyone knows someone who wants to make all of the decisions, but can never quite make up their mind about how things must work, so nothing gets done, and then they want to blame everyone else for the failure. Which brings us to another aspect of Control that is in failure mode—BLAME. Blame and Control seem to be companions. Control wants to make the choices without any responsibility for outcomes. People in the highest of positions who make the biggest decisions are often the quickest to point fingers when things do not work. Right now, in these times Washington, D.C. is a global example of the failure of Control to work effectively. Everyone is involved and no one is totally at fault, as each person in the whole country is a part of the collective consciousness of America, whether they vote or not, whether they think that they have a voice or not, each one is an important part of the whole. There is not one that does not influence the whole in some measure. You are so much more important than you have been allowed to believe. In fact, you have come to accept that your unimportance is safe because no one listens to you anyway, especially you. The masses scream for Control, some individuals decide that they can be in Control with a gun in their hand. The CONTROL OF THE LAW is becoming as dangerous as no law at all. Give any frightened person a gun and you are arming someone who can be subject to temporary insanity. Once the gun is used and people are dead temporary insanity does not bring these souls back or mend the wounds of those who were not harmed physically, but emotionally and mentally. This often throws those who were not injured outwardly into a desire for more Control in their own lives. CONTROL, LIKE WAR, IS ESCALATING TO THE POINT OF EXTINCTION. It will begin to extinguish itself. These are not mental opinions, but observations from the higher perspective of the Masters who seek to assist the World to come through all of this chaos and into Divine Beingness.

The mind driven by the EGO to attempt to Control everything, is the same mind that wants to hide when someone or something bigger comes along and poses a “threat”. Men send armies out to do their fighting, while they sit in relative safety away from the battle, whether the fight is on a foreign shore or in the boardrooms of the World.

The changes are bringing shifts for those who have sat in the positions of deciding where the money will go, how it will be spent and how much they get to keep for themselves. These Towers of Babel will be seen to fall because they can no longer stand as the frequencies of the planet are up spiraling. Money is a power game and one of the greatest Control issues on the ball. Money has been made the standard of worth. The Virtues of Spirit have been set aside as mythology, while the coins of exchange have been given might over all. A motto of the times has become “MONEY ABOVE EVERYTHING”. This is a point of major choice for each person—will you live your FAITH and watch the wonders occur or will you live your disbelief and continue in the personal Hell that that creates?

When you are making a Quantum Leap forward into new paradigms changes happen. There is a delay in the manifestation, simply because in moving from old beliefs to those “outside of the box” it brings tests for you at every turn. You cannot just say, “I believe” and life magically adjusts. You already are Divine Magicians, but the acceptance requires consistency and discipline and you have not been educated in consistency or discipline in ages, literally.

Trusting yourself is vital.

Being consistent is necessary.

Forgiving making others responsible for your life is imperative.

Recognizing that you are valuable and living it is the Standard of a Master.

Each being is a Light Bearer, not for others first, but for self first—simply because if you are not clear, if you do not recognize and understand how the essence of life functions in higher dimensions you cannot effectively teach or demonstrate how Divine Law works for anyone else.

The need to prove “importance” disappears as you recognize your own worth, so the Control of appearances is diminishing as you reclaim yourself.

Remembering yourself brings the advent of the forgiveness of Control. As you recall the strength of your Mastery, the Dominion over your own life, the colors and tone of your being are revealed to you. The mind wants to know how that will look and what it will be like to live that way so that, if possible, the EGO can again gain Control of what is coming. Letting go is not a mental decision, but a Soul choice. Letting go is purely energetic. You cannot think about it and make it happen. The moment that the struggle to Control enters into the situation, the energy of war denies the AT-ONE-MENT of living you fully in the essence and energy of Divine connection to I AM.

Letting go of Control is an ongoing process. It happens with each situation of your life where you have believed that you could not survive without Control. Remember that in these times the more in Control you believe you must be, the more out of Control you are becoming. The tighter you hold on, the more your grip slips. Being out of Control brings you into the safest, most protected place that you have experienced for lifetimes. It is up to you to trust it, live it for yourself and prove it to yourself. It is not for I or any other Master to tell you what to do. It is for you to become a Master investigator of your own affairs in order to witness and experience for yourself the Truth of your own Divinity.

Control has hinted or even promised that as you become a Master you are a ruler over others. As you remember your Mastery, you will understand that Control over others has no place in the plan of the Divine. Even God created Free Will so that the temptation to direct humanity would be removed from the Divine Mind. Control has gradually bloated itself to the point that a few believe that they know better how the multitudes should live than any single person does for themselves. Leadership of the “sheep-al” is a device of Control. You have been programmed for lifetimes that you must have a leader. You are not capable of making choices according to the highest good of all concerned. The Parental Order has taken the idea and blown it all out of proportion. You must have a father figure, in government or church, to look up to since the fathers of the World have been too busy to be with the family, but the assurance that “everything that I do I do for the family” was supposed to take the place of a father’s love and presence.

In these times you can see the beginning of changes as men are no longer embarrassed to be with their families—to stay at home and care for the children. Men are discovering that the care giver of children does not play all of the time, that being the full time parent is time consuming and filled with personal commitment to the children and the welfare of the family. “THE TIMES THEY ARE A CHANGIN’”. Women are finding that being away from home is not always what they thought it might be. Freedom is a responsibility.

The Old Order wants to keep things as they were. The last vestiges of Control to keep the woman at home and bring shame to those who dare to be different, to shame the men who want to care for their family rather than just say they do. So many men never make themselves available to their children, constantly cheat on their wives, but shout the loudest about the sanctity of home and family. The Still, quiet Voice of God does not scream in the streets. The Order of Control is passing and every human will be tested to prove that without Control life functions hundreds of times easier.

Control:

“I must stand up for myself”. Where have you been standing up to now?

“I will show them”, but will you be able to see what you are proving?

“I won’t let them stop me”. They never did, your belief that they could actually stopped you.

“I will kill anyone who gets in my way.” Whether by the weapon of physical assault or by the weapon of gossip taking the life of another brings Karma into play. No one “gets away” with murder. God does not punish, but Divine Law imposes the realization upon self that killing is a violation of life. Many talk about killing being wrong, yet overlook their own choices to wound or destroy others in one way or another.

Control is found in every aspect of living. It is the insidious attempt of any human being to limit the life force or well-being of self or others. “I can’t have fun or good or joy because I don’t deserve them” “They have no right to a better life than I have or I have no right to a better life than they have”. (The perpetrator of poverty) “Who do they think they are?” (Masters We would hope)

How often do those who are living their Mastery get punished for being arrogant? How often do those who dare to excel, despite the judgments of others, get snubbed because they dare to reveal the potential of all by standing before the World as a mirror? How carefully do you seek to Control your own worth before others? What rules of your lineage do you constantly repeat to keep yourself in line? How much do you resent the limits you have been taught? Honestly? How sad does it feel to deny your true self again and again because of “What would they say”?

Forgiving Control will set you free. Clinging to what was will simply delay the inevitable because everything is moving toward the new paradigms right NOW. Nothing can remain as it was any more than you can continue to use a 110-watt line when the voltage now calls for 220-watt line.

Dearly Beloved Masters, our Love for you increases moment by moment. You are precious beyond your understanding. You are the Gift of I AM to the Allness. Each one is unique, rare, sacred, special—not above any other, but as any other. As the Love enters into the sacred place within you, you can begin to comprehend the Magnificence of Your Holy Self. You were not made small by God. As you magnify God you are magnified. We are with you every step of the Way. I remain your most humble Servant. I AM the Lord St. Germain

ART BY ISA

Isa has created a new booklet on Flower Essences that brings a simple, easy understanding to one of nature's finest healing tools. BLACK HILLS FLOWER ESSENCES: Nature's Gift of Gentle Spirit Healers is a concise capsule of information to enlighten and inform both those who know about flower essences and those who are just discovering them. Touching on the art of creating the essence and numerous essences themselves, Isa tells how the essences serve us. Isa has the booklet and bottles of various essences available for sale.
