January Newsletter

Happy 2015!! Hope everyone has a wonder-filled, healthy, prosperous New Year!

Right at the end of 2014 we had almost three feet of snow. Dorian shoveled a large part of our deck, cleaned the roof and then shoveled the deck again. She is amazing. We finally gave in and let our snow removal guy come and clear the driveway just before New Year's. Dorian cannot manage over a 100 yards of snow.

2014 was a year of major quantum leaps of faith and learning curves. We got our first Mac computer and are still attempting to learn how to use it. We got all of the equipment to do the streaming evenings this year and that is our next learning curve. We have found that Lander is not the least bit interested in streaming activities so we are still looking for someone who can help us to know what we are doing. Timing is everything and we still don't have internet connection at the building after several trips from two different companies. Country life is great and sometimes it presents unforeseen challenges to technology.

Note: Dorian got the camera and the computer talking to each other so we are ready to do some sample filming to see how the editing and streaming go.

This beautiful buck was sunning himself in the tall grasses behind our house. We have several bucks this year, each with his own distinctive rack of horns. I am so glad that the deer feel safe to spend time on our property.

St. Germain is continuing the "Personal Growth" package in 2015. Each month you can get the Teachings, Q & A and a one hour private session with St. Germain to develop your personal evolution in spirit. The cost will be $120 per month with a six month commitment which is a great deal as a one hour private session is $200 normally. Just imagine spending an hour of valueable time each month discussing anything about your growth that you wish with the Master. We have the good fortune of spending time with him regularly and it is such an up lifting experience.

Rainbow Center News

Don't forget our spring intensive will be May 16-17. "The New World is a Master's Plan—You are the Master" will be held here in Lander.

We invite you to attend in person or via streaming video. We love to have people come and join us here in the beauty of the Wind River Mountains and the Lander Valley. Here in this sacred place we feel the Magik of the Old Ones, The Guardians of the Mountains watching over us. St. Germain has said that this is a place of healing and it certainly feels that way. The Wind River Mountain range includes some of the oldest and wildest mountains in the world. Only two and a half hours from Yellowstone Park and the Grand Tetons, Lander is centrally located to many points of interest in Wyoming, Montana and South Dakota.

The event will be $300. CDs and mp3s will be available.

Our group for January will be at 2 p.m. on January 18 at our home. The subject that St. Germain will address is "Finding Your Purpose".

People have been seeking to find their purpose for hundreds of years. In the last two centuries the quest has increased as we have been moving toward the end of the Illusions that has been being played out for eons of time. Finding your purpose is not something that happens by looking outside of yourself, but it comes with internal discovery. To look at what your parents ideas and ideals were/are and realize that your purpose is to take what these two souls believed in and blend it into your own personal creation. St. Germain discusses the points and possibilities that can assist you to find out "Who am I?"

CD's can be purchased on the website at www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/2014groups.html

Our Teaching with the Master for January is "The EGO ". We talk about EGO as though we understand and yet it is an aspect that often causes us to wonder exactly what is going on in our lives, with other people and where we are headed in general. St. Germain will assist us to have a clearer vision of how EGO works in our lives and what we can change in order to integrate it so that it becomes our servant rather than a dominating force in our life.

If you haven't had the experience of the Teachings that St. Germain is offering this year they really help us to understand what is going on. It just might be worth your while to check them out. The deep healing power of the Master is there to experience again and again as you listen to the awesome wisdom that he brings. CDs are $15 for each set—Teachings or Q&A. It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month. Postage and handling are separate.

ASTROLOGY

FULL MOON-January 4-5

As this Full Moon awaits our stepping across the threshold of 2015 the aspects will direct us to consider making wise choices as we navigate the year. The sign of Capricorn and its ruler Saturn bring strong connections to the physical plane and can keep us grounded. Spirit is infinite; our physical life and affairs remain subject to the finite aspects of the temporal world. The Full Moon in Cancer squares Uranus and the Sun joins Pluto in Capricorn amplifying the evolutionary push of these outer planets in ongoing square. We continue to be called to deal with our shadow self as Pluto, ruler of Scorpio progresses through Capricorn. We cannot change what we cannot grasp. We have lived for so long with our subconscious minds operating below the surface and therefore, causing a sense of being out of control in some way. The current planetary aspects and those of the past eight years have been bringing up the shadows and stimulating us to deal with our shadow self as never before. Pluto's close conjunction with the Sun, the symbol of masculine, creative energy and individual identity, exposes and purges what is not in alignment our own personal life stream and where we are going individually and as a part of the collective. Vesta also joins the Sun and Pluto intensifying our focus on dedication, wholeness and truth rather than personal opinion alone. Vesta represents what we must do to keep the flame on our inner alter alive—a willingness and joyful surrender to what we hold near and dear. In Capricorn Vesta instructs us to deepen our spiritual connection, find and live our own true passion and learn to measure our success by the degree of love and goodness that we can shine into the world.

The Capricorn-Cancer Full Moon is square to the lunar nodes in Aries-Libra, which empowers the breakdown of long-standing individual patterns and collective archetypes. The North Node is a beacon that shines on our spiritual frontiers; the South Node shows us what we must release or redefine. This North Node in Libra shows us the way to true equality, peace and partnerships that are based on interdependence. The South Node in Aries requires us to mature beyond self-absorption, impulsiveness and aggression. When the planets square the lunar nodes we are pressed to resolve core karmic issues. Pluto's square to the nodal axis (exact on January 15 at 13 degrees 39 minutes Capricorn) and Uranus conjuncting with the South Node (exact on January 20 at 12 degrees 56 minutes Aries) reveal that we are now entering into a much larger, collective shift as well: Humanity must recreate the role models for the masculine, to progress from the patriarchy and the domination of nature to balance, equality and co-creation with all of life. Pluto's square and Uranus conjunction with the nodes occur near one of the critical degrees (12 degrees 51 minutes) of cardinal signs. This marks a significant turning point and where this Full Moon and lunar nodes fall in our personal chart details areas of our lives where we are developing courage and the ability to take initiative (Aries), sensitivity and compassion (Cancer), cooperation and ability to relate well with self and others (Libra) and integrity and the ability to respond to life (Capricorn).

This Full Moon calls us to be like the Fool in the Tarot. We are required to have the faith that there will be solid ground under us when we take that first step into the unknown or we will remember how to fly.

NEW MOON-January 20

This New Moon in Aquarius is at the very beginning of the sign just as the New Moon in Capricorn was. When planets are in the first two degrees of a sign or the last two degrees, they are considered very karmic, either starting a new cycle of understanding or finishing a cycle that has been in effect for a while. At the beginning of the sign we are about to open up to new ways of seeing, creating and reaching out to others. Each one of us has gifts and creative power that springs from our own unique combination of talents and experiences. The word "genius" originally meant guiding spirit. In ancient Rome every person or place had its own genius or in Greek terms, its own daemon or divine nature. As we are in touch with our spirit we touch our own genius. Where this new moon falls in our chart is where we are ready to demonstrate our genius in the world. We can make quantum leaps of insight and remarkable collaborations with others.

Coinciding with this new Moon is a very rare alignment that can inspire the potential for a collective quantum leap. Uranus, the modern ruler of Aquarius, joins the South Node at 12 degrees 54 minutes Aries while remaining in a close square with Pluto at 13 degrees 50 minutes Capricorn. Conjunctions indicate the end of a cycle and the grand opening of the next level: squares signal important turning points. Uranus motivates us to social, political and technological advancements; Pluto brings the end of old patterns and transformation that will show us how the new paradigms are formulating major shifts in all areas of our lives. The last time that Uranus cojoined the South Node in Aries was on June 2, 1847. Pluto was also in Aries at the time. The last time that Pluto in Capricorn squared the South Node in Aries was in November of 1772. Uranus was in Taurus. This particular alignment of Uranus and the South Node in Aries and Pluto in Capricorn has not occurred in over 2,600 years. The rarity of this configuration suggests that this year could be one of the most pivotal times in human history.

As we move through our lives the planets connect with aspects that they have made such as the energy of this New moon squares the degree of the last solar eclipse on October 23, 2014. What were the questions that you were asking three months ago? Pay attention to how the answers can manifest in your life now. On January 21, Mercury will make its first retrograde of three this year. It stations at 17 degrees Aquarius and appears to move backwards until February 11 when it turns direct at 1 degree Aquarius. Because of its retrograde Mercury will remain in Aquarius from January 4 to March 12—double the ordinary time it would spend in a sign. We have a grand opportunity during this time to discover what is holding us back from expressing our greatest self.

This is the year of New Vision—Clarity. Our visions are not just some wild idea to be dismissed as radical. Our imagination is not a "fairy tale" to entertain us. We are being called to find the greatest, truest aspects of ourselves and live beyond the fearful limitations of the Illusions that we have called real for lifetimes. We are becoming New Humans.

THE CRYSTAL CORNER

Awesome! Another year has come and gone and we enter the 15th year past the millennium! And they said the world was ending then! In many ways, in ways we could have never foreseen, I would say it did. Just think about how much has shifted in your world. For me, there have been many personal challenges that I am doing my best to not take personally! Are we there yet??? LOL

I'm sure many of you have made New Year's resolutions, probably the same ones, one more time! We do tend to do that to ourselves and then beat up on ourselves when we don't make the changes to our expectations. This year I have decided to forgo the resolutions and instead I'm remembering to be a friend to myself. I'll remember to be gentle when I feel I don't quite measure up to my expectations. I will listen to my inner guidance and find joy in my achievements. What is a friend? Isn't that someone who will listen to you and support you? Isn't it someone you can laugh with and cry with without judgment? My goal is to become my own best friend: to take time for myself, to laugh or cry when I feel the urge to do so and most of all to listen to myself. I can, after all, create my world to include the joy of being, as well as the empowerment to see through the illusions that keep me tied to the emotions that drag me down. I have the crystals, those beautiful instruments of love, to help me.

To promote more joy in my life, I will begin with Diopside. This is usually a cluster of small emerald-green crystals that will amplify joy. The crystals are small and a little of this is a lot because man is not accustomed to joy. You could use this in the area of the adrenals with Citrine to alleviate fear and bring a more delightful encounter with life. Or, you might use it between the shoulder blades to lessen burdens. It may also be used between the heart and solar plexus chakras.

Atacamite is another green stone that dispenses joy in a magnified way. Joy vibrates in the cellular structure of the physical body. Meditate on this stone or wear it on the body and it will bring into the physical affairs, into the daily life, a greater sense of joy, delight with being and a greater sense of well-being. This would assist in sweetening the emotional nature and uplifting the heart and the mind and making the feeling of joy real in this illusion.

And finally, one might look at the Anhydrite. This pale blue crystal has exquisitely high energy and reaches into the universe you have created for yourself. It works with centering-as above, so below-drawing from the universe within and the universe without and bringing them into center, a point of clarity where the entity can grasp how it all works together for them.

Well, friends, have an amazing New Year and find within yourself a new best friend! Blessings wished for all of you.

EVERYONE IS A CHANNEL

Children are born open to a connection with the Divine. They remain open intuitively in a natural way until the soft spot in the crown of the head closes at around eight or nine years old. When children are encouraged to express their feelings, visions and imagination they blossom. Parents who were discouraged from being who they are at an early age often feel fear, anger or resentment when their child begins to tell of things that the parent felt when they were young and their parents told them how wrong they were.

Children are our greatest resource and the children that have been being born over the last forty years carry a progressively expanding understanding of energy and how to use it. The children of the new millennium are bringers of a whole new way of living, an understanding of life that was “put on hold” in separation. We are evolving so rapidly that we could not turn back even if we tried and these children are standard bearers for our future.

We are innately intuitive. It isn't something that we have to develop or find. It is our divine gift. We have been taught to “mentalize” intuition and therefore limit how we can allow it to function. When we encourage children to talk about their dreams, visions and feelings we help them to achieve the natural connection to the divine. We don't have to try to be spiritual—we simply require to live our spirit as a part of our being.

Children have a connection to the spiritual realms when they are born and if we keep them in touch with that flow they will not lose the sense of wonder and awe that belongs to us by divine right.

The mind has developed fairy tales to replace the truth of who we are. Then we are taught that the fairy tales are not real, they are “just stories”. Now many people are convinced that the things of nature and the spirit world are “just stories”—not real. These stories are more real than anything that we have known in eons of time. It is time to remember who we are and live that reality. These times on the planet are calling us to connect and strengthen our union with divine in a whole new way that seemed to be lost in the annals of time. The children have the secret and the way to use it if we will just listen. When a toddler lips stories about playmates that we cannot see or hearing God or seeing angels, it does not mean that they are purely imaginary. It means that we may have turned off and tuned out for so long that there is a whole world just beyond the limits of our disbelief.

I found it fascinating when my, then three year old, son talked about seeing dinosaurs on the buttes and mesas around our home in Billings, MT shortly after we moved there in 1975. He didn't call them dinosaurs, but what he was describing sounded like dinosaurs and Montana is full of prehistoric digs for dinosaur bones. I couldn't see them until I touched his shoulder and suddenly, THERE THEY WERE! There were a number of different kinds of dinosaurs wandering around—some that I recognized and some that I did not. We went to the library and found books on dinosaurs and looked at the pictures. He could point out what he was seeing. We talked about the dinosaurs and he developed a real interest in them that carried on for a long time. I could have told him to stop talking that way, especially, since we had just moved to Billings and it was all new to me, but I felt that his intensity and wonder, as well as some fear, were real. The longer we lived in Billings the more the whole family began to “see things”. We saw spaceships frequently. When we arrived in Billings we had to wait for the house that we bought to get basement repairs. We rented an old house that was haunted and felt very uncomfortable to me. The children were intrigued and wanted to go upstairs were the most “action” was. I had quite a challenge keeping them from sneaking off and attempting to go up there. The stairs were not very safe, as well as the group of other world inhabitants who felt rather unfriendly.

If you have had experiences of connection to other dimensions then your children more than likely will also. Even if you do not believe in “such things” most children do have encounters when they are small. It may take courage to stretch yourself and ask questions without being skeptical but the rewards for both you and your children can be immeasurable.

Remember, everyone is a channel. 2015 is a year to develop your clarity and open to New Vision. En-joy!

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Beloved Masters, you have passed the gate into this New Year of Clarity. It is time, not only to see but to feel the new vision that is opening up within each and every person on this planet. The planets are heralding changes that exceed anything that human awareness has known in over 2,600 years. This time on the Earth is about a quantum leap forward in releasing the past and the Illusions that it held and being willing to move forward into life guided by Divine Directive. This is not something out there to seek, capture and attempt to identify. This understanding was set in place when human-kind was created and it has been a living spark that exists within each being.

Over thousands of years of separation humanity has forgotten what it is to be so connected with all things that there would be no thought of harm, of bringing danger to any other person, creature or thing in God's creation. The separation has brought about beliefs that people are set into categories by status in society, color, religion, education and many other minute comparisons that cause the pain of separation to be felt deeply.

There are those who have been so wounded in the game of separation that they have ceased to feel anything but a lust for power or a desire to bring everything and everyone under their ruler-ship. A perfect example has been portrayed by the master J.K. Rowling in the Harry Potter series. The Lord Voldermort (Tom Riddle), an orphan boy who was so angry at his fate that he set about to punish the whole world and make everyone suffer because he had suffered. He became so enamored by thoughts of his own greatness that he became completely detached from reality. He had a brilliant mind, but believed that there was no one else in the world as smart, as great, as powerful as he. The fatal flaw that brought him down in the end was the concept that if he did not deem something important it meant nothing and had no value. He thought that the whole idea of love was a great weakness and therefore, overlooked an element that could not be ignored. The fact that Love is the glue that holds all of life and creation together, he felt was beneath him. There are wounded magicians all over the planet that feel that their magik is more powerful than anything else. These beings, who believe that in killing the children of other races and religions, they can stop the growth of anything that they do not accept as a fact of life. Like Lord Voldermort, they do not believe that Love is a worthy essence and they coldly kill and destroy, not realizing that everything and everyone that they would annihilate are a part of them.

Harry Potter was set the mission of finding all of the pieces of Tom Riddle's soul that had been torn apart by Riddle's refusal to accept that that kind of action was a violation of Love. Harry, the one unknown element, the one horcrux that Tom Riddle never intended to make, was protected by the absolute Love of his mother—the one thing that Tom Riddle never knew or experienced. Dumbeldore always spoke of Love and Harry, in his youth, disbelieved that love was that important. Like most of the world he thought of love because of his love for those that he cared about. Voldermort died not from a curse that Harry directed at him, but from the rebound of his own destructive will to “destroy the enemy” at any cost. Voldermort did not realize that he was his own greatest enemy and that everyone else was a part of him, so that as he wiped out people without a thought he kept killing part of himself in them. as a romantic notion, rather than the truth of all creation. In the final conflict, Harry won, not because he desired to kill Lord Voldermort, but When Lord Voldermort “killed” Harry he destroyed the part of himself that was maintaining his life. After that event, even though Lord Voldermort believed that he had won, he was only holding on to life by a thread.

Because everyone is part of the ONE, all of those in the Middle East or anywhere else on the planet that are killing in the idea that they are making themselves stronger or making some deity happy are actually taking their own life away one murder at a time. They are, to some extent weakening the whole, as well as, further separating themselves from the love that is the prime motivating essence in the Universe. God does not withhold Love from any, but in the act of defiance against the creation these beings set their own karmic balance in force.

The energetic shifts that are occurring, the planetary alignments, the outpouring of information from the Galactic Center are all calling for Oneness and the interdependence of Masters remembering who they truly are. Dominance has no place in the higher realms. One cannot storm the gates of Heaven or demand that they be allowed into higher frequencies because they want it. Killing the enemy stems from the Illusion of separation that there is not enough of everything for all to benefit.

Again and again I say, “Nothing in this Illusion is as it appears”. As you allow yourself to be open to your own greater good, not how to take it away from someone else, but how to allow that which belongs to you to come to you, you will be amazed that life begins to pour out blessings. The “catch” so to speak is expectation and impatience. The EGO hovers over its requests. It keeps wanting “proof” that what it asked for will or is happening. Doubt is a limiting factor to receiving what you desire. It isn’t whether you deserve the good that is a limit, but the disbelief in your own worth.

There are people all over the earth that have decided that what they want is not going to be handed to them so they must go and take it from others. Here again, just as with taking a life, taking the essence of value away from another weakens the fabric of the life of the taker. Those who steal—a life, someone else’s goods, the joy of life—those who steal are stealing from themselves. The fact that they “don’t believe it” doesn’t change divine law that was set in motion before humanity was created. “I don’t believe it” is an EGO statement that has about as much impact on the Universe as “like and don’t like”. They are aspects of the thinking process of Illusion, which is passing quickly away.

People think that they know what they want, but as quickly as there is a change the masses doubt the outcome and begin again to demand change. When you do not understand what you desire it becomes impossible to bring it about. In order to design the life that you would love to live there is the requirement to focus on the desire rather than rail against things that are not what you want. Clarity is an imperative to healing the world. Only those who are willing to be still within themselves and discover what they are seeking will be able to bring about the life that they desire. Stealing, destruction of the property of others, shouting to the world “You cannot stop us” or “You can’t prevent “our brand of freedom” only raises a red flag for more battle. Rebellion does not stop an enemy, but entices the enemy to try harder to bring suffering. Focus on your passion to be free quietly. Live it with fervor, strength and energy and allow it to be a Reality in your life. Do not make it a battle cry, but a way of life. The more clearly you live what you believe the more it influences the whole. “Talk is cheap” as the saying goes. Only when you stand for what you profess to be true will it catch fire and radiate out into the world. This is true no matter what the statement you are making. It all comes down to a Master’s choice. Will you radiate Love, Peace and Compassion into the world or will you perpetuate fear, destruction and pain? It is your choice in each thought, word or deed in your life.

The “games” are over. Each person on this planet is a contributing member to the development of the future. Even if you choose to believe that you have no influence—that is a choice. There are no “idle” thoughts or actions that have no effect. Everything is important and makes a difference for the advancement of humanity or the restriction of self.

These are some of the most powerful and evolutionary times the Earth has ever known and you are here because, as a Soul, you chose to be. Most of the population of the Earth is fighting to get things that already exist for them if they would stop fighting and allow themselves to recognize the changes. The EGO points fingers at those standing before you and says, “There is the enemy”. The EGO represents separation and it is time for all to remember that everyone is a part of each other, as they are a part of the whole. Anger is a thin veneer for fear and when the veil of fear is pulled away often you find that that which you feared holds the gift, the answer, the “secret” you were looking for.

FORGIVE FEEDING YOUR FEAR. When fear comes, rather than allowing the EGO to assure you that nothing will help, immediately forgive the fear and replace it with what you truly desire. Feel the warmth, joy and happiness that comes in receiving what you desire. Every time fear comes replace it with peaceful, powerful affirmations of your dreams coming true. Soon you will begin to find that fear comes less and less and your dreams get stronger because you are feeding them instead of the fear.

It isn’t about status in the world as much as the acceptance that you have value. It isn’t about being alone as much as it realizing that in Love you are never really alone. It isn't about the burning hate of separation. It is about the burning warmth of Love lighting the way for you, that clears the vision, so that you can recognize that your life is important.

Dearly Beloved Masters, as these monumental changes are occurring we are with you to help bring you through. If you believe that you must do things all by yourself, we can only stand and wait. The moment that you are willing to allow our help we gladly move to assist you in total Love without any condition. The amount of help and the willingness to accept it are entirely up to you. IT IS A MASTER'S CHOICE!!! Until we meet again in whatever manner that may be We are with you. I remain your most humble servant. I AM the Lord St. Germain
