

June Newsletter

Our pictures this month are of the white squirrels of Brevard, N.C. Our friend Linda Lube lives there and this is a picture of one of the squirrels in front of the little squirrel house that she has for those who come to visit her. The standing stones are located at Anniversary Rock near Louis Lake. They are very much like Stone Hedge and the energy is amazing. Dorian loves tree stumps and finds the most interesting and beautiful ones to photograph. Here is just one example of her work.

I WILL BE IN CALIFORNIA IN JULY!!!

I will be in L. A. July 13-18. My contact person is Nevenko Kordic, 323 467-8691. There will be groups and private sessions. Call Nevenko for reservations and appointments for sessions with St. Germain, Medical Intuitive, astrology or tarot readings with Molly.

I will be in Santa Rosa July 20-26, at Lomita School House. Call Barbara Bennett 707 696-2203 for info. There will be two groups and private sessions.

I will be in Elk Grove (Sacramento area) July 27-Aug 1. Call Hazel Smith 916 207-7261 for info about group and private sessions.

The groups are for the public.

I want to congratulate and give a round of thanks to Hilary Clinton for her decision to stop using makeup. St. Germain has said for years that “women are dying to look good”. Her choice for beautiful health instead of glamour is powerful. I also believe that the true beauty of women deserves to be seen. “The masks are falling” and it is time for women to be courageous enough to show up for who they truly are. I am delighted to see Hilary for the beauty that is real.

Periodically, someone will ask me if you can get as much energy from the CD’s or DVD’s as you might in person. Our last group is as good an example of how the energy is effective as anything. St. Germain chose to speak about “Love No Matter What” as the topic for the group that occurred at the SuperMoon on the 5-6 of May. The topic seems innocuous enough, but the energy is compelling. St. Germain spoke about how important it is to love ourselves truly, No Matter What. Take some time to get in touch with yourself and discover how it feels to love yourself without any condition, no matter what. That concept stirs so much emotion from the EGO that it is almost unbearable. It is amazing that even though we believe that we want Love and the very best in our lives we still tend to put it out in front of us as a “someday thing”.

As usual, I did not hear the session until a day or two afterward because I edit the session and then listen to it all the way through. The depths of emotion that this information stirred in me were huge. I really got in touch with how difficult it is to love myself. Everything that I could ever remember and feelings about things that I cannot remember pushed up to the surface. This is where we are and this is what the second third of 2012 is about. St. Germain said that we are living five hundred liner years in this one. He said that the third third of the year will be a time of choice—will we allow ourselves to accept the Love that is ours or will we continue to believe that we must be punished or that others must be punished when that is not where the planet is going? St. Germain said that it was never intended to be this hard.

My point is that the energy not only has impact when you hear the CD's or DVD's but it has a wide spread influence any way. The Love is so very powerful. If anyone is pretending to allow love or to be Loved this CD will reach into the illusions and help bring the clarity that can heal the old wounds around letting love in. "I don't want to deal with this (fill in the blanks)" is no longer an acceptable stand for us to take. The only time is NOW and the only place is HERE.

Our May intensive was OFF THE MAP!!!! The energy and the information are beautiful and full-filling. I am getting reports of how good people feel after the intensive. There was much healing energy in the weekend.

There are nine CD's including two meditative times.

CD's are available for $100 and include the evening and both days.

Our fall intensive "Celebration or Limitation: A Master's Choice" will be at the Crystal Organic Farm. We do not have the dates yet.

Rainbow Center News

Our group for June will be on the 10th. The title is "Healing FEAR". It will be at our home. Call Molly at 307 335-8113 for directions or info.

CD's can be purchased on the website at www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/2012groups.html

Our "Chats with the Inner Merlin" this month is "Fire". This element is very pertinent in the physical body, especially in these times where anger is so prevalent on the planet. It is related to the fires of the Spirit in its essential form. Merlin addresses this elemental, the alchemical aspects of Fire and how we can understand and utilize them in these times.

FULL MOON

This Full Moon occurs in the sign of Sagittarius on June 4. It is a Lunar Eclipse.

From the time of our birth we are programmed by our society—parents, teachers, culture, religion, government and the media to trust only what we can see, hear, taste, touch or smell. This comprises only about 4 % of our world! The other 96 % is only available through the sixth sense and beyond. The most sophisticated scientific instruments do not register these frequencies. We have been taught to dismiss, with a wave of the hand, the real world. The Full Moon focuses on our emotional nature which is connected to the unseen Universe. We simply cannot ignore the fact that most of our life occurs on levels that we have been instructed do not exist.

Venus and Mercury join the Sun in Gemini for this Full Moon. This puts emphasis on our values, issues of the heart and how to discern between Love as an essence and Love as an intellectual concept. The fact that Sun, Venus and mercury will be square Mars in Virgo calls for attention to conflict in love relationships and anywhere that you heart might be involved in the situation. On June 5-6 Venus will make a rare transit across the Sun. Venus transits occur in pairs. The last time Venus pair of transits across the Sun occurred in 1874 and 1882. The first of this pair of transits happened on June 8, 2004. The next pair will not take place until 2117 and 2125. Venus was closely watched by the Mayans and was known to them as the Great Goddess Inanna, Ishtar, Hathor and Aphrodite. She is the western equivalent of the Hindu Skakti. Each one represents the divine feminine. Mercury, traditional ruler of Gemini, is also an alchemical figure. Hermes, the earlier Greek version is associated with the kundalini, the Sacred Serpent that rises from the base of the spine. The Venus transit shines a light on the emergence of the divine feminine ; it supports women in stepping into their power fully and men recognizing their own feminine nature. A gentle-man can be gracious and kind and maintain his manhood fully.

Lunar Eclipses are extra-powerful. Following the SuperMoon at the beginning of May we are being given a double dose of intensity around our emotional nature. During a Lunar Eclipse we experience the Moon directly without the light it normally reflects from the Sun. This exposes deeper levels of our emotional nature and taps into our emotional/intuitive reservoirs. On June 4, 1993 there was a Lunar Eclipse at 13 degrees 53 minutes Sagittarius-Gemini. What was important to you then? How have you moved toward those goals and what is your direction today?

Within hours of the Full Moon Neptune makes its annual retrograde, stationing at 3degrees09minutes Pisces. It will return to its forward motion on November 10. Neptune, the higher octave of Venus, dissolves illusions of separation and reassures us of our divinity and interconnectedness. Further opening us to galactic involvement, this eclipse aligns with the Great Attractor located at 14degrees02minutes Sagittarius. The super-powerful gamma rays, radio waves and other electromagnetic energy can help us to grasp things that ordinarily would be beyond our field of perception.

The blending of head and heart, male and female, spirit and matter are intensely emphasized at this eclipse. Love is never divisive. It increases the good.

NEW MOON

The New Moon falls on the 19 of June just 32 hours before summer solstice (Northern Hemisphere) and winter solstice (Southern Hemisphere).

The New Moon marks a point of rapid beginnings and endings. Things will be changing faster than the mind can comprehend. There will be many spiritual breakthroughs that look like emotional breakdowns. All types of relationships, everything that is happening in the marketplace, anything on the planet that is not aligned with the highest good for all will be challenged to rise above the past or disintegrate in the death of the old order. The test is, “Where are you putting your thoughts?” Our power is now required to be directed toward holding intensions that support what we desire rather than giving attention to anything that is less than what we would call “the best” for our lives and the lives of all on Earth.

This New Moon is powered by many exceptional forces. It occurs within hours of the Summer Solstice and fall in opposition to the Galactic Center at 27 degrees Sagittarius. It happens just before the first of seven exact Pluto/Uranus squares, which falls on June 24. Saturn ends its retrograde and stations to go forward on June 25 and Venus ends its retrograde on June 27. This energy all marks a forward motion in full throttle. We have been reviewing our values, commitments and priorities; we are now ready to act on what we have learned since Saturn turned retrograde in February, 2012. On June 11 Jupiter begins it’s once every twelve years passage through Gemini. As Jupiter influences our spiritual values and expands our propensity of abundance it’s closeness to Venus until July 27 opens us to new truth, connections and causes us to “rethink Possible”. Interaction with other countries and cultures becomes more open. Education must be reexamined in order to allow today’s children to be taught life skills and understanding of relationships that have not been considered by the previous militant orientation in schools.

The closeness to the summer solstice marks a turning point that indicates a return of light. This longest day of the year opens our psyches to greater awareness and in the energies of these times we are becoming more open all of the time. This solstice is closely aligned with the Galactic Cross—the intersection of the plane of our Milky Way Galaxy with the ecliptic (the path of the Earth around the Sun)—each solstice provides a wider portal for the celestial downloads that are accelerating humanity’s evolution.

This New Moon falls in close conjunction with Betelgeuse, one of the largest and most luminous bodies in the sky. It is the brightest star in the Orion constellation. Betelgeuse is a relatively young star, only ten million years old as compared with our Sun which is 4.5 billion years old. It is evolving rapidly and is expected to burst into supernova sometime in the next million years. Betelgeuse is considered to be the heart center to Sirius the head center and great amounts of energy are pouring in from these two stars.

As the frequencies accelerate our thoughts become more potent. Each thought manifests at a greater speed. What would you offer the world? Focus on Love and the World feels Loved. Put your attention on FEAR and the Prayer Fields of Global Consciousness collapse. Each person is responsible for maintaining their own spiritual energy. Anger depletes what Love builds. Gemini is connected with the potential of the opening of Divine Mind, especially with Jupiter transiting it. Awareness is imperative. Live as present, loving and compassionate as you can. Let this be your gift to the World.

CRYSTAL CORNER

THE CRYSTAL CORNER

Hello, my friends. It's time once again to reflect upon the wonderful instruments that come from the earth and how they are assisting us in our up-spiraling. I spoke once before about how everything is shifting and evolving and the crystals and stones are definitely included in that. I've always understood that we were only seeing a fraction of what could be done with the stones but where they are going is amazing! Where we are going is amazing! Where the earth and the universes are going is just as amazing! What a marvelous time to be alive. Over the next several months, I will relate the newer and expanded energies we are shifting into with the aid of these beautiful tools. This month I would like to go to a stone I've worked with for a long time—Kyanite. What is different this time is the discovery of newer, more intense colors of Kyanite and its combining with different minerals such as Ruby and Fuschite.

Blue Kyanite is probably the most readily recognized color of this stone. It carries a star frequency, a higher vibration of Lapis that goes beyond the physical and into the stars. It will open and inform the heart of the Christ energy. Because Kyanite is such a frequency of assisting willingness, assisting the alignment, the softening, the adaptability of the will, it isn't about over-powering or giving up one's ability but it is certainly about being comfortable, being willing in all the changes. The Kyanite, when paired with Fuschite allows if one is willing, the connection to the divine inheritance, understanding the inheritance is not just a lot of money. The inheritance is the ability to step beyond the limits of smallness so this is very expansive. Blue Kyanite is a wonderful essence for the will. What the Fuschite stimulates is, 'I can accept what rich is. I can be peaceful with what rich is. I can integrate and allow an experience of what rich is and realize that rich, in its truest sense, has absolutely nothing to do with money and stuff.' When you accept the truth of rich, you actually begin to recognize that magician's power of calling what you desire and feeling it come.

In many instances over the years, there has been what you might call the heralding of things to come. So, there has been green Kyanite and only that which could be understood in that moment could be given. But now there is the ability to feel the difference, not just to know, but to feel the difference and understand. A new, darker green Kyanite has been discovered that helps connect elements of space with the essence and energy of what is happening on this planet. It connects the energy and essence of the true human to those that are in the stars. It is a unity and a harmony which in this instance are very small words. This is a unity, a harmony that is so vast that the use of the word spiritual would be a limitation. For some, this would be almost as though there is a plugging in to a new level of revelation, a new level of revelation, a new level of revelation. It's so personal there can be no measure.

When I first saw the orange Kyanite, I was intrigued. Almost immediately I felt compelled to use two of them together. This brings in some of the energy and essence of Bustamite and some of the energy and essence of Mahogany Obsidian so there is grounding while this is really bringing the recognition of what the thymus chakra stands for and how pertinent the Christ Consciousness is in these times. It can be taped to the outside of the breast, in the area of the ovaries or placed to the front part of the head just above the ear. In each of these places, it has a different kind of activation of spiritual energy. Some would ask why, if it is placed over the ovaries, would it have a spiritual connotation? It is because the ovaries hold the seeds of life. The breast is nurturing and life-giving. Why would it be only women? It isn't, but as the divine woman is taking her place in all, then it is for women to really appreciate the power of their sexuality for it has been abused for so long.

This information gives you an idea of just how much the energy is changing. And, I'll bet we 'ain't seen nothing yet!

TAROT TALK AND RUNIC KEYS

We are going to discuss the Rune stones that associate with the Major Arcana in the Tarot. We have touched on this before, but I find the Rune stones to be a powerful tool and I decided to go into more depth on them for a while.

The first card in the Tarot that has Runic association is the Magician. Its Rune is ansuz.

This Rune reminds us to pay attention to the messages that life brings every day, moment by moment. We get subtle hints from spirit all of the time. The finite mind is so trained to dismiss coincidences as unimportant, but ansuz brings the message to be alert, aware and plugged-in to the signals that you may get. Ansuz is connected to the God Loki, the sacred trickster, the coyote. He is the hveyohkahl of the North American Indian, “a mocking shadow of the creator god”, the bringer of benefits to humankind. Even thieves and scoundrels can bring important messages if you are willing to listen, rather than dismiss what they say because of judgment.

The Magician works alone. The Rune ansuz suggests that you be aware of the things that you might be doing behind your own back. Old beliefs, judgments, fears, doubts and limiting ideas can run in the background of your life and be over looked if you are dulled by lack of presence. Drawing ansuz tells you that connection with the Divine is at hand. This is a signal to explore the depths of your being, where, perhaps you have not wanted to go. Go to the foundations of your life and remember who you are truly. Draw from the well to first nourish yourself and there will be plenty to nourish others.

The Rune reversed underscores your lack of Faith and Trust. Are you worried about outcomes? Do you feel inhibited from accepting what you have asked for? If you feel a sense of futility, of wasted motion know that this is timely in your process. Until you become aware of how you block your own path you cannot reach the heights that you desire. If the well is clogged this is the time for cleaning out the old patterns and ideas from your life. CONSIDER THE USES OF ADVERSITY.

When the Magician or the Rune ansuz appear in your reading it is time to come out of the fog that you have been living in and get energized to go forward. Forgive holding on to what no longer serves you. Make room in your house, your life, your mind for new concepts to flourish.

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Beloved Masters, anger has been the one emotion that men have agree is acceptable. Anger and rage have been deemed powerful and manly. Anger is a very thin veneer for FEAR. In many aspects of your life FEAR is being used to distract youth from their highest and best future.

The EGO may say, St. Germain is stuck on one subject. The issue is that the healing of FEAR is the most important step to ascension. So we keep speaking about this healing from a number of different perspectives. It is most interesting that the mind still believes that if you just say something doesn't exist or won't happen that this is how things will be. A perfect example is that suddenly there has been a discovery of a much older Maya calendar that suggests that time will keep on moving and that the Earth is not going to end. Now the message is being put out “don't pay any attention to what has been said for years. 2012 is just another year”.

We seriously doubt that anyone could dismiss what has already occurred this year. 2012 is, indeed, a marker in the evolutionary process of the planet and heralds the end of a time of separation on the planet. None of the changes were ever intended to be nearly as difficult as humanity has made them.

The planet is polarizing around FEAR. There are those who desire to keep things as they have been or even to go back to a past that no longer exists. They may use many different reasons for this desire, but it is still an attempt to prevent things from disintegrating any further in the world that they have created with their own FEAR. There are Souls who are feeling the changes from the core of their being and they recognize that these changes must be met even though it will seem as though the World is coming to an end. Money and control will no longer be the measure of personal worth on the planet and things are moving in that direction. The mind, in its limit, can only see destruction. Beyond the narrow scope of the intellect to grasp cosmic concepts there are unlimited possibilities.

This broad view of the coming times requires the courage to create changes within self. The out-picturing of how everyone else must live will shift to the internal understanding that what you see out there is what you have created and it will only change as you begin to revise your perspective of how the World is. A deprived, impoverished, insane world of angry people is a polarization of FEAR. The belief that things could possibly get better is considered by many to be the ramblings of unbalanced minds, caught up in some “woo-woo” concepts that have no grounds in “reality”. This is another polarization of FEAR. It is time for every “side” to consider that the greatest changes can come as people are willing to forgive the suspicion and doubt that the input of others could be threatening to their beliefs.

Communism and socialism could not work because humanity could not see beyond the control games. Those who would be in charge of the commune and would say how everything is distributed could have access to the money and goods of many and could dole out a little while they enjoyed the plenty. Socialism has just been another way of idealizing a balance of goods for all when the minds of the people were not ready to grasp the possibilities of everyone being equal. The parental order has said to the populace “We know what you need. You just give us the power and we will take care of you.” The reason that you have looked for leaders is that you felt you did not know where you were going and you hoped someone knew the way.

THE REALLY FRIGHTENING (to the EGO) PART OF THESE TIMES IS REMEMBERING THAT NO ONE KNOWS WHERE THEY ARE GOING OUTSIDE OF THEMSELVES. THE ONLY PLACE THAT YOU GET YOUR TRUE DIRECTION IS WITHIN YOURSELF.

Learning to trust your self takes a connection to Source that only exists inside. More than ever before it is about each person coming to an understanding that you cannot trust anyone else until you trust yourself. The politicians keep telling everyone “You need me to get things straightened out”. REMEMBER, NO ONE KNOWS THE WAY TO GO OUT THERE.

Therefore, the question in each situation that you must ask yourself is, “Do I feel that this person or group of people is listening within themselves for guidance or are they simply listening to EGO for messages of control as so many are?”

The EGO struts and preens upon the stage of life. The quiet man or woman who listens to inner guidance does not make a show to impress the crowd. The EGO points at their silence, in these times, and says, “They are up to something”. The EGO focuses on what everyone else is doing wrong. BEWARE THE FOCUS ON WHAT YOU DO NOT WANT IN YOUR LIFE! The masses, filled with impatience and FEAR, want something, anything, done right now and before the thought can be digested the crowd is screaming for another change and another. It is for every person to get still and get clear—what do you really desire in your life and for the world? Change for the sake of change is happening everywhere. As humanity begins to recognize the fact that when someone thinks in an emotional way they get emotional results, there will be greater consideration for where the thoughts are flowing. Usually the outcome is miles from what they believed would happen because the EGOIC mind is whirling in confusion. IF YOU CREATE IN CONFUSION YOU GET CONFUSION. IF YOU ARE WILLING TO GET CLEAR, THAT CLARITY WILL BRING AN OUTCOME THAT IS MUCH MORE TO YOUR LIKING. As the planet moves into higher dimensional frequencies the outcome of your thoughts (every thought) manifests much quicker.

We say it and say it and say it, “This is not about what others are doing or thinking. This is about where you are investing your own personal energy. What are you thinking? Where are you investing your FEAR?” FEAR blinds the mind from the directives of the Soul. Forgive thinking with your intellect alone. Allow your Spirit to bring you to the connection with Love within and you will suddenly experience new vision. Spirit does not tell anyone to do destruction against another. Spirit knows that they are in your life for a grander purpose than it might appear. Spirit knows that your direction is greater and more fulfilling than your mind would dare to conceive. FEAR is an illusion, but it is a powerful snare and it catches people in the WEB of the unreal.

Right now people everywhere are being lured into greater outward focus in their lives. Media cries live through someone else, judge others so that you do not have to deal with how harshly you judge yourself, be entertained by what the rest of the World is doing so that you can avoid the boredom of your own life—all of this is distraction from your own purpose and life direction.

YOU ARE THE MOST IMPORTANT PERSON IN YOUR LIFE! This statement is not based on narcissism or putting self above others. This does not involve an opinion poll. This feeling of being at one with your self can only come from the place of inner connection to Source.

Much of humanity does not want to hear about things that mean change. The EGO says, “That’s too hard”. All of the Loving things that require attention to self are recognized as “a good idea” and then tossed aside because there isn’t time for them. Some people will exercise for various reasons and others will not. Some people will eat healthy, at least for a while. Many simply believe that they cannot change or that it is too expensive to eat well. When there is a shift in the food intake in a positive way it begins to lift the energy and that automatically assists in making the connection to Source.

(Let us explain. When you make a change for yourself, because you Love yourself or because you care for your life and see that you cannot continue to live in the same manner and have a good life, your energy changes. You begin to bring in more life force to yourself, consciously or unconsciously. If you are willing to be conscious then things move much quicker.

A combination of food intake, spiritually directed exercise and intensions for a greater good in your life begins to open you to realms of higher consciousness that exist right where you are but you cannot access them in lower vibrations. Are you aware of your prayer field or auric emanations of good intensions for yourself and the World? FEAR takes energy! It not only requires more fuel than joy, it is a thief of the energy of others. A FEARFUL person is like a vortex of woe that consumes all of the fuel around them. FEAR will take all of your own energy and then it will begin to draw in the energy of anyone around you that believes in FEARFUL things also. FEAR has a mirroring effect. So does joy, good intensions and Love. Which kind of mirror would you rather be to the World?

Keeping yourself out of FEAR is a continuous opportunity for being present and alert. Life is filled with promise if you are open to the multitude of possibilities available. Staying open to the coincidences, spontaneous events and serendipitous experiences is much like the anticipation of Christmas all of the time. Something new and wonderful, something helpful and uplifting is waiting for you to be open to it. What is happening on the planet is that the ability to create by your thoughts is becoming more obvious all of the time. The Master Book (Bible) says, “As a man thinketh in his heart so is he.” This was written over two thousand years ago, yet the concept was a spiritual truth even then.

Let’s consider what happens when you are afraid. You feel depleted, paralyzed, unable to think clearly. You may look to someone else to make your decisions for you and yet feel that they might not be trust-worthy. You are in constant internal upheaval. Your energy collapses and you don’t have the energy to function. You may just sit and do nothing or “fight” your way through each day.

Today make a shift!! When you wake up, get out of bed and reach to the ceiling while taking a deep breath. Stand tall and feel the energy from your solar plexus (center) pulling you up like a string attached to the sky. It feels easy to stand up and/or sit up straight without effort. Look around you for something beautiful—a plant, tree, mountain, water, the Sun, a happy thought and feel how much better you feel with that vision. Breathe in the beauty. Let it expand you. Keep your focus on the best, most positive idea for your day or any projects or tasks that you have planned. Imagine how easily they will be done. Consider that if you require assistance it will be there for you even if you do not know where it will come from. Energize your day with a feeling of optimism and watch how things unfold. If you are skeptical and you doubt the outcome you will probably draw some limitation into your creation, but if you are willing to have things go well, be amazed. Make this behavior a habit. Make a decision to start each day with renewed vigor and an optimistic outlook for twenty-eight days. Only twenty-eight days can change your view of life and redirect your life force. Being willing to change is imperative. The EGO will be on the lookout sabotage your efforts and it is up to you to keep your energy up. Be forgiving of yourself if you are not 100%. No human being is perfect.

Take the time to look into the face of those with whom you interact. Look beyond the worry, fear or anxiety and find the higher self that exists in each person. Look to connect with that part of them that will bring about the best possible outcome in the situation. Hold that intention that their higher self really does want the best. Keep sending others supportive thoughts to lift them into higher awareness. This is not telling them what to do or what to think, but simply supporting them in the most positive outcomes for their life. This is called a prayer extension. It extends energy of loving power into the world to help lift everyone up. You cannot extend your energy to the world unless you are willing to change your limited energy to higher frequency. Anger and fear collapse the prayer field.

Anger and resentment are elements of the old ways of being that have been considered standard thought processes. You are the only one in your life who can redirect your thinking. It is not the fault of anyone, so forgive looking to lay blame anywhere, especially on your own shoulders. The prize that awaits you is a life that is very much what you have always desired, but perhaps expected someone or something else to make it happen for you. As you hold powerful intensions of your good and the good of others you open the way for assistance from both the human and Spirit world.

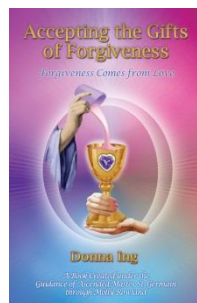

The Earth is at a point of spiritual evolution like nothing that has ever occurred before. The planet has come close to this point before but at each juncture the energy has been allowed to diminish and the leap forward was not nearly what it could have been. This time you are so close to the shift that it will be made and it appears that there are more and more Souls who are waking up to the changes in such powerful ways that the leap will take you into dimensions that have waited for you since the beginning of time as you have known it.

Seek within yourself to find your connection to divine power. As you honestly allow yourself to feel the sweetness of higher frequencies flowing into you, you can share your prayerful intensions of good with others. Remember, no one wants to be controlled so make sure that the intensions that you hold empower the free will of others for the highest good. Old FEAR based thought has been that if you give energy to someone that is “bad” they will take the energy and use it to fuel their misdeeds. Spiritually, the truth is that as anyone attempts to misuse power it begins to erode them—mentally, physically, emotionally—until the field of energy within and without collapses and they are depleted. Sharing energy is neutral. What someone else does with their energy is not your affair. Holding your own intensions for the highest and best good of all is what you are required to do. The EGOIC mind is so afraid that everyone will not “do things as I would do or act as I would act” that those in places of power have attempted to override the intuition of others. Parents have sought to create clones of themselves rather than being pleased and amazed at the wonderful individuality of their children. Arranged marriages, children forced to follow the parents line of business rather than attending to their own Soul’s purpose over time has distorted the Spiritual connection. Now, it is time to REMEMBER. Control is a tool of FEAR. No human being has the right to control another. Parents are given the gift of children who come to change what has been. Each generation comes to advance civilization and it is their mission to clear what no longer serves. The FEAR of these times is that the whole structure of material society is on the verge of collapse because of the attempts of the old order to hold on. Change is inevitable and growth is no longer an option.

Find the balance of Love within yourself through AT-ONE-MENT. Forgive FEAR’S hold on you and rise up to meet the new becoming. We are here. We are with you. We support your shifts and changes. We cannot make them happen for you, but we send visions and dreams that will assist and encourage your accelerated evolution. You are so Loved. I AM your humble servant in the becoming. I AM the Lord St. Germain
