

March Newsletter

February got quite warm, so one day Dorian decided that she would take a walk. She went around the cemetery which is her favorite place to walk. When she came back to the car she said, "I want you to see something." She told me where she wanted to go and I drove over a street and down three. There in the newer part of the cemetery was a headstone that we had never seen before. It was a huge M, made of shiny silver metal. On the front was a beautiful ornate sword with what appeared to be flowers of some kind wound around the blade. It was a stylized M, very fat like a balloon letter. I thought that was very odd, but then I had never seen a headstone like it before. There was a flow of energy coming from it like a torrent. We sat and looked at it.

Later that evening we were discussing the headstone and we wondered if we went back if it would be there, it was so magikal. The next day when we were in town we drove up to the cemetery and I approached it from the opposite direction than the day before. When it came into site (yes, it was still there), I immediately realized that it was an entirely different M from the day before. I pulled up and stopped and Dorian got out of the car. The snow was deep and undisturbed around the headstone, but she walked around to where she could get to it. She got to the M and found that it was made of some metal that she had never seen before. There was a magic marker, on the base, that could be used to write messages on the surface. The sword was covered in a vine of roses made of different colors of metal. There was a small silver ball on the base that contained wrapped candies for people to take. The woman who had died was the same age as my daughter. There was a picture of someone on a snowmobile carved on the left side of the base of the M. The day before Dorian and I both thought the sword might be Excaliber, but when we drove up the second day I just knew that it was Lord Michael's sword.

The Teaching was that evening and I was telling those who called in about the big M. I described what I saw and after the Teaching was over Dorian and I sat chatting when the conversation turned to the headstone. She said, "I didn't know that the M that you saw was fat. What I saw was a big "Merlin" sort of M with a flowing base. That's when I said that the M I saw on Tuesday was very different from the M that I saw on Wednesday. Dorian said, "I saw something different also." We both still saw the M, but each one of us saw a different M than the one the day before.

This was one of the clearest and most profound demonstrations of magik that I have ever experienced and I have encountered a lot of magik throughout my life. Dorian keeps saying, "No one will believe this." My feeling is that as more and more Love is pouring into the Earth's atmosphere there is more magik available than humanity has known before. Separation created a schism between the physical and spiritual realms that is beginning to mend. As the two worlds become one again we will have access to energy that has been there all along, but just on the other side of the veils of disbelief that clouded our vision and prevented our recognition of the magik. Magik is not evil, it is just feared because it is so strong and we have been taught to accept that we do not have that kind of power. We do and we always have. We just got caught in the Illusion long enough to psychologically be limited to smallness. Yes, it takes the awakening to our Mastery to use the magik well. Misuse of the magik has consequences that were set in place in the Universe, before we were created. They are not judgments, but protections set into place so that we would understand the value of magik as a creative tool. Spiritual Masters carry a clear resonance and clarity of how the magik is used for the “highest good of all concerned”.

I am constantly amazed at the stories that people are telling me about the power that is returning to them and how different they feel about themselves. The breakthrough into the connection with higher dimensional frequencies brings a whole new world of understanding that we have wanted for so long. The key to accessing those frequencies is the willingness to let go of control and we cannot fake that. You have to be more important to yourself than the need to stay small.

The crystal that Dorian bought in San Francisco came on the Friday before Valentine’s. It is as though every crystal in the house was waiting for the Shining One to arrive.

It is so powerful and the loving energy that flows from it is almost overwhelming. It is almost two feet tall and there is so much detail that you could spend days just looking at it.

This picture was made with the afternoon sun coming through it.

We got a chance to go to the bowling alley one Saturday during February to watch my great grandson, Chancey bowl. He is seven. This picture shows Chancey and his cousin Mckinzie who was born about the same time as Chancey, in December of 2008.

Beginning in January 2016 St. Germain will be teaching about the understanding and application of Spiritual Alchemy. Each Teaching will move us futher

Spring Intensive

Our 2016 May Intensive will be “Realms of Remembering; Dreaming Yourself New”. This is the Year of Embracing your New Self. A year filled with the discovery of how personal alchemy changes your life. The realms of remembering have opened and the Earth is in the revolution of evolution. How you use your energy and where you focus your power is very personal. It influences the life you live right now and the future that you will experience as you move forward. You have the power to change the World, but it is not in what you do out there or how hard you try to make others change. As you are willing to remember who you really are you experience a sense of strength, confidence and compassion that has been hidden away within you. The Game of Illusion was anchored in pain and fear. The New Becoming is all about overcoming the limits of what has been.

It will be May 14-15 here at our home. We invite you to join us in person. Call or email Molly for more information.

CDs and mp3s will be available.

Our March group will be Easter Sunday. The topic is Where Would You Like Your world to Go? St. Germain and Master Jesus will speak of current affairs and where the new energy is taking the world in general.

The group will be at 2 pm MDT. Call-ins are welcome. Please let us know ahead of time so we can set up for the conference.

March Teaching--"Sacred Alchemy: Faith and Prosperity" People have no idea just how much faith influences the flow of prosperity into the life. The more trust there is in the Love of the Divine the stronger the connection to Source. Even in times when the balance of power on the planet is shifting, when there is a firm faith, things seem to be revealed when it is time. Power sources in the physical plane are beginning to change. The old resources are beginning to dwindle and fresh new ways of bringing energy to homes and highways are coming forth. There is always plenty. The necessity of looking to the unknown future and allowing revelation to show the way takes great courage and, yes!, Faith. Our call-in for the Teachings is the second Wednesday evening at 7 pm MST.

If you haven't had the experience of the Teachings that St. Germain is offering this year they really help us to understand what is going on. It just might be worth your while to check them out. The deep healing power of the Master is there to experience again and again as you listen to the awesome wisdom that he brings. CDs are $15 for each set--Teachings or Q&A. It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month. Postage and handling are separate.

ASTROLOGY

NEW MOON-Total Solar Eclipse March 8-9

This New Moon in Pisces is a Solar Eclipse. Mercury, Neptune, Ceres, Moon, Sun, Chiron and the South Node are all conjunct in Pisces putting the focus on deep connection with ourselves. This is the first of four eclipses this year and the first of three SuperMoons in a row. Eclipses occur when the Sun, Moon and Earth align more closely, focalizing a greater concentration of cosmic energies.

All Solar eclipses mark major endings and beginnings. Where 18 degrees 55 minutes of Pisces falls in your chart indicates where something in your life is culminating or ready to move to the next level. Eclipses move in 19 year cycles. In 1997, on March 8 there was an eclipse at 18 degrees 36 minutes of Pisces. What was taking place in your life then? What requires change now? Also, look back to September 12, 2015, when there was a solar eclipse at 20 degrees Virgo, almost opposite this one.

Mercury, Neptune, Ceres and Chiron in Pisces greatly amplify the Piscean call for healing and opening the heart, with Chiron the closest to the Sun and Moon. The word "heal" comes from the Old English root halen, which also gives us the words "health" and "whole." Healing requires the recovery of parts of ourselves that have been denied or suppressed. Pisces teaches us that enlightenment is not about being good, but about becoming whole. As we come full circle in our spiritual journey, after playing all of the parts; we realize that we are the star, the producer and director of the play we have made. In that we discover that there is no failure, no blame, only infinite opportunities for growth and expansion. We find that unconditional Love is filled with appreciation, understanding, acceptance and forgiveness all of which transcend the EGO.

Through the mind we have been brought to the depths that assured us that we are nothing and nobody. We can now remember the Divine Creative Masters that we are, that God created in Love without any limitations. The potential for profound healings continue as the Sun cojoins Chiron and Mercury joins Neptune on March 10. Big shifts occur when another planet crosses the degree of an eclipse; watch for insights on March 15, 16 and 27 when Mercury, Ceres, and Venus reach 19 degrees Pisces, respectively.

Jupiter at 18 degrees 13 minutes Virgo is closely opposite the sun and Moon in Pisces, expanding our vision of what is available to us and bringing a deeper awareness of the unlimited possibilities that await us now. We are required to change our views on imagination, dreams and intuition as the cosmos expands the scope of all of these divine tools that God instilled within us. The judgments of "overly-sensitive" and/or "strange" are up for reconsideration. Most people who hold to the conservative point of view do not realize that 96% of the universe remains beyond our five senses and only 4% is either visible or measurable by our finest scientific instruments. Our inner vision is now being opened to all that exists "just beyond the tips of our fingers, behind the veil of our disbeliefs." The sixth sense of spirit is embracing the five senses that we have said "are all there are", and raising us up to higher consciousness. Jupiter's quincunx to Uranus at 18 degrees 41 minutes Aries reminds us that the shift of an inch in the Earth plane effects a thousand miles has the energy moves outward into the universe.

The questions that have seemed most important melt into the flow of love and we are filled with gratitude for all that we have and will have. Limits disappear and vistas of new explorations open into forever. We are New Humans.

FULL MOON-Lunar Eclipse-March 23

This eclipse occurs three days after the first equinox of the year, which is a time of potent change. This is the beginning of the astrological new year and we emerge from the mystical spirit waters of Pisces to rise up into the fiery energy of Aries. We stand balanced on the edge of flight into uncharted territory of new beginnings. Its complimentary sign Libra holds us steady as we step out.

Six months ago, on September 27, 2015, there was a total lunar eclipse at 4 degrees 40 minutes in Aries-Libra very close to the degree of this eclipse. Once more the emphasis is on relationships. Our feelings and fears arise and we become more aware of intuitions and revelations. We become more aware of where our life might be going and alert to how our compulsions create far reaching consequences. Where do we dare to risk what we have believed we could not live without? Where do we require more flexibility and responsiveness to those with whom we relate?

Mercury is only 21 arch minutes away from the Sun calling for personal honesty, as well as, being truthful with others. The Moon's opposition from Libra cautions us to consider feelings as well as thoughts. Chiron's conjunction with the South Node at 22 degrees Pisces helps us to differentiate between compassion and codependence, while Chiron's conjoining with Ceres draws into a closer relationship with our Mother Earth and all of nature. Jupiter makes the second of three squares to Saturn during this Full Moon and we are directed to question our assumptions and motivations. Are we making a living or a life? Where have we been hiding from ourselves, that we must now be truthful in order to recognize our best self? On March 25, Saturn takes its yearly turn retrograde, moving backward until August 13. Our attention is called to discovering and eliminating any biases or fallacies that hold us back from fulfilling our soul's destiny.

This Full Moon shines a bright light on the importance of keeping an open heart as well as an open mind. The innocence of a child that finds something new in everything, we are reminded to "enter the Kingdom of Heaven as a child" in pure Love. "Know Thyself".

OF POETRY AND PROSE by Nanna Hansen

Introduction to "Glimpses of Light"

The subject or subjects in poetry and prose may be based on fiction or facts, and sometime on a blend of both. However, what is a fact to one person may be fiction to another, and vice versa. This distinction varies very much and depends on how a person perceives the world and reality. Often that perception is based on ones upbringing (even ones genes), education in this life and influences by unconscious knowledge acquired from other lifetimes.

Of course, if you do not believe there is any truth to the reality of Reincarnation, I do not mind it you think it is only my vivid imagination.

However, this book contains some of the most memorable glimpses of events and happenings that has emotionally affected me and change my perception of life and reality.

The Poem on the page 6 is an attempt to explain how and why 'my travels' occurred, and by the end of my tales you will understand that not all I have seen or remembered is painless. Neither overall effect to my mind or soul been easy to accept, intellectually or emotionally.

Time Travel

My Mind

Does not seem

To be constrained

By conventional chains,

But, wanders in Time

With no regards

For the difference

Between The Future,

The Present or the Past.

A Kaleidoscope of lives

I live, simultaneously,

Because of my strange

Form of memory. Other,

Cannot understand how

Narrow is their concept

Of Time and Reality.

So, alone am I with

My pain and loss.

Still trying to find

My love from many Times.

QUOTES FOR THE MONTH from St. Germain

As you reach for the deeper awareness of your most shining self you find the memories of the Ancients rising to the surface of your consciousness. As you live the dreams that are becoming more real all of the time you find that what you had be told was a myth is the foundation of your life forever. The Love brings the Dream and the Dream forges the Loves connection deeper into the Truth of your selfhood. Feel the power of who you are shining brightly in your sacred visions. Live the Love that you are NOW! St. Germain

Every day you step closer to who you are. You forgot so long ago. We stand with open arms to welcome you and celebrate the remembering. The greatest joy of all is that you will no longer have to think that you are small. St. Germain

In the mystery of becoming lies the mystery of all that is. The mists of who you were swirl into the mists of who you are and in that dance you are born again—The New Human. Rise up, shining one and live the Love fully. St. Germain

In the midst of seeming chaos you are emerging from the Illusion. Lifetimes of concepts that indicated that you were alone are melting into the Love of God/Goddess/All That Is. The dreams that you have doubted are proving to be REAL. You are the dreamed and the dreamer, transcendent Magikian, co-creator with the Oneness. You hear the call and it is you calling home to everything that you desire. Live the Love. St. Germain

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Dearly Beloved Masters, it only seems appropriate to begin with “Where is your focus?” This is vital in these times to remember. The Buddha calls it BEING MINDFUL. I would say, “Pay attention to your focus. What are you thinking about?” Where your thoughts are, creates the laboratory of designing your future. You are what you invest in emotionally and the thoughts of your mind stir emotions. To mindfully focus on seeking the most positive feelings and designing the life that flows from the positive energy brings you a different life than the majority of the planet is creating.

Most of humanity is driven by impulse—anger, hunger, sexual appetites, boredom, pain, neediness, a lust for power. More often than not there is little mindfulness as to what the far reaching outcome will be. The EGO has tunnel vision. It wants things “right now” without consideration of what might happen tomorrow because of today’s choices. An excellent example is those who manipulate the stock market by buying and selling to build their own fortunes without a great deal of consideration of what happens to the whole, those who life focus is not gambling with Universal energy. We say all of the time; “If you wish to gamble, go to a casino, spend only what you can afford and enjoy yourself”. Gambling is just that, risk taking. It is really not a stable way of making a living or even getting quick money.

When you begin to pay attention to keeping your focus on elevating your energy you begin to see/feel the results of the shift. The key is to remember that the planet has shifted into higher frequencies and therefore is subject to Divine Timing in a way that has not been obvious in many lifetimes. Control worked relatively well in the Illusion, but the higher the energy goes the difference in which realm you are operating becomes noticeable. Peacefulness is another key factor in accomplishing what you desire in these times. This has been a planet of Warriors and the warrior way is still held in high regard, but it is bringing more disruption and less valuable outcome with each passing moment. To keep your focus on the positive, peaceful, productive life requires PATIENCE! The EGO wants solutions and it wants them right now. “You, out there, over there, should have the solution that will make my life better. It is up to you to give me what I want. I demand that you provide the answer. I am making you responsible for my life!” The masses are screaming in the streets for justice and yet their focus is on making someone pay for their problems. The idea that justice is for everyone is lost in the Illusion that those with money have the answers and should fix everything. If you had the money what would you do? Feel into this. The EGO knows all of the right answers, but what would you do if you were the one the masses were demanding answers of.

WHERE IS YOUR FOCUS, TRULY?

There are changes occurring that are connected to the Revelation and shifts that were set into place eons ago. These are changes that are resetting the planetary harmony and balance. These changes are making the conflicts and military strategies all over the world show up in a glaring light of ineffectiveness. People who are in positions of power standing up before the world, acting, for all of the world to see, like grade school children, taunting, name calling and pointing fingers and the crowd gathers to see a “good fight”. Where is your focus?

There are oil spills, toxic soil, poisonous waste poured into the drinking supply of many cities and politicians standing with a straight face and saying “Everything is all right”, to people who are beginning to know better. You have heard of the Awakening for years; Waking up means paying attention to your own life, because it is PRECIOUS. It isn’t about fighting another battle to get what? What is required? What is necessary? WHERE IS YOUR FOCUS? Forgive fighting to stop what is wrong. Begin to focus on connecting to Source and allowing the energy of Love to bring positive outcomes where only more destruction has been emerging in the name of progress. People are dying to be right. WHERE IS YOUR FOCUS?

Be still within yourself and listen to the calm, tranquil council of Spirit telling you your next step is. It isn’t about anyone changing the World out there first. If you have no idea, clearly, what is required to make changes then you are not prepared or equipped to force others to do what you say. If you are not willing to make the same changes that you require of others then you will not get the desired outcomes. IF EVERYONE ON THE PLANET IS WILLING TO CHANGE BUT YOU, THEIR CHANGES WILL MAKE YOUR LIFE MISERABLE. The EGO wants everyone else to change “so that my life will be better”, and then tries to stop the progress when it begins to look as though the changes the others are making are improving their life. The conservative mindset is like walking a tight rope on a wire with no safety net. Trying to be safe by saying you are, without believing it, is Illusion. The liberal mindset is just another extreme. The broad path, inclusive of all, the mindful way, is moving into place because Masters are interdependent not isolated. Drawing lines for battle over every idea, concept, wounded EGO, political value or religious tenant heals NOTHING. War does not mend, it destroys. WHERE IS YOUR FOCUS?

YOU ARE MASTERS, NOW! What do you desire? Do you wish to have a good relationship? Are you focusing on getting the relationship? Are you thinking about the kind of person that you want to be with? Is your focus out there? Who are you? Are you willing to be Loved, really? What does that mean to you and how does Love feel? Romance has kept the idea of love before humanity, but with the subtle suggestion that true Love is in a land far, far away. Romance novels suggest to women that they must be alluring and then play “hard to get”. Keep the other person guessing about who you are and where you stand and that keeps the romance alive. However, it never lets anyone get close. Love is intimacy (In-to me-see). Can you let others know who you really are? Do you know, really? Feel into yourself and find the you that God created: he/she is in there waiting to be discovered. It isn’t about presenting yourself as someone that the World will accept. It is about accepting who you are!!! The Master Book says, “What does it bring someone to gain the whole world and lose themself”. (paraphrase)

Do you want a good job or better, do you want to have an occupation that is fulfilling? Is your focus on how much money you can make? Money is a limiting factor. You can make far more and feel really good about yourself when you are creating the things in life that you love. The EGO is always measuring by time which is a limit unless you let it go. “I don’t have time to find what I love. I have got to have money to pay the bills”. Where is your focus? Physical obligations are actually governed by Divine Law. Focus on finding your true calling in the world and be willing to trust what you are shown. The EGO has always kept humanity from finding their real PATH, by suggesting that is you love to do something that is enough reward. In order to make “a living” you must work very hard and endure difficulties. If you love what you do, “you should be ashamed” because so many people in the World are suffering, struggling, poor. The “starving artist syndrome” (the arts do not prosper you) is an insidious form of limitation to prevent creative people from becoming more successful than warriors. It takes tremendous courage to succeed and courage feels like self-support and self-love. Courage is about going where others will not and accomplishing things that others believe they cannot and then staying with yourself to enjoy the good and trust that there is plenty more—always!

Do you have a dream? Do you require assistance in order to fulfill the dream? Can you accept help or do you believe that to have help is a weakness? WHERE IS YOUR FOCUS? To trust that the Source is always there to give you help, direction and safety is what Mastery is about. Your dreams are your Soul's desire, no matter how strange or "crazy" they may seem. If you prejudge your dream you, no one else but you, stops you. Where are you putting your attention?

When you build the FAITH muscle you can accomplish anything that you set your heart and mind to. You can let Love into your life in every area. Pay attention to where you close down. Feel into the energy in that part of your life. What have you been told by others? How are their lives functioning? Did they really have ALL of the answers or did they just convince you that you didn't?

THIS IS THE YEAR TO LET GO OF EVERYTHING THAT NO LONGER SERVES YOU. It isn't about finding what is wrong and getting rid of it. It is about feeling into each situation and finding the truth and allowing your focus to open the way within yourself to connect to Source and experience just how much help you can get from the seen and unseen levels in all of your life. YOU ARE A MASTER, NOW! Focus on seeing, hearing and feeling the synchronicities of life that bring you gifts, often when you least expect them. When you stop trying to make life work and focus on being a team member in your own ongoing you become aware that the help has been waiting for you to take off the blinders of old thoughts and ideas and move forward. This is NOT a battle strategy. It is Divine directive in action. You are a co-creator with God. You were given that right when you were created. You have been told for so long that you are not enough. YOU ARE PLENTY—own it, accept it and live it, live it, LIVE IT!

We are excited to be a part of your remembering. We are delighted that so many are now allowing themselves to Wake Up. We hold you in Love and compassion no matter what. We are with you all of the way. In the greatest of Love, I remain your most humble servant. I AM the Lord St. Germain. I bid you Adieu!
