Our March group is “Welcome to Spring”. 2017 moved in with storms all around the world. The storms have been physical in the fact of heavy rain and snow, monsoons, tornados and hurricanes (out of season), as well as all of the emotional upheaval and the storms of temper and frustration around the world due to the political climate changes. St. Germain helps us, not only to usher in spring in nature, but within our own hearts and spirits. The group will be on March 19 at 2 PM at our home.

CD’s can be purchased on the website at Click Here for 2017 Groups

Our Teaching for March is, “Focus, Concentration and Discipline”. The EGO seeks to create confusion, to DIVIDE AND CONQUER! It is almost magikal how keeping your focus on positives, concentrating on the moment and exercising the discipline of staying centered and clear about where you choose your life to move can change everything right NOW! The Teaching is on March 8.

The Teaching is on the second Wednesday evening of each month at 7 pm MT.

Our call-in for the Teachings is the second Wednesday evening at 7 pm MST.

If you haven’t had the experience of the Teachings that St. Germain is offering this year they really help us to understand what is going on. It just might be worth your while to check them out. The deep healing power of the Master is there to experience again and again as you listen to the awesome wisdom that he brings. CDs are $15 for each set—Teachings or Q&A. It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month. Postage and handling are separate.

ASTROLOGY

VIRGO FULL MOON-March 12

The Full Moon in Virgo puts emphasis on the areas of service and healing, as the Sun in Pisces points out that in these times remembering to “keep the faith” brings some of our deepest healing and allows us to feel free to assist others without questioning whether we will be cared for in return.

The month starts off with a series of aspects that inspire imagination and creativity. The Sun conjuncts Neptune late in the day on the 1st to open the psyche to dreams of interest. The Aries Moon and Mercury contact Uranus as Jupiter moves in to opposition so that not only can dreams be fanciful, but zany as well. The Jupiter (Libra) and Uranus (Aries) opposition can stir a desire to “get away from it all”, as well as drawing our attention to what the future is going to bring. We are reminded that we cannot change the future, but the choices that we make now influence where we are going.

A series of minor aspects puts us in a whirl about making choices on the 4th and 5th. The weekend starts with Venus stationing to go retrograde at 13 degrees 08 minutes Aries and there may be hesitation about making decisions around relationships or what really pleases us for the next six weeks. The Moon slips into Gemini, Mercury cojoins Neptune and then the Moon in Gemini squares Neptune in Pisces causing us to acknowledge that intuition over rides logic.

Day Light Savings Time begins On March 12th.

The Full Moon in Virgo sits opposite a stellium of planets in Pisces which can push a lot of buttons emotionally. As the Moon opposes Neptune there can be an opening that allows a blending of logic (Virgo) and intuition (Pisces) bringing opportunities to understand how letting spirit inform matter changes the view of where life is going altogether. Mercury in Pisces squares Saturn in Sagittarius calls attention to how you are looking at what is happening in your life.

Is the glass half full or half empty? The glass is the same both ways. It is personal choice about what we are willing to allow in our life; more of what we desire or less. When the Moon opposes Pallas, inner wisdom can offer illumination on some of the current blind spots. As Luna moves to oppose Chiron old wounds that require healing and forgiveness can become obvious. The square between the Moon in Virgo and Saturn in Sagittarius can cause a feeling of limitation if we attempt to escape necessary lessons now. The Moon moves into a tight quincunx with Uranus in Aries, promising opportunities to find ingenious solutions to challenging situations, if we will just stay out of our own way. The Moon's trine to Pluto in Capricorn can help us to understand how to use energy more wisely.

As Mercury leaps into Aries at 2:27p.m. on the 13th, energy and enthusiasm simply spill over. Is there is a point to be made, a sale to promote, even showcasing your own talents can all be much easier during this aspect.

The 14th begins with Mars in Taurus trining the North Node in Virgo to open new connections to higher levels of consciousness. The Moon in Libra cojoins Jupiter, squares Pluto and opposes Uranus creating a t-square that magnifies both potential and tension of this powerful combination. With the Sun conjuncting both Pallas and Chiron in Pisces we can see that healing becomes a creative process of self-illumination.

These are times of tremendous evolutionary changes. If you are on the planet you are subject to change. It isn't the change, so much as how you use it that leads the way to your inner-personal shifts. Every choice that you make is connected to previous choices and also sets the stage for the next step. Nothing is separate from anything or anyone else. Make your choices wisely, in Love because who you are is important.

ARIES NEW MOON-March 27

The Spring Equinox is rather quiet as the Sun moves into Aries in the early hours of the morning. The season moves from winter to spring in the Northern Hemisphere and there is a push toward new beginnings and new growth. There can be a necessity to reconsider personal worth and value and reassess limiting patterns that may have held us back in the past.

Old patterns are challenged with aspects that can rock the foundations that are crumbling as the Moon in Capricorn (conservative ideas) squares Uranus (unexpected change). By late evening on the 22nd The Moon moves into Aquarius and the uninhibited, unbridled effects of Uranus become more intensified, giving us some breathing room and opportunities to try stepping out of the box. The open-minded tone continues into the 24th when Mercury in Aries opposes Jupiter in Libra bringing communication that is witty, interesting and a bit over-stated. Don't take everything you hear at face value.

The Sun cojoins Venus on the 26th the feeling of openness that this brings is much spring within. Optimism, enthusiasm and as more relaxed state of mind allow a willingness to attempt things that have been put off before.

The New Moon in Aries occurs at 7:57PM Pacific time. Venus conjuncts Sun and Moon deepening a connection to our core values and activating the energy to move on desires that have been pushed aside up to now. There is motivation and challenge in mental, emotional and spiritual realms that expands the desire to move forward in our physical affairs. While Aries can be impulsive Mars, ruler of Aries, is sextile to Neptune (Taurus-Pisces) tempering haste with intuitive feelings and helping us to feel the appropriate timing. Mars is challenged by a sesquiquadrate to Saturn which can cause us to slam on the brakes at the slightest provocation. A gentle pace will assist us to achieve what we desire without a lot of stress. Synchronicity can play a big part in bringing new opportunities to the fore. Listen within and pay attention to the signs. Mars applying trine to Pluto insures that once we are clear about where we are going there is nothing that can stop us.

The Moon opposes Jupiter mid-afternoon on the 28th and then draws a t-square when it squares Pluto around bedtime. If resentments have been boiling this can bring greater understanding that changes the emotional climate to a softer hue.

The month ends with planetary aspects that offer more patience and consideration. It may seem as though no one has the answers we are looking for when Mercury semi-squares Neptune mid-morning on the 29th, but a trine to Saturn can get things back on track before lunch. With the Moon in Taurus we may find we are looking at long term security and putting finances in order.

There could be frustration over not getting the desired outcomes when Jupiter (excesses) squares Pluto (control) on Thursday morning. There can be a sense that if we move through our fears there will be brighter opportunities as the Moon trines Pluto by late afternoon.

The month ends with a lot of bounce and action as the moon enters Gemini on the 31st. Mercury follows the passing Moon into Taurus and this allows better concentration and a greater willingness to listen to what others have to say. A Moon-Venus trine Mid-morning followed by a Mars-Venus semi-square can bring romance, cheerful debates and a generally pleasant note to end March, before April blows in like a Lion.

QUOTES FOR THE MONTH from St. Germain

Oh, wonderous and magnificent Magicians, you who are Way Showers and Path Finders, you who are seeking to find the most powerful of designs for the new becoming by letting compassion guide you, We are always with you in Love. –St. Germain

Truth is not an idea, but an awareness that springs forth from the Soul. It moves with tenderness and yet can cut away illusions with crystalline precision. It clears the vision and illuminates the path with gentle, but powerful light. Truth is the beacon that leads you to know who you are. –St. Germain

Listen to what is said with an open mind. Nothing you hear has to be a command for you to act. When you take the time to allow what the EGO told you you heard to be considered the grain of truth that is there can be revealed. Then all of the chaff can simply blow away in the wind and you get to keep the treasure. –St. Germain

Nothing is as it appears to be. You have been programmed through life times to accept what you are told without question. You are now called to feel into the words rather than take things at face value. Words can be said in many ways and have different meanings with each inflection. There are the “right words” that the mind has taught, but when the speaker does not mean them the energy will feel flat as though the spirit has left them. Just because someone tells you that they are truthful, loving or kind does not mean that this is real. The time has come to listen with your inner wisdom rather than rely on the belief that what is said will always be true. –St. Germain

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

“Fear is a little death. Fear is a mind killer. I will allow fear to blow around me and through me like the wind and when I turn to see fear’s path, only I will remain.
–The Book of Dune

The tests are everywhere. Fear has been a fundamental fact of life on Earth and everything is changing. Dearly beloved Masters the choices that you make influence the direction of your life just as though you are creating a path and the choices are paving stones. Those choices made in Love, Faith and Courage take the path most directly to the desired outcome. The choices that are made in fear, doubt, and mistrust create diversions. No one goes directly to their goals without some diversion, but Masters simply see the detours as opportunities and enjoy the view. Often times getting side tracked brings gifts, answers to questions and even opportunities that might have been missed otherwise. Allowing is action that does not attempt to control the results. When you have a desired outcome, holding the intension that that outcome will be reached is far more powerful than limiting how the outcome is achieved by planning exactly what each step must be and then being disappointed because things do not go as planned.

When the desire is fulfilled allow the heart to celebrate the good rather than refuse to be delighted because things didn’t go the way that you thought was best. It is time to begin to allow more and do less. Being is not a static state, but one that is poised to move when directed by spirit.

The EGO mind continues to hold onto how things were once upon a time. Revelation is calling from the depths of each being to “Rise Up and move forward”.

When the leader of a country insists on putting “worst possible outcomes” before the people, it simply requires that the people make strong, positive choices for moving forward in their own lives. Masters are interdependent and the unity that is developed makes everyone stronger. It isn’t about sitting around discussing whether what is being said is right or wrong, it is about personal choices to exist in “fight or flight” or live your life well. It is your choice. The Ego brings confusion and when the statements that you hear change each time you hear them, when there are film clips of words and actions of many different people saying words with conviction only to swear that they never said those words and “this is what I really said”! EGO always needs to explain what it really meant rather than what you feel that you heard. Again, I say to you it isn’t about what is right or wrong, but how do these words and actions feel to you. Do you feel your passion rise to accomplish more in your life, more for the good of the whole or do you just want to get involved in conflict over who is right? Anger has a moment of energy and then as it burns out, those engaging in the wrath feel depleted. In order to keep the energy up there must be another fight and then another one. Still keeping the momentum of anger going wears on mind, body and emotions and leads to burn out. Anger is energy. Creativity is energy. Energy is neutral. It is what each person chooses to do with the energy that is theirs that makes each life so unique. As the earth is evolving there can be major changes of heart and mind as the battle continues outside. When chords of harmony is sound the soul responds. This has always occurred occasionally throughout time, when men would throw down their weapons and walk off of the battle field, now the weapons are so often words and the changes come from places of Ancient connections that are being opened within to bring new perspectives of what is occurring on earth.

Opportunity can present itself as a feeling that “this time I would be best served to make a different choice rather than follow the same old path”. That moment of choice may be fleeting and the EGO will do its best to convince you that you didn’t hear the voice of reason suggesting that you redirect your focus. The EGO will whisper that you have a right to be angry, a right to say or do cruel and hurtful things because “they” did that to you. The Golden Rule applies to everyone and karma is activated when the Rule is ignored. Being an elected official, a deacon or elder of the church or the CEO of a corporation, does not dismiss divine law and Dearly Beloved Masters We can assure you that money does not impress God to bend the law.

Listen within to hear the Truth that is yours now. ALL TRUTH IS TRUE, BUT NOT ALL TRUTH SERVES YOU IN THIS MOMENT. Those who would say, “This is my truth” are simply distorting an opinion and calling it truth. There is some truth in everything. The Book of Revelations speaks of “false prophets” in the latter days. The EGO mind wants to say that if I do not accept or believe something is true then it is coming from a false prophet. Hearing without ears comes from the spirit within rather than the finite mind. Spirit does not whisper of destruction as a solution to the challenges of life. The EGO mind sees war as a quick fix, but fighting just leads to more conflict without any resolution.

The Arch Angel Melchizedek was called the king of Salem, the places of peace. The remembrance of that peace is now opening, once more, within each and every human being and that opening is preparing the way for the discovery of a whole new world that exists right where you are. If you are willing to live your true self without excuses, defense or explanations you begin to find joy that has waited to be yours for life times. If you live in fear of “What they will say” about you, your gifts, your talents, your Beingness you deny yourself the blessings of all that belongs to you as your own Divine Inheritance. Living for others to validate your selfhood is existing in a state of abandonment of self. As you celebrate the discoveries of who you are emerging from the dismal limits of the Illusion you realize, not only, who you are, but who you are becoming. That, Beloved Masters, is what a “Realized Master” truly is. Being Realized is not a dawning of superiority, but an awareness of humility in gratitude for all that is yours. The more that you will ALLOW, the more you can have; not the other way around. Allowing is not wanting or needing or taking something that is not yours from others. Allowing is an open acceptance of MORE and the willingness to receive things as they come without analyzing each step.

What you see in the world is an outcome of the passing of the old ways that no longer serve anyone.

Defiance of law-sacred or mundane proves nothing but disrespect. Usually those who shout the loudest to be respected are the ones who hold the greatest disregard for others. Listen to what all are saying and reserve judgment. As I have said there is some truth in all things. Even if you disapprove be willing to allow what might be there for you to see if you are willing. Like or dislike, agree or disagree is not the point. The necessity is to find a new path for yourself in the midst of all of these changes. The old ways of control, domination and fear are being shown for what they were and it is time for each one of you to feel within to find that sacred path that is yours for your next level of evolution. Each path is unique and yet as you allow yourself to be revealed to you there will be many companions along the way and the paths lead to roads, which connect with highways and all of the ways of approach come together in the broad path of the Sacred Buddha, the way of enlightenment of the Christ and the truth of all great teachers throughout time, the Way of Love. Anything less than Love is being embraced and transformed into Divine Essence. The wounds of separation are breaking open and many are expressing anger, vengeance and abuse, but nothing is as it appears and there truly is healing occurring in the deepest of places within each one.

The times of trying to make others be something that they are not is passing. The time of trying to be something that you are not is passing. The times of refusing to see or hear are being broken apart because they serve no one any longer. Winning and losing are aspects of separation. Getting ahead by climbing over others or disgracing them are being revealed for exactly what they are. Rising above, moving beyond what has been; these are the direction of human evolution right now in this moment.

We hold the deepest compassion for those whose wounds blind them from the wonder of what awaits ALL. We assist and accompany those who are choosing to move forward. We Love the whole, the One in unity. Until we meet again in whatever manner that may be, in the greatest of Love We are with you. I remain your humble servant. I AM the Lord St. Germain
