

May Newsletter

Happy Mother's Day to all the Mom's out there!

Our intensive is May 16-17. We invite you to join us in person or on the phone. The intensive starts at 10:00 a.m. on Sat the 16 of May and goes until 6:00 p.m. On Sun the 17 we start at 10:00 a.m. and end around 3:00 p.m. We would love to have you.

(We were hoping to be set up for streaming by now, but Dorian's surgery has created a new wrinkle, so we just get to wait. Timing is everything.)

People keep asking me if I am experiencing any changes. I can say that the intensity of all that is going on on the planet is unsettling to everyone because we are becoming more aware all of the time of just how connected we all are. We have lived for life-times believing that if we just ignore each other we will not be involved with anything that is going on outside of our personal space. Now it is dawning on all of us that we cannot possibly be uninvolved or ignorant of the changes in, for or with others. Even people who are not on the internet or are in places where the world news does not reach them feel the impact of the global shifts at a deep personal level. The important part is keeping clear within yourself what is yours, energetically, and what is not. We can only change what is happening within us which taps us into the internal wisdom of what, if anything, we can do to help others. Most of the assistance that we can offer is allowing ourselves to accept the changes gracefully, let go of old judgments that help no one and forgive all of the control games—get back, payback, destructive responses to violence heal nothing and most of all the need to try to control others, often without the insights of what is really going on. We have been taught mixed messages for a long time. It is time to feel deep within ourselves and find the very best that is in us. Only in that can we turn the world around. It is not about stopping others, but redirecting ourselves. This is really big and it feels over whelming if you try to do it. (It is not intellectual and cannot be solved by trying to come up with solutions).

Each one of us has help in the unseen realms and the assistance from the After Life to lift us up, as we are willing to allow it. We cannot do this alone. We do not have to, but it requires a level of faith that we have not delved into ourselves to find in a long time.

So, my answer is "YES"! I am feeling the changes in a very personal way. It can be extremely emotional—tears for no reason, deep sadness when everything in my life is truly wonderful, changes that often seem to come unbidden and the necessity to keep my balance in the midst of life on a world in flux. I am eternally grateful to St. Germain for the consistent support, unfailing Love and amazing wisdom that he shares with me and everyone else who is allowing him to offer insights and direction when the "way markers" we have known seem to be missing. He shows us, not only with words, but energetically clarifies what he is talking about so that we can feel it as well as hear it. All of the Masters that are serving people all over the planet are an over-whelming gift and we are so blessed to have the help. Please, allow yourself to embrace the assistance and accept the Love that steadies us as we walk through these times of chaos and Revelation. I Love you all. Molly

There will not be a group in May.

Our Teaching with the Master for May is “Allowing Personal Peace”. We attempt to imagine what peace would be like. We have lived so long without it. It waits quietly in the depths of our being. It is who we truly are. We have lived as warriors for so long that peace seems like one of the many myths that separation has created. It is up to each one of us to find that treasure that belongs to us and bring it into the light of our life—to live it and share it. It can be shared but it cannot be given away or taken from another. We have been taught that peace comes as a hard won victory, but it is intrinsic and forever in our God-self. Remember!

The call-in and Teaching is on the second Wednesday evening of each month at 7 pm MT.

Our call-in for the Q&A is the fourth Wednesday evening at 7 pm MST.

If you haven't had the experience of the Teachings that St. Germain is offering this year they really help us to understand what is going on. It just might be worth your while to check them out. The deep healing power of the Master is there to experience again and again as you listen to the awesome wisdom that he brings. CDs are $15 for each set—Teachings or Q&A. It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month unless you are taking part in the Personal Growth package. Postage and handling are separate.

ASTROLOGY

FULL MOON-May 3-4

We are receiving immense amounts of information all of the time. Before any of that information reaches our frontal lobes—the part of the brain capable of reasoning, self-control and abstract thought—millions of bits of data are filtered through the instinctual parts of the brain, that brainstem and cerebellum. What makes each of us so unique is that all of the information that we receive is heavily filtered by our own personal past experiences, beliefs and the associations that we make in our unconscious. Although the conscious mind can suppress or ignore almost anything, our body remembers and stores the data like a hard drive, via neutral pathways. When we become involved in repetitive and/or traumatic experiences they create grooves in the psyche. Even one event of a spectacular nature can impress us so that it makes a lasting impression on our unconscious mind. The unconscious mind is constantly communicating with our conscious mind by way of dreams, emotions, sensations and even how we imagine things to be. We operate unconsciously 95% of the time. Full Moons illuminate the darkness of the unconscious bringing light to what has been hidden. This particular Full Moon reveals that we have arrived at a place where we must clean our proverbial closets and clear our computers of old out-moded programs.

Taurus is about comfort and security—all the hedonistic aspects of life. It focuses on what we value in life and in ourselves. How long has it been since you took the time to really value yourself? Scorpio desires change and transformation; it symbolizes the arena where we wrestle with the pull from our deepest desires and our darkest fears. The complacency of Taurus allows the Bull to simply sit in the pasture and eat flowers, while the volatile nature of Scorpio can tear apart what has taken a long time to bring together. At this Full Moon Jupiter in Leo forms a tight square with Sun in Taurus and Moon in Scorpio, revealing the influence of our early programming and bringing up the questions around why and how we conduct ourselves in the social, religious and cultural aspects of our lives? Is your world sacred or secular? Do you choose your relationships and material possessions by conditioning or what is really important? What drives your life—love or fear?

When there is a T-square in fixed signs it begins a breakdown of old, entrenched patterns. The term “fixed” does not mean stuck or stubborn; The spiritual task of the fixed signs (Taurus, Leo, Scorpio and Aquarius) is to develop the focus, stick-to-ativeness and personal passion to bring our goals to fruition. Opposites call for balance and squares require a change of perspective. The fourth corner or empty leg of a t-square indicates a potential resolution point: in this case Ceres at 7 degrees Aquarius occupies that position. Ceres represents the principle of nourishment and the types of experiential events that cause us to feel Loved and beloved, and gives us a sense of belonging. In Aquarius Ceres directs us to the understanding that we are all equal partners in the stewardship of the earth and it is time to treat her as our Mother in the purest sense.

Another t-square involving Mercury at 4 degrees Gemini opposite Saturn in Sagittarius at 3 degrees and squaring Neptune in Pisces at 9 degrees augments our shift of perspective away from limited viewpoints to more compassionate understanding of ourselves and others. Mercury’s approaching retrograde on May 18 it will make three exact squares to Neptune (on May 9, May 28 and June 23, all at 10 degrees of Gemini-Pisces), asking us to consider the blending of head and heart. Both Mercury and Neptune are in the signs that they that they rule, helping us to expand our intuition and develop our creativity to new heights. We will be required to explore new depths of compassionately honest communication.

We are now being called to look at our experiences as a blessed reminder that the past is history and we can build a bright new future on the foundations we have laid. We are no longer required to keep living the past over and over again.

NEW MOON-May 17-18

This New Moon in Taurus reminds us that we are light in motion resonating with the rhythms of the Universe and that everything in creation is one with all that we are. Quantum biology tells us that every cell, organ and thousands of biochemical functions that are occurring in our bodies moment by moment are pure light, a coherent flow of photons that shape our totality.

The intellectual world often goes so far into breaking things apart to find out “Why“?”, that the wonder of our wholeness gets lost in the process. There is in our brain a tiny master clock in the hypothalamus called the suprachiasmatic nucleus (SCN), which controls our circadian rhythms that affect our hormones and their precise levels, our immune system and our measure of awareness of life. The SCN is in turn, governed by the cerebrospinal fluid in our brain and spinal column, an antenna that resonates with the Earth’s magnetic field and other sources of electromagnetic energy, including solar, planetary and interstellar cosmic radiation. We are not just flesh and blood, organs and physical matter, we are one with the Universal whole. We truly are one with the Divine Allness of everything.

Venus, the traditional ruler of Taurus, is trine Neptune (exact on May 16 at 10 degrees Cancer-Pisces), which deepens our awareness of our intuitive connection to the whole. There was a time when people did not speak, but communicated telepathically. As the energy of the Earth is escalating we will find that we never lost the connection, but turned away from it in fear as we separated from our holy memories of Oneness. Venus and Taurus deal with the five senses and Neptune brings in the sixth sense which binds the five together and allows us to perceive life from an expanded state. The Bible speaks; “Let those without eyes see and those without ears hear”. This biblical reference is to the times that are coming when, we again commune through our feeling nature rather than by words only. Venus squares the lunar nodes in Libra-Aries adding a heightened sensitivity, a deeper recognition of compassion and what it really means and the ability to co-create without the fear that other beings will attempt to take our highest and best creations away from us. On May 21 Venus will oppose Pluto at 15 degrees Cancer-Capricorn and on May 25 it will square Uranus at 19 degrees Cancer-Aries, bringing a soul stirring energy to attend to our own internal requirements at the most fundamental levels. We have been taught for life times to look outside of ourselves for everything. We must now remember that what we find out there is what we have made. If the world requires change, it must begin within us. We are co-creators with God. We have been taught to give until it hurts. “God loves a cheerful giver”, but God also adores a gracious receiver.

The day before this New Moon, Jupiter cojoins Juno at 15 degrees Leo. Jupiter and Juno have been noted in mythology for their fighting during the transition from matriarchy to patriarchy. Jupiter’s conjunction with Juno signals a collective readiness for the feminine nature to stand equal with the masculine as it once did in the very beginning before separation changed the totality of all physical affairs. As each person can allow the unity of God/Goddess/All that is within it will begin to flow out into the physical/mental/emotional world and blend all aspects of the material with the spiritual.

On May 18 Mercury stations retrograde at 13 degrees Gemini, and appears to be backing up in the heavens until June 11, when it turns direct at 4 degrees. This retrograde will keep the winged messenger in the sign of Gemini from April 30 until July 8, giving us extra time to consider where things are not working in communication, technology and transportation. When things stop working or keep breaking down it is a blessing in disguise. We are being put on notice that if we do not pay attention once the next time it could be a stronger message. We are required to be clear in our communications, giving time to hear what others are saying and to trust our own intuition.

Taurus is the sign that is most connected to the abundance of the Earth. We have come to this very rich and fertile planet to learn to accept what it is to live in plenty. When we worry about “not enough” and focus on what we do not have, we create an energy of lack. The more we contribute to that consciousness the more we get a return of limit. It is evident in nature that if you plant apples, you will not get oranges, so complaining that you do not get rich when all you are planting is the barren fruit of impoverished thought is simply going against the laws of nature.

FLOWER ESSENCES

Walk through a field of flowers, wander through a forest, work in your garden and you get a flower essence treatment. The fragrances of nature were given to us to help us keep our balance in the auric field and all of the essential bodies—mind, emotions and spiritual aspects of our nature.

Flower essences are created from the flowers, fruits, vegetables, trees and grasses of nature. Flowers, leaves and stems of plants are allowed to stand in pure water for twenty-four to forty-eight hours and then the water is strained and a small amount of preservative alcohol or vinegar is added to keep the integrity of the essence. This is called the Mother tincture. From this mixture from five to thirty drops of the Mother tincture is added to one to two ounces of pure water and this is called a dosage mix. There are flower essences for any emotional issue that exists. The essences can be mixed to create a personal blend or taken singly to address a certain issue.

There are essences from all over the world because, even if we have never been outside of our own state or country in this life, we have had life times in different areas of the planet in the past.

In this country alone there are many different essence houses: Bach Flower Remedies, originally from England, Paralandra Essence House in Culpepper, VA., Flower Essence Service in Nevada City, CA., Pegasus Essence House in Loveland, CO., Dessert Alchemy in Tuscan, AZ., Green Hope in Vermont, Alaskan Essences, Black Hills Flower Essences in Custer, S.D.—these are just a few.

I have been using flower essences for almost 25 years now and they have been life changing. Each time I am moving through a new level of intensity in the changes Annalaiya makes a blend for me and it supports me through the shift. The essences do not do the work, but make things easier to see and easier to forgive, as well as, supporting the ability to accept the new parts of your life and yourself with joy. We were made to Love and accept ourselves as well as others. We have gradually been taught that we are not important. We have been educated that it isn’t our accomplishments as much as our sacrifices that count. The essences help with the process of regaining our faith in who we are.

There are as many essences as there are emotions. Dr. Bach, who originally created the Bach Flower Remedies for the English people during World War II, only made about thirty essences to cover a range of emotions associated with the effects of the war.

The anxiety that we experience in the constant upheaval of revelation can be assisted with Five Flower Remedy Sweet Chestnut from Flower Essence Service. Five Flower is an all-around general calming essence that helps in everything from heavy traffic to a trip to the dentist. Sweet Chestnut lifts the spirits when you feel down. When things get extremely intense Waratah from Energique Essence House and Red Bud Judas from Pegasus Essence House are essences that can help to stabilize the emotions so that you can see/feel much more clearly. Energique Essence House from France makes an essence called Anxiety which is a “god send” in tough situations.

We can all use walnut essence in the radical movement of the times. Walnut supports us as we change and helps us to adapt to the shifts.

Essences are amazing and so very important to our ability to accept where life is going, even if we do not know where that may be.

QUOTES FOR THE MONTH from St. Germain

You are an exquisite instrument. It is how you tune yourself that gives you a life of harmony or a cacophony of raucous sound and fury.

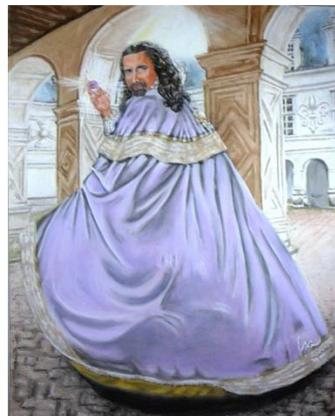

To accept yourself is not resignation. First, it is to love all of the tools/blessings that you possess, which God has given you, and then to decide what you desire to make of yourself. You are the finest gift that you can share with God.

Self-determination blended with Love brings you to the point of remembering the Master that you have always been; neither to be a ruler or a victim, but a powerful co-creator with God.

Love is not so much the things that we do as who we are. You were created in Love and born to give a gift that no one else can give. That gift is your presence, your being. Never believe for one moment that you are unimportant. You fill a place that, if you are not there, remains forever empty. Every being on Earth would somehow know if you were gone. The spirit that is yours is a flame of hope and inspiration. LIVE IT WELL!!

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Dearly Beloved Masters, Love is something that Christianity teaches. It is a primary part of the teachings of both Muslim and Islam. In these religions the teaching is often set aside according to personal beliefs about specific subjects or situations. All religions have teachings based on love, but often they have been made obscure in the determination of the teachers to take control or gain power.

When people are willing to set aside what they believe in fear and find out the truth, they often discover that what they have been told or have come to assume has no basis in fact at all. People do not change easily, simply because change means that they cannot remain in the rut of complacency. War is an irritation, but it is taken for granted. It can become a spectator sport. Others choose to take part in some battle, usually a personal skirmish. War is the primary drama on Earth and yet it is also the furthest energy from Love.

IF YOU TAKE THE TIME TO KNOW THE “ENEMY” YOU WILL KNOW THEM WELL ENOUGH TO DESTROY THEM, BUT YOU WILL ALSO COME TO LOVE THEM SO WELL THAT IN THEIR DESTRUCTION YOU CAN FEEL YOUR OWN. ALL ARE ONE WITHOUT ANY EXCEPTION.

The mind, in separation, has come to view conflict as completely necessary. As you take the time to know yourself, really know yourself, without the fear of discovering something that you cannot bear—you will realize that war is a division that has been established in the Illusion to keep you from knowing who you are. You have been taught to use the divided mind to make choices and in that division you have been taught to fear making the wrong choice, while questioning what the “right” choice might be. The fear of being wrong has been instilled in all areas of life until the confusion of the EGO has become a form of madness. We speak of the two-headed dragon EGO and its constant conflict as the “internal war”—in the Illusion, that war has raged for life times. Now that the Old Order is passing the potential for peace is rising up within every being on this planet. Armageddon speaks of the end times, but the mind has defined the end as something terrible, instead of the beginning of something wonderful and beautiful. These times on Earth are about blending, not about destroying what cannot be controlled or comprehended by the finite mind.

Everyone on Earth has felt the feeling of “something more”, “something greater” and wondered what their part in it could be. The dreams have been great, but so often the dreams have been about imposing a personal idea, ideal or belief on everyone else. As soon as that energy of control begins the power of the higher possibilities begins to disintegrate. There have always been references to mountain top experiences in scriptural information. The mountains have been associated with the higher realms of energy. When you physically go into the mountains your whole perspective begins to change—“You see/feel differently”! There are certain places on Earth where people feel the frequency changes more easily, more powerfully. Now, there is a very destructive war being fought in the area of the Middle East where the religious works of the planet have described the most holy and sacred places to be. There are those who have taken the prophecies so literally that they believe that if they can gain control of the highest and most holy places they can rule the world. This has always been the consideration, in the Illusion, of those who want to say how the world will be for everyone else. God did not create this magnificent planet for any one group of beings to control others.

AS YOU REACH THE HIGH PLACES WITHIN YOURSELF YOU WILL NOTICE THAT CONTROL AND CONFLICT BEGIN TO MELT AWAY. As you reach the Mount of your own Revelation you will see clearly and what you will see/feel is what has been waiting for these times to be revealed. It is what is “right at the tips of your fingers” behind the veil of Illusion that has been so thick. That veil is tearing apart and the REAL world is emerging from the ashes of the old wars. The Revelation is the internal awareness that enlightens each Soul from the inside so that the truth within Illumines the physical world with new light—who you really are pouring into the world to help lift others up. You cannot do it. It isn’t a change that anyone can force upon another. It is the essence of unconditional Love birthing the New Earth right where you are and you as New Humans accepting that this amazing planet belongs to all, without limit.

Some people are beginning to have experiences of seeing beyond the place where they are. They may see through doors or mountains or even beyond the place where they are physically to other parts of the Earth. More and more people are witnessing the surroundings being brighter, clearer, less dense, more colorful than before as the vibrational frequency of the planet is accelerating. THE NEW EARTH IS EMERGING RIGHT WHERE YOU ARE, BUT YOU WILL ONLY REALIZE IT BY ALLOWING, BY BEING WHO YOU ARE REALLY.

The Master Book has said, “All are called, but few will answer”. As you are willing to hear without ears you will hear the “Masters call”. The teachings of religion have been that only one master will call all. The Reality is that this internal call is for all of the Masters-Souls on Earth to remember who they are NOW. YOU ARE ALL MASTERS, EVERY ONE.

There is conflict between the influence of the logical, practical mind and those who are learning that “tuning in” brings a deep sense of peace and security that cannot be found outside of self. We emphasize that control has no place in higher realms. When you listen within you can hear the voice of God—quiet, calm, reassuring. “God is Love” are the biggest three words that have been spoken on Earth. The EGO has, in separation, sought to create gods who are desperate, arrogant, beings who need humans to do their bidding of destruction. God, I AM, is not a punisher! That presence which has created such beauty and wonder did not create annihilation. There is so much eternal truth, that has been relegated to the annals of mythology—it is now to be remembered. As the Illusion’s passing clears the clouds of confusion away, what is being revealed can boggle the finite-mind. The tedium of the world of density is being replaced by the lightness of higher consciousness.

Consider this: The more that you Love yourself in the deep appreciation of what God has brought forth, the easier it is to Love and appreciate others for who they truly are even if they do not realize their own Mastery yet. You can look into the face of another human being and allow yourself to see beyond the mask of what they believe they must show the world to be acceptable. As you receive the Love of God fully within you it overflows and creates an influence of peace and harmony that cannot be imitated by the EGO.

As Masters we relate to each one of you as a Master, no matter what you think of yourself. We can share an energy that lets you identify yourself clearly. It isn't a form of control because in the energy of the higher realms control simply will not function. It is the pathway of sharing the divine with all. I come to each one in Love and tune the energy of your sacred instrument so that you resonate harmoniously to life, to others, but most of all to your own divine connection. There is no force because I can only offer the changes in Love, in the Free Will exchange of Masters. I give the gift and it is the choice of each being to accept it. Many feel the energy of our exchange and believe that they are only feeling my essence, but what I am showing each one is the resonate frequency of themselves. We are one, yet different. I AM one with you, but not you. The harmony that you feel is a blending, just as musical instruments blend to make beautiful music. If you are trying to find the harmony with someone without turning in yourself, the effort will fall short. If there is force or need in the attempt there is a good chance that nothing will happen or that the outcome will be disappointment. The EGO cannot create harmony—it might give a moment of joy or beauty, but the lower vibrations cannot sustain the continuity of Love because the imprint of control is not found in Love.

If the world could begin to really love what is called “the enemy”, looking beyond the fear and hatred of the Illusion, if all of the conflicting ideas and ideals could be set aside so that all of the people could recognize the truth of the creator in each other, there would be the deep internal realization that war will never bring what the Earth is moving toward, what humanity is longing for. Each individual is required to make their own change from within. Nothing changes outwardly until the changes are first understood within. All of the push and force and desperation of the Old Order are becoming harder and harder to live with in every person's life and in the global community they are simply making Hell on earth. Gangs of children are taking matters into their own hands because that is what they are taught by the adults around them. Often, even those who are telling the children “don't do this” still feel within themselves that the changes must come from outside first. They do not believe that they require to change at all.

All of the Masters that are involved with assisting in the shifts on this planet respect the Free Will of humanity and we also know that these times are moving the whole world into different planes of consciousness and new perspectives. Certainly, no one on the earth at this time can see the whole picture, because that requires that everyone share their views and find points of agreement rather than just pointing fingers at one another.

The EGO believes that you make yourself look better by making others look worse. Revelation is showing just how inappropriate that kind of energy is. Bullying and harassment can no longer be entertainment for the rage-full, wounded people who want everyone else to suffer because they feel that they have. Higher consciousness brings a deep recognition of unconditional Love and compassionate objectivity. Put the bullies, the cruel, the sick and the wounded, and most of all yourself into my Violet Flame which transmutes suffering, pain and hatred into Christ Consciousness.

Time and space are changing, the material/physical world is being altered by the acceleration of evolution and the people of Earth are becoming New Humans. The recognition of the New Earth only emerges as each person allows themselves to rise up and experience the connection with the Spiritual as the After Life joins the physical world in Love. The focus of your mind is the creation of your life. When you shift your focus to the solar plexus and allow your Soul to be the Director of your life you can accept that you truly are a Divine, Creative Master in the highest sense.

War has never healed anything and it certainly is not going to begin to make life better now. Each being must find the gateway to higher consciousness within. No one can save anyone else. As Masters who have gone before you into higher planes of understanding, we as very clear that your Free Will defines what you will allow in your on-going. The Ego has caused humanity to fear making choices about Spiritual Evolution. You have been taught that there are a chosen few who have the key to Heaven and they will only share it if you please them. We are here to assure you that each one of you is a Child of God and no matter what name you have called God that essence of Pure Love hears. No one deserves evolution more or less than any other. What will stop the process of up spiral is misuse of the creative power that you hold within you.

The intensity on the planet will continue to increase. It will take great courage, patience and Faith to come through these times. REMEMBER that you are never alone. If you feel alone you have turned your attention to the EGO and it will abandon you in a moment if it is afraid. Keep your attention on the Soul center in the solar plexus and listen to the amazing Love that is flowing to fill you up and allow you to be a fountain of Love to the World. We celebrate your strength and abiding courage. WE are with you every step of the way ALWAYS!!!

In the greatest of Love I remain your most humble servant. I AM the Lord St. Germain.
