Check out the November issue of Sedona Journal of Emergence for my new ad! Here is the picture. Dorian made the ad and I feel that she did a beautiful job. I love it when things work so well. I had been thinking about changing my ad in Sedona to a color ad and they contacted me so I took advantage of it. I am excited about being in "living color".

Autumn has come and gone. We enjoyed the beautiful "burning trees" all the way through October, but the leaves have finally fallen. It is getting dark by 6:00 p.m. The days have been warm (lower 70's) and nights down into the low 30's. The mountains have snow, but we have not had snow here in Lander since September 11. Suddenly as we reached the end of October it got COLD—highs in the low 40's and night in the teens. Time to gear up for winter.

This is my latest pair of "magik sandals" from Linda Lube. If you think they look like fun you ought to wear a pair. See her ad in the Ads section.

St. Germain is offering a "Personal Growth" package. Each month you can get the Teachings, Q & A and a one hour private session with St. Germain to develop your personal evolution in spirit. The cost will be $120 per month with a six month commitment which is a great deal as a one hour private session is $200 normally. Just imagine spending an hour of valuable time each month discussing anything about your growth that you wish with the Master. We have the good fortune of spending time with him regularly and it is such an up lifting experience.

Rainbow Center News

Don't forget our intensive "Change Your Perspective-- Find Your Mastery". It will be November 8-9 here at our home.

2014 has been called the Year of Perspective by St. Germain. Many people have found that their perspectives of life have and are changing dynamically. As we look at things differently we see so much that has always been there but was not visible to us in lower frequencies. Our Mastery awaits us and St. Germain shows us just what we can find and be if we look in the appropriate places.

CDs and mp3s will be available for $100 per set.

Our group for November will be at 2 p.m. on November 16 at our home. The subject that St. Germain will address is "The New Human is a Whole Being".

We have been broken and wounded in the journey of Separation. We are now beginning to find that just because the body appears to be strong we are not necessarily whole. Being whole is a completeness that emerges out of the discovery that we are so much more than we have known for eons of time. We are New Humans and we are WELL.

CD's can be purchased on the website at www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/2014groups.html

Our Teaching with the Master for November is: "Loving Relationships". We have been taught that you have one relationship and that is the only one that you can have. You can have a husband, wife or partner but you cannot love anyone else. St. Germain shows us that as we reach into higher consciousness we develop a greater capacity to Love and a deeper discernment about what is loving, and what is self-deceit. It isn't so much who you Love, but how you Love. The clarity of where you are with yourself determines the type of relationship you will have on any level of relating.

To order CD's or DVD's www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/Teachings.html

If you haven't had the experience of the Teachings that St. Germain is offering this year they really help us to understand what is going on. It just might be worth your while to check them out. The deep healing power of the Master is there to experience again and again as you listen to the awesome wisdom that he brings. CDs are $15 for each set--Teachings or Q&A. It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month. Postage and handling are separate.

ASTROLOGY

FULL MOON-November 6

To everything there is a season. The New Moon is a time of planting seeds-- for mental, physical or emotional growth. The Full Moon is a time of reaping what was sown. If you dislike what is cropping up in your life or world, the weeds will be blatantly obvious now.

Taurus, associates with the fruits of our labor, the abundance of the seeds that we have planted, but most of all with our own intrinsic value. As we remember our own inherent self-worth we have no reason to prove our value to others-- we connect with our inner security. The archetype of Taurus teaches us that wealth is not nearly so much about money as the value that we feel about ourselves. Venus traditionally rules both Taurus and Libra. The Taurean side of Venus teaches us about loving ourselves and the Libran side shows us how to love others. If there is not a healthy sense of personal value no amount of money or possessions will ever be enough. The Moon in Taurus asks us to consider where our values lie. Are we being faithful to our own standards or are we prostituting our time and energy for things that are meaningless if we stop and consider the price we are paying? Are we just making money or are we making a life?

In Taurus we find our value and what we truly require in our life. In Scorpio we discover our desires and our fears. Scorpio is the alchemical transformation where the lead of our EGO is transmuted into the gold of higher consciousness. The emphasis of these times is moving more and more to the question: "How do we relate to ourself, to others, to the world?" In a relationship the people involved are changed by the blending of energy that each one brings to the union. We meet our projections, our fears, and issues around power. Pluto, modern ruler of Scorpio, was the Roman God of the Underworld. To the Greeks he was also the God of Wealth, symbolizing that there are great riches waiting in the unconscious. Mars, the ancient ruler of Scorpio, was the Roman God of War, representing our personal passion and power of our will that motivates us to assert ourselves and defend what is ours. On November 10 Mars and Pluto will make an exact conjunction at 11degrees35minutes

Capricorn and on November 12 Mars will square Uranus at 13 degrees 10 minutes Capricorn-Aries. These aspects shine a light on any part of our life where we are not being completely honest with ourselves and others. We are now required to be transparent and steadfast with our intentions and motivations or reap the consequences.

Venus continues to move in a very close orb to the Sun keeping our focus on choosing love rather than fear. Venus will cojoin Saturn on November 12 at 25 degrees Scorpio and the Sun will move into conjunction with Saturn on November 18 at 26 degrees Scorpio compelling us to define our boundaries. These aspects will also bring us face to face with our shadow self. The more we identify with one end of a polarity, the more we project its opposite. Clues are revealed about what is still in the shadow by the qualities that we idolize or demonize, in recurring patterns in relationships, and in chronic struggles with authority figures.

This Full Moon reminds us: "It is in troubled times that it becomes most important to remember that the wonder of life places the medicine of the Self near where the poison dwells. The gifts always lie near the wounds, the remedies are often made from poisonous substances, and love often appears where deep losses become acknowledged" (Michael Meade)

This reminds us to use the Violet Blender that St. Germain has given us because in the blending of the extremes of life comes the alchemy of Spirit that transmutes us from "mere humans to New Humans"!!!

NEW MOON-November 22

The New Moon always marks the beginning of a new cycle. This New Moon in Sagittarius forms in the first degree of the sign. The first three degrees of a sign are considered very karmic. We have changed and the world has changed therefore the choices that we will make are now based on new and different principals. We can no longer use the past as a reference point to create our future. We are building a future based on our deepest connection within rather than just what is going on "out there".

What we see is based on our perspective. St. Germain says, "The harder you look the less you see". If you only move a few inches you can see something that "did not exist before". Transiting squares and oppositions are extremely challenging because in order to do things differently we have to see things differently and in these times we are learning to look at everything with new eyes. What you think you see is not always what is there. We have looked at life through the filters of gender, ancestry, education, religion and culture. We often assume that everyone else sees things just as we do and if they don't they should. Until we step off of the treadmill of life we are unable to see, much less take a different path. We are constantly being called to find a new perspective because the old ways of looking at self, life and everything in the world are changing moment by moment.

Sagittarius the sign most related to discovering the meaning of life and our part in it. Who am I? Why am I here? What is my purpose? Symbolized by the archer aiming for the heavens, the constellation itself points to the center of the Milky Way galaxy where the Galactic Core lies at 27 Sagittarius. This New Moon along with Venus and Ceres in Sagittarius squares Neptune in Pisces thinning the veil between the physical and the spiritual and increasing the connection to our personal intuition and imagination, compassion and creativity. At present our five senses allow us to perceive only 4 % of the known universe. Neptune and Pisces take us far beyond the capability of the mind to understand, beyond finite space and linear time, into levels of awareness and realities that only our spiritual self can understand. We are being reminded by the sign and the planet that what we have known was illusion and that Illusion that we are separate from the divine is passing away rapidly.

When a planet stations to go retrograde or direct its archetypal energies are greatly intensified as it remains near the same degree of weeks—even months with the outer planets. On November 16, Neptune ends its yearly retrograde phase at 4 degrees 47 minutes Pisces, signaling that it is time for us to utilize what we have learned since it went into retrograde on June 9. The day after this New Moon Chiron stations direct on November 23, finishing its retrograde cycle that began on June 20. These direct movements assist us to let go of the past and more fully embrace the great mysteries that are being revealed in these times. As we accept all that we truly are we can freely forgive the judgments that have held us in limitation.

This New Moon reminds us that we are creative Masters. Every thought is a potential creation. What do you wish to make of your life? Is that where your thoughts and intentions are focused? It is not to be surprised if life is not bringing you what you desire if your focus is on less. Always settle for More!!!

THE CRYSTAL CORNER

THE CRYSTAL CORNER

Exploring the Artist Within

Hello and a happy November to all of you. This fall has been one to remember and October especially. I'm sitting at my computer and looking out at the golden leaves shimmering in the breeze. It doesn't get much better than that! When I see something that beautiful, it brings out the artist who wants to capture that scene. If you're like me, I could use a little help and inspiration. I'm also reminded of the work of art that we are if we would only remember. I have at least two stones that would assist not only in the physical world but also energetically.

There is a stone called Crazy Lace Agate that has beautiful patterns and colors in it. It is associated closely with the craftsman: the weaver, the potter and those who create things from the materials of the earth in a very grounded and what some might call a very primitive way. If this stone were worn between the thymus and the heart chakras, it would remind us of the delight of the practice of being a craftsman. It would remind the soul of the joy of the outcome of the art, the creation. Many are being called from their inner selves to return to being the creative entity but not involved with large groups of people. There is a great fear in many that if there are too many craftsmen, they will not survive. I have seen this at shows I have done. If someone is doing or selling the same thing they are, they panic. This agate assists the clear understanding that there is none other such as thee. It might also inspire images of their own universal patterns. Therefore, it could bring something to their mind and to their vision that would resemble a crop circle or divine geometry and what it would bring to them would be their part of the puzzle and their piece of the whole thing. What one would see in this stone would speak to how allowing they are.

The second stone is called Picasso Stone and this has patterns and colors as well. Each one who looks upon this stone would do well to draw their own interpretations. It is not a stone that lends itself to be named for any one thing. This stone is amazing. It is almost as though how it is designed assists one to sit with it and touch into their own story. You can draw upon the stories of another as they are interconnected with you. The simple challenge is to not get caught up in any of the stories. This stone may be used well by the writer, the artisan, the poet, the musician and the painter. They called it Picasso Stone because of its patterns but it is truly a stone that inspires artistic creativity.

I hope all of you are enjoying beautiful things in your life and are creating masterpieces of your own. Love and blessings to all of you.

EVERYONE IS A CHANNEL

Through the years of discovery along the path of opening and utilizing my channel I have been constantly pushed to grow. I knew when I began to channel St. Germain that I would not be able to stop at some point and decide that I had learned enough or come far enough into the realms of spirit. As the Earth is transforming into a blend of spirit and physicality the depth of our connection with the divine is being revealed for all that it is and we are being opened to new connections with our Soul center and soul self which is what the channel is, after all.

So many people want to be a channel, but their desire is to give messages to others. We must first be willing to listen to the messages that we are given for ourselves and this requires the discipline to develop the inner hearing or as the Bible calls it “hearing without ears”. The EGO can create confusion and distortions that cause us to doubt what we are hearing, so another factor is learning to trust ourselves when we receive information that is intimately personal. We have to move past not wanting to hear something that we “don’t like” or finding things that have to be changed for our own growth and evolution.

I can say from personal experience that I have a very strong will and when it comes to moving through the shifts that I am required to pass through I can resist with the best of them. Pain is a clear indication of resistance and sometimes I feel as though I am going to break before I let go and just accept the next step of my spiritual growth. SPIRITUAL GROWTH IS NOT SEPARATE FROM LIFE—IT IS WHAT LIFE IS ABOUT!! We are all feeling the necessity to make changes and the EGO does not want to change—it wants others to change so that it can be comfortable. However, if we do not move forward and upward on our journey we get stagnant and that leads to a death of something that we might not want to lose.

Throughout my life I have been accused on many occasions of being stubborn. My understanding of stubbornness is a refusal to change. I am open to change, but not just because someone else says I must or thinks that it is “what I should do”. I have to feel the timing within myself first. When we look at others we can always see things that they could change in order to make their life better. The thing that we cannot see is the timing of those changes. TIMING IS EVERYTHING. If we try to make changes in our own life or to force others to change before it is time the changes rarely serve us well. Either nothing happens or it might appear that we have changed only to find we are still doing the same thing and calling it by a different name. The EGO is extremely cunning.

In order to channel we are required to be receptive. You cannot DO channeling. It is totally an allowable. That is where many people run into difficulties because they want to be in control. The higher the frequency you are dealing with or operating in the less control, force and conflict function. It isn't that you cannot bring something through when you are angry or pissed-off, but you might not enjoy any lasting results of peace, harmony or comfort in that space.

I have so appreciated St. Germain's loving perspective as he helps us along the way. It has taken some real changes on my part to let go of old patterns, but as he has gently nudged me to look at what no longer serves me and he has helped me to clear my field of understanding and operation it is as though I have so much more space to live in. St. Germain has said from the beginning, “I do not want followers, I want companions along the way.” The old order has focused strongly on the teacher being all knowing and the students having to comply to the teacher's point of view. St. Germain teaches and then says, “Don't do this because I told you to. Live it and find out for yourself that it works for you.” This perspective removes rebellion and opens our own investigative ability. It also removes the EGO's ability to place blame if things do not work out the way they were supposed to. St. Germain is truly a Master. He is funny. (Masters are no two thirds more serious.) He can match the mood of what is going on and then add a dash of humor to break the tension. He is infinitely patient and is always asking us to be patient with ourselves. He asks us to love ourselves as much as God does, as the Masters do, and to remember in all times that we are also Masters. We are not less or more than any other being, no matter what. God created us equal and all of the jockeying for position in the Illusion has not elevated some above others.

The EGO says, “Why should I listen to someone who does not have authority?” We all potentially have author-ship in our own life and as we listen with clarity for the resonance of Truth we can find truth most anywhere by being open to find it. We also will feel the difference between truth and someone who is just a convincing talker. Recognition of truth has nothing to do with like or don't like—these are judgments. Truth is a wonderful essence that floods you with new awareness and receptivity and lifts you up.

As you open your channel to hear your own divine directive within, it may not agree with those around you. It is not for you to convince others that they are wrong and should recognize that your understanding is the best. What you receive is for you—who you are, where you are. Remember timing. If you try to tell someone something that they are not ready to hear, it won't mean a thing to them. In fact, it can frighten them so that they will avoid hearing when it is time for them to know. Religions are after all business and politically oriented and they must make money and draw in numbers by whatever methods they can—threats, judgments, fear, doubt, sin, guilt all can drive people to come to the church if they are promised that by being there they will be safe.

Channeled information is not threatening. It does not give destructive instruction. God is Love and does not seek to harm any part of the creation, no matter how destructive they may be. The old order is using every ounce of separation that it can to keep people from ascending. You do not ascend by cruelty, social placement or superiority. If you receive information that suggests that you take some unpleasant, cruel or destructive measures it is time to get clear within yourself—what are you looking to hear through your channel? The EGO is a two-headed dragon and it will play one thought or idea against another. Divine channel brings clear, Real, Loving information, mainly for your own personal evolution. It really isn't about anyone else until you genuinely get to know who you are. You cannot fix the world if you have no idea how to change your own life for the better.

Learn to listen with the clear understanding that just because someone one says something it does not mean that you have to do it. Discernment is an imperative when learning to channel. St. Germain told me many times “always listen to what you are telling people, because you are talking to yourself, also”.

These are a few things that I have learned over the fifty plus years that I have been involved in metaphysics. They are personal realizations and may or may not assist you, but I offer them because I feel that my life is getting better all of the time and I am completely sure that without St. Germain and the other Masters helping me it would have been a very different life.

EVERYONE IS A CHANNEL!!!

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Fourteen years into the New Millennium, as the Old Order is passing more quickly, Reality is emerging and humanity is remembering who it is. Living Real is an open door to amazing realizations, new recognitions and outstanding clarity about what life is and how you belong in it.

Those of you who have been using the “blender” meditation are discovering wonderful things about yourselves and finding that as the extremes of life are brought to center what is revealed is new life in “living color”.

Real feels different! You actually can feel the energy pull in the solar plexus as you are connecting with the essence of Reality within you. Your mind may attempt to tell you that Real is the Illusion and thus potentially dangerous, but as you are willing to allow Real things to happen you can validate that Real exists and is important. Real is who you were when you came to play this game and Real is what you have remained throughout the whole Time frame of Illusion. The Time/Space continuum is an Illusion of limitation to protect the possibility of discovery that there is so much more to life and everything about it until it was time. IT IS NOW TIME. The finite mind is fighting with every weapon that it has amassed in the Illusion, but even war is beginning to show up for the inappropriate use of energy that it has always been. The mind says, “Fight to get and then fight to keep”. When you consider how much wasted fuel (energy) is used in fighting everything, you can see why fuel consumption is reaching epic proportions—mentally, physically, emotionally. This supports the belief that there is not enough, but when you step through the last tatters of the Illusion all of the PLENTY that seemed to be missing is there in the higher frequencies. The mind says, “You must amass money, goods, weapons so that THEY cannot get them.” As you begin to allow Real into your consciousness you can feel the emerging Truth that THEY are part of you. THEY are not the enemy or something separate as the Illusion has taught. Astrologically and astronomically the Universe is moving toward AT-ONE-MENT. God did not create separation, but that creative essence did create you, each one of you, as divinely unique beings that make up a totality of mind boggling complexity that is utterly simple when you allow it to be your Reality.

No matter what is spoken in these times or by whom, someone will want to argue about it. That is also a part of the “latter Days of the Old Order”. As Masters we are not here to push, force or even convince you of the changes. You can feel them going on within you. It is for you to find the “proof” of overcoming inside of you. The Illusion always focused outward, but the Truth is emerging within. Truth is not a battle ground. It is not about who is right or wrong, good or bad, better or worse. Truth is not about one country, nation, religion, group of people, one ideology, one person's opinion. Truth is not who can shout the loudest to make themselves heard, but who can quietly let go of all that no longer serves their life.

For life times separation has called you to war. You have been indoctrinated to believe that only by fighting can you ever win what you want. There are beliefs that the Earth is coming to an end and everything is going to become unbearable. There are many who hope that they will be saved by some outside force that will take them away before things get any worse.

Dearly Beloved Masters, everything is indeed changing and there are divine laws that have always been in effect that are now beginning to evidence themselves as the old energy passes. In order to feel more aligned in the new energy you are required to surrender your Beingness to higher consciousness. This is not giving up who you are, but giving over to the willingness that brings you into alignment with all that you are and always have been. Revelation is not the discovery of what is wrong, but the acceptance that there is NOTHING WRONG WITH YOU!!

One of the things that you will encounter more and more is that things are not as they appear. The Master Book speaks of “seeing without eyes”. In the energy of physicality you look at things with hard vision and miss a lot of small details that you could see quite readily in “soft vision”. These details are often clues to the next step, the wisest choice or the most positive perspective. Two things that will remain very necessary in the changes are Faith and Hope. We lovingly remind you that “Mastery is not for the faint of heart”, yet the rewards of your courage are immeasurable. The “battle” is not with anyone or anything outside of you, it is the overcoming of the control games of the EGO. We are constantly impressed with the strength and bravery humanity is expressing. What is so amazing to us is how difficult it is for humans to let Higher Love in. Yes, if you allow Love you can feel more vulnerable than you may ever remember, but Love has always been with you and vulnerability is a virtue, not a curse.

We often speak about the necessity to think from center—to feel your thoughts in the solar plexus. The finite mind is putting up its greatest battle to remain in control and as you allow yourself to feel the thoughts in center you will also be aware of how each thought feels. Truth has a resonant frequency that not only feels powerful, but has its own sound that is not heard by the physical ears, but within. Often when someone hears Truth being told they will get chills of confirmation on their skin or up their spine. As you attune to the frequency of Truth you become clearer and clearer about how you know within yourself what is “Right and True” for you. Even though what you feel is so that does not mean that it is true for everyone. As you learn to trust your own personal knowing for yourself it will lead you into paths of safety. Not everyone resonates to the same levels of understanding. Therefore, it is not up to anyone person to decide what is good for everyone. Each one of you is a Master and as such you are required to make your own choices. It is not about conflict or confrontation, but clarity of your personal choice. Second guessing is a game of Illusion. “I should have done things differently” is hindsight and creates judgment rather than clear vision. Masters make their choices based on the deep connection with the divine that is found within. Divine wisdom does not argue with others over righteousness. As you live in the space of Love that allows everyone—Yes, even children—to express how they feel about the choices being made you discover a completely different climate of energy. The fact that the Master Book states “...and a little child shall lead them” means that the children that are being born in these times have an intuitive connection that is stronger and clearer than many generations before have possessed. They deserve to be heard and considered. It does not mean that they get to order people around or tell others what they must do any more than adults have a right to. Reality calls for loving consideration of all in every situation, which removes the mantle of authority from the few and shares it with everyone.

As you allow the expansion of Reality within you it is as though your inner world feels cleaner, clearer and more inclusive. What you create within—positive or negative—you broadcast into the world and share with everyone. Every man, woman and child on the planet is a divine being created by God, whether they know it or believe it or not. No one is here on Earth to be a footnote in the life of another person. That is something that must be forgiven again and again until it is clear within—“I am a divine creative Master, designed in Love and here for a purpose.”

Reality is rushing in like a mighty wave of new awareness of who you are and why you are making the choices that you are. If you find within you that the choices you are making are not bringing the outcomes that you desire it is to understand that it isn't someone else stopping you, but your own beliefs and limitations that hamper your progress.

We are here at this time to assist everyone who will allow the shifts and we will continue as long as there are any who will make the changes. We do not see dark and dire times, but openings for grand opportunities to unfold. The higher you allow yourself to move the greater the perspective of the New World shines through. In Reality life looks, feels and moves differently. You discover wonders that are right where you are just waiting to be revealed. In the greatest of Love we are with you every step of the way. Until we meet again in whatever manner that might be I bid you Adieu! I remain your most humble servant. I AM the Lord St. Germain
