We just got home from San Francisco and what a trip. We bought four new crystals for our crystal family. They are amazing. Three came home with us and one will come to us in February. The intensive was intense and life altering. Between Lazaris and St. Germain we will never be the same again. Every day, whether traveling or attending the intensive, was filled to the brim with super energy.

We finally got the house finished. Here are the fazes:

The house as they were wrapping it—brown on one end and white on the other.

House in process of getting siding with insulation and front entry sitting out in the yard.

Here is our pretty new house with our cute little new shed (right hand side of gate down by the house). We just love it.

I mentioned last month that we had a new geode to add to our amethyst geode family.

Here is the group. The new one is in the upper right corner.

St. Germain is continuing the “Personal Growth” package. Each month you can get the Teachings, Q & A and a one hour private session with St. Germain to develop your personal evolution in spirit. The cost will be $120 per month with a six month commitment which is a great deal as a one hour private session is $200 normally. Just imagine spending an hour of valuable time each month discussing anything about your growth that you wish with the Master. We have the good fortune of spending time with him regularly and it is such an up lifting experience.

Fall Intensive

This is the month!! Our Intensive will be November 14-15. We invite you to join us in person.

St. Germain is going to take us on a journey to remembering--“ Your Life is your Mastery”. We have been led to believe that all that we are is about what we acquire, what we do for others or the façade that we create and call it image. St. Germain shows us that we are so much more; that the very life we live is a Master's creation. Just by being we influence many other lives. Our choices, our compassion, our essence is Mastery. How we shape it and how we share it is up to us.

Call or email Molly for more information.

CDs and mp3s will be available.

Our group for November is "The World is Changing! and so Are You." It will be on November 22 at 2 p.m. MST.

The World is changing moment by moment. Everything seems to be out of control, and so it is. That is the point! No one can control the lives of others or how life will move, because control is not a tool of higher energy. People want life to change, but allow them to remain the same. If you want to keep up with something that is moving you cannot stand still. The movement of which we speak is not physical alone or mental alone, but a blending of every aspect of yourself in unity and agreement that you desire and deserve a greater life. This life cannot be taken by force, but was granted when you were created. It belongs to you. It is time to remember how to live the Sacred Life.

CD's can be purchased on the website at Click Here for 2015 Groups

Our Teaching with the Master for November is "Pride and Self Value". Pride can be both positive and negative depending on where you place your attention. The arrogance of superiority can cause pride to be painful, not only to those who are judged less but to the one who judges them less. Personal Self Value allowed the filters of fear to be removed and the appreciation of self to expand which then allows a totally different perspective of everything.

The Teaching is on the second Wednesday evening of each month at 7 pm MT. You are invited to call-in for the Teachings.

If you haven't had the experience of the Teachings that St. Germain is offering this year they really help us to understand what is going on. It just might be worth your while to check them out. The deep healing power of the Master is there to experience again and again as you listen to the awesome wisdom that he brings. CDs are $15 for each set—Teachings or Q&A. It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month. Postage and handling are separate.

ASTROLOGY

NEW MOON-November 11

This New Moon in Scorpio takes us another step further into Revelation. The Old ways are passing and the New Human is struggling to be born in each one of us.

Scorpio was originally represented by a serpent coiled at the base of the spine, associated with the Kundalini and how it energetically rises along the spinal column to ignite the pineal and pituitary glands that connect our awareness to the third eye. Scorpio is an indicator of healing beyond the normal concept and transformation. In ancient Crete the Great Goddess was depicted with snakes winding around her staff. The caduceus, two serpents twined around the winged wand of Hermes—the rod of Asclepius—the scepter of the god of healing portrayed with a single curled serpent—are still used as medical emblems. The ouroboros, a snake eating its tail, is a related ancient symbol for eternity, evolution and wholeness. Scorpio is related to three other images; the scorpion (a solitary creature symbolizing self-protection and instinctive desire), the eagle (who has a wider awareness and control over its desires), and the dove (who has transcended personal desire and brings peace and healing to others. The phoenix is yet another related archetype of transfiguration—rising from the ashes of one's egoic desires. All delineate the spiritual task of Scorpio to learn to surrender the old ways and realize that there is no real death, only transformation.

Mercury cojoins this New Moon, suggesting that our thought processes are one of the primary areas required to be transformed. Mercury symbolizes our mental energy, our capability of perception and imparting information, as well as our recognition of life's patterns and placing the pieces of that puzzle into place. Mercury is the conduit between the superconscious, conscious and subconscious states. Alchemically, Mercury represents the process of understanding and integration. Also called the Great Transformer, Mercurius is androgynous, representing the union of male and female and, by analogy the transcending of duality. Mercury in Scorpio urges us to pay close attention to what goes through our mind and across our lips. Truth is not just exposing the enemy. It is recognizing what requires to be said and how. It isn't about secrets, but loving communication. Chiron, at 17 degrees Pisces, trines Mercury and the New Moon, so that we might consider thinking with our hearts and trusting our inner knowing. There will be startling and important insights coming to the fore as Venus squares Pluto and opposes Uranus November 20-23 (14-17 degrees of Libra, Capricorn and Aries).

Comets and meteors are harbingers of transition and catalysts for change. There are three meteor showers in November, just before, during and after the New Moon: the South Taurids on November 4-5, the North Taurids on November 12-13 and the Leonids on November 17-18. These "shooting stars" are fragments of comets orbiting out Sun. Each time a comet passes through our solar system, some of its ice vaporizes, carrying along with it some of the comet's rocky core, leaving a light trail as it burns up in our atmosphere. Meteors are potential sources of new life. Even if you do not see the showers you receive the downloads in meditation and the dreamtime.

We are being urged by the energy of the stars, planets and heavens to change the way that we think—not only what we think, but how. We cannot become different until we are willing to shift the direction of our focus.

FULL MOON-November 25

This Full Moon illuminates our beliefs, dreams and direction of our life.

We are both instinctual and rational, mortal and divine beings. Gemini seeks to gather and share information; Sagittarius searches for unifying principles and meaning. The centaur, Sagittarius draws together our animal, human and spiritual natures. The Archer aims for the sky (even the sky is unlimited) and represents the search for universal truth. The constellation itself points toward the center of the Milky Way galaxy, where the Galactic Core is currently found at 27 degrees Sagittarius. The Sun, along with Saturn and Mercury, illuminates Sagittarius evolutionary goal; the reunion of humanity and nature, Heaven and Earth.

Saturn makes the first of three exact squares to Neptune on November 26 (7 degrees Sagittarius-Pisces). Squares mark important turning points, these are waning squares, considered by Dane Rudhyar "a crisis in consciousness," where we must reorient ourselves and release any form that no longer supports our growth. The mythic Reaper and the Lord of the sea delineate very different levels of reality. Saturn governs the limits of the physical world, where we learn to create responsibly within the bounds of time and space. Neptune presides over metaphysical domains, where we merge and navigate unified states of consciousness via extrasensory perception. These aspects are setting things in motion for the emergence of the New Year. 2016 is the Year of Embracing the New Self.

Saturn-Neptune squares challenge us to manifest from our essence rather than our EGO, and to follow our intuition and inner guidance rather than external authority and conventional ideas. Discovering our true self requires that we forgive the dependence on experts to tell us what to do. More and more, we are finding that the experts are people just like us who are no longer afraid to express what they are finding out about life and where it is going. We are being compelled to forgive martyrdom and victim mentality, blame and guilt, addictions and illusions. The direction of the planets energy is to s-l-o-w down as everything seems to be moving faster. We can then discover who we are and see clearly where we have been in denial, where we have given away our power for lifetimes and how to have integrity and vision, pragmatism and faith. As we understand how to use energy for our greatest creations, everything changes. The fears and erroneous belief systems that have blinded us to the truth begin to collapse and open the way to our best self.

Thanksgiving can take on a whole new meaning this year with the aspects that are falling just before, during and after the day itself. Mercury conjuncts Saturn and squares Neptune on November 24-25, testing our ability to remain both focused and flexible. November 25 is the day before Thanksgiving in the U.S., the busiest travel day of the year, so it is especially important for us to stay centered, present and trust our intuition through the end of the month, as the Sun conjuncts Saturn and squares Neptune on November 29.

As we shift our vision and focus on what we desire rather than getting rid of what we do not want, we begin to realize that we have been straining to see what has always been there. As we soften the vision and relax, letting go of need we begin to see what is valuable rather than what we have been told is important.

Time

1. Time is not

What is thought,
An even flow,
Past to Future.
But, Time and Space
Is on a curve aligned,
In a circle laced.

2. Imaging, a giant

Wheel, tightly packed
With groves. Each grove represent
A hundred years.
Crawl up from your
Grove, look around;
You will see all Time
Into one is bound.

3. Take the giant

Wheel, stretch it
Far and wide.
Flip the wheel
Through the Universe.
Time and Space
Married now is
To Gravity, and
She set him free.

QUOTES FOR THE MONTH from St. Germain

To live as you truly desire requires that you find the map of your Soul's design. Look deep within for the places of wisdom, truth and clear vision where you will read the map and find the way. You are a Pathfinder of new dimensions beyond the limits of Illusion, where the Ancient and the NOW are blended.

Truth is an ally, a natural companion for those who seek beyond the chaos of the World. You are a peace maker; a Divine artist who paints, sculpts, draws and dreams the New Vision of what you are becoming. Delight in the beauty that you find, the courage to overcome and the sheer joy of breathing life into the Becoming.

“Why”, you may ask, “am I here?” “I would rather be anywhere else, but where I am”, you say. Thus, you hold yourself away from all that you are, longing to find the gift, your gift, in another or outside in the world. NOW take a breath and dive deep into the waters of your own ocean of peace within. Rest and enter the Flow that takes you to YOU.

Release the doubts that have held you. Forgive the Fear that prevents you from life. Feel the power of yourself and let life take you forward in grace and elegance. It within you to live great things in Love.

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Beloved Masters, you are making major steps into integration day by day. The energy is polarizing into left and right. Many of you are feeling the desire to get away from all of the conflict, but you cannot seem to find your way out.

WHERE IS YOUR FOCUS? What are you thinking about? When you try to get away from what you do not like it binds you energetically to those thought forms and no matter what you do you seem to find what you don't want everywhere. You cannot change others to get what you want. The changes begin within you. The need to change others keeps the focus on what is wrong—with them, with the situation, with the world. You do not get well by fighting disease. You heal any kind of situation by focusing on wellness; not how to get well, but allowing the process of healing. The gigantic shifts that are occurring are touching everyone—those who believe in the conservative and those who are liberal. Truly, Beloved Masters, spirit does not make exceptions for either side, because as you raise your frequency into higher realms sides do not exist. It isn't about attempting to get others to change so that you can be comfortable, but raising your consciousness so that you find the point of energetic Connection that allows Conscious Conversation, recognition of your own clear Truth and the Intuition to share that Truth easily with others with no investment in outcomes. Synchronicity is the first step to living by Divine Law in your daily affairs. As you recognize the energetic lift that you get each time you experience synchronicity and how it opens the way for Conscious Conversation, which means genuinely listening to what others are saying and intuitively Connecting to their perspective without judgment, you come to desire the feeling of “Being in the Flow” all of the time. Higher realms require truthfulness. Lies are a part of the Illusion and create low vibrational frequency in your body, mind and emotions. Humanity is becoming more sensitive all of the time and whether people can clearly tell that you are lying or if they just feel your own discomfort in telling lies, the lies can turn people away.

As you anticipate Synchronicity, live in Integrity by being Truthful, respect the ideas of others even if you do not agree, practice Conscious Conversation, and Connect with others so that you experience Oneness you begin to find that “LIVING LIFE WELL IS A SACRED ART”.

EVERYONE IS A SACRED ARTIST bringing their own beauty to the world. Those who refuse to believe that art is important or that beauty is necessary are simply preventing themselves from the experience of Living Life Well.

Oneness is the experience of feeling in tune with another person or persons, not because everyone is alike, but because in Oneness there is a personal feeling of heightened energy. When you feel the Oneness the Love lifts you higher and with each idea or intuition that is shared the energy rises. Ascension is not doing the right thing. It is allowing the spirit to guide and inform through the collective consciousness; Truth, Intuition, Connectedness all form a foundation of Trust which allows people of different backgrounds, religions, life experiences and culture influences to come together in warm regard of each other. Oneness opens the pathway of communication for all to enter in and share what they feel, believe or have learned without being judged as wrong or bad. Oneness leads to the ability to form alliances without exclusion.

Divine Law was set in place before the fullness of creation began. Karma is not a law of punishment, but a law of balance. When someone is living their life out of balance, Karma moves in (very quickly in the energy of these times) and sets things in harmony. Karma is unconditional!! It does not operate on favoritism or preference. It brings balance to everyone and everything as it was designed to. It is an ultimate Law of Love.

Each person has a sense of destiny, a feeling that they are here for something important. Some know very early on what they have come to achieve while others wait, sometimes until much later in their life, to discover what their mission is. Timing is Divine and therefore ones destiny cannot be rushed. The finite mind wants to know when things will happen, how they will come about or what they will look like. These needs deny the intuitive connection that allows each person to discover who they truly are. At some point, if you haven't done something of note, other people begin guessing what you should do or telling you what they think would be best for you. The EGO operates in confusion, so as you hear many voices, all saying what you should do, do, DO you can no longer hear your own inner voice because spirit is not going to get into a shouting match with EGO. Then the EGO begins to tell you that "God forgot you", "You have no value" and for lifetimes humanity has been programmed away from the wonder of Divine Law which has continued to operate no matter what.

Fear dismisses beauty as a useless, time consuming waste. At the same time Fear recognizes that something is missing. The EGO says "They have what you want. If they will not give it to you, then you must take it". Divine Law holds the truth that there is always PLENTY and PLENTY MORE WHERE THAT CAME FROM. There is more, much more than enough. Jesus demonstrated that Divine Law at the Sermon on the Mount. One young boy generously offered his lunch (seven small fish and five loaves) that his mother had made for him with great Love. The absolute selflessness with which he shared set the energetic tone that allowed Jesus to continue the blessing that fed over 5,000 people with baskets of food left over. Sharing is not giving up what you have for others. It is a demonstration of FAITH that, not only is there plenty to share, but that there will be a thousand fold return to all—both giver and receiver.

Humanity is rising up to remember who and what you truly are. You are Divine, Beloved, Wonderous, Amazing, Creative Masters right NOW. Living less than well simply denies your God given right to the Divine. YOUR DIVINE INHERITANCE DOES NOT BELONG TO ANYONE ELSE. Taking from others does not grant you spiritual Ascension or entrance into the higher frequencies. There is no justification in Divine Law for lies, abuse, wrong doing or any other form of injustice. "THEY DID IT SO I CAN, TOO" is like a child who has not been taught to appreciate the wonder of all that they are. Justification does not make injustice acceptable. In the Illusion injustice came to be an acceptable practice because those who were unjust had the might of Power in the World to enforce their crimes. The Finite Mind enforced the belief until humanity began to just "fall into line". Even though the Illusion is passing, there are still many who are so addicted to the rush of a moment of power, that the acceptance of injustice is still strong. Right now on the planet threats and intimidation are used to achieve what the limited mind believes cannot be accomplished by compassion or Love. REVELATION IS CHANGING THE DIRECTION THAT THINGS ARE GOING AND THE FINITE MIND CANNOT RISE HIGH ENOUGH TO STOP THE CHANGES. ASCENSION MEANS "RISE UP OVER". It does not refer to anyone being better than another. It means that you are wired genetically in your DNA with all of the connectors to Rise Up Over the ways of separation. Synchronistically Connect to everything and everyone in Oneness, Truth, and Intuition to discover the internal awareness that you personally possess. All of the thought, planning and mental acuity on Earth cannot supercede Divine Law which operates in all creation. All of the arguments about whether there is a God, what God's name is, where God is do not change the fact that the finite mind could never create the ecologically harmonious planet that existed before separation led humanity to think that they knew better than God how to "run" the Earth. THE EARTH IS NOT DESTINED TO DIE; HUMANITY IS DESTINED TO CHANGE SPIRITUALLY TO SAVE THE WORLD AND EACH OTHER IN LOVE!!! No one knows the way intellectually and no group has enough clout to bring about a sacred event with guns and missiles. Armageddon is not about destruction, but embracing the Oneness that allows all to live life well without judgment.

If you desire a calm, harmonious life filled with gentle joy then focus on how those blessings feel within. You cannot find them outside until you experience them within yourself. You are the Divine Artist that designs and orchestrates the life that you live. It is time to embrace the fact that YOU ARE A DIVINE CREATIVE MASTER!!

In the greatest of Love we are with you. WE support your shifts into higher levels of wisdom. Your Ascension awaits within—RISE UP OVER and find the fulfilling life of a New Human right where you are. War will never give you what you are seeking. I remain your most humble servant. I AM the Lord St. Germain.
