October Newsletter

Autumn came to the high country in mid-September and now the trees around Lander and all over the valley are golden. Our fall weather hasn't arrived yet as we are still having temperatures in the 90's, but it feels like fall is in the air. Just as we are sending the newsletter the temperatures have dropped into the 50's with rain, misty mountains and beautiful coolness.

September brought many changes. We finally got the rest of our siding for the house and by the time this newsletter goes out I hope the house will be finished.

My daughter Sarah got some great photos of elementals while she was here in September. Here is a gnome king that she captured at a place that we call Anniversary Rock near Louis Lake at the south end of the Switchbacks. In the first picture that she took his right leg was right next to his left one. In this picture he moved the right leg out and extended it. I thought I had both pictures, but I guess I didn't get one of the first pose.

This tree is like a puzzle. Do you see an old, dead tree or the amazing beings peering out of the branches? Find the hidden faces and creatures. Nature is so amazing.

I went to Billings for my second to last check up on the cancer surgery from 2011. The radiologist dismissed me and said he will not have to see me again. I have the final checkup in Billings next May. The doctor said, "Then you will be a cancer survivor". I told her I knew I was a survivor after the surgery was done.

We spent the night with Linda Thomas on our way to Billings. Dorian bought another Amethyst geode while we were there. It will join our crystal family and sit with the other amethyst geodes that we have.

This is another new addition to our crystal family. This is a star rose quartz ball that Linda got in Denver at the gem and crystal show. Here are two different views.

We are now anticipating our trip to San Francisco to the Lazaris event there. It will take us right into the midst of where the most destructive fires have been. Dorian's niece Suzanne lives in St. Helena in the Napa valley. So far her home is safe. We are going to spend an evening with Suzanne and her family the day after the Lazaris event ends and then we will head home. Linda Thomas is going with us to the Lazaris Intensive and our friend Donna Ing from Atlanta is going to join us there. It will be a fun reunion. Our house sitter, Abbey Burns will be there if you require to contact us.

ASTROLOGY

NEW MOON-October 12-13

This is Libra's month, a time that addresses all of our relationships. How appropriate is it that this New Moon lights up the area of our lives where relationships are discovered, developed and brought into being. The Sun shines all of the time, whether seen or not signifying the eternal presence of the divine. The Moon's waxing and waning represents the constantly changing world of form. Every 29.5 days the Sun and the Moon meet opening a new portal of possibilities from the deepest self to embrace loves longing for itself. The New Moon in Libra offers a more transcendent view of ourselves and others. We are shown that the greatest teachers are the best students in their own class. We constantly learn from and teach everyone that we meet.

Not only are the Sun and Moon in Libra, but the North Node, Mercury and the asteroid Juno, highlighting the places where we are currently most challenged to grow in understanding and acceptance. Libra teaches us that each relationship—indeed, the whole world—is a mirror of the multitude of facets of our own nature, thus helping us to become more honest, clear, compassionate and whole. What we cannot stand in another is a reflection of our shadow self and our better half exists within as well as without. In looking into ourselves and finding the cause of the inner war, we can begin a blending that brings greater peace, love and expression of the divine creativity within self and for others.

Uranus at 18 degrees 28 minutes Aries closely opposes Sun and Moon bringing strong motivation to release old patterns, limiting thought forms and relationships that suppress the experience of ourself as a unique individual. As the higher octave of Mercury, Uranus brings revelatory shifts of consciousness that give the blinding insight to change our lives forever. In Aries, Uranus impels us to break free from the shadow side of Libra: codependent or other-wise one-sided relationships where one person is the giver or fixer, cannot say "NO" and afraid that expressing their own feelings could jeopardize the relationship. Uranus remains within 10 degrees of opposition with Juno until November 29, impressing us to either transform or terminate relationships that are out of balance and do not empower all concerned.

Mercury is closely cojoined to the Libra North Node, underscoring the importance of listening and speaking from your feelings rather than the intellect. Most relationships fall apart because of a lack of communication. It is necessary to provide a climate where both people can be themselves and closeness is natural. To disagree is human, to accept that others can also be right is vital, to realize that we can always learn something new is the spice of life.

Venus, traditional ruler of Libra is in Virgo squared to Saturn in Sagittarius putting emphasis on the necessity to reconsider our values, beliefs and boundaries in relationships. Saturn reminds us that we always have a choice and if we want change then we really have to be willing to make the changes ourselves. Venus opposes Neptune at 7 degrees Pisces (exact on October 16) softening our hearts and helping to surrender our judgments. We can find deeper meaning and scope to our creativity, empathy and loving relationships.

People believe that a soulmate is your other half, a perfect fit and that is what they think they want. However, a soulmate is the mirror that shows you how you are holding yourself back, the person who brings you to your own attention so that you can change your life.

FULL MOON-October 27

As the Sun and Moon approach the monthly opposition we become more aware of the tension between the physical and non-physical worlds as the veil becomes much thinner at this time. Taurus symbolizes the Goddess and everything that she has to offer us. We see what we want and then we doubt. When we doubt it appears that the things we desire disappear. At this time the Goddess wants to take us to the deep places within us and shows us how to birth the desires and then hold them gently so that they are not broken or hidden away from our consciousness. Love reveals and fear distorts our desires.

This is the third SuperMoon in a row and the energy is building on the planet. The September Full Moon culminated the visit of Pope Francis to the United States. His energy and presence has a galvanizing effect on the world as a whole and the United States directly. Now the after effects of what was set in motion call for greater emphasis on applying and living the many things that the pope called us to consider.

The Full Moon reveals the hidden aspects that have been secreted in the dark and brings them into the light. We are shown what we require to see and transform. Scorpio is the sign that is most concerned with the shadow and things that we have repressed or denied. We are being confronted with trust issues, black and white thinking and our addictions to drama. We all have Scorpio and an eighth house in our chart which along with the placement of Pluto delineates where we wrestle with our demons and desires, as well as engage in the alchemical process of transmuting the lead of pain and suffering into the gold of wisdom and compassion.

We also have Venus, a second house and Taurus somewhere in our chart, describing how and where we are developing a healthy relationship to the physical plane. The shadow side of Taurus falls on the emphasis of too much or too little resources, security or personal value.

Venus is the traditional ruler of Taurus and Libra and it is in close opposition with Chiron in Pisces, suggesting that it is time to resolve the struggle to love and value ourselves. There is no requirement to justify our actions to anyone, but ourself and we do not have to prove our worthiness. We have been taught that acceptance comes from pleasing others, however, if the one you seek to please is invested in dissatisfaction there is no positive outcome.

Venus and Mars form three conjunctions this year (February 21 at 2 degrees Aries, August 31 at 15 degrees Leo and November 2 at 24 degrees Virgo) and remain within 10 degrees of each other for three months, from August 22 to November 22, encouraging a deeper balance between the divine masculine and feminine. This year Venus also forms three conjunctions with Jupiter (July 1 at 22 degrees Leo, August 4 at 29 degrees Leo and October 25 at 16 degrees Virgo), they remain within 10 degrees of each other from June 14 to August 16, and again from October 12 to November 6, opening our senses to greater appreciation of pleasure and love and expanding the potential for increased financial gain. Venus contact with Jupiter inspires romance, creativity and encourages generosity. It can also trigger over-optimism and overspending. Several quincunxes this Full Moon direct our attention to details that might be overlooked and a willingness to think outside of the box. The Moon is quincunx Saturn (14 degrees Taurus-Sagittarius), Venus is quincunx Uranus (17 degrees Virgo-Aries), and Jupiter is quincunx Uranus (exact on November 5 at 18 degrees Virgo-Aries).

This Full Moon reminds us of the message of the wonderful song, "It is better to light just one little candle than to stumble in the dark." You are the light and the essence that you carry has never been small. Shine! Shine!

QUOTES FOR THE MONTH from St. Germain

Dream your greatest and brightest dream. Share it with the Goddess and allow her to be a co-creator in its outcome. She will bring the divinely appropriate beings and ideas to fulfill the desires of your heart. Live your dreams fully.

You are the designer of the blueprint of your becoming. You have held the map of your returning to the light since the beginning of time. Synchronicity will show you how the design is unfolding. Impatience will blind your eyes from seeing what is there. It is for you to hold true to your course and forgive the pull of separation that still seeks to divert you from the highest and best rewards.

Venus, Jupiter and Chiron (beauty, opulence and transcendence) open a gateway to the within. Step through, embrace and be embraced by the Goddess. Contemplate the sharing of yourself and your abundance. Sharing is not giving away to emptiness, but a demonstration of implicit faith in the plenty of the Universe, which blesses both giver and receiver 1,000 fold.

The changes that are happening are bringing feelings of recognition of all aspects of self. There may be a sense of being split in two; two separate parts of self. They are really one and have appeared to be separate in Illusion. Allow the two to come together without force or planning. Let the aspects of you be drawn into oneness by Spirit. You are truly whole. Experience your ever growing Oneness. Feel how alive you are as you remember!

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Beloved Masters, The Goddess is emerging—wild and free, untamed by the judgments of the patriarchal society, beautifully unmarred by time spent in the dungeons of “sin and guilt”. She arises, smiles and bestows her blessings on all: WOMAN in her truth and wonder. She does not cower or lower her eyes in humiliation. She stands tall and proud, strong in her compassion for all. She is the Divine counterpart of God/man. She is the royal Priestess with dominion over nature. She relishes the depths of Love in which she walks, they fill her up and give her true strength.

She arises in woman, not as a warrior to destroy, but as a healer to mend. She rises up in men to bind them where they have been torn apart by the lies of Illusion. She brings the royal couple in each being into the marriage of holiness and lifts the eyes to see the glory rather, than focusing on the EGO mind studying the fatal flaws of distortion caused by the left brain attempting to hold sway alone. She lifts the fallen and presents each Soul to themselves. As She steps forward, even the Pope made a mass to the Holy Mother rather than to Jesus alone.

The Church would still only pay lip service to women and say that the priests have no requirement to attend to the edicts of the Vatican, but Goddess will not be stopped by platitudes. The Divine feminine presents a balance that has not existed in eons of time, yet it is an imperative for the changes that are now occurring.

The patriarchy can continue to disdain the feminine, but they will feel the discomfort of the imbalance within more and more as the energies of evolution call for peace and harmony (words that are spoken, but not yet understood). Wars have been held in high regard by the mind directed by separation from Love. Now, suddenly, the destructive games of conflict are revealing themselves for what they are; deadly. Children have been forced into the arena long before they are physically mature, being told that the games prove they are good warriors and the damage of conflict remains with them for the rest of their lives. Men will reenact battle on a playing field for large sums of money, only to find that no amount of money can return their health and well-being as memory and physical abilities slip away. WAR IS NOT A VIDEO GAME; people really die!

The divine feminine is touching the hearts and souls of the toughest fighters and some find that they are so tired of the fight that they are stepping away from the battle. The word sacrifice means strength, not impoverishment and weakness. The Goddess seeks to bring a deep understanding of equality. Being equal does not take anything away, but it adds much to the common good. Woman and man standing equal means new insights into greater creation rather than conflict over who is better, stronger or smarter. Since money is a symbol of the currency flow of God, equality removes the judgment that one gender is less than the other, that any race has supremacy, that status decides who is worthy or not or that money is more powerful than Love.

Relationships have been based on many things that have had little if anything to do with how love and marriage have been presented. The Goddess calls forth a clarity of what is truly desired and opens the paths of communication so that people will be clear before they rush into a romantic fairy tale, only to find that “the land far, far away” can never be reached. No longer will men who have no experience of true relationship tell others what they can and cannot do with a partner or who that partner may be. Heart felt caring dissolves the rage of not belonging for everyone. Superiority used to prove worth will fade into the clouds of the Illusions passing. The Goddess touches the heart and soul with the remembering of who you are and always have been, even though the Illusion closed the heart and put the mind on a pedestal.

Knowing isn't memory work. It isn't just intellectual knowledge of what is written in books or spoken by scholars. Knowing is a deep resonance within self that awakens truth and returns you to the reality of all that God created.

The word virgin means “pure of heart”. Its meaning has been changed to be a lack of carnal knowledge, but that was not the original definition. The Goddess is a true virgin and whether she is rising up in man or woman her intentions are of highest good. She need not fight off those who have abused truth. She simply shines her light into the darkness of the wounds of separation and the healing lifts the spirit to overcome what has been.

Rise up Oh people and stand tall in the robes of light. There is no battle over righteousness. Opinions fall like dead leaves to the ground as each soul acknowledges within who it is and feels the greatness of all. Each Master holds the clear understanding of At-One-ment and recognizes in the reflections of others the glory of I AM that I AM. The Goddess seeks to bring all religions to council to discover their strengths and weaknesses so that there can be mutual respect and trust for all. Each and every religion has a special message to share with the whole. Up to now there has been a belief the only truth belongs to one particular religion and that truth is held secret because if everyone found what it is there could be no more control. God has never sought to prevent humanity from the Truth. It has been so long since humanity has allowed God to be close; the sense of abandonment has been too strong and the Illusion has encouraged mistrust, but the sacred Truth awaits each Soul within themselves.

Some might say, “I have not invited the Goddess to come”. I say that the fact of your presence on the planet at this time is your signature of acceptance of the revolutionary evolution that is occurring.

We are excited! We are jubilant! We have walked with you through all of the limits of Illusion knowing that when it was time the Illusion would collapse and Revelation would bring clarity. There has been so much that could not be revealed because it was not time. This was not our judgment, but how the creation was designed. The necessity that each one would come to a place where you would discover the truth for yourself is being fulfilled now. Still no one outside of you can tell you exactly how the truth will appear to you or what it will look like when it does. We can assure you that the truth is not founded on war, but on deep peacefulness. The Illusion has created heavy veils of hatred and mistrust. The warriors cannot set down their weapons for fear that “the other side would win”. There will be no victory in Revelation through battle. If battle would have brought truth things would have gone in a different direction long ago.

Divine feminine has not come to conquer man. That would simply be the same challenges that history has shown over and over. The Goddess has come to awaken in man his best self and to stand in joyful recognition of what they can create together. We do not speak of one man and one woman above all others, but the divine couple in each Master and the acknowledgement of the co-creation with God that was granted from the beginning. You are Love, loving and beloved. Feel it within rather than looking for someone outside of you to validate you. The more you allow the Goddess to show you the path to inner wisdom the more you will see/feel the amazing awareness of your connection to the whole. Nothing is lost nor does it ever die, it simply changes form. You are the New Humans, divine Masters to inherit the New Earth right here, right NOW!

As you find the Love within you will realize that the depression and heaviness of what you have believed you are will fall away and you will experience enlightenment, both physically and spiritually.

Dearest and most Beloved, everywhere on this earth, you are now experiencing the changes that are bringing you home. Much of it will not be as the mind has interpreted because the mind was created in Illusion, rather than spirit. The EGO always defines by smallness rather than the grandeur of your original self. The wars of Revelation are being fought because of the misinterpretation of words. Intuition is clear, but as it has been processed through the filter of EGO mind there have been distortions. When you feel into yourself to decide how the messages of spirit affect you remember that God does not deliver messages of destruction or death. God holds pure intensions of the highest good of each and every part of the creation. God is neither male nor female, but a blending of the polarities creating magnetic attraction called Love that binds everything together. Without Love the planets would fly from their orbits and there would be no cohesive essence to keep the cells of your bodies intact. Love is a name for divine creation. It encompasses everything. The word love has become just another definition of a battle ground, but the frequency of war collapses in the essence of Love.

And so it is, Beloved Masters that we truly desire that the awakening be gentle and easy, that you can rest in the flow of Love that the Goddess pours out upon you. In the greatest of Love we are with you. I remain your most humble servant. I AM the Lord St. Germain.
