

October Newsletter

The energy that is powering the storms that have pounded the Gulf Coast and Mexico are generated by the negative emotions of the collective that have been liberated by the up spiraling of the energy that started on July 23rd and ended on September 23rd. The empowering energies brought new levels of heart opening and acceptance of Love to all of humanity and therefore, stirred up much old, stuck emotions that have been stuffed for life times. It is time to release the patterns that have caused division and conflict and let the power of Love changed each person from the inside out. In is time for everyone to walk their talk and live more aligned with what spirit is bringing rather than in the attachments of the Old Order to the Illusion of purely physical affairs. Life is far more precious than money and the recognition of personal worth is of greater value than all of the goods that people can amass. It is no longer necessary to have to decide between Love and money. It is time to find from within that money, honestly, follows joy. The sadness of believing that some deserve more than others requires to be forgiven. The desire to take from others to obtain what is not seen, is a part of the Illusion. Everything that anyone desires exists at the tips of your fingers. "Yes, even in the midst of a storm". Things may not appear the moment they are asked for, but that does not mean that they are not moving toward materialization. The times are changing and nothing is as it has appeared to be. We are seeking to bring love and healing to the whole Earth. We ask that All be willing to add their energy, heart-felt prayers and intensions and willingness to forgive old limitations in order to free the creative flow to bring new good for the totality of humankind. -- In Love St. Germain

We will celebrate Samhain on October 31st, All Hallows Eve. It is the time of year when the veil between the physical and non-physical worlds is the thinnest. The Ritual will be at 7 pm MDT. Join us energetically with your own rituals of Love, blessings, forgiveness and peace-making. The power of the Masters blends with us in the collective consciousness to make us all one.

This is the most beautiful birthday cake I have ever seen and it was a carrot cake filled with walnuts, which made it double yummy!

We had a quiet dinner and celebration of my birthday at home. What a great birthday. Annalaiya will be 75 on September 26 and we talked about how it feels like another day. I feel so good and life is excellent! Yea!!

Annalaiya is moving to Powell, WY where Linda Thomas, Woman of Crystals, lives. We were fortunate to get to celebrate Annalaiya's 75th birthday with her before she takes the last of her home to Powell.

Dorian always takes the picture so she is behind the scenes.

We have an interesting phenomenon in our family. My father lost the tip of his thumb on his left hand when he was fourteen. My three children have each lost the tip of a finger on their left hand (9 different fingers for each one). On the 29th of September my oldest granddaughter lost the tip of her left thumb while attempting to hold a horse still while it was being shod. One of those things that makes you go “HUM”

The Master St. Germain offers advice, encouragement, enlightenment and support through the Personal Growth package. Each month there is a private one hour session with St. Germain, plus CDs or mp3s of the monthly Teaching and the Q&A. The Teaching is based on a yearly theme and the Q&A is an opportunity to join in and ask questions about your own personal growth experiences. All of this for an amazingly affordable $120 per month. ### Rainbow Center News

Our Fall Intensive “Elements and Elementals of Magik” will be November 10, 11, 12.

St. Germain has given teachings on the Elements of FIRE, AIR, EARTH and WATER leading up to this intensive. If you have not gotten this information it will be helpful for the intensive.

The elements effect everything in life. Each person has a primary element that is the element most easily accessed in many situations. It also shows in the personality and the nature. All elements are accessible, but the primary element is a personal dynamic. The elementals—gnomes (earth), sylphs (air), undines (water) and salamanders (fire), as well as, Aether (spirit) are a natural part of life and even though most of the time humans have little or no awareness of them they still play a very important part of life in general and how the natural aspects of life function. St. Germain will talk about our elements, how to work with elementals, how to interact with aspects of nature and how to become much more attuned to how they feel, look and respond positively. We have been so long deliberately out of sync with nature, but as revelation brings us into harmony with the truly important factors of Life once more, the magik, which is the true living of Life, is reinstated, no matter what the beliefs of more recent times have mandated. Magik is only to be feared if there is the breaking of the Divine Laws that set it in motion in the beginning. The intensive will be from 10-2 on the 10th, 10 am to 6 pm on the 11th, and 10 am to 4 pm on the 12th. The cost for this three-day intensive is $350. We invite you to join us here in Lander for enlightenment, excitement and expansion, with the Master St. Germain.

We invite you to join us in person. Call or email Molly for more information.

CDs and mp3s will be available.

Our group for October is “Love Heals the Wounds of the Past with a Lotion of Transformation”. The mind tends to turn to destruction as the first line of defense. When the challenging choice for Love arises taking the path of forgiveness, compassion and allowing not only heals the moment or just the current situation, but the choice for Love consistently made brings a depth of healing that surpasses anything that the mind could offer. The Group will be October 15 at two pm.

CD's can be purchased on the website at Click Here for 2017 Groups

Our teaching for October is the Element WATER! This is the fourth element and carries such impact on the earth at this time. The emotions of the people are becoming more polluted with negative thoughts, ideas, and judgments and the more contaminated the emotions become the more toxic the waters of the planet become. It is not about waiting for someone else to do something. It is about becoming the change that you desire to live, to see on the Earth.

The Teaching is on the second Wednesday evening of each month at 7 pm MT.

Our call-ins for the Teachings allows you to join in to hear the teaching and ask questions at the Q&A.

If you haven't had the experience of the Teachings that St. Germain is offering this year they really help us to understand what is going on. It just might be worth your while to check them out. The deep healing power of the Master is there to experience again and again as you listen to the awesome wisdom that he brings. CDs are $15 for each set—Teachings or Q&A. It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month. Postage and handling are separate.

ASTROLOGY

ARIES FULL MOON-October 5

The Full Moon is an emotional high point each month and this Full Moon is in a fire sign which bring an extra level of intensity to the emotional scene. The sign of Aries can motivate action when things have seemed boring and one dimensional. The inspiration of a fire Moon can get new projects started and move things along where they seemed to be stuck. The main thing that has to be considered is over reacting and over reaching, as the fiery emotions can easily get out of control.

This Full Moon squares Pluto, which signifies our shadow nature, deep emotional wounds and subconscious programming. Patience is a major necessity as hypersensitivity can set a hair trigger. It is important to own our emotions and allow the heat to burn away the clouds of illusion that can cause misunderstandings. There are two kinds of anger: there is the volatile reactive explosion and then, there is the clear, centered anger that considers the outcome before it moves. Centered anger finds the inner foundation that supports and sustains each choice. Centered anger shifts into recognition of Love and the release of that which wounds and separates.

Ruled by Mars, Aries calls for the courage to navigate the feeling realms. Courage allows the ability to stay present with the inner emotions—yours or someone else's, without shutting down or lashing out. Courage allows us to keep our heart open and receptive when the automatic reaction is to take the defensive. Mercury in Libra opposes the Aries Moon, which requires us to speak Truth gently, with compassion, rather than expressing opinions with venom. It is necessary to be tactful, to listen to what others have to say and to respect their perspectives. Listening to others does not imply that we must change our point of view, but it does suggest that stepping over to their perspective might open things up to new insights. Pluto in Capricorn squaring the Full Moon recommends reclaiming our power by retracting our objections. Blaming others for how we are feeling suggests that we are allowing others to have more authority in our lives than we do. The more responsibility that we take for everything that we experience, both light and shadow, the more power we own to create our own reality.

The opposition between Uranus in Aries and Jupiter in Libra, recently exact for the third and last time magnifies the revelatory and catalyzing power of this Full Moon. For the last ten months, the expanding aspects of Jupiter and evolutionary Uranus have spurred radical growth in directions that could not have been anticipated. New doors have opened to the revolutionary aspects of the Aries-Libra polarity and have caused major shifts in relationships—sudden connections and, for some, disconnections, innovations and discoveries about self, interacting with others. On October 10 Jupiter will move into the sign of Scorpio and the discoveries that have come to light as Jupiter transited Libra will allow deeper excavation into the depths of heart opening and staying available when relationships seem to “dig too deep”. We will be challenged to let Free Will into our involvement with others and we get to experience how much new life essence flows into what may have appeared to be dying relationships.

Mars and Venus, rulers of Aries and Libra are conjoined at 19 degrees Virgo. The Virgo Goddess and Divine Counterpart hold the balance of sacred partnership for the energy of this Full Moon. Fire can illuminate, purify and bring clarity to bring out that higher potential that all humanity is being called upon to connect with in both body consciousness and mental/emotional grounding. Now!

LIBRA NEW MOON-October 19

This New Moon in Libra at 26 degrees, is opposed by Uranus in Aries which calls for a quantum leap into higher consciousness, especially where relationships are requiring attention. Uranus is the higher octave of Mercury and represents higher mind, inviting us “walk to the edge of our comfort zone and stretch” so that our old, preconceived notions do not limit how much we can enjoy being more fully involved in the fulfillment of bonding with others. Uranus is a Trickster and often brings disruption and chaos as a way to shift our point of view.

Venus is the ruler of Libra and instills peace, harmony and balance within. The New Moon will seek to find these aspects, but its opposition to Uranus may require that radical changes are necessary. Libra may have to swing the scales of balance to the extreme before the stress of the times releases the throes of conflict.

The Goddess Eris, Goddess of Discord, also joins Uranus in Aries to oppose this New Moon. We are reminded that if we fight to get peace, we will fight to keep it. Therefore, as we seek love and peace the opposition of Uranus and Eris can provide the key that can free us from the shadow aspects of Libra – indecisiveness, refusal to make decisions, and riding the fence.

Libra brings the lessons of growth through what we find in the mirrors that others hold up for us. With Uranus and Eris as the mirrors the reflections that we see can trigger the tendency to lash out at others for hurting us, as old wounds of rejection and abandonment are brought up to be healed.

Interrupting our habitual patterns can free us from continuing to follow the same old cycles over and over. If we are triggered into emotional intensity the Liberian qualities of compassionate objectivity and impartiality can help us to step back from the drama, take a deep breath or three (air element), simply witness our experiences. Eris and Uranus are involved in a fiery grand trine with Saturn in Sagittarius and North Node in Leo, which helps us to redirect discord and conflict into much more positive channels. The North Node opens the heart and allows us to experience the blending of dualities into a sacred whole. The Soul center in the solar plexus holds strong new foundations that support Oneness.

Chiron, the Wounded Healer, is at 25 degrees of Pisces in quincunx to the New Moon, another indicator of opportunities for healing our perceptions and patterns. Venus is at home in Libra, but is exalted in Pisces – the last sign of the zodiac, where everything becomes blended into the Universal Whole and is returned to the ocean of consciousness and Oneness. This quincunx between Libra and Pisces points to the requirement to heal our relationship with the divine, which is reflected in all of our human relationships.

Jupiter has recently moved into Scorpio and its transit through Scorpio for the next year supports deepening of intimacy and mutual empowerment in relationships. As we explore the magic of transformational partnerships we are required to delve into our own shadow self and recognize our own vulnerability. Mercury’s close conjunction with Jupiter encourages heartfelt communications, that even though they may be uncomfortable, can lead to true intimacy and the reigniting of the spark of life in relationship. As we make understanding the motives and desires of others more important we can support others and insure much more positive experiences.

The personal willingness to rise above the confusion, chaos and illusions of the old ways allows for a clearer view and access to wisdom that was hidden by entrenched belief systems of the past.

The changes continue. The planets support and define our forward motion into new levels of truth, wisdom and understanding that have been waiting for these times to come. Humanity is evolving beyond the suppression of shadows and illusions of limitation.

Take heart and move forward with renewed vigor. We are overcoming what has been and in all of the changes WE ARE NEVER ALONE.

QUOTES FOR THE MONTH from St. Germain

The energy it takes to diminish others takes more from the one who is judging them inadequate, than it does from those who are being judged. – St. Germain

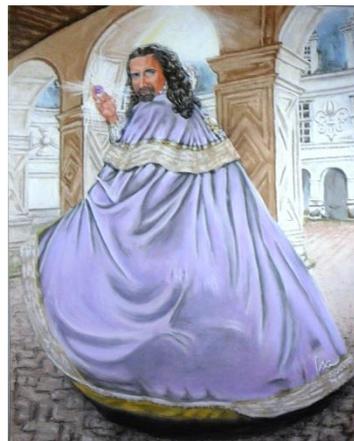

To have the courage to Love self brings the touch of Spirit so close that you can breathe its essence, feel its embrace and recognize that you belong. – St. Germain

When you make the connection with the Divine within, your see the world in crystal clarity. The world that you see is much more what Geo/Goddess/All That Is sees. And then you see yourself and the flood of Love that you feel assures you that what the world has believed is seen through a shadow. – St. Germain

The whole world is changing and what is being revealed is more of what you can be. The gifts bring the fulfillment of choice. The choice takes trust and faith that what you cannot yet see holds all that the Goddess would share. Be that Love. –St. Germain

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Dearly Beloved Masters, many people are speaking of how all of the storms, tornados and earthquakes are being caused by the destructive nature of scientists who have the ability to destroy the earth at the tips of their fingers. The abuse of nature has never been without consequence, as the Laws of Nature are directly connected to the Universal Laws of Spirit. We would not say that there are no people who would think that that kind of power would makes them special or better than others. However, All people must consider that over lifetimes there has been an accumulation of the negative emotions that have spawned division and separation. The recent energy shifts of earth have not only caused the physical elements to react to the outer changes, but the internal elements of the spiritual human to make a giant leap forward. None of the old patterns of Illusion fit into the changes easily, therefore, there is a spewing out of frustrations, anger, fear and reaction that is driving the physical elements to chaos and bringing the earth to a point of cleansing that no one has wanted to be involved with. The hurricanes that have rolled up through the islands, across the Gulf Coast, into Mexico and up the east coast of the U.S. are fueled by the rage of humanity as it pours out into the collective consciousness. The primal nature of the EGO Mind has determined that things that are not acceptable should be destroyed. No one wants to be the one that is destroyed, the one that is unacceptable, the one that is not good enough, yet so many delight in the idea of killing the enemy, doing away with the “bad guys” or just punishing those who do not agree. The desire to punish others has risen to the surface along with all of the negative emotions that have caused war after war on the planet. The Revelation is stripping away the blindness, that allows lashing out at others-mentally, physically or emotionally and believing it is acceptable, causes. Humanity is being called to find the discipline to center in and look to self before seeking to harm others. “Do not break the mirror because you do not like what it shows you”.

In all of the devastation on earth many people see opportunities to take things that they want because windows are broken, doors are unlocked or just because no one is there to stop them from helping themselves to things that they do not want to pay for. There is always the unseen price of karmic balance that people have come to overlook because they “don’t believe in karma”. Many do not believe in gravity, but their adamant disbelief does not stop gravity from continuing to function.

When a “poor man” steals from a “rich man” he may believe that he deserves to take what is not his because the rich man has it and “didn’t share”. When a “rich man” steals from a “poor man” he may believe that he is justified by the power he has gotten by stealing from others, to take advantage of the poor because he disdains their right to be. The distance that has been created from the acknowledgement of the Ten Commandments has brought humankind further and further from the Truth of Spirit. TURTH IS NOT A BELIEF, NOR IS IT A JUDGMENT. TRUTH IS A PART OF LOVE THAT HELPS TO KEEP THE BALANCE OF PLANETS, SUNS, MOONS, STARS AND SOLAR SYSTEMS MOVING IN THEIR COURSES.

The EGO mind says, “All of these thoughts are too big and they really don’t have any affect in my life”. KARMA is a Divine Law that was set into motion before the finite mind of man was created. It does not consider cash flow, cast system, placement in society or just the sense of superiority and entitlement that humans have adapted in the Illusion. Karma keeps the balance of Love when there are cosmic adjustments moving into place, because somewhere in the totality the energy has gotten stuck. So, yes, Beloved Masters All of this isn’t too big when it is factored into the way that you live your life, all of your life.

It is time to forgive spending time sitting in judgment of others and seriously take the time to find out who YOU are. You are the most important person in your life, which does not give license to dismiss others as less important than you. When there is the belief that no one is as important as you, very often the heart has become closed and so much of life is passing by without notice. The wounds of not being good enough cause blindness to all that life has to offer, when the willingness to be open and vulnerable can bring a life filled with caring and sharing that fills the heart and soul with what has been missing in the Illusion.

In the Illusion, the belief that an individual can just divorce themselves from the collective mind has caused people to think that they are not influenced by or influential toward others. The concept of power is often only the idea of power over others. No one can separate themselves from the whole just because they say they will or think that they can. The energy that embraces and constitutes the whole of the collective mind is Divinely inspired and cannot be disposed of by the finite mind on the whim of not wanting to be bothered or limited by what others are doing. The challenge is that when the attention is on stopping other people from living their life and making their own choices the focus is no longer directed to the whole picture which begins with one’s own life and affairs. Other people are interesting, but it becomes a power give away when personal attention is devoted to other lives more than to the clarity of “how am I conducting my own life and creations?”

The finite mind states that it is impossible to be clear and aware of self and others at the same time. Intellectually, there seems to be no bridge between the idea of “them or me”. This is where the deep internal connection to self opens the awareness to the power of Love and how it changes everything. In the shadow of Illusion Love has been viewed as an emotional response to another person that may only last briefly before the EGO wants to take control and the object of affection becomes distorted by the limits and judgments of that control. Love, when allowed to guide the blending of spirit and physicality, brings a sense of inner peace that is so profound because it changes one’s perspective of life gently, revealing elements and aspects that are veiled until Love is invited to assist in these changes. This unveiling and new clarity cannot be brought about intellectually, it cannot be forced to happen. Spirit does not respond to control, demands of the EGO or expectation that spiritual shifts must occur because a human decided that it is time for things to move into place. The spiritual assistance that humanity requires is available at all times. It is offered by those of us whose total desire is to help humanity move into the next phase of evolution. Spiritual growth is personal. Each being’s growth influences the collective in powerful ways. The refusal to grow does not stop the growth of the whole, but it does inhibit some of the collective from making as much progress as they might. The mind says, “We must find the inhibitors and stop them”. Again, we say “the way of spiritual growth is personal”. The more that your focus is on finding your own way, spiritually, the more you help others. When the focus is on stopping others, changing others or making other people conform to one idea, those who are easily distracted begin to cease to embrace Love and turn to the old ways of war. War is an OLD FAMILIAR DEVIL. Pay attention: War is a distraction from the healing power of Love. Love will embrace the anger and wounding of war and seek to transmute the conflict into new, usable energy, but war denies the power of Love as a possibility to bring humanity to the power to overcome “the enemy” within. IN LOVE THERE ARE NO ENEMIES!! IN TRUTH THERE ARE NO ENEMIES!! As the Revelation continues these Truths will become self-evident. Like a light shining in the darkness of separation Spirit illuminates the inner being and so much that has seemed a mystery, is revealed. This understanding is not something that someone tells you to do and when you do it you get a reward. The rewards are revealed when the essence and energy of the life is opened within and the grace, beauty and nobility of spirit is released within self to become a conscious awareness that is felt as much or more that decisions made by the mind. Spiritually directed changes bring the amazing power that spirit holds to a level of consciousness that illumines the inner being. The White Fire of God and the Violet Flame burn away the old limits, opinions and doubts that have dimmed that ability to see clearly all the wealth of wisdom, grace and compassion that exists within each person. Life times of being psychologically programmed that you are nothing, that you are less than a few chosen ones who get to abuse and revile the many. We hold intensions that all can find within themselves the willingness to release how things have appeared to be for so long, and rise up to greater, more wonderful, far more blessed essence that is moving into the realms of each life. Now it is time for choice. The choice is yours. It cannot be made for you. If you would go to someone else and say, “What should I do?” there will begin to dawn from within the recognition that no one can make these choices for your life, but you.

LOVE IS UNCONDITIONAL!! JUDGMENT IS TOTALLY CONDITIONAL!! Believing that there is only one way to live life, seek answers to pressing issues or make personal growth denies the gift of Free Will granted in the beginning time of creation. The logical mind believes that “if everyone would just do things the right way’ everything would be so much better. Whose way is right? Unconditional Love does not seek to control the affairs of humanity. The EGO mind, very much like a whining child, wants God/ Goddess, the Masters and the Angels to take sides. Unconditional Love sees no sides and Loves all equally. The forgiveness of judgments is imperative in these times as it frees and clarifies the inner visions and connection to Spirit. Learning to recognize the difference that you experience within when you make your own choices for goodness and Love is extremely empowering. When the choices are made for the power of the Illusion the energy that comes will carry a great price, because the price of “power over others” means that there is a constant necessity to keep taking more power from others just to maintain the level of abuse energy needed to stay in control. There is really no getting ahead. It begins to feel like treading water in a vast ocean of emptiness. The more one attempts to take from others the more it takes to keep them limited. The energy it takes to diminish others takes more from the one who is judging them inadequate, than it does from those who are being judged.

Time feels different. It is actually moving faster, yet it can seem to be moving slower. How time serves each being is truly decided by the choices of the individual. What humanity is now required to learn at this time is that isolation is moving away with the ending of the Old Order. Everyone is being given personal lessons to understand that unity, oneness and interdependence is what brings each Soul home to self. No one is separate, on one is superior and on one is less than any other. What is rising to the surface for all to see is outmoded belief systems that have given the impression that some humans are better than others. The constant barrage of discount has caused many to simply give up to the idea of less than. All Souls are created equal. What the mind calls equal and what Spirit sees as equal are very different perspectives. The World measures by status, money, education and dominance. Spirit looks to the open heart, compassion, acceptance of each individual as their own being, not to be measured against someone else. Self-worth shines like a beacon, while self-aggrandizement is a shadowed light. The person who shouts the loudest about how great they are is most often the one who is most afraid that they do not measure up. Those who feel their own self-worth have no necessity to mention it. Their character is noticeable.

I WILL SAY THIS AGAIN: THE MASTERS ARE HERE TO ASSIST EACH AND EVERYONE. WE ARE NOT EASILY MISLEAD. THEREFORE, THE GAMES OF THE WORLD WHICH SEEK TO APPEAL TO THE EGO MIND DO NOT CLOAK THE MISCHIEF BEHIND THE MASK. WE HAVE NO NECESSITY TO JUDGE. HUMANITY DOES THAT VERY WELL. THE FURTHER EACH HUMAN MOVES INTO THE OWNERSHIP OF INDIVIDUAL MASTERY, THE LESS JUDGMENT, LIMITATION AND

FEAR CLOUD THE INNER VISION. OWNING INDIVIDUAL MASTERY REVEALS HOW AMAZING INTERDEPENDENCE IS, HOW COMFORTING IT FEELS AND HOW STRONG IT MAKES EACH BEING FEEL FROM THE INSIDE OF SELF.

The World is changing, humanity is changing, the old ways of living are changing and nothing is exactly as it appears to be. Everyone must learn to see/feel, hear/feel and think/feel. The feeling that Spirit inspires allows a much greater depth of awareness, NOW in this moment, where everything actually occurs.

You are Beloved! You are held in the heart of the Divine! You are never alone! I AM the Lord St. Germain, your most humble servant!
