

September Newsletter

Here is my latest pair of Magik Shoes from Linda Lube.

Linda does such beautiful creations. See her ad in the Ad section of the newsletter.

Karen Singer sent me this very cute picture of her Dad's dog. The dog will jump to catch a frisbee and Karen saw this cloud that looked just like the dog jumping. Here is the pictorial result. Thanks Karen.

Here is a prayer to all light workers on the planet in these times. Karen created the symbol and the prayer.

Prayer Request/Meditative Focus--
 If you're so inclined. Let us all please take a moment and embrace any and all of our own personal storms/hurricanes/wars or potential storms/hurricanes/wars in our hearts in deep Love and hold the intention for the most miraculous outcomes for all concerned and allow the love to overflow and surround our inner stormy seas. Then, please, allow that overflow of Love to embrace the people everywhere and all Life on and around the places of conflict and upheaval. Hold the intention for the highest and best and most miraculous outcome for all concerned as well. While we are all doing this, why not include the entire beautiful Earth... Our Love and our highest intentions for our own lives and all Life is the greatest gift we can share and it is essential NOW and always. May all the Love and prayers add to or co-create an ever-expanding, magnificent, transforming field of Light and Love beyond all imaging. Please consider this request. Many thanks and Love.

We watched an amazing film called “Chasing Ice”. I have not been very involved in the Global Warming controversy but this film is living proof of the major changes that are happening on our beautiful home planet. Environmental photographer James Balog deploys time-lapse cameras to capture a record of the world’s changing glaciers, compressing years into seconds to illustrate how these ice mountains are disappearing at a breathtaking rate.

We got the film from Netflix. You can also go to www.chasingice.com or www.extremeicesurvey.org.

Just a reminder that St. Germain is extending the Personal Growth series indefinitely. He feels that so many can benefit from the personal attention that is shared with the Master and given to self. We are now offering along with the Personal Growth the monthly groups for $15. These amazing extras blend with the Teachings, but bring other perspectives and add to your potential for your own personal growth.

As life on the planet intensifies being with yourself and understanding what is happening within and without is extremely helpful. To spend personal time for the comfort and enlightenment that will aid you in discovering where you are now going is a great gift and St. Germain is so willing to give it in Love.

Each month you can get the Teachings, Q & A and a one hour private session with St. Germain to develop your personal evolution in spirit. The cost will be $120 per month with a six month commitment which is a great deal as a one hour private session is $200 normally. Just imagine spending an hour of valuable time each month discussing anything about your growth that you wish with the Master. We have the good fortune of spending time with him regularly and it is such an uplifting experience.

Rainbow Center News

Our group for September will be at 2 p.m. on September 7 at our home. The subject that St. Germain will address is “Belonging”.

We have longed to belong and it would appear that rejection of self and others is rampant on the planet. NO ONE CAN REJECT YOU UNLESS YOU AGREE TO IT. Oft times the agreement may look like a fight. If something seems so real to you that you must battle to get rid of it then you are, in truth, agreeing that it exists. When someone else suggests that you are unworthy in any manner it means nothing unless you take it upon yourself and accept that their opinion is more powerful than your own inner knowing. Get connected to your inner self and amazingly you BELONG.

CD’s can be purchased on the website at www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/2014groups.html

Our Teaching with the Master for September is: “Being Yourself: Living Beyond the Limit of Judgment”. We have been taught for life times that who we are is measured by what others say or think about us. We have been instructed to avoid finding out who we truly are, going within and connecting with the I AM self. St. Germain calls us to discover who we are and Live it, Live it, Live it!! Forgiving the judgments that we have imposed upon ourselves and being faithful to the highest and best that we are, leads us to find the Master that we have always been—“no matter what”. In this teaching we take another affirmative step toward personal ownership and dominion over our own life. As St. Germain says, “LIVE IT WELL!!

If you haven’t had the experience of the Teachings that St. Germain is offering this year they really help us to understand what is going on. It just might be worth your while to check them out. The deep healing power of the Master is there to experience again and again as you listen to the awesome wisdom that he brings. CDs are $15 for each set—Teachings or Q&A. It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month. Postage and handling are separate.

ASTROLOGY FULL MOON-September 8-9

This is the last of five SuperMoons this year. The SuperMoons always bring extra intense emotional changes because of the influence on the gravitational pull, the tides (water), wind and weather all over the earth are effected. This brings home the realization that we are not separate from anything that is going on anywhere on this wonderful planet that we call home. At this Full Moon the Sun in Virgo opposes the Moon/Chiron in Pisces as well as Venus in Virgo opposing Neptune in Pisces.

Our mental climate effects the changes in our physical body. As the emotions effect the brain it sends out messages that influence our biochemical state. We receive about 20,000,000 bits of information per second, but we can consciously process only about 40 of these. The brain sorts information and gives us what it perceives to be the most important or essential for the moment. This mechanism is designed to “keep us safe”, but it severely limits our perspective of the world we live in. As our world keeps expanding we are required to find ways to “live outside of the box” because what made the cave man safe no longer applies in the high tech world that we are inhabiting. Finding ways to lift our consciousness, to raise the emotional reactiveness to feelings that connect comfortably with everything assists us to experience more Love, compassion and gratitude. We are energetically being moved from just survival to truly living life to the fullest.

Emotionally we are modulated by interaction between the brain and the hormone oxytocin and the vagus nerve. Oxytocin is called the bonding hormone; it reduces anxiety and depression, raises the pain thresholds and promotes growth and healing. It surges not only during sexual intercourse and childbirth, but also from any loving touch—hugs, holding hand, massage. It is also increased by singing, dancing, playing or exercising with others. Research has shown that giving, receiving and even witnessing an act of kindness also raises our levels of oxytocin.

The vagus nerve connects the brain to our heart and plays a large part in our immune system and parasympathetic nervous systems. When the vagus nerve is activated it corresponds with feelings of altruism, compassion, gratitude and happiness. The vagus nerve has tone like a muscle. Its strength can be measured by tracking heart rate in conjunction with breathing rate, called the “vagal tone”. The higher the vagal tone, the healthier, happier and more flexible we are on all levels. Vagal tone can be improved by breathing exercises and meditation. The blending of the energies of body, emotion and mind with the spirit brings greater well-being on every level.

The Moon at 16 degrees Pisces forms a water grand trine with asteroids Juno in Cancer (16 degrees) and Vesta in Scorpio (17 degrees); this highlights the importance of developing and expressing a more balanced nature where the feminine and masculine can be interdependent. The totality of well-being on all levels is increased by forgiving all that no longer serves our lives and our evolution. Holding on to the past is a deterrent really good health. The planet is expressing many different forms of disease (uneasiness with self and others). Raising the consciousness to maintain a happier, healthier, more loving life style is necessary. The conjunction on Vesta with Saturn at 19 degrees Scorpio on September 13 compels us to get in touch with whether our relationships are supporting our spiritual goals. Venus opposition to Neptune on September 10 (6degrees Virgo-Pisces), Trine Pluto on September 14 (11 degrees Virgo-Capricorn) and opposite to Chiron on September 17 (15 degrees Virgo-Pisces) offer healing of issues of self-esteem and our tendencies to sacrifice ourselves for others. Mercury’s square to Pluto on September 9 at 11 degrees Libra-Capricorn and opposition to Uranus on September 13 (15 degrees Libra-Aries) requires complete honesty with ourselves and others.

This Full Moon shows us: “After mastering the winds, the waves, the tides and gravity, we shall harness for God the energies of Love, and then, for a second time in the history of the world, we will have discovered fire.”

NEW MOON-September 23-24

The 23rd of September is considered to be the second most powerful day of the year as Sirius, the Dog Star, sets after being in ascension in the summer sky for two months. This New Moon in Libra is all about, peace, love, harmony and balance in relationships. Libra seeks to establish mutually beneficial relationships without compromising one’s essential self, personal values or goals. We are reminded that Love is an inside job. It does not start with the wonderful person standing in front of you. They have come into your life because you felt you were ready for their arrival. If you abandon yourself for them, they will begin to look altogether like the human that they are because on one can maintain perfection. “It is not an estate of the human condition”, as St. Germain says.

New Moons mark the beginning of a new cycle, and this one symbolizes a much larger shift, as it peaks less than one degree from the Super Galactic Center (SGC) at 1 degree 46 minutes Libra. The SGC is a colossal Black Hole around which revolves our Milky Way plus fifty other galaxies, each containing billions of stars. Electromagnetic transmissions emanating from the SGC act as a spiritual beacon, triggering memories of our cosmic origins and destiny. This alignment of the New Moon with the SGC defines our evolution by a vast expansion of our comprehension of relationship. We have been trained to think of relationship as romance and marriage. We must now totally expand that to include everything. We are not just related to those who are like us, our kind, but to every person, animal, star, stone, plant and element of nature. We begin to make very different choices when we begin to realize that every thought that we have, every emotion—hate or Love—influences the whole. We are not separate in reality, only in Illusion.

Two other factors influence the potency of this New Moon. Pluto ends its yearly retrograde on September 22, signaling that it is time to take giant step forward. Pluto moving forward just before a New Moon increases our readiness to have relationships based on equal rights and co-operation, rather than disparity and domination. The second equinox of the year occurs just before the New Moon as the Sun goes into Libra. This happens just a few hours after Pluto goes direct. During the day before and the day after the equinox, the Sun's alignment with the Earth's equator generates a reduction in the magnetic field of the Earth, enabling us to access higher dimensions more easily. Equinox and solstice points are thus energetic gateways and extra-potent times to set intension and participate in ceremony, ritual and prayer. Make a wish list for your life and for what you desire for the Earth in the coming times. Remember there are no idle thoughts and every good wish and intension brings a more positive outcome for your future and the future of all.

(Molly's note: It is not just where the planets are by sign or degree, but their relationship to each other in every moment and the timing with which they make their movement. This cosmic dance is by divine design and it is beyond our comprehension how anything so vast and magnificent could not only happen once or now and then, but constantly. Stop and take in the totality of a Love so great that there is always the next new moment, the next sunrise, the next gift of life.)

THE CRYSTAL CORNER

SODALITE

Hello to all of you masters! I would like to introduce myself. I am called Sodalite. I've been asked a number of times about my name and where I come from so I will tell you what I understand. It seems that I have high levels of sodium, hence the name. I'm also made up of aluminum silicate with chlorine. I live in several areas in Canada, Brazil, Russia and even here in the United States in Maine and Arkansas. Physically, I am a dark blue color, often times with some white. If you didn't know better, I might be mistaken for Lapis Lazuli but that doesn't have the pure white as often.

I also work much differently than the Lapis but we can both work the throat chakra. I'm not as high a frequency as Lapis but I do have my place in the scheme of things! Rarely, I'm formed as crystals but primarily compact masses. You might find me fairly translucent but more often

I'm very opaque. Artisans have carved me into many shapes such as hearts, pyramids, spheres, eggs and wands. I particularly like being transformed into jewelry for the masters to wear! My greatest love, though, is helping all of you to heal.

Although I don't much like admitting I'm weak, I am, so I always get help and support from other stones such as white Fluorite or clear Quartz. I'm like a mild antibiotic such as penicillin. Lapis is my friend and we both can be very assistive in dissolving intuitive or spiritual indigestion where the emotional nature has gone into such conflict that perhaps the physical belly is responding. Belly ache, anyone? What can't you stomach? There is a tremendous amount of poor digestion in this time because so many entities are confronting aspects of themselves that don't set well with them. If you would place me in the solar plexus and my friend the Lapis over the third eye, the energy and information that would be bridged there would draw down higher levels of understanding and help them to be palatable, more acceptable and also more understandable. You could say I'm almost like an interpreter stone that would bring higher levels of information into a more grounded or easily understood point for humanity. How's that for being on the weak side??!

As all of you out there are spiraling upward so are the kingdoms of rocks and minerals. We are becoming more of who we truly are and are very pleased when you masters recognize and utilize that for your healing. Understand that we mirror each other and let's enjoy our continued growth!

Thank you for allowing me to interact with you at this time. Should you have any questions, please call my Woman of Crystals.

EVERYONE IS A CHANNEL

My journey with St. Germain has taken me all over the U. S. and Canada, but the inner journey has been bigger, more expansive and much more far reaching in every aspect of my life.

In 1997 I received a call from a woman named Dorian Zumwalt. She lived in Jackson, WY and she had seen my ad in the Sedona Journal of Emergence. I was in the east when she called and didn't get home until several weeks had passed. I called, left a message and never heard back. In 1998 about a week after I got home from the east, Dorian called me again. I answered the phone and she said, "I cannot believe that there is someone in Wyoming that channels St. Germain and I don't know them". We chatted and she invited me to come to Jackson to channel for a group and do some private sessions. I said, "Sure". When I moved back to Wyoming from Virginia, St. Germain had suggested that I move to Jackson. It was the first time that I refused to go where he suggested. I did not want to live in any place where it would take virtually everything that I would make to just have a roof over my head. I had looked at rent in Jackson and an efficiency apartment cost between $700-$900 per month. My home has always been a gathering place and I like a spacious living area in which to be with people. I have almost always worked out of my home and I enjoy the comfort of that luxury. An efficiency apartment did not appeal to me.

When I lived in Virginia I had a roommate, Annalaiya and she wanted to move to Riverton, WY. She and I had made a trip out west in 1994. We drove from Casper, WY to Riverton to Lander, down to Farson, over to Pine Dale, up through Star Valley and on to Jackson. Then we drove back to Lander through Dubois. Annalaiya liked Riverton because there was a nice health food store. I liked Lander because it had mountains. Riverton is out on the prairie (the airport is there) and it is the industrial town. Lander is more focused on art and outdoor activities. Riverton is bigger so we rented a townhouse and moved there. It was easier to get a place to live.

In 1997, Annalaiya moved to Rapid City, S.D. and I began to look for an apartment in Lander. The apartment that I found looked out at the mountains and especially a large local landmark called "Red Butte". Little did I know, as I sat up each morning and looked out the window at Red Butte, that one day I would be living right at the base of it.

I drove up to Jackson in mid-July of 1998 and Dorian met me at her door. Her dog Chelsea was friendly enough, but not too sure about me. Annie, the cat, on the other hand, thought that I was great. Dorian's friend Leigh had come to pick up Chelsea for the evening. Chelsea went to Leigh's when Dorian required a dog sitter. We talked a while and then Leigh left. Dorian had many questions about my channeling and before long people began to arrive for the group. There were about 25 people who came to the channeling and the response was very nice.

The next day I gave Dorian a private session with St. Germain as her hostess gift for having me there. Afterward we sat up late talking. Dorian told me that St. Germain had come to her in the Teton Park the year before. He appeared as a golden white column of light and she could hear him clearly even though it was more telepathic communication than verbal. She was with a friend and her friend would ask questions and St. Germain would give Dorian the answers. He told Dorian to get in touch with me and that is why she had called the year before. It seems that she had been in the park the next summer and St. Germain came to her again and told her to call me and get me to come to Jackson. When St. Germain feels that something is important he does not give up, he just waits until the time is right and presents the situation again. I was impressed that he had told her to get me to Jackson since that is where he had suggested that I move from Virginia.

I went back to Jackson to do channelings in August of 1998 and again in September. In mid-September Dorian came to Lander for her Reiki II initiation. She had car trouble and so I took her to Yellowstone Park for the weekend. We began to spend more time together and in May of 1999 she moved to Lander.

She bought our home in September of 2000 and in September of 2001 she purchased the building that has become the Rainbow Center for the Humanities. She created the Center from an old snowmobile repair shop. It was dirty and greasy and she worked an absolute miracle to bring about an amazingly beautiful, quiet, comfortable space for healing practitioners to work and channelings to take place.

In 2010, Dorian fell on ice and broke her right ankle. She had always been very athletic—cross-country skiing, hiking, biking—going all of the time.

Suddenly, she was in a wheel chair and couldn't do anything but sit. St. Germain would talk to her through me and suddenly I began to be able to hear him when he talked to her. I had been channeling for twenty-three years and never was I consciously aware of what St. Germain said to anyone. Not only could I hear him, but I could feel how he used his energy as he worked with Dorian. I can feel his patience, Love and total compassion. He will speak to Dorian about an issue or question that she has and then he observes her processes of assimilating the information. He may offer advice or a suggestion and then he watches again. Sometimes he will talk at some length about things that are going on with her and sometimes he just listens to her talk and then observes what is happening in her energy fields. It is the most up lifting, expansive experience that I have had as a channel to be included in his essence of healing and Love. It is as though he trusts me to be with him as he is helping, healing and teaching. I feel as completely connected as a human can be and it certainly helps me in understanding how Mastery feels. Mastery is definitely not a mental concept. Separation has taught us how to do many things, but Mastery is not a doing thing. Ascension is not a learned activity that we accomplish by rote and application of rules. In order to "do it right" we have to completely surrender the necessity to "DO". The further we can move into connection with Love within us the more that Love directs the life in a completely different way. Mastery is not accomplished by planning, but more by allowing that your deepest desires unfold as you stop trying to make things happen. St. Germain's essence is like a calm, tranquil pool. It is clear and available to all. His patience is beyond words. He does not get upset with us. Often times he will be very emphatic about getting a point across and someone's EGO decides that they have been "yelled at", but our anger begins to be transmuted as we operate in higher dimensional frequencies. As we move into Mastery we get to change our perspective on everything. St. Germain has a wonderful sense of humor that is never at anyone's expense. It is joyous and up lifting. He is teaching me the importance of Masters learning how to laugh at themselves. It isn't making fun of self as much as gentle amusement at the experiences that we call as we are growing into that which we already are—Masters.

We don't deride a baby when they are learning to walk, but there is a joyous laughter that bubbles up in us as we see a child accomplishing important growth levels. St. Germain glorifies children and sees them for what they truly are—humanity’s most valuable treasure. As Jesus did/does, St. Germain Loves the children. If someone brings a child to a channeling, it does not matter what age they are, St. Germain will spend time with the child, personally.

People have told me over the years that Jesus has held them on his lap during a private channeling and talked to them about important issues. There is nothing that cannot be discussed with the Masters. They have no judgment. They will offer help and direction on any subject. Their desire is the highest and best good for all.

I feel very Loved and appreciated for my part in this partnership with the Masters. There has never been any expectation that I must do this, but a sense of gratitude that I will allow them to speak through this vehicle. I am so grateful to be involved. From time to time, St. Germain will praise me for something in a gathering and I feel very blessed. He reminds me frequently that I am an equal and not a servant. He says that all of us are equal and the old beliefs about better than/worse than have no place in higher experience. I have never felt that being a channel put me in a position of separation, of being better. Special, yes—but, not more important than anyone who comes to hear St. Germain. Each and every person is special in their own unique way. I have come to value each and every person that I meet as a gift in my life. Sometimes, we have someone who crosses our path and we have to spend some time getting clear about what the gift is, but there is always a gift. Finding that gift always enhances the life.

ST. GERMAIN’S MESSAGE

Beloved Masters,

the rage of lifetimes of separation is rising to the surface all over the planet. It takes tremendous courage and personal discipline to remain in alignment with compassion, mercy and forgiveness, as everything that has been the benchmark of life in the Illusion is disintegrating.

Power struggles have been considered natural in the conflict of life on Earth. You have lived through lifetimes of forgetfulness of your Unity with all and total Oneness with the divine. Now it is time to return to alignment and recognition that there is not one being on this planet that is not connected with you and to you. The offenses of separation, of judgment and superiority, the feelings of being worthless and the fight to prove that you have value, burn in the center of each and every one. “Where is your anchor?” “Who are you really?” “What is the purpose of your life or being here on Earth at this time?”

The anchor is your connection to God’s Love. God is not a deity that demands sacrifice or punishment and never has been!! God, by any of a thousand names, is the essence of absolute caring and unconditional Love.

“Who are you really?” You are Divine creative Masters who have played this game of separation to the limit and the game has ended. You are now required to redefine yourselves from the inside out. No longer is war the final outcome, nor is it the proof of anything of value. The Madness of the finite mind in its severe determination to achieve domination over others (“as the end of the Old Order is near”) is reaching a point of meltdown. The mind will break if it is pressured too much. Anger wipes out the ability to reason and primal instinct takes over—the fight for survival at any cost. Drugs and alcohol, rage and pent up violence, even giving up and believing that there is no positive outcome casts a veil of oblivion over the consciousness.

You are capable of accomplishing wonderful things. You have the capacity to recreate the earth and bring it to its finest times. This will be delayed until people begin to respect themselves so much that they respect others. All of the “yes, buts”, the “look what they are doing”, the “how could they do that?” are looking outward to solve an issue that starts right under your heart. So many have been taught, whether in Sunday School, church or by some standard of metaphysics that the heart is the center of Love. The heart is the center of emotional love, but it requires the support of the Soul, the Spirit to stay strong and allow the out pouring of God to fill it up with more Love than the human mind can comprehend.

You have been taught that you are responsible for the lives, safety and well-being of others. The suggestion is that if you do enough good works God will notice and you will then be rewarded with your own safety. Divine Law is very clear that no one can give what they do not have. If you are unwilling to allow yourself to feel safe you have no true knowledge of what safety is. If you have spent life times looking out into the world in an attempt to change it you have lost touch with the fact that the changes that you desire begin, always, with you. You have been taught to be afraid of your value and then told that you must be valuable in order to “be somebody”. All of the conflicts of opposition that the separation has stood for must be forgiven and released. The internal war must be discovered, addressed and transmuted into higher energy.

Your purpose throughout all of time has been to be the very BEST THAT YOU CAN BE—not better than others, but your best. How can you compete with someone who is so different that their very Beingness is unique and yet they are so much a part of you that if you would bring harm to them you would feel it in the very marrow of your bones, in your soul, in you essence. If you are looking out at someone else and attempting to be like them (even Jesus) all that you will create is an imitation. If you are looking within to find your very best, most elegant self, there you will discover what you have been searching for throughout life times outside of you.

THE QUEST—WHO AM I? THE ANSWER—I AM THAT I AM. This not some illusive concept that is like chasing a rainbow. This is the bottom line of why you have experienced separation and why you can now begin to discover, right where you are, the truth that has been with you all along. The Revelation is not about how terrible everything and everyone is, though it might appear that that is exactly what is showing up. Revelation is not to point out your flaws but to enlighten you to your most magnificent treasure—YOU embraced in God’s Love.

Armageddon means ascension, not destruction. The blood that is being shed is the cleansing of old beliefs and hurts that have come from the wounds of separation. It is not necessary, but the ideas of purification by blood are strongly rooted in the psyche and old beliefs die hard. Many are willing to die for their beliefs, but how many are willing to find within themselves the Ancient laws (divine laws) that would allow each one to LIVE FOR THE REMEMBRANCE OF THEIR MASTERY. Dearly Beloved Divine Creative Masters, we implore you to seek the one place where war can be stopped—within yourself. “PRIDE GOETH BEFORE A FALL!” The inability of men to give up their pride and finally find that all that they have been seeking in the world lies within them, is as old as the game of separation.

The more there is an attempt, by those who do not understand discipline, to control those who stand before them the more people die. So many believe that their way is the only way to WIN. This is not about beating someone else to Heaven, this is about creating Peace on Earth. It begins with you. YOU ARE SO MUCH MORE POWERFUL THAN YOU REALIZE, BUT THE POWER BEGINS WITHIN, NOT WITHOUT.

The greatest challenge is that all of the changes must come from within first. The Illusion has been outer-directed because God has always abided within you. If your attention is to be diverted from God, then you must be instructed, directed, even punished if you do not focus outward. This is a massive time of Spiritual reeducation. It is not about giving up values that instill intrinsic worth or the courage to live well, it is about remembering why those values are so important. It is about shifting the fear-based thoughts of dying for your God (who never asked that of you, ever) and moving into connection with God within so that you can live the life that God desired for you. The life that God always intended for you has nothing to do with control, bloodshed or fear-based ruler-ship by those who are totally out of touch with Love in any form, no matter where on the planet you are. The life that God desires for you is beautiful, powerful, prosperous and Loving right here, right now.

We have great compassion for the challenges that you are undergoing. We are with each and every one of you. Because of free will we cannot impose our desires or understanding on any. Each one of you is Loved, no more or no less than any other. We can see the wounded hearts, the troubled minds and the fearful emotions. What you often cannot see in yourself is the strength, courage, nobility and worthiness that exist in you and each one, no matter how they are playing out the game. None of what is happening on the Earth will heal due to some old way of doing things or some great battle strategy of a mind that just wants to win, no matter what.

The ploys, cunning, manipulation and control of the EGO will not bring the planet to the place where she is now being called to be. It is not about being a part of the problem or the solution because those are devices of the same treadmill that has kept the world running in place for life times. Changing your focus is not deciding what they need to do. That is old. Changing YOUR focus is about looking at what you desire to live and then holding positive intensions to be shown how to bring that about. None of this is physically done until you create an opening for divine direction. None of this will spring from the mind because the mind is the controller of all of the conflict that is happening. The changes will begin as you seek to find within yourself how you can embrace Love, not just lip-service to it, but getting deeply involved in it. Shifting your focus is a consistent determination to keep your thoughts/feelings on higher outcomes rather than spending time planning how you will get others to see things your way. “But if they could just see it my way” is a litany of the EGO chanted by bonfires in caves of more primitive times and in the highest halls of government and commerce around the world today. What if each one could be willing to see things differently, to be shown a whole new world that is waiting for each one to trust it, to trust each other, to live in interdependence? Who would you be if you allowed yourself to accept that you are one with the Divine? It is not about what they are doing—IT IS ABOUT YOU.

When fear is felt consider this: Ask yourself, “Is this mine?” The connection to the collective consciousness often brings up fear that is not totally yours. You can only heal your part of the fear. You cannot change how other people feel about their lives or what is happening on the planet. By discovering where your fear, anger, guilt ends and theirs begins you lighten the load of personal responsibility and free yourself to raise your own frequency, thus helping others by adding enlightenment to the collective pool. You cannot change others by telling them they must change, but you can help a great deal by being willing to first change your own energy and then live the positive changes as a daily ongoing.

These times are calling each Master to remember deep within self the calm, quiet, peaceful connection to all that is. The chaos is the last of the Illusion passing. The acceleration of conflict the EGO’S last rally before it must concede to being embraced by Love. The wars are based on the oppositions of Illusion. As all of the energies are blended the desperation of need and feeling left out begin to disappear and your inner eyes and ears begin to perceive what has always been with you, but could not be seen through the veils of separation. The finite mind wants to figure out how to see these wonders without changing. It cannot be done—literally. The EGO’s cunning barter in the Illusion cannot be made with Spirit. “Let’s make a deal” has no place in the higher realms. Divine Law is not rigid—it is steadfast.

We are with each and every one in these times of extreme chaos, conflict, change and renewal. These are the times where blending with all is necessary. Take the pain, rage, fear, guilt lack of value and pour them into the pure essence of Love that is the Violet Flame and the White Light of God. As you make a space within you in forgiveness of what has been, discover that what is revealed is the amazing truth of all that you are—Divine Magikian, creative Master. As you look at the wonder of your true self turn your eyes to look upon the world and see it new, fresh, clear and blessed. See all of the opposing ideologies blending into Love. Nothing is lost because the freedom, fulfillment and graciousness of all is shining forth. You are a Magikian. Your magik has been with you through all time and now it time to call it forth once more. It is time to Love and time to change. It is time to forgive and time to experience the gratitude of all that belongs to you. Most of all it is time to accept that you are Loved beyond your ability to know it. All of those for whom you hurt and all who hurt, all who fear and for whom you have had fear, all who suffer from rage and anger and the rage and anger that have been with you for life times—place them all, the emotions and the humanity, into the Violet Flame and allow the transmuting fire to purify the wounds of separation. Feel the blending of Spirit calling all to Oneness. The essence of the divine flows into each heart and every Soul, bringing peace and power—the power to overcome the Old ways and move forward together. By taking the energies of polarization and blending them together the very best and very worst are all refined in the fires of Love. What is poured out upon the Earth is the most exquisitely beautiful bonding of hearts and minds. Revelation is calling for unity and recognition of how you are alike as well as the respect and appreciation of how you are different. Call us and we go forward with you. You are not and never have been alone. Let yourself be open to the blending and feel the fulfillment of partnering with the divine. We journey with you, as you will allow. We are your cheering section, your supporters as you release the bondage of separation and embrace the unity of Love. In all of the chaos, find your understanding. It probably will not be the understanding of all, but it is yours. It is not the only way, but it is your way. It is not a cause to fight for but your standard of oneness with God to live for peace and in it, right where you are. The World can be changed, one person at a time. Not because an outer force says so, but because you hear the clarion call of your own Soul’s desire to live the highest and best of lives.

We are with each and every one in these times of changing paradigms. It may feel as though all that you thought that you knew for sure is no longer true. Truth remains forever. It is a time of learning that the truth lives within you and that is where you are required to seek it. Find your answers, make your discoveries and listen to all of the perspectives. Make no decision based on the words or ideas of one person, group or ideology. In order to cease “studying war” you are called to listen well so that you may blend the elements of all that you receive and allow your soul to show you the way. In every way I AM with you. I remain your most humble servant. I AM the Lord St. Germain
