April Newsletter

Happy Easter!! As I am creating the April newsletter I am looking out my window at over a foot of snow. We have the most amazing winter wonderland to look at. The snow is beautiful and not too heavy so it won't break the trees which are mostly cedars and junipers.

I have to give thanks every day for all of the many blessings that are coming to me in this time. The information that the Master St. Germain is bringing through is vastly uplifting and so clear. We just did the shooting for our streaming evening on the Virtue of Grace. I had wondered what a Master would say about Grace. I had an idea about Courage, even though he opened up the concept a lot. I thought I thought that I understood clarity, but when a Master defines clarity it gets even clearer. But Grace is totally amazing. St. Germain shows how Grace moves in our everyday life so gently that we are not even aware. He helps to understand how to use Grace as a tool to make life better. Our next virtue will be Nobility. If you haven't started getting these CD's or DVD's think about it again. It really is food for thought.

The March group was about the Mind Grid. Several years ago Dorian did a most interesting in intriguing painting. In the upper left hand corner was a piece of something that resembled grid-work. After the group we were all impressed that she had captured the essence of the mind grid and its breaking apart in the painting.

In "Reaching Beyond the Mind Grid" St. Germain tells of how we have been drawn into separation by the promise of a better life (better than God could give us). The further we have moved into an illusion that money can make everything all right, the more lonely we have become. The more we have thought, planned figured and calculated the less we have listened to the wisdom of our soul. As we forgive logic and reason and practicality as the measures of assurance, we step into a dimension of paradise that has been waiting for us ever since we took on the limits of the mind grid. The return of balance between mind and spirit brings reason that is beyond the box. Practicality shows itself to be another name for smallness. God was not and never will be logical, so moving beyond the mind grid opens the mind to something greater than logic.

Rainbow Center News

Our next group will be April 12, 2:00 p.m. at the Rainbow Center in Lander. St. Germain and Jesus will discuss "Forgiving History and Living the Magik of Now". This I am sure will be another eye opening and extremely informative session. Several years ago St. Germain and Jesus talked about Magik and it was one of the biggest selling groups of all times. That was on tape and we do not have our old taped sessions any longer, but I can say that the information that these two Masters bring through is expanding.

CD's can be purchased on the website at www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/2009groups.html

Our next Evening with St. Germain will be the Virtue of Nobility. St. Germain says that nobility is an energy that is so subtle and yet powerful that one who carries it may enter a room so quietly that no one hears the door close, yet everyone feels a presence of security in the room. Do join us to learn more about the virtues that remember you to all that you are.

To sign up for the Evening on the website

To order CD's or DVD's

Our next intensive "Divine Design" will be May 16-17, with an evening event on May 15th, "The Blessings of Change". God had and still has a design for you. This design was not created with any right or wrong outcome. It is the desire, of a loving Creator to have the creation live in delight. You have strayed from the beauty and joy in the search for what belongs to you. What you have sought has always been right where you are. It has always been God's most cherished desire. You are the Divine Design.

ASTROLOGY

FULL MOON

Full Moons put the lights on what is currently going on in our lives and the events that have occurred since the last New Moon, which took place on March 26. These are times of revelation. What have been revealed in your life over the last two weeks, two months? It is of great importance that we take the time to take stock of our lives every day, as the changes seem to be taking place at warp speed. This is not a focus on what is wrong with our life, but what is changing, how are we responding and where will the current changes lead?

This Libra Full Moon takes place on April 9th at 20 degrees of Aries/Libra. Aries is the first sign of the horoscope and therefore is about new beginnings. Are you willing to change your mind, try something new, reach and stretch in your life? So many people are discovering that what has always worked may have become obsolete or ineffective in the shifting paradigms of the new Age. The Moon in Libra puts attention on our interconnection with others. We are required to consider the desires of others, as well as our own.

Pluto is beginning its yearly retrograde on April 4th which will strongly influence this Full Moon plus the next three lunations. Pluto calls us to move into the future by letting go of the past, rather than referring to the past.

The ongoing influence of the Saturn/Uranus opposition is affecting everyone for the next fifteen months. For those who have planets that are aspecting by this opposition the affect is even stronger. When inner planets—in this case Mars—link with outer planets—the Saturn/Uranus opposition—the winds of change blow with greater force. On April 4th Mars opposes Saturn and cojoins Uranus in Pisces on the 15th of April. This means that is the cliché think outside the box suddenly means let go of the fact that there ever was a box. Saturn is efficient and practical; Uranus is bold and inventive. Mars adds energy to both aspects and can build a fire under the sluggish or put life on a rocket ship to the Moon. Saturn can be staid and Uranus is always erratic.

Venus is still retrograde as the month begins and has two squares to Pluto coming up—one April 17th and one May 2nd. Over the past year the economic events every where in the world have brought us up against the headlong spending spree that the world has been following. Venus represents our desires. Pluto is revelation. As things are settling down a bit, people are beginning to find renewed joy in being more involved with each other. Being pushed to be more creative, more connected and more involved is awakening a sense of personal power that has not been experienced in a long time. The initial shock of a failing money market brought pain and fear. Now we are beginning to appreciate returning to a more simplistic life and the rewards that self-sufficiency brings.

At this Full Moon the Sun at 20 degrees Aries will call you to take a risk or step into the unknown, while the Moon at 20 degrees Libra can cause you to reach out to friends and/or family in a moment when you feel alone or unsupported.

On April 11th Jupiter crosses the 21st degree which is where the February eclipse occurred. When a planet reactivates the point of an eclipse it is like the snooze alarm going off. If you ignored the first wake-up call this is the second one. The wake-up calls don't go away, they get more intense with each alarm. We cannot sleep through what is going on, on Earth now. This Full Moon cojoins the Dwarf star Eris, the Goddess of Strife, awakening many to another adventure into their own mythology. Venus shows us what we desire and Eris pushes us to "go for it!"

The Sabian Symbols are: Sun in Aries: "A young girl feeding birds in winter; overcoming crises through compassion". Moon in Libra: A rabbi performing his duties; the ability to draw on the power of an ancestral tradition in order to serve and inspire one's fellowmen.” These symbols focus on caring and supporting each other.

We are reminded that “Prosperity is a way of living and thinking, and not just money or things. Poverty is a way of living and thinking, and not just money or things.” (Eric Butterworth) Planetary aspects are from The Mountain Astrologer and the Sabian symbols are from The Astrology of Personality by Dane Rudhyar.

NEW MOON

The new Moon in Taurus falls on the 24-25th of April. As Mars is the warrior and focuses on anger, strategy and conflict, Venus and Taurus put the emphasis on beauty, harmony and the arts. The loveliness of life is like a healing balm. It soothes our soul and heals our heart. The word April comes from the Latin word aperio, which means “I open”. April opens us to spring, movement and allowing of new life. Taurus, which is ruled by the Goddess or Empress in the Tarot deck, is about fertility, abundance and plenty. We are called to get into life and embrace it.

Just before this New Moon occurs, Venus, ruler of Taurus and Libra, returns to Aries. The message of the Full and New Moon of March was “get out of your rut”. Mars and Venus will cojoin at 29 degrees of Pisces on April 21st. This meeting in the last degree of the last sign speaks of old doors closing and movement to a whole new level of awareness opening us to vision. Mars and Venus will dance together within ten degrees of each other until mid-July. This closeness of God/Goddess/All that Is in the Heavens inspires us to consider our own inner male and female. What is the relationship of your masculine and feminine aspects? Is one still in domination over the other? Are you willing to allow a balance of masculine and feminine nature in your life without making one gender more powerful or important than the other? Everything on Earth is changing, including male dominance and Patriarchal rule. Venus is bringing the Goddess another giant step forward in her emergence into equality. Venus is moving toward its third square with Pluto which will be exact on May 2. Mars will make an exact square to Pluto on April 26. Humanity is being led to really look at everything that is and has been going on, on the planet and make huge changes. The disregard of Mother Earth and all of Nature requires a totally new attitude. A new reality is being birthed that will bring about deep, fundamental changes in the collective consciousness.

The three S’s—simplicity, sincerity and sustainability—are an essence to live by and with.

Mercury in Taurus is moving toward a square with Jupiter/Neptune in Aquarius. This opens the psyche to greater vision and puts stability under the dreams of a new day. Almost as the captain leans into the wheel to turn the course of his ship, we each are being called to change the course of our own personal destiny. This square will bring about better collaboration, greater innovation and increased optimism. The wheel of destiny is turning away from so much focus on personal gain and more thought about a greater good that brings a better life to all.

The Uranus/Pluto conjunctions in Virgo in the 60’s planted important seeds of this new reality. Now those babies that were born under the influence of these planets are becoming our leaders and they are seeking to lift us out of the quagmire of the past. Saturn now moving through Virgo is restimulating those degrees and strengthening the call to action rather than battle. Those seeds are showing their ability to take root and grow a beautiful, cooperative and supportive society. Taurus desire is security. True security can only be found within self.

The Sabian symbol for this New Moon at 6 degrees of Taurus is: “Cantilever bridge across a deep gorge; the conquest of separateness through group-cooperation.” Often we have said, “God deliver us from a committee”. This New Moon shows us a better way of discovering creative solutions through collective efforts. Our motto can become, “Together we can cross any divide, meet any challenge, solve any problem.” “Yes, we can!”

CRYSTAL S

Another month has passed, bringing us closer to spring and a feeling of renewal. We are beginning to experience the thinning of the veils between dimensions, sometimes strongly and sometimes less so. For those going in this direction, there is a stone that would be very useful. That stone is Bronzite. Bronzite is a deep rich brown stone with sparkles of gold within it. It has a great energy.

Bronzite is a stone that would assist in accessing ancient memories and in blending energies of many different dimensions. It would actually be quite helpful to keep one in center so, this stone as a pendant that would be worn hanging just below the heart but not over the solar plexus, would open the heart-solar plexus area to allowing the acceptance of multi-dimensional recognition in this time. You might ask how this would work in the physical and it is because all these higher frequency energies are being brought into the physical as a transmuting aspect, the living with the greater understanding rather than just the knowledge of it and the living with the acceptance of love rather than just speaking about it. The allowing of higher dimensions working with you in the physical is going to bring the life that has been called heaven. People have looked to die to find it and they have believed that they could not possibly have it on earth in a physical body and yet, it is a stone such as this that will absolutely assure the remembrance of the at-onement so that life in this place is a sweet life and isn't a constant battle or war for elevating one's self. It is the allowance that the energies will lift you up. So, it's a blending stone. It's almost as though you see this piece of stone and it's solid and yet, if you would sit with it, you would almost feel as though it becomes a liquid energy that could be poured into yourself to create new resonance.

I am constantly amazed at the information coming forth on the stones and crystals. If we would begin to work with the stones on a regular basis and allow the progression of our upward spiral, we might truly experience things we never imagined. Its wonderful how we are provided with all the different instruments for our enlightenment and all the love and help we could ever ask for.

Please feel free to contact me at any time via email, website or phone. I would love to hear from you.

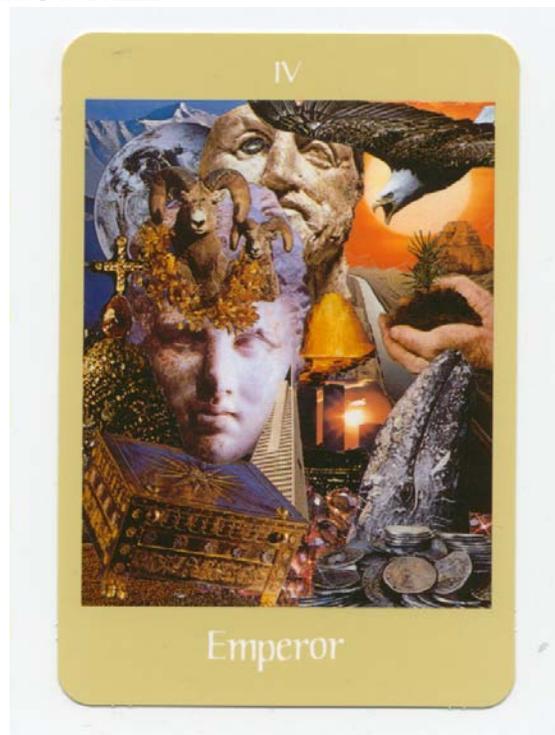

The Crystal Healing I class has been postponed but the second class is still scheduled for May 2nd and 3rd. Contact me for further information.

Love, Light & Laughter to all of you!

TAROT TALK

THE EMPEROR

The Tarot card for the month of April is the Emperor. The Emperor builds the material world, hence the relationship with the number four, number of the Emperor's card. The four corners of any foundation, four legs under a table, the four directions, four seasons and four elements (earth, wind, fire and air)—all of these indicate strength and stability. One of the words that we are hearing more and more today is sustainability. The number four associates with sustainability.

Like the Emperor reach for the top. Strive for the best. Allow your creations to make this world a better place for all, by building a world that is open and acceptant to everyone. Using the elements of the four aspects of the minor arcane you can make your own world more beautiful. The four of Wands calls for Aspiration. Set your goals high. Remember to keep yourself grounded in clear and practical understanding with the Logic of the four of Crystals (mind). Act on your goals and plans. The Emperor, like the sign of Aries, is a real go-getter. The four of Worlds indicates new beginnings—Commencement. The four of Cups is Anger. The belief that we do not get what we desire without anger is an understanding that is passing with the old order. There two kinds of anger. One can be pathetic because it reduces us to maudlin irrationality. The other kind of anger is actually a centering of energy so that we can attune to the inner voice.

Emotional rage denies the inner hearing, but centered clarity allows us to be divinely directed. To use the “anger” as a motivation, rather than a destructive force, accomplishes amazing things.

The Emperor symbolizes the fires of Arian passion. When this passion is balanced with the cool hand of reason (Empress) the outcomes can be life changing. Build a better world for yourself and others. The Emperor is a leader. Follow the lead of this one who is a visionary and works in grounded responsibility. This card is associated with the Kabbalah letter-word Heh, meaning window. This represents the ability to over-see your creations. Stay with your projects and make sure that they are solid.

When the Emperor shows up in a reading it can indicate several different things. It could represent a powerful, head-strong man or even in these times, woman. It can be the harbinger of a new creation or project. It also can be telling the subject of the reading that they are required to be more outgoing or more definite about what they desire to have happen in the situation they are asking about. Any time the Emperor shows up the reading it is either going to require more inner strength to get what you want or it will bring you up against someone who is accustomed to getting what they want by force. The test is not to get caught up in their battle.

We are beginning to find that force has less and less positive outcomes now. Fight to get something and then you are fighting to keep what you’ve got in tact. You suddenly cannot make any forward motion because all of your energy is being directed into holding your ground. The Emperor has been a brilliant statistician, but the indications of brute force are certainly there. Revelation is pointing out that the need to fight for your life is becoming dead wood. There are many more positive ways to achieve what your passion calls you to accomplish.

Know what you want. It is amazing how many people are pushing to get something that they have not clearly defined. The Emperor clearly knows what he wants and goes after it. Understand your own philosophical structure and recognize your own constitution. Know yourself and what you believe you can achieve and then be willing to stretch beyond the limits of those beliefs. Courage is an attribute of the Emperor.

This is a great story with an interesting twist on the usual find a penny idea. Molly

You always hear the usual stories of pennies on the sidewalk being good luck, gifts from angels, etc. This is the first time I've ever heard this twist on the story. Gives you something to think about.

Several years ago, a friend of mine and her husband were invited to spend the weekend at the husband's employer's home. My friend, Arlene, was nervous about the weekend. The boss was very wealthy, with a fine home on the waterway, and cars costing more than their house.

The first day and evening went well, and Arlene was delighted to have this rare glimpse into how the very wealthy live. The husband's employer was quite generous as a host, and took them to the finest restaurants. Arlene knew she would never have the opportunity to indulge in this kind of extravagance again so was enjoying g herself immensely.

As the three of them were about to enter an exclusive restaurant that evening, the boss was walking slightly ahead of Arlene and her husband.

He stopped suddenly, looking down on the pavement for a long, silent moment.

Arlene wondered if she was supposed to pass him. There was nothing on the ground except a single darkened penny that someone had dropped and a few cigarette butts. Still silent, the man reached down and picked up the penny.

He held it up and smiled, then put it in his pocket as if he had found a great treasure. How absurd! What need did this man have for a single penny? Why would he even take the time to stop and pick it up?

Throughout dinner, the entire scene nagged at her. Finally, she could stand it no longer. She casually mentioned that her daughter once had a coin collection, and asked if the penny he had found had been of some value.

A smile crept across the man's face as he reached into his pocket for the penny and held it out for her to see. She had seen many pennies before! What was the point of this?

'Look at it.' He said. 'Read what it says.' She read the words 'United States of America'

'No, not that; read further.'

'One cent?' 'No, keep reading.'

'In God we Trust?' 'Yes!' 'And?'

'And if I trust in God, the name of God is holy, even on a coin. Whenever I find a coin I see that inscription. It is written on every single United States coin, but we never seem to notice it! God drops a message right in front of me telling me to trust Him? Who am I to pass it by? When I see a coin, I pray, I stop to see if my trust IS in God at that moment. I pick the coin up as a response to God; that I do trust in Him. For a short time, at least, I cherish it as if it were gold. I think it is God's way of starting a conversation with me. Lucky for me, God is patient and pennies are plentiful!

When I was out shopping today, I found a penny on the sidewalk. I stopped and picked it up, and realized that I had been worrying and fretting in my mind about things I cannot change. I read the words, 'In God We Trust,' and had to laugh. Yes, God, I get the message.

It seems that I have been finding an inordinate number of pennies in the last few months, but then, pennies are plentiful! And, God is patient.

Thought for the Day:

If God had a refrigerator, your picture would be on it.
