

DECEMBER ISSUE

December is upon us and 2007 will soon be a memory. It is amazing how quickly time moves now. I can really feel how it is being given back to us to direct and if we don't understand it, then life can feel like it is on a roller coaster.

The SuperMoon of November really pushed the energy levels to a new height and the Moons of December will continue to amp up the levels of energy, awareness and accelerated expansion.

Dorian created a crystal grid for our Thanksgiving celebration. We each picked four Tarot cards, one for each of the cardinal points of the wheel—medicine wheel, astrological wheel. The feeling of power was almost palpable. We are leaving it in place for a few days just to see what will come out of the cone of power that it built.

We had our first winter storm the day before Thanksgiving and the land was beautiful. It was -2 degrees when we got up on Thanksgiving morning, but the sun was shining and it was spectacular. Our statue of Qwan Yin in the front yard had a white collar of snow, as though she had dressed for the weather.

I am pondering the insanity of the holidays. So many people spend so much on Christmas that they take the whole next year to pay off the debts just in time to start all over again. I am Looking at the way the planetary forces are leading us and it is to pare down, simplify life and get in touch within self to find those things that are really important. Our measures of success and accomplishment will be sorely tested in the year to come. It is time to get priorities straight. This is a highly individual process that cannot be measured between people. In fact, a big piece of the changes that are now being implemented is for us to delight in the diversity of individuals. We are so unique and it is to accept it rather than spend time attempting to prove it.

CENTER EVENTS

Make your plans to join us for our New Years Eve with St. Germain and the Masters Jesus and Lord Michael.

St. Germain has named 2008 the Year of Evolutionary Revelation. Come and hear what he has to say. CD's of this four plus, hour evening will be available for $25. Pre-order by clicking here:
www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/newyear.html

The CD's from our intensive "Peace-crafter: Evolutionary Expansion" are available for $75 and would make a great Christmas present

Have you thought about giving a friend or family member a reading with St. Germain for Christmas? Or, perhaps, they could use a medical intuitive or tarot reading. Astrological readings are always nice and cover all the major issues in the life. To order his set of CD's click on this link:
www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/intensive.html

Delores DeVore will be in Lander, December 10, 11-12, offering tuning fork and/or voice sessions as well as BioGenesis Sessions. One to one and a half hours for $75. For appointments call Molly, 335,8113.

ASTROLOGICAL REPORT NEW MOON

The New Moon on December 9th is truly a motivator of spiritual advancement. The Sun and Moon will be at 17 degrees of Sagittarius with Mercury conjunct at 12 degrees Sag. Jupiter is only two days away from an exact conjunction to Pluto. The emphasis is on shifts in personal perspective and how we orient ourselves in life. This Full Moon brings new truth, new horizons and new realities. The Master St. Germain says that we are moving toward a future that has no reference to any past we have known. Surely in the last three months the New and Full Moons have brought an ever increasing up-spiral of intensity to bring us out of, up and over the old ways of viewing life.

As Jupiter co-joins Pluto our deepest, darkest fears will be brought to the surface to be healed and forgiven. Jupiter expands the revelations of Pluto to a whole new level and the masks of the old order come crashing down. The illusions, hypocrisies and fundamental "that's just how it is" are all being challenged and Jupiter puts a healthy spotlight on those things that have blocked our path to success, love, well-being and greater understanding of who we truly are.

Because Pluto rules the underworld, we are being required to look at where we have avoided cleaning up the trash of the past. Where are our decomposing beliefs causing illness on some level, even if it is still hidden from us? This most powerful conjunction will be amped again as Jupiter moves into Capricorn on December 18. It will transit Capricorn until January 5th, 2009. Jupiter expands by nature and it can assist us to rise above the detrimental measures that are being set into place as the U. S. dollar is devaluated. The pressure to force Canada, the U. S. and Mexico into the Amero dollar is a big factor now. The Amero will be backed by silver so this would be a very good time to invest in silver, if you can.

Because Jupiter always asks us to look up and come up over limitations, it is an imperative that we hold our focus on what we desire rather than attempting to fight or get rid of what we do not want. Fighting is the old way, the old energy and creates an exercise in futility in the new direction of healing.

Wherever our attention is directed is what we will bring about in our lives. We have been fear-driven for life times and now the reeducation is to powerfully hold our focus on the things that we desire to call into being, rather than conflicting with those who still want to run things in the old patterns.

On December 17, the Moons Nodes will move from Pisces/Virgo to Aquarius/Leo. The Aquarian North Node directs us to celebrate diversity and work with the seven “C’s”—community, communication, clarity, courage, commitment, compassion and cooperation. Aquarius is the sign of humanity and universal at-one-ment. The South Node in Leo asks us to release self-centeredness and inequity. These are big requests and they require that we wake up, focus and redirect our attention from limitation to vast expansion.

We have been looking for the key to all the answers. The bad news is there is no key. The good news is there is no lock.

Full Moon

The Full Moon on December 23-24th is in Cancer/Capricorn the two signs that most relate to home, family values and what we offer as our contribution to the society/community that we live in.

It is to understand that even though the Sun and Moon oppose each other at an exact moment the changes that come from that co-joining are building for several days before and after the Full or New Moon, the Solstice or the Equinox. The consciousness of our place in the family unit or our role in the society, are becoming more important as each day passes.

This particular Full Moon finds Jupiter bringing expanded awareness to how we give and Mercury asking us to consider what we are choosing to create with our gifts—whether they are presents for the season or investments in the future.

Mars, the Warrior, is conjunct the Moon in Cancer. This can bring up old wounds, family conflicts and a desire to rehash the past. Mars increases the possibility of saying more than you intended to or saying something cutting that you cannot take back. Mars is closer to the earth now and this can create a drive toward courage or rashness, strength of character or antagonism. Forgiveness allows us to move on, while going over and over old ground, just keeps us stuck in the dead end track of what was.

Mars in Cancer suggests that we examine our motivations and strategies before we take action.

On December 19th, Saturn, ruler of Capricorn will station to go retrograde. This retrograde will last until May 8th, 2008, but Saturn will not return to the point where it retrograded until August 8, 2008. This retrograde will point out where we require to simplify our lives by eliminating anything that no longer serves us. The less we have to deal with—physically, mentally, emotionally—the more space we have to develop who we are. The aspects are pointing the way to examining whether the “stuff” that we have is really important. You are not what you have or what you do. The direction of the planet is moving us to discover who we are. This still remains the most important and least considered aspect.

On December 20th the Sun will conjunct Pluto and then move into Capricorn and co-join Jupiter on the 21st. This will increase the power and longevity of the Pluto/Jupiter conjunction. This aspect is going to put a huge spotlight on redistribution of power and wealth. Those who are in power are hoping that the shift will give them even more leverage to control the money markets of the world. The emphasis on Capricorn suggests that the shift could be away from small groups having most of the goods. The most important factor again is, “Will the “man on the street” be willing to stop fighting for crumbs and begin to focus on a much grander potential that can bring greater wealth to all?”

As long as people keep focusing on what they do not have or do not want they will keep creating limitations. Changing our consciousness to one of allowing greater good, means, letting go of desperation, concentration on disempowerment and belief in not enough. It is a tall order and many people simply do not grasp just how powerful their thoughts are. The media focuses on frightening the frightened.

This Full Moon will highlight impatience and intolerance. It is time to put into practice the love that we have talked about for a long time. Be extra kind and compassionate to yourself and others. No one else is more stupid or more wonderful than you judge yourself to be. They just provide a mirror. When you are pointing at others, be aware of the three fingers that are pointing back at you.

Tact, diplomacy and consideration may be the best gifts you will give this Christmas.

THE CRYSTAL CORNER

Here we are again and the holidays are upon us. During this time of the year it can be a challenge to remain centered and not get caught up in the emotions of trying to please others and doing or saying the ‘right’ thing so as not to create anything that would mar the happiness associated with this time of year. One of the most important things to remember is to be true to yourself and to let go of the law that says you must care what other people think. That truly is a big challenge for me!

When choosing stones to deal with these challenges, I would use the Lepidolite to ease the stress of the times. Carry a piece with you as it acts as a natural tranquilizer. Next, I might choose Blue Quartz. In God, the law of right and wrong has no place. It must be forgiven. This stone will assist us to walk more peacefully our own path and to not be in so much conflict when we find others are not in agreement with what we are becoming. The third stone would be the Green Kyanite. This is about opening soul to heart to throat so that the truth is spoken through the heart but without the ego’s filtering of romance or it has got to be the right thing or it has to be sweet. This is about allowing truth to be spoken forth in compassionate objectivity rather than doing the right thing. This calls forth for the understanding of truth to be spoken without the emotions of the heart getting in the way. The emotions of the heart want to filter it to be a certain way, to please or not to please. This would assist in clearing away that emotional filter so that the truth is spoken in compassion with clarity but without the ‘can I say this right, can I do this right, what will they say?’ This is a filter of ‘what will they say.’

We can all be compassionate to others and embrace the joys of the season but always remember to be compassionate to your self first. And, stay centered amidst the chaos of the world. It is the safest place you can be.

Happy Holidays!

BIOGENESIS

BioGenesis® -
Modern Tools,
Eternal Technology™

By Delores DeVore;

ddevore@mindspring.com

"We speak of regeneration of the most basic element within each individual—the Light of Creation. As this Light returns to the lives on Earth, all things are made possible." -- Ascended Master Lantos

It was only a few months ago that I learned about the BioGenesis Tools – Tools for Expansion. I have found these tools to be exceptional in their ability to allow us to heal and restore harmony and balance to our environment.

Each month I will discuss a couple of different tools, so that you can begin to understand how they work and how you can use them for your benefit.

This month are two tools that will help with additions, dis-eased cells and Hope.

The Wings of Genesis

The Wings of Genesis may be used as support in addressing the misdirected growth of cells, as well as addictions.

How to use the Wings of Genesis:

Place the Wings of Genesis in a container of water; the container may be a cup, a pitcher, or any other container. (Please be careful when placing the Wings of Genesis in a glass container, such as a glass pitcher or a drinking glass, as the tip of the Wings of Genesis is fragile and may chip. We recommend using plastic cups or pitchers.)

Leave the Wings of Genesis in the container of water overnight, and then drink the water in the morning. You may drink the water throughout the day, but the most important time to drink the water is in the morning.

You may also place the Wings of Genesis in a container of water in the morning, and drink the water in the evening.

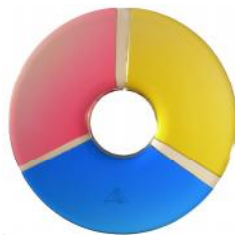

Place the BioAmplifier next to the container of water in which you have placed the Wings of Genesis; make sure that the oval face of the BioAmplifier is facing towards the container of water. This will amplify the effects of the Genesis Energy within the drinking water.

Also, it is helpful to sleep in the presence of the BioGenesis Pyramid when you are drinking the Wings of Genesis water.

If you have placed the Wings of Genesis in a drinking glass, please be sure to remove the Wings of Genesis prior to drinking the water.

Please Note: The Wings of Genesis does not purify the water, nor does it change the water in any physical way. The Wings of Genesis only adds the Genesis Energy to the water. There is no lead in the Wings of Genesis; therefore it does not add lead to your water.

The Wheel of Hope

On December 11, 2005, Lantos introduced Cindy to the Wheel of Hope. This would become the first new BioGenesis Tool in over two years.

Lantos: “Blessings, Dear One. It is a great joy. It is a great joy. [pause] The results of the tireless efforts and activities of the pioneers of light have generated a very great level of harmony in the Earth’s atmosphere. A state of harmony is a state of peaceful balance. The Earth is absorbing wave after wave of harmony generated by the activities of BioGenesis in America and around the world. [All this spoken slowly, with many pauses. Then, there was such a long pause, Cindy thought he was done, so she asked him a question.]

Lantos: “We are in a Season of Hope, and there is great cause for hope. The Great Beings of Light are offering a Great Blessing to this Earth. It is a blessing of a very great Light, a focus of great Energy and Intelligence to nourish the Earth. We will harness the energy of this great gift with the Wheel of Hope. It is through the Wheel of Hope that, at this particular time, we will receive great blessings. [long pause] It is good.

“We will combine the Wheel of Hope with every BioGenesis treatment involving the blessed Wheels of Genesis, and we will find the floodgates opening wide for results unimagined, what we may call miracles—miracles of this season of hope.”

Cindy asked a question [What is the Wheel of Hope?]

Lantos: “I will give you the details of the Wheel of Hope. [long pause] It is the very special combination of this Wheel of Hope, at this time, with the Wheel treatments, that will bring on many miracles. We will see many great transformations. [long pause]

“It is a great season. We are blessed with a gift from Great Beings of Light. It is a very great blessing for this Earth. We are very grateful for the presence and divine assistance of these Great Beings. Many blessings.”

What Lantos has said about Hope?

Ascended Master Lantos
January 3, 2006
New Year's Dialogue

“Dear Ones,

“Greetings for the New Year of Hope, a New Year of Blessings. In this New Year, the Earth will experience a great transformation; a great weight will be lifted from the Earth’s atmosphere. The Earth’s atmosphere is awake in the process of Creation, the mechanics of Creation. When the mechanics of Creation are lively, hope is present. Hope is a quality which is enlivened when the process responsible for fulfillment of desires is awakened. Hope is the natural byproduct of the ability to make manifest one’s desires. Hope is a natural state of being in Fulfillment. Let all enjoy Hope and Fulfillment in this blessed New Year.”

The Wheel of Hope: A Very Special BioGenesis Tool

When Cindy asked Lantos in August, 2006, about experiences with the Wheel of Hope, she mentioned that, while we were hearing of some notable experiences, many people were reporting that they noticed the benefit on a very subtle level, such as having a restored sense of hope in life. Lantos responded:

Lantos: “This may be due to the fact that reorganization is often required prior to setting in motion a new, desirable course: the course is charted; the steps of action necessary will follow. The outcome is simply the byproduct. Already, great influence can be seen and felt as the path is navigated. (pause)

“Just now, it would be good to express one thing: the Wheel of Hope is a very exceptional Tool of Genesis. Connected to each Wheel of Hope is a Guardian Being. We would almost refer to this Being as a class of Guardian Angel, for it is to the human that service is rendered by these Beings of Light and Devotion. (pause) It is to the individual holding and utilizing the Wheel of Hope that the assistance is offered. It is a very remarkable Truth. It is a very special layer of existence that has become awakened and enlivened by each Tool. (long pause)

“It will be good to share the knowledge of the fine connection this Tool possesses with the Celestial Layer of Assistants. Let us refer to these Messengers of Light as Guardian Beings. Guardian Beings spread the Message of Hope through the creation of open channels or pathways of Light. Miracles arrive on pathways of Light. (pause) Let us welcome many miracles into the lives of the blessed messengers of Light.”

--Lantos, August, 2006

How to Use the Wheel of Hope:

- There are many uses for the Wheel of Hope. The most beneficial way in which to use the Wheel of Hope is in a BioGenesis session involving the BioGenesis Tools and the Wheels of Genesis. It is in this manner that the Wheel of Hope will have the greatest effect. Beyond that, there are other ways in which one should use the Wheel of Hope:
- Wear the Wheel of Hope, especially on special days
- Sleep with the Wheel of Hope under one's pillow, next to the Shield of Genesis
- Place the Wheel of Hope under the doormat at your home, as this will purify the intents of all who enter
