Red Canyon

I Hope everyone had a fabulous Thanksgiving and that this Christmas will be a time focused on family love and caring rather than just stuff.

My trip east this year certainly put me in touch with just how loved and cared for I am. This is such a blessing. I would like to thank and acknowledge my hostesses who so graciously arranged my appointments and provided me with wonderful, loving care while I was in their homes--Katy Kagan and her son Justin in Florida and Helen Dumba and her son Nicholas in Georgia. Nicholas provided all of the wonderful, organic produce for my meals and the delicious food that Helen prepared for the group and the intensive weekend. Linda Lube opened her home to us so graciously and Aurora Fox hosted our group in North Carolina. Aurora opened our group with lovely channeled music by St. Germain. Thank you all. I could not have done this without your support.

My trip was a great success. I was booked so well that we moved appointments to the next stop from Florida and Georgia. I also had a full schedule in North Carolina. I saw lots of people that I hadn't seen in a year or more and met some wonderful new people.

This is one of the best parts of the work I do is all the people who come into my life and enrich it.

The weather was varied from the upper 80's and low 90's with 95% humidity in Florida to chilly 50's and 60's in Georgia. North Carolina was a delightful in between. I missed autumn all the way around this year. The three feet of snow that we got in early October, ended our fall colors before they really got started. Fall was late in the east and by the time I got to North Carolina, which I understand had a breath-taking fall, the colors had faded and the leaves were blowing away. I still got to see a few late colors and they were beautiful.

Dorian joined me in Georgia for the intensive and rode back to Wyoming. The trip home was long (four days of steady driving). We got home on Thursday after leaving on North Carolina on Monday. As I write this we are still in recovery from the road.

I am learning a lot about the changes that are occurring in our bodies, minds and emotions. St. Germain is talking more and more clearly about where we are going and what the changes entail. The most important factor of all is Love. We have been so long away from Love in all of the separation. It is the simplest and most difficult feeling of all. We know romantic love and exclusive love, but it is now to remember how to love unconditionally. With all that is going on on the planet taking the time to pay attention--"Am I being loving? Could I have been more patient? Do I lead with my anger rather than compassion--occasionally, all of the time? Do I feel the calm that comes from living love for my self? Do I forgive my mistakes rather than excuse them? Once angry words are said they can never be erased. Am I willing to channel my energy into the places of Love and to pay attention to how my emotions drive my life? We are so powerful and in Love we literally can raise the vibrations of this planet into the dimensions where rich is our Divine inheritance and Love and well-being are the natural state of affairs.

It is the discipline of Love that has been missing. None of the important changes can be made by control. If they could we would have Ascended long ago. The blending of Goddess essence to bring the unbridled power struggles of the masculine mind into harmony. Male dominance has created a belief that Love is weak and unsafe. Fear, pain, illness and lack can only survive where Love is not. Love provides a connection to the true Magik that we have forgotten in the pursuit of might and power over.

As we blend with the higher energies we begin to feel the peace and security that exists in those dimensions. The flow of mind directed by Love creates an atmosphere where we are supported in our highest and best outcomes all of the time.

I believe that I touched into some of this wonderful essence on my trip. I certainly feel St. Germain's Love working in all areas of life on the planet. I observe people who have no idea about what is going on making changes that take their lives into new spaces. Yea, Love!!!!

ASTROLOGY

FULL MOON

December's Full Moon falls on the 1-2 in Gemini. Change is the name of the game as we enter this last month of 2009—BIG, Bold change coming in at warp speed! This is the first month in 2009 when there are no planets in retrograde which just adds to the energetic "full speed ahead" movement.

Just before the Full Moon occurs on December 1, Uranus stations to go direct. Uranus is the planet most associated with big, dramatic change and its direct motion indicates that we are ready for another QUANTUM leap forward. Uranus stationed to go retrograde on July 1. What was going on in your life at that time? You may find that you pick up the threads on a higher dimensional plane.

Uranus was named for the Greek God of Chaos. From his severed genitals was born Venus, the Goddess of Love and Beauty. There is always a connection between chaos and creativity. First people deride changes, then they attempt to destroy the source of the potential change and finally they act as though the change was always true—Chaos to Creativity. We are entering a vast Void filled with unlimited possibilities. We are fighting the new, the unknown, yet it becomes more available to us with every passing moment. It is the unpredictability inherent in all systems, where small, seemingly random fluctuations produce momentous changes. "Predictability: Does the Flap of a Butterfly's wing in Brazil Set off a Tornado in Texas?" was the title of a paper presented by a mathematician Edward Lorenz to a scientific conference in 1972 (the year that Pluto entered the Photon belt). These discoveries along with those of other innovative thinkers. Led to a new scientific discipline, Chaos Theory, whose principles pertain to biology and sociology, physics and finance. Those dynamics, popularly called the "Butterfly Effect" describe how small shifts can result in large-scale effects. Uranus's station direct reminds us that each of us is a butterfly—each thought, word and action contributes to the global weather of our times.

(St. Germain says that if you walk to the edge of the average aura today you would walk about seven miles. He also says that a movement of ½ inch here effects 1,000 miles in the Universe.) We have lost the concept of our greatness and our ability to influence the world.

Gemini deals with communication, information and perception; Sagittarius, with interpretation and concepts. We are looking at a Quantum leap inspired by the collective consciousness. The direct contribution of each individual's personal shift activates major change on the planet. This is amplified by the Sun's quintile to the Jupiter/Neptune/Chiron conjunction in Aquarius. A quintile is associated with the number five as the 360 degree circle is divided by five to obtain a quintile. Fives always show up when changes are happening. Five indicates freedom from the past and the opportunity to experiment with new concepts. When the pentagram (five pointed star) is pointed up it indicates spiritual forces. The downward point has stood for destructive or counter productive energies. This quintile suggests that if we enlarge our point of view (Sagittarius) to embrace our common requirements and interdependence (Aquarius), we can transform a potentially catastrophic situation into one that helps our egress into the New Age. There are many who are clinging to the old ways of doing things and their fear level is contaminating the planet. Fear creates destructive outcomes—acid rain, chemical disasters, disrespect for the planet and the people who live here. The fear of not enough, the fear of ideas and beliefs that are different from our own and the fears that conjure up disease, poverty and separation all come from a place where love has not been allowed to enter.

Jupiter and Chiron inspire new vision and remind us that if we have not acted on the ideas that we felt inspired to bring about at the beginning of the year it is time to implement them. Healing happens when we can forgive our differences and act as a unit, the human family. Mars forms a susquiquadrate (135 degrees) to Pluto urging tolerance and resolution. Mars is the lower octave of Pluto and represents personal drive; Pluto indicates transpersonal necessities. This aspect requires that we harness our creativity for the benefit of the whole.

The Sabian symbols for this Full Moon lead us to explore new spiritual frontiers while keeping ourselves grounded in physical awareness. The Moon at 11 degrees Gemini: "Newly opened land offers the pioneer new opportunities for experience; the power and joy of new beginnings." The Sun at 11 degrees Sagittarius: "In the left section of an archaic temple, a lamp burns in a container shaped like a human body; the value of the 'return to the body' advocated by modern thinkers in order to balance the stress on intellectuality and objective consciousness." This Full Moon is a catalyst that assists us to release what no longer serves us in our spiritual and daily affairs. We are discovering who we have always been. This discovery requires that we become something we have forgotten.

NEW MOON

The New Moon on December 16 aligns closely with the Galactic Center. Enormous amounts of gamma, x-ray, infrared and radio waves flow out to affect the electromagnetic fields of Earth and all of her inhabitants. This connection with the center of the Galaxy focalizes these transmissions, elevating our capacity to grasp the big picture and attune ourselves to higher, more unified dimensional realities.

Sagittarius, the archetypal Archer, always seeks answers to the big questions of life--“Where did we come from? Why are we here? What is the meaning of all of this?” The New Moon squares, within 2 degrees, the planet Uranus. We are magnetized into discovering whether our fundamental assumptions have ever been correct. New relationships and potentials appear that could never have been allowed into our frame of reference before. Uranus is the planet that is most associated with technology, like computers and Quantum physics. Uranus in Pisces blurs the lines between science and science fiction, physical and metaphysical, fact and imagination. What we could once dismiss as fantasy is becoming more real every day. The fear of the fictions on the planet that have lived in rank denial of anything that they could not see, hear, taste, touch or smell is reaching a crescendo. The fact that magik has been lumped with things evil must be reconsidered. A square always indicates a turning point and we are being drawn into the next big step. Venus movement to cojoin the Sun and square Uranus makes it easier for us to integrate new concepts and approaches.

The Sun and Moon are sextile to the Jupiter/Chiron/Neptune conjunction in Aquarius. Sextiles facilitate the exchange of information; in this case it helps us to expand our understanding and kinship with others. The fact that this conjunction occurred last over 5,000 years ago emphasizes the importance of reaching across traditional borders and bloodlines to create a global, human family of light. Jupiter forms its third exact conjunction with Neptune on December 21 (the first was on May 27, the second on July 10), encouraging the expression of the highest ideals of Aquarius—honoring the uniqueness and rights of each individual while also recognizing our commonalities and interdependence.

Personal passions are intensified by Mars' approaching station to go retrograde at 19 degrees 42' Leo on December 20. Mars only goes retrograde every 26 months. This retrograde extends the planet's time in Leo from its normal six weeks to almost eight months (October 16, 2009 to June 6, 2010). Leo is the sign most concerned with creativity and authenticity. Mars directs us to re-evaluate our goals, question our strategies, and realign with our higher Self. President Obama, the Leo, will have a wonderful opportunity during this transit to demonstrate his true, shining self.

We are confronted in these times by the last ditch efforts of the old order to intensify what could be called “the Tower of Babel” effect. The distortions of truth and the willingness of those who fear change to cling to what was are dividing the planet. The planets are calling everyone to see more clearly and to hear without the confusion of ego. Being creative, rising above the limits of the passing order and honoring our own true self, not to the exclusion of others, but to the acceptance that underneath the facades of illusion we are all one in spirit means that we get to come home to ourselves and stop dealing with life from a vantage point of separation. We must now become full participants in our own lives, putting ourselves into our own dream and accepting the love and assistance that this kind of living brings.

The Sabian symbol for the New Moon at 25 degrees Sagittarius says that we are still in the very beginning, awkward stages of learning how to harness new skills and energies: “A chubby boy on a hobby-horse; the anticipatory enjoyment of powers one can only as yet dream of utilizing.” This New Moon urges us to look deeply at our lives and the choices we are making. The power of focus—just as a laser can do much more than a scattered beam of light. When we concentrate on what we desire, what really matters to us, we can bring it about. When something, anything leaves your life it is making room for something far greater and richer to enter. The old ways have bound us with chains of fear. We are awakening to the unlimited possibilities of our Divine potential. There are dimensions that exist right where we are that we are only beginning to access. We left those levels of awareness to become explorers into smallness. We are vast, creative and wondrous. When those traits of our Divinity are expressed nothing that this world offered in separation will hold any attraction.

CRYSTAL CORNER

This is the time of year when we are actively thinking about what to purchase as gifts for others and making a wish list for ourselves. Many times I've heard people say, "If I had the money, I would get that beautiful crystal ball or geode." I've also observed that if you truly desire something and believe the way to purchase it will be provided, it will happen. I've faced many challenges through the years in stocking my business. First and foremost, I wished to provide inexpensive crystals for the students in my classes so I stocked mainly tumbled stones and small points as well as the less costly wands. Prices never stay the same but these types of things can still be purchased for little money. I did find myself wishing for some of the more exquisite items or high-end crystals just for the enjoyment of having them around me. So, with great trepidation, I began to invest in a few of those items. To begin with, I was sure I would have those things forever (not so bad!) because nobody would pay that much for a crystal. But to my surprise, as I learned to empower other's prosperity as well as my own, the jewels went to those who couldn't do without them. So, if you are looking for that show piece for your house or business or just an exquisite small item for your enjoyment, go for it and celebrate your prosperity!

I have some amazing geodes available in Amethyst and Citrine. Some have Calcite crystals in them and are a favorite of mine. Check out our unique category on the website for some one-of-a-kind items. Not for everyone but surely beautiful to look at.

If you are looking for some different shapes, check out the obelisks or pyramids. These are available in several different stones and are wonderful. A variety of eggs makes a wonderful basket display. Keep in mind that energy follows the points of an item and with eggs and spheres the energy is broadcast around the area.

Who wouldn't like to have a lotus blossom in pink, blue or purple? While these are made of leaded crystal, one is still influenced by the colors and beauty. These are great on a mirror or light box.

It is said Moldavite promotes prosperity. I have some awesome Moldavite incense to aid you in creating a positive space. In the same category, a new item I just received is called Golden Goddess Wealth Water. This can be sprayed throughout the house or business or on oneself. I also have some roll-on oils that promote different things but the most popular is the money-drawing oil! So here we have some handy tools to empower our prosperity.

I'm wishing you a happy and prosperous holiday season full of joy, love and laughter.

For those in the area, our open house is scheduled for December 5th, 10:00-5:00. There is a 15% discount throughout the store for this event and for those of you who mention you saw it in this column. We'll have refreshments (mom's baking!) and door prizes. Come if you are able.

TAROT TALK

Our Card for December is Time/Space. This was called Judgment in the older decks. The Time/Space continuum is being altered by the planetary configurations of these times and by the shifts in consciousness that these aspects are bringing. In the voyager deck this card is represented by Xipe Totec, Aztec “god of spring”. Wearing the skin of a sacrificed human Xipe represents the new life which comes after your judgment of death to old karmic patterns that are self-destructive. The law of karma (the law of laws) symbolized by Time/Space means that you can direct the course of your life by examining and altering psychological and behavioral patterns. You have the ability to recognize past patterns that affect present outcomes, which in turn create future potentials. As with Pertho, Rune of time, karma, synchronicity and divination, Time/Space symbolizes a total overview of where you have been, are and are going.

This card is normally associated with Easter and the resurrection; however, it’s meaning so perfectly fits into all of the changes that are occurring now on the planet. The forgiveness of judgment allows us to see much more clearly where it is that we desire to go for our future nows. As the “last judgment”, Time/Space represents a significant Uranian like transition period in your life.

Time/Space is associated with numerous mythological figures, for this concept of judging karma is prevalent in all cultures--Aeacus (Greek), Annukai (Babylonian), Ch’in (Chinese), Chitragupta (Hindu), Dharma (Hindu) Horus (Egyptian), Osiris (Egyptian, Thoth (Egyptian) Tezcetlipoca (Aztec) are just a few.

The Kabbalah letter-name for Time/Space is shin, which literally means tooth. As teeth are sequentially related, it represents relationships in time and space. Shin is also associated with the Hebrew words Ruach Elohim, which means “Holy Spirit”, the life breath. As the spirit, time/Space represents a breath of fresh air, the new life that attends the breaking out of old habit patterns.

The I Ching Hexagram for Time/Space is #57, Sun/The Gentle.

In nature it is the wind that disperses the gathered clouds, leaving the sky clear and serene. In human life, it is the penetrating clarity of judgment that thwarts all dark hidden motives. (I Ching, p. 220)

Time/Space is the number twenty. It represents the ending of the second cycle and beginning of the third. It is the departure point in consciousness that indicates the sowing of new seeds that lead to higher synthesis.

When the judgment card shows up in your reading it can mean that you are blocking your forward motion by old, limiting judgments that prevent you from accomplishing new things. It could indicate that you are giving too much power to the judgments of others. (What would they say?) This card requires examination of current and/or past beliefs that are outmoded and tend to distort your clear eye to see where you now would go. Discernment is necessary to making wise decisions, but when judgment enters into the picture the ego has just taken over and you will move in the same tight little circles that have held you back up to now.

Enjoy the freedom of rising above the ways of smallness. See from new heights and delight in a life that moves in simple ways.

St. Germain's Message

(St. Germain's message for the holiday season is short and simple. Do not let it be taken lightly. Take the time to feel his words and digest them. Read the message several times and let yourself integrate the absolute Love that the Masters are bringing us. God is Love and in that Love so are we.)

Beloved Masters, we are sending more love to the Earth all of the time, as you are more and more open to receive its uplifting essence. We can only send a certain amount of love because it can actually trigger more war and conflict, due to the immense fear that the ego is bring up to fight the shift into higher frequencies. You can witness greater levels of bitterness, judgment and accusation than ever before. All of this is inspired by the resistance to change. The body hurts, the mind feels foggy and the emotions are a roller coaster ride of ups and downs as the ego takes its last stand in defense of the old habits and addictions.

Each day we send a little more love into the energies of Earth and hold the intention that you will embrace it rather than turn away in doubt. You are loved beyond comprehension. We tell you this again and again so that you will begin to accept that it is true. What you are all resisting is the greater good of the new becoming.

You are loved for no reason other than that you are. Love is the healer. Love is the stuff of which all things are made. When you reject love you set energies of disintegration into effect. Suddenly, it appears that more and more people are dying. The fear and grief of releasing all that is known and stepping into the unknown is setting up shock waves of emotional imbalance. Love has always held a balance on Earth and now more than ever you are called to accept that you are safe and secure, even if things do not feel familiar. Time and space are functioning differently. Things appear to take forever and yet there also seems to be less time than ever. WHAT YOU MUST UNDERSTAND IS THE BALANCE OF POWER IS BEING RETURNED TO YOU. YOU ARE THE CREATOR OF ALL THAT HAPPENS IN YOUR WORLD AND YOU BRING IT ABOUT THROUGH YOUR EMOTIONS OR FEELINGS. Love is not an emotion. You have been lead to believe that the butterflies and skyrockets of new love are real. They are emotionally based and generally unstable because they are based on something outside of you (someone else's reactions to you and the situation). You are now being shown from deep within yourself that you are a powerfully, loving creator, capable of bringing about wonderful things. If that power is used without love, which it has been for a long time, it calls forth destruction.

As you allow the increasing love to gently lift you out of the places of limit, you begin to feel the difference from the inside out, rather than the other way. As you grasp the life line of new waves of love you see/feel, hear/feel and think/feel. The love changes you without you having to decide how or how much, when or if.

The love mends the broken lines of connection to "I AM". The sheer wonder of heightened perceptions and expanded awareness brings life into a much sharper, brighter and clearer focus. It is as though you are seeing life for the very first time ever. You sense the people around you with the clarity of love that allows you to care for them deeply without feeling responsible for them or their actions. You can understand why they create the way they do and forgive them rather than judge them. "Am I my brother's keeper?" takes on a whole new meaning. You realize that you were never intended to control the lives of others, but to lovingly design your own life in such a way that the outcomes of that life, simply built, will create even sweeter demonstrations of Love. This is what you are now remembering. Love is the most potent guidance that you can have. Love, indeed, lifts you up.

As you move into 2010, the year of integration, let Love be your constant companion. Love is not a snoop or a judge. Love is the best author of your life's ongoing that there can be. The holiday season of giving can be best fulfilled by giving the gift of Love, truly. Love is not things. Love is support, caring, consideration, generosity, heart felt allowing and most of all forgiveness of all that is past.

We bless you in the greatest love and hold you in the divine unity of Oneness. You are Beloved. Until we meet again in what ever manner that may be, I bid you Adieu!

Cherokee Legend

Do you know the legend of the Cherokee Indian youth's rite of Passage?

His father takes him into the forest, blindfolds him and leaves him alone. He is required to sit on a stump the whole night and not remove the blindfold until the rays of the morning sun shine through it. He cannot cry out for help to anyone.

Once he survives the night, he is a MAN. He cannot tell the other boys of this experience, because each lad must come into manhood on his own.

The boy is naturally terrified. He can hear all kinds of noises. Wild beasts must surely be all around him . Maybe even some human might do him harm. The wind blew the grass and earth, and shook his stump, but he sat stoically, never removing the blindfold. It would be the only way he could become a man! Finally, after a horrific night the sun appeared and he removed his blindfold.

It was then that he discovered his father sitting on the stump next to him. He had been at watch the entire night, protecting his son from harm.

We, too, are never alone. Even when we don't know it, God is watching over us, sitting on the stump beside us. When trouble comes, all we have to do is reach out to Him.

Moral of the story:
Just because you can't see God,
Doesn't mean He is not there.
"For we walk by faith, not by sight."
