

February Newsletter

We have made it through the first month of 2010 and now we enter the month that is dedicated to love. Happy Valentine's Day to all of you! May you find all of the joy, peace and fulfillment that love can bring.

As I write this we still have several inches of snow on the ground and more is expected any day. But right now it is bright and sunny and there is a lot of dripping off the roof.

Revelations are occurring every where. Clarity is a friend, an ally and at times difficult to face as we move deeper into the changes that "will not go away". Haiti seems to be one of the biggest revelations lately. So many bureaucratic limitations are being brought to light. The military's fear of dealing with the people that they are there to help and all the mixed messages from media and government are everywhere. We must meet all of these issues within ourselves and it can be overwhelming. Then we have the revelation of all of the misconduct of stars, athletes and politicians that is coming to the surface. Personally, I appreciate the open, forth-right presentation of our president, who has overcome Washington protocol and is being both clear and direct in his approach to the Old Order. I feel that for the first time in a long time the people of this country have someone in Washington who wants the best for us rather than their own pocket book and special interests.

Lander keeps growing. Our brand new Holiday Inn Express opened for New Years and a huge new Safeway with a Starbuck's, a deli and lots of organic food will open in March. I wonder if it is because we now have three casinos in the area. The old one in Riverton did not close when the big new one opened and now there is the Shoshoni Rose at Fort Wasaki. They are all small, but seem to keep quite busy. What ever is bringing business seems to be a strong incentive for expansion.

St. Germain's message of Love gets stronger with each group or Evening with St. Germain that he does. He seems to just flood everyone with the magik of Love. We filmed the first of the "Know Thyself" series last week and it is very powerful. St. Germain spoke about how to know ourselves internally by loving and understanding our organs—kidneys, liver, heart and lungs—and appreciating the mystical, metaphysical aspects as well as the purely physical effects that these organs have on us. I am very blessed to be a part of this process even though it can, at times, make me very aware of my human limitations.

I am dealing with the cancer on a daily basis. I have done some very intense wholistic procedures and plan to go back to the doctor next month. It has been a challenge to find that the cancer is still there. It has been four years since I was first diagnosed. I still feel good and have a strong desire to integrate this opportunity for growth. I find that one of my greatest challenges is my own old belief systems. It is amazing how entrenched we get without even being aware that we have done so. The general lack of self value and self esteem that is fundamental in the society is being revealed all of the time, along with the belief in limitation that is seems to be considered “just the way it is”. It is so refreshing to see people come out of extreme situations with a smile on their face and the ability to reach for the best again and again. There is a lot of inspiration that is shining through the chaos of these times. Yea!

Again, Love to all in this month of focus on love. May the essence of Love be with us all of the time.

ASTROLOGY

NEW MOON

This months New Moon falls in the sign of Aquarius. We experience the Moon’s cycles and each month there is a New Moon. What we don’t always consider is that even though it is the New Moon again the essence, energy and message from month to month is quite different. This New Moon cojoins Chiron and Neptune highlighting the healing, unifying energies and urging us to surrender the illusions that keep us in war and fear. We are being pushed, prodded and pulled to integrate the Cosmic message of love. This New Moon tells us again “You are loved, loving and beloved”. The scope of this knowledge is so powerful that it cannot help but get through even the toughest of facades to reach the wounded heart of the “Wounded Healer”.

Chiron, the wounded healer, was discovered in 1977. Its placement nataly and by transit offers both a diagnosis and a potential remedy. It can indicate where we have gotten separated from our connection with the God self and how we can assist others by the healing of ourselves. Chiron in Aquarius brings the cure that we do not have to choose between being our true self and acceptability. In our authenticity we can find gratification and synergy with others. Synergy is defined as “the some total is greater than any one of its parts”. As we embrace who we are we no longer are forced to compete for a place in the world. That place has always been there waiting for us to discover it. Chiron and Neptune, the archetype of unity, only cojoin every 57 to 80 years. The last conjunction was at the end of World War II. This conjunction lasts from 2007 to 2014 and it continues to redefine community, commerce and cooperation.

Every time there is a new discovery in physics or astronomy, there is a correspondent advance in the collective consciousness. Neptune is the planet most associated with these subtle changes that make quantum leaps in our reality. Though Neptune is invisible to the naked eye it was discovered by its effect on Uranus. The fact that this New Moon and the Neptune-Chiron conjunction occur within one degree of the placement of Neptune at its discovery can inspire new social and spiritual ideals. It also suggests that the planet is ready for humanitarian efforts and a greater sense of equality.

Venus, the lower octave of Neptune, cojoins Jupiter in Pisces and brings a more powerful sense of Faith, trust and consideration of others. This conjunction creates a Yod or Finger of God (150 degrees) with Saturn in Libra and Mars in Leo decreeing a shift in attitude and direction. Consider the tools that you possess within your self. What is your passion and how is it attempting to come through your heart and your hands at this time?

The Sabian symbol for this New Moon at 26 degrees Aquarius admonishes us to make sure we are harnessing our power: "A garage man testing a car's battery with a hydrometer; skill in applying knowledge of natural laws to the solution of everyday problems resulting from life in our technological society." We are moving closer to the potential of allowing these divine laws to guide our mundane affairs and lift us to heights that have been unimaginable up to now. Love is the light that has shown the way throughout time. Once again it will guide us surely and truly if we will allow.

FULL MOON

In the midst of a crisis of consciousness we are experiencing a spiritual revolution. Our political system, the natural disasters around the world, the strife in all places and lives is requiring us to move from fear to faith, judgment to acceptance and from the love of power to the power of Love. This Full Moon in Virgo reminds us that we are a part of the Divine All. We are called to rekindle the spark of God which has been dimmed by greed, lies, misinterpretation and political misdirection. In the insanity of the outer world we are buffeted by the storms of conflict. We must find the safe haven within to remember what is true, what is important and what is eternal.

This is the second of five SuperMoons this year and it powerfully affects the tides and the human psyche. It can wipe the slate clean and close the doors to what was so that the only way we can move is forward, even if we feel that we cannot see where we are going.

Pisces is the final sign of the zodiac, the alpha and omega of the Cosmos. It is Pisces that shows us that even though the drop of water seems to be separate the ocean is comprised of billions of drops of water, all united in oneness. Jupiter joins the Sun at the Full Moon bring a focus on the spiritual truth that everything and everyone are connected. Prior to the discovery of Neptune Jupiter was the traditional ruler of Pisces. Jupiter is the planet that represents the home of the Masters. Jupiter's close contact with this Full Moon compels us to transcend the bounds of previous religious and societal enculturation. What do you know and what do you believe? Are you observing life through the keyhole of fear? Are you willing to look through, even step through the open door of Love? Are the beliefs of our lineage enrichment to our lives and relationships or do they bind us to fear and a feeling of powerlessness? Jupiter will be transiting Pisces for most of 2010, expanding our concepts of metaphysical worlds and deepening our sensitivity and respect for life in all of its forms.

When Venus and Uranus conjunct in Pisces, we have the energy of unconditional love and the power of Divine revelation. This cosmic combination encourages tolerance and compassion. It brings amazing insight and inspiration to artists, writers, musicians and anyone who desires to consult the Muses.

The Moon in Virgo can assist us to live our ideals through kindness and service. This blended with the generosity of Jupiter, the grace of Venus, the genius of Uranus and the divine awareness of the Sun opens us to levels of beingness that we have only dreamed of to this point. The Sabian symbols call for unity and faith in our inner knowing. For the Moon at 10 Virgo: "Two heads looking out and beyond the shadows' the growth of true understanding, born out of the transcendence of duality even while immersed in the world of duality." For the Sun at 10 Pisces: "An aviator pursues his journey, flying through ground-obscuring clouds; man's ability to develop powers and skills which, by transcending natural limitations, allow him to operate in mental-spiritual realms."

Every religion has its own reference to the statement "It is greater to give than to receive." The outer emphasis has kept us from recognizing the truth of this statement. It isn't so much the giving as the sharing that is important. We can give and energetically keep a distance between ourselves and those we aid. When we share we get involved and in that personal participation we receive the benefits of offering good to another. The things that we do that "mean nothing" are often the most important acts we perform. Because we are totally worthy of the love of God, it is not to spend our energy attempting to get God's attention, but to make the most out of the All that belongs to us.

CRYSTAL CORNER

Hello to all of you on this wonderful journey. Here we are a month into a new year and a new decade. It seems like yesterday when many thought Y2K would bring us many disasters and the world would end. Now, 2012 occupies many with dire prophecies and warnings of things to come. Nothing is what it seems. It remains for us to focus on how we wish to create our own personal world, a world without fear and full of love and prosperity. It also requires us to integrate all aspects of ourselves and become whole spiritual beings. Bon Voyage!

As February is a month associated with love, let's talk about those stones that promote that love. We have discussed these over time but a reminder is always welcome, at least to me. I can sit and read about the stones and hold and play with them and never tire of it.

Rose Quartz is the primary stone associated with love. It will enable you to open your heart and let the love in.

Kunzite is another of the pink stones that is a step up in vibration from the Rose Quartz. It instills self love and breaks emotional blocks that make us susceptible to dis-ease in the body.

Pink Tourmaline is yet a step higher than the Kunzite. Again, it is about self love and is associated with the heart chakra.

The above three stones are known as the heart trilogy. If one is working on heart issues, (and who isn't?) you would start with the Rose Quartz and wear it over the heart chakra for up to 6 months. You would then move to the Kunzite and then the Pink Tourmaline, remembering that these are all heart energy and would be used in that area. Be vigilant about tuning into what is going on with the heart as you work with the stones. That is especially true if you work with Hexagonite.

Hexagonite is a lavender-pink fibrous stone and has 30 to 40 times the vibration of Kunzite. One should consider how open the heart so as not to cause a heart attack. This would bring love vibrations to a higher understanding. This is one stone I really relate to. As I hold it, I find I want to climb into it. But please be cautious with the energy of this.

Happy Valentine's Day and revel in the love energy. Please check out the website for hearts of all sizes and colors and stones. These make great gifts of love. Blessings.

Here is a new column we are offering. Ronda Mclean is called by those who know her "The Garden Fairy". She is a very special gardener and I asked her to share some of her secrets and stories with our newsletter.

Message from the Garden Fairy

The Rose

Roses are perhaps the best-known flowers in the world. They are cultivated from South America to Africa, from Eastern Europe to the Far East. In many countries roses are strongly connected to special events, ceremonies, and symbolic events. In Europe and America, roses are synonymous with Valentine's Day, a floral symbol of love and passion.

Clay tablets excavated in the temples of Ur in Iraq speak of the delivery of large quantities of rose water intended for the sultan of Bagdad. The sultan used no fewer than 30,000 jars of rose water a year, to make his rooms smell nice for his extensive harem.

Rose water was successfully used to cure all kinds of ailments, such as trembling, constipation, drunkenness, skin and throat infections and insomnia. There is some truth in this, as we now know that Rosa rugosa hips contain high levels of vitamin C.

Until the early 19th century dried rose petals were believed to have mysterious powers. Napoleon gave his officers bags of rose petals to boil in white wine, to cure lead poisoning from bullet wounds.

Roses have an enchanting scent. Cleopatra covered the floors of her palace with a thick layer of rose petals every day. The mattresses and pillows of her bed were stuffed with rose petals, too. Cleopatra also had the sails of her royal barge soaked in rose water. When the breezes filled the sails, the sent of roses filled the air.

Today, Roses are one of the top selling flowers in the floral industry.

The fruit of the Rose, Rose Hips, is very high in vitamin B-complex and is very rich in vitamins A, E, C and Rutin making it very soothing for the nerves and an anti-depressant. It can calm anger and alleviate hangovers. Add 5-10 drops of Rose oil to a full bath. This way you absorb through the skin but also inhaling the aroma.

Happy Valentine's Day!

TAROT TALK

Our card for February is Synergy, the Six of Worlds. This is the year of Integration; six is a number of family and service. February is associated with Love and synergy is a very loving concept. Synergy means that the sum total of any group, project or idea is greater than any one of the parts. As we focus on the collective consciousness rather than just "my ideas or beliefs" we open to a vast reservoir of information, knowledge and wisdom. Synergy allows us to dive into the wealth of ancient and new ideas all gathered together and recognize that we are rich beyond imagining and didn't even realize it.

Synergy represents the Lovers the Lovers ability to bring worldly resource together to create an alliance of power and success. You are called upon to bring together your own inner resource and abilities and combine them with the resources of others. You have the power to build your own world and achieve your desires if you enter into cooperation with others. We have been a planet of fighters—attempting to prove our worth through belittling others. Synergy requires that we look within and find our own value in order to get the very best of every interaction that we make with those in our family, community and world.

The mental conditions for success through synergy embody the ability to think holistically and creatively.

Synergy requires emotional courage and physical resilience. Set your Ego aside. In Synergy, everyone wins. Everyone and everything is a resource for a new recipe for success. Blend, mix and delight in the outcome. Be patient and disciplined. Be willing to take risks. Go way outside the box! Be a revolutionary, dancing on the cutting edge of creativity.

Balance masculine and feminine energies. Develop faithful and loyal partnerships. Meditate, contemplate and nurture your ideas.

When the Six of Worlds falls in your reading be on the look out for opportunities to work with another person or group of people on a project or idea that may have been playing on the edges of your mind for a while. Allow yourself to hear what others have to say. Curb the need to have the final word. Control has no place in synergy. Synergy may be telling you that you have an opportunity to operate differently and obtain greater success and more positive outcomes, by honoring everyone involved each situation.

Synergy brings a sense of warmth and belonging that being the boss or head of a committee does not allow. In synergy everyone is an equal in thoughts, actions and outcomes. Welcome to the Age of Aquarius.

St. Germain's Message for February—Love through Surrender

Beloved Masters, we greet you with all of the Love of this time. You are more greatly Loved every day.

Love has no limit and you are loved without measure, however, you have diminished the value of Love for so long that it must be returned to you in relatively small amounts, like water to someone who has been without for a long time. The Love is pure and fulfilling and humanity would gulp it down, but it goes deep into cellular memories of fear and doubt and brings up many strange reactions that the mind would not associate with Love's increase. Those who have learned to fear Love's power disdain Love more now than ever. The desire to kill and destroy that which is different or unfamiliar is, for some like breathing. They do not even think about the outcome of their actions and how it affects the waters of the collective consciousness.

We find more and more hearts and souls are turning to embrace the Love. Unfortunately, the changes that bring inclusion do not always make good press so you hear very little about how wonderfully the human psyche is responding to the increases of Love. The news forecasts still dwell on the conflict, with an occasional story about the humanitarian acts of Love that are becoming more prevalent all of the time.

Do not allow the fear that the illusion is stronger than light to hang about in your psyche. Love is and always will be the most powerful of energies. We, the Masters, are drawing closer and interacting with you more all of the time. As the collective mind changes we can be with you in deeper and clearer ways than ever. Feel our Love in the depths of your heart and soul. Know that when it seems as though things just are not working, it is to be still and wait, rather than deciding, one more time, to fight for the right. Patience is an imperative in these shifts. If you do not know what to do, DO NOTHING! If you cannot think of what to say or come up with an answer, be quiet and listen. When the moment is ready you will know exactly what to say, which still may be nothing. The mind wants to coach you to react to what has been judged wrong. As you are willing to hold your focus on positive outcomes without deciding what they should be, things have a chance to move into clearer, more defined perspective.

This brings us to the essence of SURRENDER. When you surrender you do not give up, you give over. You let God have room in your life and you heart to help you make the changes that now must be made for the good of all. Surrender is not deciding what to get rid of. It is allowing that you will be shown where your life can now go to achieve the dreams that you have desired for so long. When you attempt to "figure out" what you must do next you miss the subtle nuances of the Divine that can open new doors inside of you. When you try to do the right thing your focus is on the past rather than on the amazingly vast perspectives of NOW and future Nows. We are aware that the changes that are required for your evolution are so extreme that it takes quite a bit of adjustment to live in the new essence. The changes sound very simple and, truly Masters, they are. However, there are no reference points to this evolution in previous thought. In order to anchor the new concepts, you are required to put your attention on this moment. You have stared into the void of the future and reached for the unknown outside of you. Now you, literally, must stretch your consciousness beyond your imagining and yet stay poised in NOW. You cannot enter into this Love and acceptance, though any of the old ways that you used to use to get what you want. You are already accepted and acceptable. The key is letting yourself merge with the entire creation—people, planets, ideas and ideals. There is nothing that is not you—NOTHING.

The Light is you—neither good nor bad—just you. The darkness is you—neither right nor wrong—just you. The Light and the Dark are a balance that God created. They are intended to be whole, rather than divided into compartments by the mind. Remembering that you do not have to judge anything in order to belong is a concept that is new. The ways of fear and judgment seem to be like flypaper—you hold on to want you have known. Yet, you must let them go. "What will I put in their place?", you ask. "Everything", we answer. You can grasp everything only as a mental concept. You can only begin to comprehend everything when you let go of the limited measures that you have used for so long.

Love is beyond measure. Love is everything. Let it in. It is who you are, it is what you are, it is how you are. Love is all encompassing. This understanding will allow you to move mountains and rise above your limitations.

The understanding of Love is our gift to you and our desire for you. You have thought about the changes long enough. It is time to take the leap of Faith into the void of All-ness. You are real and the reality that you seek is right where you are. Just BE!

Until we meet again in what ever manner that may be, in the deepest of Love, I remain your humble servant, the Lord St. Germain.

Subject: Not a Palindrome

A palindrome reads the same backwards as forward. This video reads the exact opposite backwards as forward. Not only does it read the opposite, the meaning is the exact opposite. This is only a 1 minute, 44 second video and it is brilliant. Make sure you read as well as listen...forward and backward.

This is a video that was submitted in a contest by a 20-year old. The contest was titled "u @ 50", by AARP. This video won second place. When they showed it, everyone in the room was awe-struck and broke into spontaneous applause. So simple and yet so brilliant. Take a minute and watch it.
