

May Newsletter

My great grandson is now four months old and his mama gave him the spoon after a recent feeding. How fun. See picture above. He loves his peas and carrots.

Our second picture at the end of the newsletter is a beautiful horse in a field near our home. Spring is budding, but even as Dorian was taking pictures we were watching the snow coming in over the mountains. We are due rain and snow for the next two days.

Here it is almost May and we are still waiting for spring to begin. We had about four really warm (upper 70's) days at the end of April and then we had about two feet of snow this weekend. It was truly beautiful. It all melted this morning. We are supposed to have more snow during the week.

The world is an amazing place. All of the diversity is fascinating. I am enjoying all the different ways that people think and feel more than ever. I don't have to change them or convince them that they are wrong. I just observe. The choices are sometimes painful and other times enlightening, often both. It is wonderful to know that I am not responsible for how others live their lives. (There certainly was a time when I thought that I had to run everyone's life—my way. Lol) Now I am free to appreciate my life more and to see others with less of a filter of judgment.

I have raised my children and watched the older grandchildren becoming adults. There is a second wave of grand kids, all under eight years old that are coming along now. My twelfth grandchild will be born in late October. My youngest son and his wife decided that they were ready to bring another soul into the world.

Aren't these children remarkable? The Star children born in the sixties and into the late seventies, the Indigos of the eighties and the Diamonds and Rainbows of the nineties and beyond are bringing us such wonderful opportunities to look at life from a different perspective. I see just how open and accepting these young people can be of each other. If there isn't a lot of focus on the flaws, which is certainly a part of the old order that is dying, today's children are very enlightened.

I watch my older grandchildren making life choices and I am very impressed with their wisdom. When I was their age the adults around me just pointed out that I was far too young to be doing the things that I chose to undertake. These young people are just awesome. I have two granddaughters who have gotten involved with drugs (for the experience of the thing) and both of them have turned their life around. That takes tremendous courage. Kayla, the mother of my great grandson, is starting college to be a medical records technician and Corinthia, the second grand child, is in Job Core. I do go on, but I see the greatness in the youth of today and the horizons that are open for them and I find it very exciting because it can also mean unlimited potential for me.

Does time seem to be moving in odd curving, swerving patterns for you? The changes in the time/space continuum are becoming more and more obvious all of the time. St. Germain suggests that there is a huge difference between real time and the illusions that we play in here on Earth. As we raise our vibrational frequency we merge more with true time, where, as with everything else in that vibration, there is plenty. Higher vibrations are not somewhere else, they are here. We just do not recognize the places where love, joy and plenty exist if we are dwelling on limit.

Annalaiya made an abundance blend for me a couple of weeks ago. My financial flow had almost come to a halt. My bank account was in trouble. I took two doses of the blend on Friday and by Monday I had made over $1, 000. Things have been perking right along ever since. Every time I get an abundance blend my money picture gets brighter. You can reach Annalaiya at 307 332-7861 or specialeyes@bresnan.net. She is an iridologist, flower essence practitioner and nutritionist with a background as a chiropractor.

Rainbow Center News

May 15 will bring our evening intro to the weekend intensive. St. Germain will help us to find The Blessings of Change. The evening will be 8p.m.-10p.m. at the Rainbow Center for the Humanities, 4th & Lincoln in Lander. The intensive Divine Design brings us closer to our AT-ONE-MENT with everything that God had in mind for us when we were created. Come to hear the stories of you and how you came to be and how you are now rediscovering for yourself the Divine Design. Sat. May 16, 10a.m.-6p.m. Sun. May 17 10a.m.-3p.m. Go to our website for sign up and info.

www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com

Our next group will be June 14, Living Your Divine Authority. Here is another opportunity to delve into the power that you possess within. Your authority is founded in the script that your soul wrote before you came into this life. St. Germain helps you to reconnect with that authorship of your life's direction. Come to yourself. Own all that you are in love.

CD's can be purchased on the website at www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/2009groups.html

May brings the fifth Virtue in our series. The Evening for May features the Virtue Authority. St. Germain points out that you have authority over your life. It isn't that you have a right to authority. You have authority. If you believe that others have or can take your authority away it is simply a choice. In that choice you allow them to be more important in your life than you are. That can cause you unnecessary pain. This is the time to remember your domain, your dominion over your life and affairs. This is not about fighting for the right or maintaining control. The fight, in and of itself, underscores the fact that you do not acknowledge your person worth and value.

To sign up for the Evening on the website www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/live-events.html

To order CD's or DVD's www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/evenings.html

Our intensive is only ten days away. We invite you to join us for "The Blessings of Change" on Friday evening May 15 and "Divine Design" on May 16-17. You may sign up on the internet or call me at 307 335-8113 to get your registration in ahead of time.

Linda Thomas, Woman of Crystals will be here in Lander for the intensive with some of her wonderful crystals. Call 307 335-8113 to check for showing time when you may come, look and buy.

ASTROLOGY

FULL MOON

May 8-9 brings the Scorpio Full Moon in May. Taurus represents security and harmony. Scorpio delves into the realms of self that we often would rather leave undisturbed. "Let the sleeping Dragon lie." These depths of Hades that Scorpio rules and the energy of Pluto Scorpio's ruler reveal our dark side, the occulted nature of our being. All of our deepest, darkest secrets are being brought to the surface so that we may sort them out and see them in the light of day. When you see things fully, rather than in part, the whole text of the situations of life changes. You may look through a keyhole or a knothole in a fence and believe that you have the picture. For too long we have been basing our lives on half the picture or less and calling that little piece "all". Scorpio deals with the three major power issues in our lives—our money, our sexuality and our personal value. The eighth house in the horoscope relates to the mirrors of our life in these areas. Where do you give your power away or how do you keep it? Can you share your money and/or goods or do you feel as though there is not enough?

On February 14 we passed through a portal into the Aquarian Age. The Sun was conjunct Neptune at that time. Now the Sun and Moon will be squaring Neptune as it cojoins Jupiter and Chiron. This square will expand our vision of new horizons. If you have felt as though you just couldn't see where the next step would lead this Full Moon will begin to reveal new perspectives. Planetary movement in the heavens tells an ever unfolding story. Because there is no there each aspect that a planet makes is a building block for the next step in our lives. Squares nudge us to get on with things. We might just sit down and do nothing, but for the motivation of squares. Pluto will be making a susquiquadrate to the Sun and a semi-square to the Moon. Though not as strong as a square, these aspects still represent a requirement to let go of the old, outmoded relationships, conditions and things in our lives. The mind says, "How do you get rid of people?"

When someone no longer fits into your life, there is a tendency to turn your attention to new interests. This focus is on where you are going rather than where you have been. Fighting to get rid of something or someone simply serves as a distraction from forward motion. You will find that when you change your interests and your focus of attention one day you may realize that there are folks that you just haven't seen around for a while. You didn't "try" to make them get out of your life, you simply stopped creating an attraction to them and they moved on. The mind says, "Yes, but they were not that important or I didn't see them everyday". All things are relative and so are people. As you devote your attention to where you desire to go in your life everything changes. If you are truly committed to those desires, no one can stop you from fulfilling them. If you are secretly looking for someone to stop you, you may create people in your life who play "victim" or "intimidator" to apparently block your way. Accepting them as a limit is still your choice. We are being eased along by the planets to a higher point of view so that we can see clearly that we are the creators of each and every situation in our life. We can stop and argue about the fact that that isn't true or we can grasp the wisdom of our true self and move toward fulfillment.

This Scorpio Moon is pointing to a way up and out of limitation. The power of the aspects to Pluto are increased because of Pluto's rulership of Scorpio. You may feel the quiet click as the door of the past closes behind you and you know before you even look back that the door has no handle on your side. That is the nature of Pluto and Scorpio.

Mercury begins its second retrograde of the year on May 6, just two days after the Full Moon. It goes retrograde at one degree Gemini forty-five minutes. Since most of this retrograde will be in Taurus the primary attention will be on issues of values, finances and reestablishing priorities. Mercury will square the Jupiter/Neptune conjunction in Aquarius at the Full Moon and again at the New Moon on May 24. This encourages new alliances and offers choices that entertain new alternatives rather than old, strict limitations. You could feel extremely creative and/or experience foggy logic during this retrograde as mercury squares Neptune.

Saturn goes direct on May 16 at 15 degrees Virgo. We get the cosmic two thumbs up on projects that may have been on hold or up for review since Saturn went retrograde on New Year's Eve 2008. When Saturn stations to go direct or retrograde it stays within two degrees of that point for two weeks on either side of its station. It appears to stand still which increases its influence on that area of your chart. The oppositions that Saturn is making with Uranus between now and the summer of 2010 make any of its movement more intense.

The Sabian Symbols for this Full Moon are—the Sun at 19 degrees Taurus: "A new continent rising out of the ocean; the surge of new potentiality after the crisis" and the Moon at 19 degrees Scorpio: "A parrot repeats the conversation he has overheard; the capacity to transmit transcendental knowledge."

Thoughts are power and so is money. This is a good time to consider where you are putting your currency (energy) and decide if that is where you really wish to invest.

NEW MOON

This New Moon falls in the sign of Gemini on May 24th and coincides with the Jupiter, Neptune and Chiron conjunction. Jupiter cojoins Neptune every 12-13 years and it conjuncts Chiron every 13-20 years. However, Chiron and Neptune only make conjunction every 57-80 years. This New Moon is trined by the extremely rare Jupiter, Neptune and Chiron conjunction. Jupiter brings new enterprise and expansion, as well as, new possibilities which when added to Chiron's healing potential and bridging capabilities can move the current affairs of the planet forward at a speed and intensity that will astound you. Jupiter's alignment with Neptune focuses on the empowerment of the psychic abilities, delving into the mysteries of the inner and outer universe and draws more attention to the philanthropic aspects that are so important now.

Those born with Chiron in Aquarius (1955-60) or planets between 20 and 30 degrees of Aquarius are getting extra downloads of information from the cosmos that will assist in a greater involvement in actually living the concepts of cooperation and community. This amazing energy will continue to affect the planet until February of 2010.

The exact conjunction of Chiron and Neptune does not occur until February 16, 2010, but they will remain in within 10 degrees of each other from January, 2007 to march, 2014. These aspects can bring about massive social, political and economic reforms. The Master St. Germain suggests, that even the Universal Commercial Code (UCC) that has been the standard for commerce on the planet for hundreds of years must be revamped, because it is based on laws that are so outmoded that their energy is actually jamming the forward motion of the economy. These laws are designed to empower the few and cause the masses to become slaves to the system.

Mercury will be making a square to the Jupiter, Neptune and Chiron conjunction and this aspect will be extended by Mercury's retrograde. This just increases the emphasis on the "green" movement. Your wealth is not measured in money. Because we all are joined in the collective consciousness of spirit, is one suffers all suffer. This has been translated into a law that indicates that no one has a right to a good life if anyone is having difficulty. This has perpetuated poverty and confusion around the right to be rich. All the current planetary aspects are changing the dynamics of the collective. We are all rich, but we have narrowed the measure to how much we have in the bank. As that illusion shifts we will begin to contact our divine inheritance which is so abundant that no one could possibly be limited or needy.

The Sabian Symbol for this New Moon at 4 degrees of Gemini: "Holly and mistletoe reawaken old memories of Christmas; a longing for the pre-intellectual stat of consciousness".

What are you feeding yourself mentally, emotionally and spiritually, as well as, physically? If you can imagine a thing it becomes real. Do not dismiss your thoughts and dreams or your fears as "only imagination". The imagination is a tool of creation. "If you can conceive of a thing and believe in it or even add energy in anger, you may receive it."

CRYSTAL CORNER

Linda did not have time to do an article this month because she just completed another of her second level crystal healing class last week end. Dorian filmed the class and there will be DVD's available in the future.

While we were at Linda's I purchased some wonderful stones that are geared to assisting us to reach for the higher frequencies that are becoming more available all of the time. We are so blessed to have so many beautiful and helpful stones available.

Some stones for opening a greater connection with love and the higher dimensions are:

Adamite—This yellow-green stone is for the bonding of will and love without condition. It is the potential of what the heart center can become as we expand into higher frequencies.

Ajoite/calcite—This is a messenger of higher forms of love without condition. It epitomizes the Goddess in her fully emerged state. It carries the essence of fully realized love. It is soft yet strong, sweet yet powerful. It is an indicator of how to remember home because this is what home feels like.

Brucite—A beautiful, light blue stone that draws in energy that is even higher than the essence of Celestite. It reaches into the highest levels of the Angelic realms. It is like a harmonic tuner that would assist in hearing the celestial music within self. It assists in seeing beyond the physical eyes and hearing with the inner ear.

Crocoite—Red or burnt orange in color, this stone is associated with the thirteenth chakra in the area of the thyroid/thymus. This stone connects the energy of Christ consciousness to the root chakra so that primal force is joined with the God-self. We call so many things miracles that are natural occurrences in the higher dimensions.

Linda has a multitude of wonderful stones for sale. At this time her website is not functioning completely, but don't let that stop you from looking at the stones on her website: www.eternal-ice.com or calling her at 800-757-8478 or emailing her at eternalice@bresnan.net to place your order. En-joy!

TAROT TALK

This month's card is the Empress, number three in the Tarot deck. She associates with the three of cups—Love and the Woman of Worlds—Preserver. Birthing is first conceived in the mind. The Empress gives birth to new ideas, as well as, conceiving of the potential of all things—the three of Crystals. Nurse and nurture your life's creations—three of Worlds and be compassionate with all of life—three of Wands.

The Empress brings us our value, our wealth and our appreciation of beauty and harmony. All of these are attributes of the sign of Taurus. The Empress is Goddess Mother, full of fertility in every area. She is the rich earth that not only feeds us, but provides riches beyond imagining. She is the nest, the womb, nurturing and giving of life and the reverence of all life.

The Empress charges us to be stewards of the earth. As we have lost touch with our true connection with God/Goddess, many have come to believe that we have a right to take what ever we want and that there is no consequence in what we do. The Empress (Goddess) reminds us of our responsibility to our home planet and to our brothers and sisters that we share it with. None of us may give anyone else permission to be on the earth. We do not have that authority.

The I Ching hexagram Pi, #8/ Holding Together (Union) is associated with the Empress.

Such holding together calls for a central Figure around whom other persons may unite. To become a center of influence is a grave Matter and fraught with great responsibility. It requires greatness of spirit, consistency, And strength. (I Ching, p. 36)

The Rune Uruz is the mother of all manifestation. This is symbolized by the cow Goddess, the Goddess Hathor, abundance and fertility.

When the Empress is drawn for a reading she smiles on the events in question. She brings beneficence. The Empress is good news even if she is reversed because she can turn things around. She calls for a cool head and quieting the ego so that you can hear the answers within. If you are a lover of art or if you are looking for love she blesses your affairs. You can take heart if the Empress comes to visit you in your reading or in your dreams.

St. Germain on the State of the World

Beloved Masters, we celebrate your growth and expansion. We are delighted with all that you are remembering.

The world has for so long functioned with rules and steps to take that it has lost touch with the internal design that god gave to each one. People have imitated those that they believe are great. They attempt to do things in a certain way, to speak the "right" words and act in such a manner that others will see the master in them. Imitation is not real. Pretense does not fill you up and bring you to the awareness of your OWN greatness. Attempting to act like someone else, no matter how amazing they are, isn't who you are. It is time to let go of the need to be someone else because you do not see yourself as good enough. Whether it is Jesus, Buddha, or any of the great Masters throughout time, you must recognize that they are all that which you are. If you are angry with life or disappointed in your choices, you may change your direction and NOW is the time.

Trying to impress others when you doubt yourself will become more and more transparent in the refined frequencies that are lifting the planet higher each day. Pretending that you are moving forward when fear is making you cling to the old habits and life-style choices is simply a delaying tactic of the EGO. It is time to move into the inner spaces of yourself and connect with your soul's direction.

Everywhere is here and all time is now. Escaping to another place or waiting in the hope that tomorrow will be better prevents you from living your best life now. What are you thinking about? Are you reciting the EGO's litany of lack over and over? Do you keep affirming that nothing works or it only works for others? Beloved, you are absolutely right because you are exercising your right as a master to create in any way that you desire. When you keep saying the same things again and again you are cutting a groove in your psyche and establishing belief systems that are based on the shadow life that was.

When you move to the unknown future the EGO has no material to work with and it gets very frightened. It wants to have points of reference that are based on the old ways. It asks, "How can you create when you do not know how to make things happen?" "How can you possibly achieve something if you don't know exactly what it is?" The EGO functions in smallness. You are SO MUCH GREATER THAN YOU HAVE KNOWN! We call you to live your greatness when life seems to be closing in. Live your best self in the midst of crisis and then LIVE YOUR BEST SELF IN THE MIDST OF JOY!!!! Do not stop living your best self when life relaxes or stops challenging you. Reach! Stretch! Expand! Forgive thinking, "What would the Master do?" YOU ARE THE MASTER! What will you create?

We are with you, but we cannot do life for you. These times seem so difficult because you have not lived yourself in life times. The discovery of you is both exciting and terrifying. Live your best and live it again. Life is not lived occasionally. It is all of the time. Live! Live! Live! Don't stop. The EGO wants to rest, which looks like avoidance and resistance. Living is not driving your self to exhaustion. Life is tapping into the fuel of spirit within yourself and realizing that you have unlimited potential right here, right now!!

Move beyond the fear by living your dreams. The EGO says, "I don't know how?" Forgive "HOW". In the divine scheme of things how doesn't even exist. Forgive attempting to figure things out. That only takes you away from NOW and prevents you from living the delights of this moment. You can dream the future without leaving now. Now is where it is happening in the vernacular of the youth of today. That is totally true.

You are loved beyond your wildest desire. You belong completely. You don't have to go anywhere or do anything to be worthy. You are worthy. You are God's beloved creation. That never changed over time, except, perhaps to become greater as God expands.

Live yourself truly and live true to yourself. Be honest and clear and unique. You are not an imitation of anyone else. You are gloriously you.

Until we meet again in what ever manner that may be I bid you Adieu.
