The Pot of Gold

November 2007, Volume 1, Issue 10

NOVEMBER ISSUE

Here we are to November. St. Germain talks about how time is changing. We still have our measures of time, but if you are paying attention time is not conforming to our clock or calendar measures. We are noticing that it seems to take forever for a cycle to run on the dishwasher or washing machine; however by the clock it still takes the same amount of time as always. You might say that is just impatience, but other things seem to go faster than they used to. I drove from Lander to Pueblo, CO in record time, stopped several times and didn't speed. In fact, I was in rain or snow most of the way so I couldn't go more than about 60-65.

Autumn continued well into October this year. Many of the trees were still ablaze with gold and orange when I left to go east.

I almost missed autumn in the east this year because it came so late that I really didn't see fall until the very end of my trip when I went up into north Georgia. They were just beginning to get color.

Footnote:

Thank you for your patience. Lazaris speaks of the Liminal or place between worlds. This trip felt very much like that- especially the last week. The two weeks at Crystal Organic Farm were intense and very productive.

Helen did a beautiful job of providing for me and everyone else who crossed her threshold while I was there.

The intensive literally took us to new levels.

On Monday after the intensive I put my car in the shop for the cross-country repairs. It went from a transfer-case seal to a new transfer-case to two transfer-cases and an extra week in Atlanta. This was when I really began to feel the Liminal. I stayed two extra days at Helen's and then visited friends for the next few days.

By Monday, November 5th (I thought I would be home on the 3rd) I developed the flu. My car was not ready until late on Tuesday evening and I had a four and a half day trip ahead of me. I felt as though I was in a no time-no space place. I wasn't in a room. I was between rooms. I have never experienced anything like it. It really is rather amazing. I experienced being fractals-billions of bites of information-all shapes and colors.

I feel much more integrated with everything than I ever have. Now I get to live that and that, I am sure, is what St. Germain calls "the future that has nothing to do with any past we have ever known".

CENTER EVENTS

Our November 11 channeling session is November 11, "Wholly We Are - The Delight of Mastery Remembered". CD's will be available for $25 per set.

CD's of the Georgia intensive, which St. Germain renamed after the intensive to "Peace-crafter: Evolutionary Expansion", will be available after November 15. We are taking orders now. You do not know what you missed. St. Germain didn't just say imagine this or picture that, he crafted the energy in such a way that you truly were where he took you and he took us to amazing heights of new awareness and recognition of ourselves as a part of the changes now. We have been observers of our lives for such a long time and now we are being called to include ourselves in what we are experiencing.

There are seven CD's, which include three absolutely amazing meditations, in this powerful, uplifting guidance for where we are going—"into a future that has nothing to do with any past we have even known."- St. Germain

We have CD's of St. Germain's "My Story" available for $40. At some point in time in the future we hope create a video, but we had a corrupt file and nothing could be done about our DVD.

ASTROLOGY NEW MOON

The challenge of the November New Moon on the 9th is about the choices that we make. We find ourselves at the Y in the road and we can no longer ride with a foot in two chariots. These are powerful times of spiritual evolution. Scorpio always deals with our depths and our heights and the square to Neptune at the New Moon just increases our connections from both perspectives. It is time to find that centering place within (the safe place) and become familiar with it—how it serves you, why it is so important now and how to listen in the stillness within that the world does not allow. At this time we are moving further into the future that has nothing to do with any past we have ever known.

The human ego always wants to deal with life by control and power over. The soul deals with life in love that allows us to move through each situation rather than rolling over it. This New Moon assists us to pay more attention to our intuition and to feel the energy of what is going on in our life so that we can change the direction of negative outcomes and feel the divinely appropriate way to deal with each individual situation. The old way was "This is how I have always done things or done this particular thing and this is how I always will". As the energies of the planet shift each situation is new and requires to be attended to as though it is important. You are important and so are the affairs of your life and the people in your life.

Many of the tests at this time will be about letting go of things in your life that no longer serve you—job, relationship, friendships that you have outgrown, religious beliefs that have not been examined in a long time, even political stands that are antiquated.

This is a time to begin to understand that letting go is not inherently painful. It is the holding on that truly causes the pain.

Questions of this time: What is stagnant in your life? What is in a process of transformation? What is waiting in the wings to be accepted that you have asked for and crafted you life to move in that direction? Now the desire is waiting to be brought into fruition by your willingness to receive it.

Ceres, Goddess Mother, sits opposite this New Moon. Ceres relates to the abundance and fulfillment of Taurus. This opposition offers lessons in objectivity and the wise use of power.

Where ever Aquarius sits in your chart, the energy of Neptune will be affecting the opposite house in this T-square of New Moon, Neptune and Ceres. This creates a crisis of conscious awareness that brings a shift in our perceptions of time and space. We are now called to acknowledge the oneness of all things. This goes far beyond the lip-service of the past. This requires living TRUE.

Mars in Cancer, co-ruler of Scorpio, is in a grand trine with the New Moon and Uranus in Pisces. This trine in water stirs the emotions and can bring greater levels of compassion and courage on the high side. The baser aspects are selfishness, a lack of faith and paranoia. Every 26 months Mars turns retrograde. This retrograde begins on November 15th and will double Mars time in Cancer, Putting extra emphasis on healing conflicts within the family and at home whether it is your house, your community or your country. Since Mars is the lower octave of Pluto the focus on healing the past is vital. This is a good time to eliminate those addictions which negatively influence your health—mentally, emotionally and physically. Check out your environment—both emotionally and physically. The influence of this retrograde will be felt until Mars fully returns to where it went retrograde. Therefore, we will be under the shadow of Mars retrograde until April 4, 2008.

The very nature of Scorpio deals with power. The two most obvious points of power struggle are religion and politics. The churches are working harder than ever to prevent an awareness of personal power. They claim that it is evil and self-serving to recognize our at-one-ment with God/Goddess/All that is. Ego always seeks to deal with life by power over. Soul deals with life by moving through the situation with compassion. We are extremely aware of the power games of the political arena now. It really does not matter what country you are in, there are aspects of the changing times everywhere on the planet. Pluto, higher octave of Mars brings attention to the alchemical process that is now influencing the soul's progress. Take extra quiet time now for meditation, contemplation and just considering what your dreams truly are.

Christopher Reeves said: "At first dreams seem impossible, then improbable, then inevitable."

Full Moon

My how time flies! Here we are to November 24 and another SuperMoon. The dramatic changes that are bought about in the climate and the energy of the earth are also affecting the inside of us. If we dealt with Scorpio's shadow then we are now prepared to take a quantum leap forward.

Sagittarius focuses on higher mind and expanded awareness. Jupiter, the ruler of Sagittarius, is called the home of the Masters and we are being shown in no uncertain terms that we are truly Masters, one with the Divine by our very creation. Everyone is beginning lead to discover their own Truth at this time. The important point to remember is that Truth is not debatable. The Truth stands clear and pure like a beacon. Each Soul perceives the beacon in a different way, but it is not the difference that is now important, it isn't that the unity of the light. It isn't that we all must agree on the same thing, but that we all love and respect what the others see. There are those people who will only allow themselves to see chaos and will never see the dream, even though it exists right where they are. There are those who believe that life is a nightmare and no one can convince them differently.

As you allow yourself to live the dream it does not mean that you will not see the chaos or the nightmare, but it does mean that you will have to live it. As you live the dream, the new world, you develop compassion for the ones who will not allow themselves to live beyond a certain limit. There are many who believe that living the dream means that you are no longer aware of the suffering of others. The truth is that the higher we move into the estate of remembering who we are, the clearer we see all things, but we observe them without the judgments of limitation.

Uranus, the mythic God of Chaos, stations direct just hours before the peak of the Full Moon. Uranian energies can be hard on the physical body and the electricity of this Full Moon can have the effect of too much stimulation. It would, perhaps, be a good idea to drink less coffee or stimulants during the time of this Full Moon. Uranus represents innovation and therefore it would be wise to direct the energies of this time to creative resources.

Shortly after the Full Moon Mercury, lower octave of Uranus, squares Neptune, accelerating our ability to envision new ways of being and assisting our connection with those of similar understanding.

The strength of our unconscious energies is being molded and directed by higher power now. We must be willing to surrender our limited vision of the new becoming so that we can be shown what really awaits us.

The new world is not a revised version of the old one. The new world is a new creation that will come from the alchemy of spiritual understanding. It isn't about anyone losing because the essence of the new world is equality. The ego will feel safe and therefore the conflicts of this illusion will not exist.

THE CRYSTAL CORNER

In our world today, many of us are looking for creative pastimes to re-energize ourselves from dealing with the chaos that many are experiencing. Many people take up writing or art or sculpting and thoroughly enjoy the creation that eases their minds and reduces their stress. There are two main stones that can facilitate that creativity.

Crazy Lace Agate is associated closely with the craftsman, the weaver, the potter and those who create things from the materials of the earth in a very grounded and what some may call a very primitive way. If worn between the thymus and heart chakras, one would remember the delight of the practice of being a craftsman. It would remind the soul to the joy of the outcome of the art, the creation. Many are being called from their inner selves to return to being the creative entity and to not be involved with a large group of people. There is a great fear in many that if there are too many craftsmen, they will not survive. This stone assists the clear understanding that there is none other such as thee.

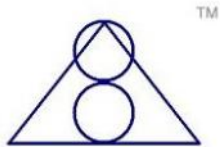

The second stone is Picasso Marble. Each one who looks upon this stone would do well to draw his own interpretations. It is not a stone that lends itself to be named for any one thing. It is amazing. It is almost as though how it is designed assists one to sit with it and draw their own story. You can draw upon the stories of another as they are interconnected with you. The simple challenge is to not get caught up in any of the stories. It may be used by the writer, the artisan, the poet, the musician and the painter. It is called Picasso because of its patterns but it is indeed a stone that inspires artistic creativity.

So, the next time you get the urge to spend some quiet time creating, remember the stones that will assist you in remembering the sheer joy of that creation.

Have a wonderful holiday season and don't forget to purchase those unique stone gifts for those who love them. And, don't forget yourself! My website is www.eternal-ce.com and you may call me at 800-757-8478. I look forward to hearing from you!

BIOGENESIS

BioGenesis® - Modern Tools,
Eternal Technology™

By Delores DeVore;
ddevore@mindspring.com

"We speak of regeneration of the most basic element within each individual—the Light of Creation. As this Light returns to the lives on Earth, all things are made possible." --Ascended Master Lantos

It was only a few months ago that I learned about the BioGenesis Tools - Tools for Expansion. I have found these tools to be exceptional in their ability to allow us to heal and restore harmony and balance to our environment.

Each month I will discuss a couple of different tools, so that you can begin to understand how they work and how you can use them for your benefit.

This month are two tools that will help protect you and help you fill-in energy where there is a void (ie cash).

Shield of Genesis

The Shield of Genesis helps bring protection from negativity and disease. The Shield of The Shield of Genesis comes in two sizes: large and small. Genesis acts as your "bodyguard."

The large Shield should be used by all adults, while the small Shield should be used by children who have not yet begun to drive cars, and by elderly persons who have retired from day-to-day obligations (including driving cars).

What Lantos Has Said About the Shield of Genesis:

Let us discuss now the Shield. The birth of creation is expressed through the cycles of initial rotation--the sequence of initial transformations. Having completed the cycles of primary rotation, the operator, or shall we say the Creator, enters into this vibrant arena, newly created, self-radiant. Upon entering the creation, the Creator breaths a sigh of fulfillment--ah, it is done. Through the breath of the Creator a shield is generated, encasing this precious creation in a nearly transparent bubble-like form. It is of this Shield we now speak. It is the Shield of Genesis, the Shield of Creation. It is born of the expression of fulfillment of the mighty all-seeing Creator, the Lord of the Universe, the Master of all things. The Shield is the expression of the all-powerful nature of fulfillment. The Shield is the final stage of the initial sequence of creation. The Shield represents completion, totality."

How to use the Shield of Genesis:

For protection: Simply wear the Shield of Genesis, or keep it in a pocket.

For added protection against negativity and disease: Use the following method involving the Shield of Genesis and the Flame of Genesis.

First, hold the Shield of Genesis two or three inches above the head. Next, take the Flame of Genesis and direct it through the Shield towards the head. Slowly move down the front of the body with the Flame directed through the Shield until you reach the ground. This only takes a few seconds. Now, repeat this process, starting above the head and slowly traveling down the right side of the body to the ground. Then repeat for the left side and for the back. (If you are doing this method on yourself, when it comes time to repeat this process for your back side, simply say "Back!" and proceed down your front.) You may also do this procedure on photographs of persons.

Wand of Genesis

The Wand of Genesis redirects currents of energy and removes voids of energy, whether they are in a person or in one's environment. Voids of energy act as physical roadblocks to all that is guided by the currents of energy. If you are trying to accomplish a task, and yet it seems that you keep running into roadblocks, try using the Wand to clear the path.

What Lantos Has Said About the Wand of Genesis:

"All that is guided by the currents of energy--the principle of motion--all such activities will be strengthened. Let us take the principle of wealth. Wealth arises out of the flow of energy currents moving through the physical plane. Let these currents be directed towards the home, towards the land. We remove the obstacles; we remove the detours. Your home, your land, will either serve to support the accumulation of wealth, or it will offer resistance to this Mighty and Dynamic Sepulcher of Life. We must set the conditions for support. All areas of life must receive support--this is our desire for you.

"Now, take this Wand and place it inside or outside, wherever there is a void. If it is outside, put it in the Earth--do not let it be exposed. If it is inside, keep it hidden from view. You will see greatest results when the Wand is placed into a void of energy, the spot where the streams of energy avoid. Walk around the house; you will notice these points of vacancy."

How to Use the Wand of Genesis

When using in the environment to clear roadblocks to success: If you are trying to accomplish a goal or task, and seem to keep running into roadblocks, place the Wand of Genesis in an area that may represent the goal. For example, if you are trying to get a new job, place the Wand in a file or drawer in which you store your job hunt information--job listings, résumés, etc. If you are a business trying to increase sales, place the Wand in your cash register drawer or in your receivables file. If you are trying to sell or rent your home or office, hide the Wand in a front room (e.g., place it in a drawer or behind books in a bookshelf).

When using in the environment to strengthen support: Place the Wand in an area of relevance. You may bury the Wand at the entrance to your home or office. You may place the Wand on a picture of a person who needs support.

When using in a BioGenesis Session: The Wand is the final BioGenesis Tool to be used in a BioGenesis Session. Use it after you have completed using the Flame of Genesis. Wave the Wand of Genesis around the person's body; use a brushing motion around his/her body. At the very end of the session, let the person hold the Wand of Genesis in his/her hands for a short period of time (usually about 20-30 seconds).
