Spring Intensive

St. Germain will be offering an Intensive "Living the Virtues Brings an Elegant and Powerful Life". May 25, 26, 27, 2018. St. Germain will continue the theme for this year of how the Virtues enhance and bring new magick into our daily lives and affairs to enrich our growth and allow us to discover much more about how the inner world and the outer world are blending.

There are many worlds and the Illusion has prevented these worlds from being known to one another. The fear of other people who are different, has simply been expanded to a fear of any and all things that seem different. This has held humanity in a form of stasis which is now beginning to melt away in the Love that is returning to the Earth. Not the conditional love of only caring for or attending to those that we know, but the Love without a condition that allows us to receive great benefits from interdependence with all of humanity.

This Intensive will be held here in the beautiful mountains of central, western Wyoming, not too far from Table Mountain, WY which is one of St. Germain's special places in the world. This area is filled with sacred vortexes and is a wonderful place to feel the magik, both ancient and now. We invite you to join us in this amazing opportunity to remember the magik and rediscover yourself.

We invite you to join us in person. Call or email Molly for more information.

CDs and mp3s will be available.

The February group is presented by the Goddesses Isis, Artemes and Kwan Yin. The Divine Feminine Influence on the Earth. We are seeing evidence of the emergence of the Goddess energy everywhere. The patriarchy views this as the loss of masculine power. The Goddess is stepping into her role of balance of her Divine counterpart. This is not a power struggle between genders, but a movement to a much more harmonious state of being. This opening to new levels of compassion, calls for forgiveness of women for themselves and forgiveness of how men have been allowed to move through life believing that they deserved to dominate the Earth and all of her people. This shift to a gentler, kinder, more heart-opened way of being for all is bringing disruption everywhere as these changes are coming from the Soul center outward rather than being generated by the intellectual point of distancing from the issues. Each person is beginning to feel the necessity to be different. The challenge is that these changes cannot be planned, controlled or ignored. The group will be February 11, 2018 at 2 pm MST.

CD's can be purchased on the website at Click Here for 2018 Groups

St. Germain continues addressing the Virtues this month by discussing "Courage, Wisdom and Vision" as a triune of positive approach to daily living. Courage is a support system that is beginning to show up more and more as a feeling of solidarity within self. Having the ability to connect with the Wisdom of the Ancients that lies deep within can inspire new Vision and assist all of us to discover what we have truly come to accomplish in this journey. 2018 is bringing a whole new frequency of self-acceptance that can show us how to feel our power, challenges and creative abilities in completely new ways. For so long we have been limited and restricted by the games of EGO. Now it is time to honor who we are and just how capable we were created to be. The forgiveness of jealousy, fear and all of the things that "Bullies" use to diminish others frees us to live our live in an elegant new style.

The call-in for the Teaching is on the second Wednesday evening of each month at 7 pm MT.

Our call-ins for the Q&A are on the fourth Wednesday evening each month at 7 pm MST.

The call-ins allow you to join in to hear the teaching and ask questions at the Q&A.

If you haven't had the experience of the Teachings that St. Germain is offering this year they really help us to understand what is going on. It just might be worth your while to check them out. The deep healing power of the Master is there to experience again and again as you listen to the awesome wisdom that he brings. CDs are $15 for each set—Teachings or Q&A. It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month. Postage and handling are separate.

ASTROLOGY

AQUARIUS SOLAR ECLIPSE—February 15

Aquarius is the Visionary that sees beyond what the world is willing or able to see. It rises above the present situation and see a higher perspective that envisions radical new possibilities that have been considered impossible until now. The Water-Bearer is co-ruled by revolutionary Uranus, planet of the higher mind and Saturn, planet of mastery and manifestation. Aquarius represents the mental blueprint or template for physical manifestation, and the power of our higher minds to change the nature of reality.

As a partial eclipse, this Aquarian New Moon presents a potent opportunity to transform our thinking and renew our own visionary powers. Marianne Williamson's Course in Miracles, tells us that "A miracle is a shift of perspective from fear to Love." It is our own ability to make choices that directs our attention—we choose how life will be by what we are looking for and all that we are willing to allow. This Aquarius eclipse calls us into greater awareness of how we are using our energies so that we can make wise choices about where we desire our lives to go. We can gain clarity about the direction we are taking and what blocks our ability to gain what we desire.

A Solar eclipse, especially when it is connected to the South Node, requires that we let go of something in order to make room for the new we are seeking. The New Moon's square to Jupiter in Scorpio reemphasizes the "let go to grow" element for everyone. What ever we are defending strongly, wherever we are the most "fixed" is where a lightning bolt of awareness can shatter our old attachments and break us free.

Mercury is also “eclipsed” at this New Moon with a close connection to both Sun and Moon by degree and declination. This is a time for allowing a restful descent into intercommunication with self. A little mental R&R can help us to receive information that has been put on hold by the constant chatter of the mind. Mercury’s present sextile to Uranus opens a line of communication between lower and higher self. We can safely step out of the problems of the moment and into a place of inner witness of thoughts and reactions. From this different perspective we can spot new ways of approaching the old issues with a fresh new view.

The asteroid Juno, Goddess of Marriage, is also conjunct this New Moon. We are being steadily drawn to consider relationships from a totally new perspective. Old ideas about what a relationship is and how to approach it are changing dynamically. Are we holding ourselves or our partner to unattainable standards of perfection. Are we willing to let go of outmoded standards of relating and find new ways of enjoying our own unique partnerships? Is the need to be right blinding us from the increasing flow of Love that can open the heart and change the vision? Juno carried jealousy, anger and revenge against the women that Jupiter seduced or raped. This eclipse asks us to begin the healing of old wounds of betrayal and clear patterns of jealousy through the south Node—the path to the North Node in Leo, the way of the heart.

The sextile between Uranus and this New Moon underscores the Aquarian energy of quickening. Further supporting this accelerated momentum, the major planets, with exception of Ceres are all in direct motion. This provides a window of opportunity to make accelerated progress in any area that is most important at this time. The retrograde movement of Jupiter on March 8th slows the momentum and at least partially closes the window. This New Moon in Aquarius marks the beginning of the Chinese New Year, the Year of the Dog. This next year favors new business ventures and major changes in life style. Loyalty, generosity and selflessness are rewarded.

The power generated by the Moon cycles so far in 2018 is motivating the evolutionary process of humanity in such a way that there, literally, is no turning back. We are moving forward so rapidly that the EGO cannot recover, in order to attempt to stop or delay changes. Confusion and chaos are distractions, but the underlying progress of the cosmos is an exceptional point of expansion and overcoming the old patterns that have limited human evolution.

QUOTES FOR THE MONTH from St. Germain

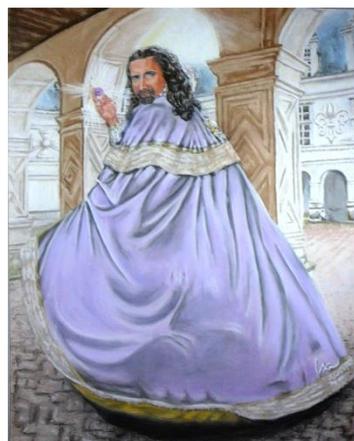

Your power lies within. You are a child of the Stars. The connection to the Divine is a guiding Light and the Soul will show you a way that has waited for life times. Be open, join us in harmony and we will move forward in Love.

Dreamers have always been important and necessary in every time, throughout time. Map makers and way showers have held the compass for the unfolding future. Feel into the depths of your true self and awaken the gifts and talents that are yours for the new becoming.

Revelation is shining a light on the old, useless and unnecessary. The heart and Soul rejoice. The mind wants to rebel and yet something deep within calls, “Keep seeking, keep listening within, keep the Faith in Love”.

Coming Home is about you. You are the wanderer. You are the one who has sought to find the answers “out there”. As you find the inner Way, the Spirit of Love reveals the answers that have always been inside and the road that brings you Home.

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Dearly Beloved, Masters, many of you are experiencing shifts and changes that are bringing you more in touch with your own personal, intuitive self. People are having visions, feeling more synchronicity, experiencing new levels of awareness of what is going on with other people, new clarity in personal and/or business situations, deeper feelings that touch into places that you may not have even been aware existed within you; more compassion, kindness, softness and open mindedness than ever before. Some are suddenly finding that the way they have come to life all along changes radically, often, without any warning. It is almost as though in the midst of fear or anger, a gentle touch (not physical) opens an inner door and the whole situation looks and feels different. Rather than viewing others with judgment and a sense of suspicion or feelings of being mistreated, those who seemed to be enemies clearly became trustworthy, friendly, supportive in the blink of an eye, as though you had stepped from one energetic room to another without realizing that change had happened.

Many are feeling more in touch generally in their life. The ability to consider self as beautiful, valuable, worthy, capable, a winner, a creator, an artist, talented in every way that empowers the life. No longer finding it necessary to put down someone else to elevate self. No need to compete in order to feel effective in life. The dawning that, as you challenge yourself to be better, the focus for self-improvement becomes so intriguing, that you forget the need to use someone else's faults or limits as a point to measure your own success. The discovery that when you measure against a standard that you believe is lower than your own, you begin to diminish your own level of excellence. Spirit can assist you to raise the bar on your own willingness to exceed what you have done in the past. When becoming more of the Divine Creator that you are is the vision that you follow, you naturally begin to empower your own accomplishments, rather than donating so much of your precious energy to a war with someone else. The more you discover appreciation for your own creations, the easier it becomes to admire the products of the imagination of others. Interdependence comes when the barriers of fear and judgment are removed. Doubt dissolves in the warmth of mutual admiration. Having the courage to admit that other people's abilities are equal in worth and value, even though they are totally unique to the individual, can provide a sense of warm-hearted involvement, rather than keeping a distance because of fear or personal doubt.

The 11/2 essence of 2018 directs attention to blending of energies, making of new and different relationships, based on foundations of unity rather than the complexities of holding oneself apart from sharing intimately with others. Revelation is clearing away the masks and facades that have, over time, turned life into a masquerade of loneliness rather than a bonding of equals enjoying the company of each other. As you first embrace the recognition of who and what you are, you can much more easily accept the blending of spirit into the life that you are living. God is not a parent who wishes to control the lives of Earth's people. The Divine Creator holds intentions for all to seek and find the highest and best for themselves. Since each person has an idea of their own standards, the highest and best is going to be very different for each individual. Letting go of the need to compare your life with the lives of others in a negative way and allowing yourself to learn from their choices the direction that you desire to go, expands the opportunities for your personal journey in life. The EGO pushes attention to the things "I would not do". So, if you would not do things the way that others would, "How would you create your life?" So much power is given away to the judgments of what others are doing, so that when it comes time to design your way and your direction there doesn't seem to be enough energy to move forward.

We, the Masters, are seeking to assist humanity as a whole to remember the Love that created you in the beginning. There has been much of those members pushed aside in the time of the Illusion, where Spirit was made to appear as though it was something apart from natural life. The Revolution is bringing those memories forward so that more and more people are feeling the internal shift to greater compassion, deeper Love and clearer awareness of who you are from the inside, rather than just the influence of the ideas and opinions of others. Confusion and chaos are clouding the changes, but the truth of all times is moving forward to support, balance and bring a powerful sense of self-value as you are willing to accept and allow it. This sense of recognition of the magnificence and wonder of how you were created in the beginning requires no measure against others. It does not need a sense of superiority or power over. This remembrance is filled with a feeling of security because it is real rather than dependent on someone or something outside of self. At the same time, it is not about isolation from others or defensiveness against the thoughts, ideas and plans that are being circulated around over the planet. Feeling comfortable in your own skin is not a conspiracy theory, but a reality that is returning to the collective consciousness through the Revelation. The safer you feel within, the greater safety you create and live in without. The EGO has created and harbored a lot of fear, suspicion and mistrust over time and it is our sincere desire that these old ways of being can begin to dissolve in the Spirit waters of the New Age. Unity, harmony and interdependence are not impossibilities for humanity. In fact, more and more people are beginning to discover that when the desire is strong and based on the highest good of all concerned, nothing is impossible. The highest good of all concerned includes, simply because if you do not understand how to care for yourself you cannot really get clear about how to care for others. To desire the highest good is not some intellectual choice based on personal preference that requires harm for another group or individual. That has been the EGO's "easy way out" in the Illusion. If someone bothers you or you do not like how they live or make choices, then killing them "solves the problem". What the EGO has left out of the equation is that, eventually, there must be balance and as the New Age is moving in Karma is bringing the necessary balance in each and every life on the planet. The reason there is a fear of karma is that karma does not weigh how much money someone has, how good they look or how good they appear to be. Karma simply looks at the scales of deeds and intentions and makes adjustments. There is no court to sway with smooth talk or the pay-off under the table. Karma was created before humanity was, so karma has no prejudice against any group or idea. Karma is neutral, just like real power. Power is neither negative or positive. It is influenced by the thoughts of the individual, which are the basis of the use of personal power.

We will continue to assure that the use of power is being progressively shifted by the refinement of frequency as the old orders energies and influences phase out. Many on the planet are clinging to the old ways of using energy and it will, progressively, dawn on them that the more one attempts to take power away from other, the more power it will take to get someone else's power. In fact, the power games on the planet are becoming progressively more and more expensive to those who have used others as a power supply to fund their own lack of energetic resources. The Revelation is reminding all that the True Source of Power comes from the Divine, the connection to the God Self within. Faith is a fact and when it is tested clearly it does not fail. The EGO always wants immediate results because it has moved the mind so far away from the natural flow of nature that it believes that it can manipulate and control how nature operates. The mind fears being controlled, yet people will be very quick to seek to find a way to control others. The mind has been educated to point fingers and lay blame at the door of others. One of the biggest lessons to be learned in these times is, "THEY ARE ALL YOU, NO MATTER WHAT". If you dislike what others are doing or if you approve it all reflection of parts of self. No one can "cast the first stone" without calling it to return to self. Divine Law has been slowed down by the effects of the Illusion. God has been viewed as a doting father who will destroy the enemies of His favorite children. The God created in the "image and likeness of man" has been one of the biggest lies of the Illusion. LOVE WITHOUT A CONDITION, MAKES NO CONDITIONS. ALL WERE CREATED EQUAL AND NONE ARE CONSIDERED GREATER OR MORE SPECIAL. YET ALL ARE KNOWN FOR THEIR OWN WONDEROUS UNIQUENESS.

Superiority is an EGO game, along with the shame and guilt of inferiority. The EGO struts and preens on the stage of life. Those who are seeking to remember who they truly are will find a different path within to the Soul center that is a link to the Divine that no other being can tamper with. The Divine does not hold humanity ransom. The political power games, the idea that war protects anyone, the fact that the United States is watching all that it has given to create a great country being taken away right before their eyes and no one knows how to fight it, because the time of fighting is disintegrating and the time of making changes based on collective unity is moving in. Rather than seven billion opinions, it is to forgive the need to be right and begin to consider the good of all rather than just me and mine. All a part of the collective whole and when one suffers, at some level the whole feels it and that will continue to increase. The minds want to find a way to stop the intuitive connection of the whole, but these changes operate in a different dynamic and are not subject to physical laws. As each individual begins to realize that Love and kindness are not a giveaway of power, but blended with wisdom, clarity and integrity there is amazing strength that rises up over the old limitations.

We are in joy with the changes that we are seeing. The EGO wants explosions of change and the "WOW!" factor, but we are delighted with the dimensions of shift that are occurring moment by moment. We support you and uplift you. We cannot force anyone to accept that we are here or that we care, but as you open your mind and heart, you will discover the Soul connection that belongs to you. Prayer is a stilling of the mind. As you are quiet within, you will hear the whispers of Spirit. The EGO says, "Why doesn't Spirit just speak up?" Because when you get still the Voice is clear within (not in your head, but in your center) and when you are shouting (internally or externally) you are not in a place to listen to anything. We continue to be available at all times. There are plenty of Masters to assist any and all who desire support and clarity. I remain your most humble servant. I AM the Lord St. Germain
