Fall Intensive

Our Fall Intensive is "Discover how to find the New Human within You". As the Revelation is moving quicker, we are all experiencing changes that both amazing and disturb us. St. Germain defines the direction that this evolution is taking us and how it is redirecting the way that the planet has functioned for lifetimes. Every aspect of life on the planet is being touched by these changes. No one can sit by and think about whether they will change. If we are on the planet we have agreed to make the shifts or be shifted.

The chaos of the times is a manifestation of the EGO minds confusion. When there is confusion around any situation it simply means that we are trying too hard to make something happen or trying to figure things out from a logical point of view, rather than allowing our intuition and spiritual flow to guide the process. St. Germain brings clarity and understanding to help us move through these changes with peace and ease.

The Intensive will be held here in the beautiful foothills of the Wind River Mountains on November 9, 10 and 11. The cost is $350 for the three-day event. We would love to have you join us and experience the amazing energy of St. Germain in the powerful essence of the Lander Valley.

For information on accommodations, travel and other things of importance call or email Molly at 307 335-8113 or mollyrowland22@gmail.com. We invite you to join us in person.

CDs and mp3s will be available.

The October group is "Forgive Avoiding Your Inner Self for the Sake of the World's Drama". What is going on "out there" in the world can be fascinating, worrisome and distracting. Keeping you focus on how you are being swayed by that outer drama is imperative for you personally. Are you aware of what you are creating when you react to the actions, thoughts and deeds of others? Are you aware of how much personal power you are giving away to the opinions of others? How would you like your world to be? Then it is to begin to make a conscious effort to hold the desire for a world that pleases you. IT BEGINS INSIDE OF YOU! Telling others what they must do simply creates more contention. Paying attention to your own creativity recreates your world to something new and wonderful.

The group is at 2 pm on Sunday, October 21, 2018.

CD's and mp3s can be purchased on the website at Click Here for 2018 Groups

The October Teaching is "The Virtue of Power is a Blessing." Humans both desire and fear power. The power of the war constructed by the finite mind almost always carries a price. Therefore, the belief that power can be painful and costly is in the collective consciousness. Power from within, personal power of Love is priceless. How power is used is the most important value. To manipulate or control with fear and intimidation always returns to the sender with thrice-fold negativity, while power in Love is sustaining and fulfilling, thrice-fold.

The call-in for the Teaching is on the second Wednesday evening of each month at 7 pm MT.

Our call-ins for the Q&A are on the fourth Wednesday evening each month at 7 pm MST.

Feel the healing power of the Masters word in the Teachings each month. The Love, compassion and clarity are uplifting and informative. The depth of connection to the Divine within you is awakened each time.

CDs are $15 for each set—Teachings or Q&A. It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month. Postage and handling are separate.

ASTROLOGY

NEW MOON-OCTOBER 8-9

In these times where relationships of all kinds are in the spotlight, this New Moon in Libra calls for open discussion, honesty and an open heart, as well as an open mind. The conjunction of this New Moon with the dwarf star Ceres adds an element of nourishment that can cause us to question, "Are the relationships that I consider important nourishing all that are involved?" It is to remember that balance in a relationship is not keeping a tally of chores done or gifts given, but the sincere recognition that everyone has something to share that others might not. No one is so perfect that they can, literally, "do things all by themselves". Willingness to be honest with self and accept that, even though allowing others to help us means change, it can, certainly make things easier for everyone. Letting go of critical judgments that someone else cannot do anything right and considering that when there is constant disdain and little, if any, constructive support most anyone will stop attempting to offer help.

Libra is a cardinal sign in the element of air. Air can clear the space when it is used appropriately. New ideas and ways of being together help relationships to "lighten up". If relationships have gone stagnant, perhaps it is time to move the energy by engaging in mutually enjoyable activities. Pluto in Capricorn squares the Sun, Moon and Ceres. The Earth energy of Capricorn can bring grounding to situations that have been "up in the air" for a while. It may be time to make sure that everyone involved in a project is on the same page so that there is less unnecessary action and more results. When it comes to any project it is to focus on connecting, rather than results alone. Remembering that timing is everything allows a more relaxed approach and takes the control away from the mental realms.

Venus, the Moon's dispositor is in Scorpio, Pluto's sign. This can reveal undercurrents in relationships that require to be addressed. Venus in Scorpio can bring up jealousy and competition that prevents both personal and work-related situations to become battlegrounds. There are always those who will step into the role of leadership in every situation. It is important to remember that the leader cannot succeed within good ideas and strong support. Good relationships set aside the belief that anyone can do everything all by themselves. That attitude creates isolation, domination and discount of others. Personal relationships can become “two heads warring over who runs the relationship”. Venus is in the fixed water sign Scorpio and Mars is square Venus in the fixed air sign Aquarius. Fixed signs can be important for getting things done as long as there is flexibility. However, the determination of fixed signs to take the “my way or the highway” attitude can bring things to a standstill rather than completion. Venus trine to Neptune in Pisces, can add just the measure of flexibility and adaptability to allow things to flow much easier.

One of the main points to consider in all relationships is to put yourself into the equation. The idea that if others are happy, means don't rock the boat. It is necessary to good mental/emotional health that we always make sure that we are included. The EGO can use rejection as a wedge to breakup, otherwise, good relationships. It isn't about blame or who is at fault, but about open communication and willingness to belong. No one can include us if we harbor a belief that we do not fit.

The purpose of this New Moon energy is to help us reveal where we are closed off, noncommunicative or even indifferent, so that we can make our own choices about how we can change. Relationships are mirrors that show us where we require to heal. Any relationship benefits from the willingness of all concerned to carry their own part and let others be equals. Equal is not exact. Nothing is ever so evenly divided all of the time that it is perfect.

FULL MOON-OCTOBER 24

There is an awe-inspiring grandeur in the Full Moon in Taurus, the sign of its exaltation. Taurus relates to security and good living, so as it falls at the harvest time of year it brings a feeling of bounty and opulence. The Moon in Taurus can be content when things feel safe, but the emotions of fear and impoverishment can rise up when there is an upset in the peaceful sense of fulfillment. The ways of obtaining what is required or desired may take on unique or eccentric quirks as this Moon is conjoining Uranus in Taurus. To expect the usual under this aspect, could be quite disarming. The spotlight is on decision making around comfort and protection. The EGO mind always suggests that if you are going to get what you want there is a price to be paid. The idea of sacrifice for the good of the whole can lead to some self-destructive decisions. Surrender is not giving up, but allowing life to go in a different, perhaps unexpected, direction. If there is a consideration of leaving a home, job or relationship for peace of mind, remember that if there is descension in your life, the best place to start finding peace is within self. The idea that leaving or avoiding a situation will make things better is often deceptive. Revelation is showing everyone what is really happening. The tendency of the finite mind to look away is being met with the same patterns showing up everywhere, until the willingness to accept that the Truth is true no matter how badly the pride of EGO attempts to disguise it, is recognized.

The Sun always opposes the Moon when the Moon is Full. In this instance Venus joins the Sun in Scorpio. Envy can be an element that is connected with the shadow side of Scorpio. In this case, the envy may be over appearances, rather than realities. More often than not, how someone or something appears to be is quite different from the actual situation. Envy is the belief that others have a better, more fulfilling life. The healing is the recognition that what others have may not, at all, be what is personally desired, but rather “the grass is always greener in someone else's yard”. The Moon's Nodes sit in early degrees of Leo and Aquarius and square to the Moon/Uranus and Sun/Venus, creating a grand cross. A grand cross always activates a series of lessons, as other planets become involved with the grand cross planets. If this grand cross makes an aspect to a planet or planets in the natal chart, it will set off events that call for choices, reevaluation and changes that will in turn build on the first aspect as that planet touches the next point in the grand square.

Example: Let us say that Mercury is the planet in the chart that this grand cross activates. The Moon/Uranus is the first part of this grand square to conjunct Mercury and things that have not been discussed openly or made clear in a relationship or work project, are suddenly thrown out before everyone. Arguments or hurt feelings can escalate. The next point on the grand cross that is activated is the South node in Aquarius, which is lessons we have already learned, so it isn't to go back over old ground again and again. The next point of the grand cross is the Sun/Venus in Scorpio. We may be called to dig deeper into our reasons and motivations of reacting in certain ways. (Remember that this is about your chart and the way that you are responding to the situation. Others are just mirrors, to help you find the shifts that are required in these times). The final point is the North Node in Leo that indicates the way forward or lessons to be learned now. This may call for more “heart-felt” communication, greater honesty and a willingness to listen as well as be heard.

The opportunity for everyone to benefit is available when there is a clear minded willingness to contribute to the good of self and the whole. The sum total is always greater than any one of its parts, but when each part remembers that what is given is always magnified in return, giving one’s best ensures that all benefit.

The Moon is trine Saturn in Capricorn, which brings a sense of stability to the erratic qualities of Uranus. We are constantly being reminded that “No one can do things all by themselves, nor can they expect others to do everything for them”. There is a necessary balance required. This balance is not something that the finite mind can decide, because that brings the conflict of who has done more or less, who is contributing and who is riding someone shirrtails. The finger pointing reaches epic proportions. This is where the intuitive feelings of the Moon and solid grounding of Saturn, contribute insights that figuring things out cannot. The Mind wants to work quickly and move on to the next thing. The Saturnian quality of this aspect calls for taking the necessary time to get to the bottom of things, rather than breeze across the surface and miss import information that could be skipped over in haste.

Saturn in its own sign calls for dignity and respect. There is plenty of room to step outside of the box with is Moon, but if one is going to color outside of the lines, let it be in joy rather than rebellion. NO ONE HAS THE ONLY WAY TO LIVE OR CREATE A LIFE. Everyone has important contributions to make. Some stand and wait, some want to barrel over everyone else, but all must be considered and that is one of the most valuable changes that these times are calling for.

ALL HALLOWS EVE (SANHAIM)—OCTOBER 31

By the time, Halloween rolls around, five days after the Full Moon, the Moon will be in the sign of Leo, exactly square the previous Full Moon.

Jupiter and Mercury make an out of sign conjunction to heighten communication with the other side of the veil. Jupiter represents the highest aspects of Spirit, so that we can feel the closeness to the realms beyond the veil, easily. Pluto in Capricorn and Neptune in Pisces make a peaceful sextile that enhances the intuition and allows acceptance of things that are beyond the norm.

Uranus in Taurus and Venus in Scorpio continue the grand cross with the Moon’s Nodes to help us make important shifts of consciousness in our values around Love and relationships.

Celebrate this powerful time with a ritual of humble receptivity and joyful allowing that those in higher realms may assist us to learn and grow with their help. The darkness of the mystery is illumined by the light of a Moon that focuses on heart-opening and Love.

QUOTES FOR THE MONTH from St. Germain

Surrender is not the weakness of giving up. It is the strength of making a place in your life for new good. -St. Germain -

You are amazing; you are astounding. No matter how bed it gets; no matter how goods it becomes, you always seek and search for love. No matter how obscured, encumbered or entangled your quest becomes it never ends. No matter how lost you appear to be, you keep searching to be found. It is your nature; it is your grace. Seeking more love comes to you like flight to an eagle. -- Lazaris

The magnitude of the simplicity of Spirit boggles the finite mind. For Spirit is so opposite of the confines of confusion. As Spirit brings balance to the physical world the extremes melt away. — St. Germain

When you feel that you have found all of the answers, God in infinite Love creates new questions. Delight in the inspiration of discovery, always. -- St. Germain

ST. GERMAIN’S MESSAGE

Dearly Beloved Masters, humanity is a divine creation. Humans are the highest order of the animal kingdom. Because the human mind is governed by spirit rather than EGO alone, humans have the ability to discipline their mind and emotions, where most other animals operate on instinctual responses. For eons humanity has been taught to have pride in intellectual abilities and physical prowess, without much attention directed to the human capability of keeping emotions in line through the spiritual ability to remain calm and clear. The further the human being has come into the physical plane the less attention has been focused on appropriate use of the emotional nature. Anger has been considered, by many, as an indicator of power or strength. Fear and deprivation have been used to control the emotions and the EGO emphasizes the possibility of loss in all situations.

As humanity is being directed to an internal wisdom of how humans were created in the beginning, the recognition of feelings as a higher octave of emotions is necessary. Feelings and emotions have been considered interchangeable, because the EGO mind tends to overlook the subtleties of language. In the tendency to ignore the connection between what is going on within and what is happening without humanity has, progressively, allowed the emotions to take over. As Revelation is bringing the remembrance of what is real, out of the clouds of Illusion that people have lived in for so long, the Truth is beginning to shine through the distortions of mental convolution.

How to see clearly without judgment of the mind has been forgotten or distorted, so that it is only a shadow of how God created perception in the beginning. In the tendency to argue over most any subject, to take sides and then defend the choices, human emotions have built to a point of explosive reaction in the changes that are occurring, both within and out in the world. The animal nature has been used as a reason to act like animals, instead of higher-level beings that are now being directed toward expanded consciousness. The life experiences of humanity have been primarily focused on war, conflict, competition and besting others. Spirit is spoken of, but has slipped into the background as the eruption of the emotional nature has taken over. People will continue to be presented with situations that require compassion rather than “who is right”. When the feeling nature is blended with facts in any situation where choices must be or have been made, the introduction of clear reason and wise understanding is most important. Vindictive judgment and the need to destroy the lives of others, without consideration, to further financial or political careers will be in the spotlight again and again, until people can begin to “walk a mile in each person’s shoes”.

Someone who has never been molested may feel that they know exactly how one who has had the experience should feel or act, but when the experience is personal it is no longer a concept or impersonal incident. For many lifetimes there has been a judgment against women for being emotional. If a woman sheds tears, it is called “overly dramatic” or “putting on a show”. Men, on the other hand, have been considered brave, strong and powerful when losing their tempers. It is time for each individual to contemplate from deep within, in all honesty, that each being is different. All people have learned throughout lifetimes to play games, put on facades, present themselves as they want to be seen and then show up differently to achieve diverse purposes. Men have called themselves wise and intelligent in the “GAME”. If women played as well, they have been labeled conniving, devious and other uncomplimentary descriptions. Men who report that a priest molested them thirty years ago, are called brave. A woman who has suffered the humility of molestation for thirty years and finally speaks up is called a liar who is out for vengeance. Equality is not that everyone is exactly alike, but that all are treated with respect and compassion, no matter how they are acting.

Remember the Golden Rule.

Humans have used religion as a mask to hide behind in order to live a different life privately than publicly. Religion is presented as logic-based spirit. Science presents itself as logic without the necessity for spirit. Humanity is a grand blending of both brilliant mind and feeling nature brought together by higher consciousness within each soul-being on Earth. As the deep inner changes of Revelation are taking place it is within the realm of every person on the planet, to accept that nothing is truly separate from anything else. The further one gets from the center of an idea the closer the meeting point of all the concepts are to coming together. Energy flows in an arch. The theory of relativity can demonstrate that “if you run far enough, fast enough, you will run into the back of yourself”. Humanity is on a collision course with itself.

At this time on Earth, humanity is in a crisis of change. The conflicts of differences are everywhere and the planet is reacting to the emotional over-whelm by elemental response. Fire, air, water and earth are all experiencing pressure brought to bear on the whole planet by the fighting that is occurring among people and within people. Crisis causes people to turn to each other. IT IS TIME FOR PEOPLE TO COME TOGETHER IN LOVE, INSTEAD OF ONLY WHEN THERE IS SUFFERING. Volatile emotions are required to be disciplined, rather than poured out into the collective consciousness or turned against self. Discipline is using the higher Mind’s consciousness to transmute, transform and even transcend the warrior nature that has been allowed to dominate human awareness. It is time to be still within. That does not mean “do nothing”. It means listen, quietly within self for divine directive. Spirit does not suggest cruelty, destruction or punishment. Love is not destructive. Creation is blessed and Loved without condition.

The EGO loves a fight because when people are fighting they are disassociated from their true self. The new paradigms, are not devoted to how to fight better, but how to forgive the necessity to fight to get or keep, and realize that when the war stops there is clarity and reason which can clearly resolve issues that the over-heated, EGO mind cannot even begin to comprehend. Mob-mind is a collective of unreasonable emotions. Very often those who would desire to bring sanity to a situation, get swept away in the onslaught of irrational reactions. The willingness to listen to what others have to say, not just to find fault and criticism, but perhaps, to find something that can assist in overcoming the misunderstandings that are always at the bottom of all fights.

IT IS TIME FOR ALL HUMANS TO REMEMBER THAT THEY ARE HUMAN. No one person or group has a corner on humanity. There are those who would seek to deny their humanness and avow that they are above the estate of humanity. This brings us to the next step in evolution. The EGO mind would love to strike fear into the hearts and minds of all on the planet by suggesting that physical life will be taken over and absorbed by machines, that there is no GOD, that Love is a myth, that the end is near. Let I assure you that the life that is better is within your reach, just beyond the veils of disbelief that the Illusion has created.

The next phase of evolution is the blending of Spirit into human form, so that the wonder, brilliance and amazing creative capabilities of the human realms can rise up out of the miasma of disintegration, that the focus on separation has brought. The Earth and her people have only begun to touch what they are capable of creating, being and allowing. It requires letting go of what the Illusion has held to and stepping out on FAITH. Focus on fear and fighting to get what is yours and that is how you will live. Focus on what you desire and the willingness to allow it and you can change your world, right here, right NOW.

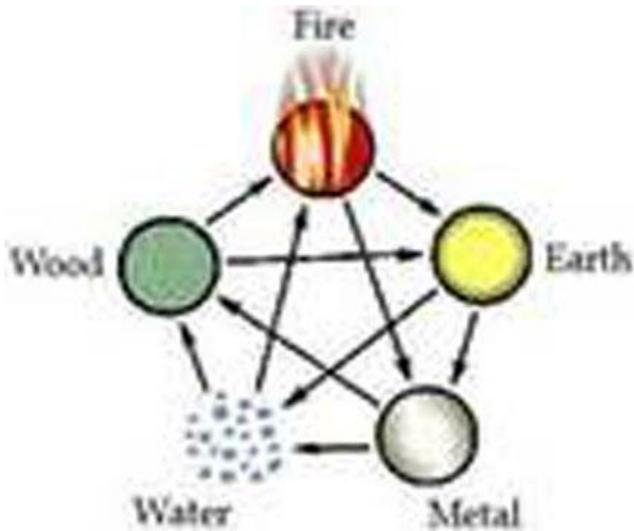

The fighters may continue to cling to limited opinions because they like to fight, but no one will win this time because the wars no longer have the value they once did. Wars are the patriarchal version of war videos. Men who cannot or will not fight sending the young, strong people to die in their stead. Beloved Masters it is time to come out of the trance of refusal to change and be the Master that you are, right where you are. Love is the beacon and Truth is the pathway. Follow your Heart/Soul to remember who you were created to be. In Love, We are with you ALWAYS. I AM your humble servant. I AM the Lord St. Germain.
